Mayor Francis X. Murray
Inc. Village of Rockville Centre

Francis X. Murray is a life-long Rockville Centre resident. He married his eighth grade sweetheart, Barbara and that union (Thanks to Barbara) will celebrate its 42nd anniversary on March 17th , St. Patrick's Day. They are the proud parents of (5) children and grandparents of (3).

Fran is a graduate of St. Agnes Grammar School and Cardinal Farley Military Academy and attended the University of Dayton.

Fran started his professional career working for his Dad, former Mayor Eugene J. Murray. Fran then founded "F. X. Murray Maintenance Co. – Murray Service" and "Black Knight Maintenance Co." He has since turned those businesses over to his sons Fran, Jr. and T.J.

During the last 40 years, Fran has a long record of public service to the Rockville Centre community.

Fran has a long record of public service to the Rockville Centre community in the following ways: an active member of the RVC Fire Department since 1972 including serving as an EMT on Floodlight Rescue Company #1, is a former co-chair of the RVC Environmental and Beautification Committee; former Vice-President RVC Conservancy; former board member to the Friends of Senior Services (FOSSI); is currently President of the RVC Community Fund; former member of Mercy Medical Center's Board of Trustees; former St. Agnes Cathedral School board member; Knight of the Holy Sepulchre; member of the Knights of Columbus; member, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick LI; member RVC Chamber of Commerce; 2009 Grand Marshal of RVC St. Patrick's Parade; two-time chair St. Agnes Parish Celebration; Mercy Medical Center Planning Board member; former president of the Friends of Mercy and Special Advisor to the board as well as serving on the Executive Committee to Nassau County Village Officials Association and New York State Conference of Mayors.

Fran has been recognized for his involvement and was the recipient of: "Theodore Roosevelt Award", given by the Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council; "St. Thomas Aquinas Award" for ongoing support of Catholic Education by St. Agnes Grammar School; UJA (United Jewish Federation of New York for Devoted Service); South Nassau Communities Hospital's Golf Tournament honoree for his commitment and benevolence to residents of the South Shore; The Friends of Mercy Golf Outing Honoree; New York American Public Work's Association of N.Y. State awarded the Mayor the "Franklin D. Roosevelt Award" in recognition of his distinguished leadership and initiative in advancing and improving the environment and quality of life in New York State; New York Conference of Mayors "Local Government Achievement Award" and The Guild for the Arts of Rockville Centre established a high school scholarship award named after Mayor Fran – "Mayor Gene & Fran Murray Scholarship Award for the Arts".

Elected Mayor of Rockville Centre in 2011, Fran brought all his enthusiasm and business sense to Village Hall. His personality and work ethic have energized Village workers and have changed the way business is accomplished in Rockville Centre. He has been project oriented since day one and the results are apparent. His lobbying efforts in Washington DC, Albany and Nassau County, have brought over $10 million dollars to his hometown. Senators, Congressmen our County Executive and the Governor all know him personally. The police and fire departments, electric department, public works, recreation center, senior center, water and ball fields have all seen significant positive changes since he became Mayor.

Nassau County Village Officials Association as well as New York State Conference of Mayors have recognized his talents and value and have appointed him to their executive committees.
