Products

We have numerous software products that we sell, service, support and enhance. We have at least one software product in each of our vertical markets and often develop and support multiple product lines in a particular vertical market. In addition, and as a complement to our acquired and internally developed software products, we license certain technologies used in our software products from third parties, generally on a non-exclusive basis. Our products are typically designed to assist our customers in automating as many aspects of their business processes as is practical. While our strategy is to provide mission critical software solutions to all of our customers, the particular software products that we develop can vary substantially across vertical markets. For example, in the public transit market one of the mission critical aspects of the business that we help automate is the scheduling and routing of vehicles. In the private club market we focus on providing membership accounting and point of sale solutions. Our goal is to continue to focus our efforts on software products specialized for specific vertical markets.

Sales and Distribution Strategy

We use direct sales forces in most of our major markets as our primary distribution channel. We believe that direct sales teams increase our visibility and market penetration, encourage long-term customer contact and facilitate sales of additional products. Our sales and marketing teams work primarily within dedicated sales groups for each of the vertical markets that we currently serve. Our sales and marketing strategy is to provide relevant business expertise directly to target customers by using sales representatives with strong industry specific knowledge. We use a combination of field sales and inside sales where appropriate. Part of our ongoing revenue growth is achieved through selling complementary products and/or services to existing customers. We also support our sales efforts with marketing that creates awareness of our products through appearances at major trade shows, advertising in trade magazines, hosting users' group meetings, and the creation of informative websites.

Research and Development

Our product development strategy combines innovation and the introduction of new technologies, with a commitment to the long-term support of our customers' current systems. Our research and development activities are focused on designing, developing, testing and integrating new add-on products which enhance the features and functionality of our existing software solutions. We also seek to offer streamlined upgrade and migration tools for our customers.

We rely primarily on our in-house capabilities to develop our software solutions using industry standard software development tools. However, when it is not strategic to our business and is more cost effective, we will license certain technology components from third party providers.

Intellectual Property

In accordance with industry practice, we rely on a combination of contractual provisions and patent, copyright, trademark and trade secret laws to protect our proprietary rights in our products. We generally license the use of our products to our customers rather than transferring title to them. These licenses contain terms and conditions prohibiting the unauthorized reproduction, disclosure, reverse engineering or transfer of our products. In addition, we attempt to protect our trade secrets and other proprietary information through agreements with suppliers, employees and consultants. All material components of our products have been developed by individuals most of whom have assigned all rights to us, except for commercially-available components.

Foreign Operations

For fiscal 2024, approximately 45% of our revenues were transacted in the United States, 9% in Canada, 33% in UK/Europe and 13% in the rest of the world. No single customer accounted for more than 2% of our total revenues in fiscal 2024. For more details, see the financial statement note entitled "Operating Segments" included in the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024, a copy of which is filed and is available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.com.

Competition

Competition for the licensing of vertical market software is generally based upon several factors including product features, the availability of high-quality maintenance and support, price and the knowledge of the software vendor's sales team. We operate in many different verticals and our competitive position varies depending on the specific vertical.

Our significant competitors include Oracle Corporation, Tyler Technologies, Inc., INFOR, Cisco Systems Inc, Nokia, Amdocs, Epic Systems Corporation, Temenos AG, Palantir Technologies, CGI Group Inc., Salesforce, Inc., Fiserv, Inc., Fidelity, DXC Technology Company, Indeed Inc., Logibec Groupe Informatique, Thomson Reuters Corporation, Microsoft Corporation, Jack Henry and Associates Inc., Sage Software Inc., Accenture plc, Experian plc, Intuit, Roper Technologies, Inc., Toast, Inc., Ericsson, Dassault Systems, OpenText Corporation, and athenahealth Inc.

Employees

For fiscal 2024, we had an average of approximately 60,000 full-time employees globally. As at December 31, 2024, we had approximately 64,000 full-time employees.

Risk Factors

The Company's business is subject to a number of risk factors, including those risk factors set forth below. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently consider immaterial may also impair our business and operations and cause the price of our securities to decline. The Company's external counsel advise us that securities regulations require that we provide a list of risk factors which might influence an investor's decision to purchase CSI's securities. As managers and directors, we do not believe that the next several pages of risk factors will add materially to your understanding of our business, but they are in form and substance, similar to what other companies like CSI provide. They do include quite a number of possible, though not necessarily probable, reasons for future setbacks.

We cannot assure you that we will sustain profitability in the future. If we do not maintain profits our share price may decline.

As we continue to grow our business, our operating expenses and capital expenditures may increase, and as a result, we will need to generate additional revenue to maintain profitability. If our revenues decline, we may not be able to sustain profitability because many of our expenses are fixed in the short term and cannot be easily or quickly reduced. A failure to maintain profitability could materially and adversely affect our business.

We periodically review the estimated value of acquired intangibles and goodwill to determine whether any impairment exists and we could write-down a portion of our intangible assets and goodwill as part of any such future review, which occurs when impairment indicators exist or, in the case of goodwill, at least once annually. We occasionally review opportunities to reorganize operations and may record restructuring charges in connection with any such reorganization. Any write-down of intangible assets or goodwill or restructuring charges in the future could affect our results of operations materially and adversely and as a result our share price may decline.

Our quarterly revenues and operating results may fluctuate.

Factors which may cause our revenues and operating results to fluctuate include:

- the demand for our software products and the market conditions for technology spending;
- patterns of capital spending and changes in budgeting cycles by our customers;
- the timing of acquisitions and related costs;
- our ability to acquire or develop (independently or through strategic relationships with third parties), to introduce and to market new and enhanced versions of our software products on a timely basis;
- the number, timing and significance of new software product announcements and releases by us or our competitors;
- the level of software product and price competition;
- the geographical mix of our sales, together with fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates;
- market acceptance of new and enhanced versions of our software products;
- changes in personnel and related costs;
- the amount and timing of operating costs and capital expenditures relating to the expansion of our business;
- changes in the pricing and the mix of software solutions that we sell and that our customers demand;
- seasonal variations in our sales cycles; and
- order cancellations and shipment delays.

In addition, we expect that a substantial portion of our revenue will continue to be derived from renewals of maintenance arrangements with our customers. These maintenance arrangements typically last from three months to 12 months, and the timing of cash collections of related revenues varies from quarter to quarter.

In addition, our new license revenue may fluctuate significantly on a quarterly and annual basis in the future, as a result of a number of factors, many of which are outside of our control. The sale of a new license generally requires a customer to make a purchase decision that involves a significant commitment of capital.

We may be unable to identify and complete suitable platform acquisitions and acquisitions in our existing vertical markets.

We cannot be certain that we will be able to identify suitable new acquisition candidates that are available for purchase at reasonable prices. Even if we are able to identify such candidates, we may be unable to consummate an acquisition on suitable terms. When evaluating an acquisition opportunity, we cannot assure you that we will correctly identify the risks and costs inherent in the business that we are acquiring. If we were to proceed with one or more significant future acquisitions in which the consideration consisted of cash, a substantial portion of our available cash resources may be used or we may have to seek additional financing to complete such acquisitions.

Any failure to manage our growth through acquisitions effectively or integrate other businesses we acquire may lead to a disruption in our operations and adversely affect our operating results.

Since our inception we have made hundreds of acquisitions and we plan to continue to make acquisitions in the future. Growth and expansion resulting from future acquisitions may place a significant demand on our management resources. Integration of our completed acquisitions and any future acquisitions involves a number of special risks, including the following:

- failure to integrate successfully the personnel, information systems, technology, and operations of the acquired business;
- failure to maximize the potential financial and strategic benefits of the transaction;
- failure to realize the expected synergies from acquired businesses;
- possible impairment of relationships with employees and customers as a result of any integration of new businesses and management personnel;
- possible losses from liabilities assumed in customer contracts;
- impairment of goodwill; and
- reductions in future operating results from amortization of intangible assets.

Future acquisitions are accompanied by the risk that the obligations and liabilities of an acquired company may not be adequately reflected in the historical financial statements of such company and the risk that such historical financial statements may be based on assumptions, which are incorrect or inconsistent with our assumptions or approach to accounting policies. We may not be able to manage such expansion effectively and any failure to do so could lead to a disruption in our business, a loss of customers and revenue, and increased expenses.

We may acquire contingent liabilities through acquisitions that could adversely affect our operating results.

We may acquire contingent liabilities in connection with acquisitions we have completed, which may be material. Although management uses its best efforts to estimate the risks associated with these contingent liabilities and the likelihood that they will materialize, their estimates could differ materially from the liabilities actually incurred.

Demand for our software solutions may fluctuate with market conditions which may reduce our profitability in the future.

We depend upon the capital spending budgets of our customers. World and regional economic conditions have, in the past, adversely affected our licensing and support revenue. If economic or other conditions reduce our customers' capital spending levels, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. In addition, the purchase and implementation of our software solutions can constitute a major portion of our customers' overall IT budget, and the amount customers are willing to invest in acquiring and implementing such software solutions has tended to vary in response to economic, financial or other business conditions. Challenging economic conditions may also impair the ability of our customers to pay for software solutions they have purchased. As a result, reserves for doubtful accounts may increase.

If our customers demand performance guarantees, the costs and risks associated with offering our software solutions may increase.

We and our competitors are sometimes requested to provide specific performance guarantees with respect to the functionality of certain aspects of our software solutions. Similarly, we have been requested to quote fixed-price bids for our software solutions. These requests present risks, because implementations of our software solutions are rarely identical, and therefore we cannot accurately predict precisely what will be required to meet these performance standards. If these guarantees and fixed price bids become more common, our profitability may be affected.

We face competition from other software solutions providers, which may reduce our market share or limit the prices we can charge for our software solutions.

Given that we serve numerous vertical markets, we face competition from a large number of competitors ranging in size from small private companies with annual revenues of less than $1 million per year to the larger enterprise resource planning vendors. As a result, in certain market segments, competition can be intense, and significant pricing pressure may exist. To maintain and improve our competitive position, we must continue to develop and to introduce, in a timely and cost-effective manner, new software solutions. In addition, we expect that a substantial portion of our revenue will continue to be derived from renewals of maintenance arrangements with our customers. Although we have experienced relatively stable and predictable attrition relating to these arrangements, increased competition could reduce the need for our maintenance services, as customers could decide to replace our software applications with a competitor's applications or arrange for a third party to provide maintenance services.

We anticipate additional competition as other established and emerging companies enter the market for our software products and as new products and technologies are introduced. For example, companies that historically have not competed in one of our market segments could introduce new applications based on newer product architectures that could provide for functionality similar to or better than our software products. In addition, current and potential competitors may make strategic acquisitions or establish cooperative relationships among themselves or with third parties, thereby increasing the ability of their products to better address the needs of our prospective customers. This risk has increased as our industry trends toward consolidation. Accordingly, it is possible that new competitors or alliances among current and new competitors may emerge and rapidly gain significant market share. This competition could result in price reductions, fewer customer orders, reduced gross margins and loss of market share for our software products.

Some of our competitors and potential competitors have greater financial, technical, marketing, and other resources, greater name recognition, and a larger installed base of customers than we do. The products of some of our competitors are based on more advanced product architectures or offer performance advantages compared with some of our more mature products. Our competitors may be able to respond more quickly to new or emerging technologies and changes in customer requirements or may devote greater resources to the development, promotion, and sale of their products than we do. Many competitive factors affect the market for our products and our ability to earn maintenance, professional services and new license revenue. Some of these factors are: vendor and product reputation; industry-specific expertise; cost of ownership; ease and speed of implementation; customer support; product architecture, quality, price and performance; product performance attributes, such as flexibility, scalability, compatibility, functionality and ease of use; and vendor financial stability.

If we cannot attract and retain qualified sales personnel, customer service personnel, and software developers, we may not be able to sell and to support our existing products or to develop new products.

We depend on key technical, sales, and senior management personnel. Many of these individuals would be difficult to replace if they were to leave our employment. In addition, our success is highly dependent on our continuing ability to identify, hire, train, assimilate, motivate, and retain highly qualified personnel, including recently hired officers and other employees. Any such new hire may require a significant transition period prior to making a meaningful contribution to the Company. Periodically, competition for qualified employees is intense in the technology industry, and we have in the past experienced difficulty recruiting qualified employees. Our failure to attract and to retain the necessary qualified personnel could seriously harm our operating results and financial condition.

Our future growth depends, in part, upon our ability to develop new products and to improve existing software products. Our ability to develop new software solutions and to enhance our existing software solutions will depend, in part, on our ability to recruit and to retain top quality software programmers. If we are unable to hire and to retain sufficient numbers of qualified programming personnel, we may not be able to develop new software solutions or to improve our existing software solutions in the time frame necessary to execute our business plan.

The loss of our rights to use software currently licensed to us by third parties could increase our operating expenses by forcing us to seek alternative technology and adversely affect our ability to compete.

We license certain technologies used in our products from third parties, generally on a non-exclusive basis. The termination of any of these licenses, or the failure of the licensors to adequately maintain or update their products, could delay our ability to ship our products while we seek to implement alternative technology offered by other sources and require significant unplanned investments on our part. In addition, alternative technology may not be available on commercially reasonable terms. In the future, it may be necessary or desirable to obtain other third-party technology licenses relating to one or more of our products or relating to current or future technologies to enhance our product offerings. There is a risk that we will not be able to obtain licensing rights to the needed technology on commercially reasonable terms, if at all.

Several members of our senior management team are important to our business and if these individuals do not remain with us in the future it may have a negative impact on our financial condition and results of operations.

Our future success depends on the continued efforts and abilities of our senior management team. Their skills, experience and industry contacts significantly benefit us. Although we have employment and non-competition agreements with members of our senior management team, we cannot assure you that they or our other key employees will all choose to remain employed by us. If we lose the services of one or more of these individuals, or if one or more of them decide to join a competitor or otherwise compete directly or indirectly with us, our business, operating results, and financial condition could be harmed. We do not maintain key man life insurance on any of our employees.

We may experience customer attrition, which could affect our revenues more adversely than we expect, and we may be unable to adapt quickly to such attrition. Any significant reduction in revenues as a result of such attrition may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations or financial condition.

We expect that a substantial portion of our revenue will continue to be derived from renewals of quarterly and annual maintenance arrangements with our customers, and, to a lesser extent, from professional services engagements for these customers. Although we believe we have strong customer retention rates, attrition in our customer base does occur when existing customers elect not to renew their maintenance arrangements and cease purchasing professional services from us. Customer attrition occurs for a variety of reasons, including a customer's decision to replace our software product with that of a competing vendor, to purchase maintenance or consulting services from a third-party service provider, or to forego maintenance services altogether. It can also occur when a customer is acquired or ceases operations.

Historically, we have been able to replace more than the revenue lost through attrition with new revenue from maintenance services as well as from price increases for maintenance services. However, any factors that adversely affect the ability of our software products to compete with those available from others, such as availability of competitors' products offering more advanced product architecture, superior functionality or performance or lower prices, or factors that reduce demand for our maintenance services, such as intensifying price competition, could lead to increased rates of customer attrition.

Currency exchange rate fluctuations, tariffs and other risks associated with our international operations may adversely affect our operating results.

We are subject to risks of doing business internationally, including fluctuations in currency exchange rates, increases in duty rates, difficulties in obtaining export licenses, difficulties in the enforcement of intellectual property rights and political uncertainties. Our most significant international operations are in the United States, United Kingdom, Continental Europe and Australia. We currently do not typically use derivative instruments to mitigate our exposure to those risks. Although most of our businesses are organized geographically so that many of our expenses are incurred in the same currency as our revenues thus mitigating some of our exposure to currency fluctuations, we are still subject to some foreign currency risk. We may choose to enter into forward foreign exchange contracts from time to time with the objective of mitigating volatility in profit or loss but there is no assurance that these hedging strategies will be effective.

Revenues and expenses generated in foreign currencies are translated at exchange rates during the month in which the transaction occurs. We cannot predict the effect of foreign exchange losses in the future; however, if significant foreign exchange losses are experienced, they could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition. In addition, fluctuations in exchange rates could affect the pricing of our products and negatively influence customer demand.

We are in the IT business and our products and services are sold to customers globally. As such, we are exposed to broader macroeconomic risks, including the ongoing rise in threatened and imposed tariffs, as well as threatened and imposed retaliatory tariffs and surtaxes between countries we operate in. The imposition of tariffs, or any future escalation in trade barriers, may adversely impact our business and financial condition, increase the cost of our operations and reduce our competitive pricing due to tariff-related cost past-throughs. We may also face changes in government policies relating to trade barriers, tariff exclusions, or country-of-origin regulations which may also require the Company to undertake operational adjustments and face increased compliance costs. These factors may also reduce customer spending, delay project decisions or impact market demand generally.

Additional risks we face in conducting business internationally include longer payment cycles and difficulties in managing international operations. These include constraints associated with local laws regarding employment, difficulty in enforcing our agreements through foreign legal systems, complex international tax and financial reporting compliance requirements, and the adverse effects of tariffs, duties, price controls or other restrictions that impair trade.

We may have exposure to unforeseen tax liabilities.

We are subject to income taxes as well as non-income based taxes, in Canada, the United States and various foreign jurisdictions and our tax structure is subject to review by numerous taxation authorities. Significant judgment is required in determining our worldwide provision for income taxes and other tax liabilities. In the ordinary course of a global business, there are many inter-company transactions and calculations where the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. Although we strive to ensure that our tax estimates and filing positions are reasonable, we cannot assure you that the final determination of any tax audits and litigation will not be different from what is reflected in our historical income tax provisions and accruals, and any such differences may materially affect our operating results for the affected period or periods.

The Company is subject to income tax audits by various authorities in respect of prior periods that could result in additional tax expense in future periods. While the outcome of such outstanding audits and claims remains uncertain, it is expected that they will be resolved without a material impact to the Company's financial position.

We also have exposure to additional non-income tax liabilities. We are subject to non-income taxes, such as payroll, sales, use, value-added, net worth, property and goods and services taxes, in Canada, the United States and various foreign jurisdictions.

Impact of geopolitical and other global or local events may have a significant effect on our operations.

Various events, including natural disasters, extreme weather conditions, labour disputes, civil unrest, war and political instability, terrorism, contagious illness outbreaks (including, most recently, the novel coronavirus (COVID-19)), and environmental disasters or the perceived threat or fear of these events, may cause a disruption of our normal operations, including staff shortages, mobility restrictions and other quarantine measures (including as a result of government regulation and prevention measures) and may disrupt the domestic and international travel of our sales and other personnel. The sales cycle for our products includes a period of education for potential customers on the use and benefits of our software solutions, as well as the integration of our software solutions with additional applications utilized by individual customers. Any disruption in the ability of our personnel to travel could have a material and adverse impact on our ability to complete this process and to service these customers or to negotiate new merger and acquisition transactions, which could, in turn, have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. In addition, these events or the perceived threat or fear of these events may require us to reorganize our day-to-day operations to minimize the associated risks. Any expense related to the reorganization of our day-to-day operations, even on a short-term basis, could also have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Potential divestitures of majority owned software businesses may reduce revenues in the short term and create uncertainty among our employees, customers and potential customers, which could harm our business.

Although we have not divested any material businesses in the last ten years, any divestitures could result in a short-term reduction in revenue and could harm our results of operations if we were not able to reduce expenses accordingly or to generate offsetting sources of revenue. To the extent that our consideration of these potential divestitures became known prior to their completion, we could face the risk, among others, that customers and potential customers of the VMS business in question might be reluctant to purchase our software solutions during this period. In addition, we face the risk that we may be unable to retain qualified personnel within the applicable VMS business during this period. Poor economic conditions and a lack of access to the credit markets may lead to difficulty in finding interested buyers for any proposed divestitures. These risks could prevent us from successfully completing on favourable terms, or at all, divestitures that would otherwise be beneficial to us, and may in the process weaken business divisions that we are considering for divestiture. Any of these events could result in a loss of customers, revenues, and employees and could harm our results of operations.

Some of the markets for our software products are characterized by periodic technological advances, and we must improve our software products to remain competitive.

Periodic technological change and associated new product introductions and enhancements characterize the software industry in general. Our current and potential customers increasingly require greater levels of functionality and more sophisticated product offerings. In addition, the life cycles of many of our software products are difficult to estimate. While we believe some of our software products may be nearing the end of their product life cycles, we cannot estimate the decline in demand from our customers for maintenance related to these software products. Accordingly, we believe that our future success depends upon our ability to enhance current software products and to develop and to introduce new products offering enhanced performance and functionality at competitive prices in a timely manner, and on our ability to enable our software products to work in conjunction with other products from other suppliers that our customers may utilize. Our failure to develop and to introduce or to enhance products in a timely manner could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

We may be unable to respond on a timely basis to the changing needs of our customer base and the new applications we design for our customers may prove to be ineffective. Our ability to compete successfully will depend in large measure on our ability to bring to market effective new products or services, to maintain a technically competent research and development staff, and to adapt to technological changes and advances in the industry. Our software products must remain compatible with evolving computer hardware and software platforms and operating environments. We cannot assure you that we will be successful in these efforts. In addition, competitive or technological developments and new regulatory requirements may require us to make substantial, unanticipated investments in new products and technologies, and we may not have sufficient resources to make these investments. If we were required to expend substantial resources to respond to specific technological or product changes, our operating results would be adversely affected.

If we are unable to protect our proprietary technology and that of the VMS businesses that we acquire, our competitive position could be adversely affected.

We have relied, and expect to continue to rely, on a combination of copyright, trademark and trade-secret laws, confidentiality procedures, and contractual provisions to establish, maintain, and protect our proprietary rights. Although patents generally provide greater protection of software products than do trade secrets or copyrights, we currently possess only a limited number of patents. We typically enter into agreements with our employees, consultants, customers, partners and vendors in an effort to control ownership of our intellectual property and access to and distribution of our software, documentation and other proprietary information. Despite these precautions, there may be authors of some of the intellectual property that form parts of our software products who have not assigned their intellectual property rights to us and who have not waived their moral rights with respect thereto. The steps we take may not prevent misappropriation of our intellectual property, and the agreements we enter into may not be enforceable. Despite our efforts to protect our proprietary rights in our intellectual property and that of other businesses we may acquire, unauthorized parties may copy or otherwise obtain and use our proprietary technology or obtain information we regard as proprietary. Policing unauthorized use of our technology, if required, may be difficult, time-consuming, and costly. Our means of protecting our technology may be inadequate.

Third parties may apply for and obtain patent protection for products and services that are similar to our software solutions. Despite our efforts to protect our proprietary rights, unauthorized parties may attempt to copy aspects of our products or services or to obtain and to use information that we regard as proprietary. Third parties may also independently develop similar or superior technology without violating our proprietary rights. In addition, the laws of some foreign countries do not protect proprietary rights to the same extent, as do the laws of Canada and the United States.

Trademark protection is an important factor in establishing product recognition. Our inability to protect our trademarks from infringement could result in injury to any goodwill which may be developed in our trademarks. Moreover, we may be unable to use one or more of our trademarks because of successful third-party claims.

Claims of infringement are becoming increasingly common as the software industry develops and legal protections, including patents, are applied to software products. Although we believe that our software products and technology do not infringe proprietary rights of others, litigation may be necessary to protect our proprietary technology and third parties may assert infringement claims against us with respect to their proprietary rights.

Any claims or litigation can be time consuming and expensive regardless of their merit. Infringement claims against us could cause product release delays, require us to redesign our products or to enter into royalty or license agreements that may not be available on terms acceptable to us, or at all.

Software product development delays could harm our competitive position and reduce our revenues.

If we experience significant delays in releasing new or enhanced software products, our position in the market could be harmed and our revenue could be substantially reduced, which would adversely affect our operating results. We have experienced software product development delays in the past and may experience delays in the future. In particular, we may experience software product development delays associated with the integration of recently acquired software products and technologies. Delays may occur for many reasons, including the inability to hire a sufficient number of developers, discovery of bugs and errors, or the inability of our current or future software products to conform to customer and industry requirements.

Our software products may contain errors or defects that could result in lost revenue, delayed or limited market acceptance, or product liability claims with substantial litigation costs.

As a result of their complexity, software products may contain undetected errors or failures when entering the market. Despite testing performed by us and testing and use by current and potential customers, defects and errors may be found in new software products after commencement of commercial shipments or the offering of a network service using these software products. In these circumstances, we may be unable to successfully correct the errors in a timely manner or at all. The occurrence of errors and failures in our software products could result in negative publicity and a loss of, or delay in, market acceptance of those software products. Such publicity could reduce revenue from new licenses and lead to increased customer attrition. Alleviating these errors and failures could require significant expenditure of capital and other resources by us. The consequences of these errors and failures could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

Because many of our customers use our software products for business-critical applications, any errors, defects, or other performance problems could result in financial or other damage to our customers. Our customers or other third parties could seek to recover damages from us in the event of actual or alleged failures of our software solutions. We have in the past been, and may from time to time continue to be, subject to these kinds of claims. Although our license agreements with customers typically contain provisions designed to limit our exposure to potential claims, as well as any liabilities arising from these claims, the provisions may not effectively protect against these claims and the liability and associated costs. Accordingly, any such claim could have a material adverse effect upon our business, results of operations, and financial condition. In addition, defending this kind of claim, regardless of its merits, or otherwise satisfying affected customers, could entail substantial expense and require the devotion of significant time and attention by key management personnel.

The hosting services of some of our products are dependent on the uninterrupted operation of data centers. Any unexpected interruption in the operation of data centers used could result in customer dissatisfaction and a loss of revenues.

Some of our VMS businesses provide hosting services in respect of some of our software products. These hosting services depend upon the uninterrupted operation of data centers and the ability to protect computer equipment and information stored in these data centers against damage that may be caused by natural disaster, fire, power loss, telecommunications or internet failure, unauthorized intrusion, computer viruses and other similar damaging events. If any of the data centers we use were to become inoperable for an extended period, we might be unable to provide our customers with contracted services. Although we take what we believe to be reasonable precautions against such occurrences, we can give no assurance that damaging events such as these will not result in a prolonged interruption of our services, which could result in customer dissatisfaction, loss of revenue and damage to our business.

As a provider of hosted services, we receive confidential information, including credit card and other financial and accounting data. There can be no assurance that this information will not be subject to loss, destruction, computer break-ins, theft, or other improper activity that could jeopardize the security of information for which we are responsible. Any such lapse in security could expose us to litigation, loss of customers, or otherwise harm our business. In addition, any person who is able to circumvent our security measures could misappropriate proprietary or confidential customer information or cause interruptions in our operations.

We are currently, and may in the future become, subject to civil litigation, which if decided against us, could require us to pay judgments, settlements or other penalties and could potentially result in the dilution of our Common Shares.

In addition to being subject to litigation in the ordinary course of business, we may become subject to class actions, securities litigation or other actions, including anti-trust and anti-competitive actions.

Any litigation may be time consuming, expensive and distracting from the conduct of our daily business. The adverse resolution of any specific lawsuit could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and liquidity.

In addition, the resolution of those matters may require us to issue additional Common Shares, which could potentially result in the dilution of our Common Shares. Expenses incurred in connection with these matters (which include fees of lawyers and other professional advisors and potential obligations to indemnify officers and directors who may be parties to such actions) could adversely affect our cash position.

The market price of the Common Shares will fluctuate.

The market price of the Common Shares will fluctuate due to a number of factors, including:

- actual or anticipated changes in our results of operations;
- changes in estimates of our future results of operations by management or securities analysts;
- announcements of technological innovations or new software products by us or our competitors;
- general industry changes; or
- material acquisitions.

In addition, the financial markets have experienced significant price and value fluctuations that have particularly affected the market prices of equity securities of many software companies and that sometimes have been unrelated to the operating performance of these companies. Broad market fluctuations, as well as economic conditions generally and in the software industry specifically, may adversely affect the market price of the Common Shares.

Sales of substantial amounts of Common Shares by our existing shareholders, or the perception that these sales will occur, may cause the market price of the Common Shares to fall.

Our dividend policy may change. We may not pay dividends in the future.

The Board adopted a policy to pay quarterly dividends commencing April 2, 2012. The Company may also pay special dividends from time to time. Although we have paid dividends in the past, there may be circumstances where we may change our position on paying dividends. There is no guarantee we will pay dividends in future years. The dividend policy will be reviewed from time to time by our Board of Directors in the context of our earnings, financial condition and other relevant factors, including the availability of acquisition opportunities and other sources of capital. As indicated in the Company's March 6, 2014 and February 15, 2021 press releases, the Company will not hesitate to reduce or even eliminate the current quarterly dividend if, at any time, other attractive sources of capital are not readily available. In addition, if the Company fails to pay interest owing on the Subordinated Debentures in full in cash on any interest payment date in respect of the Subordinated Debentures, the Company will not be permitted to declare or pay dividends of any kind on the Common Shares until such time as the Company pays such interest to holders of Subordinated Debentures. See "Description of Capital Structure – Warrants and Subordinated Debentures".

No limit on indebtedness

Neither the trust indenture dated November 19, 2014, as supplemented by the first supplemental indenture dated September 30, 2015, a second supplemental indenture dated August 29, 2023 and the third supplemental indenture dated October 6, 2023, in each case, between the Company and Computershare Trust Company of Canada (the "Subordinated Debenture Indenture"), nor the trust indenture dated February 16, 2024, as supplemented by a first supplemental indenture dated February 16, 2024 and a second supplemental trust indenture dated February 16, 2024, in each case, between the Company and Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (the "Senior Note Indenture", and together with the Subordinated Debenture Indenture, the "Indentures") limits the ability of the Company to incur additional debt or liabilities (including senior indebtedness). In order to finance acquisitions from time-to-time, the Company expects to draw down additional indebtedness under its credit facility, enter new credit facilities without recourse to CSI, and may also issue additional Subordinated Debentures and/or additional Senior Notes at any time. The additional indebtedness will increase the interest payable by the Company from time-to-time until such amounts are repaid, which will represent an increase in the Company's cost and a potential reduction in the Company's income. In addition, the Company may need to find additional sources of financing to repay these amounts when they become due. There can be no guarantee that the Company will be able to obtain financing on terms acceptable to it or at all at any such time.

If our security measures for our products and services are compromised and as a result, our data, our customers' data or our IT systems are accessed improperly, made unavailable, or improperly modified, our products and services may be perceived as vulnerable, our brand and reputation could be damaged, the IT services we provide to our customers could be disrupted, and customers may stop using our products and services, all of which could reduce our revenue and earnings, increase our expenses and expose us to legal claims and regulatory actions.

We are in the IT business, and certain of our products and services, store, retrieve, manipulate and manage our customers' information and data, external data, as well as our own data.

At times, we encounter attempts by third parties (which may include nation states and individuals sponsored by them) to identify and exploit product and service vulnerabilities, penetrate or bypass our security measures, and gain unauthorized access to our or our customers', partners' and suppliers' software, hardware and cloud offerings, networks and systems, any of which could lead to the compromise of personal information or the confidential information or data of Constellation or our customers. Cyber attackers and other threat actors may be able to develop and deploy IT related viruses, worms, and other malicious software programs that could attack our networks, systems, products and services, exploit potential security vulnerabilities of our networks, systems, products and services, create system disruptions and cause shutdowns or denials of service. This is also true for third-party data, products or services incorporated into our own products and services or used by us. Data may also be accessed or modified improperly as a result of customer, partner, employee or supplier error or malfeasance and third parties may attempt to fraudulently induce customers, partners, employees or suppliers into disclosing sensitive information such as user names, passwords or other information in order to gain access to our data, our customers', suppliers' or partners' data or the IT systems of Constellation, its customers, suppliers or partners.

In particular, as announced by the Company on May 4, 2023, we were subject to a cyber-security incident in April 2023 that impacted a number of our IT infrastructure systems. Although the incident did not have a material impact on our business operations, as with any cyber-incident, there is a risk that individuals or business partners impacted by this or future incidents may make claims against us or other liability might arise, or that a privacy commissioner may institute an investigation or actions against us.

In Canada, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act requires businesses to give notice of any breaches of security safeguards affecting personal information to the affected individuals and Privacy Commissioner where there is a real risk of significant harm to the affected individuals and impose the keeping of a register of such breaches. Certain provinces, such as Quebec and Alberta, also have similar requirements. Failure to comply with the reporting and record keeping obligations may result in a fine. In Quebec, this fine may be up to the greater of CAD $25 million or 4% of a company's annual revenue. In Europe, the General Data Protection Regulation provides obligations that apply internationally to entities that control or process the personal data of citizens in the territory of the European Union. This legislation also includes mandatory breach notification provisions as part of a comprehensive regime that governs the processing of personal information. Penalties for violations can be up to 4% of a company's total annual revenue. In The United States, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1966, as amended by the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act and implementing regulations mandates, among other things, the adoption of uniform standards for the electronic exchange of information in common health care transactions (such as health care claims information and plan eligibility, referral certification and authorization, claims status, plan enrolment, coordination of benefits and related information), as well as standards relating to the privacy and security of individually identifiable health information, which govern the use and disclosure of such information and require the adoption of administrative, physical and technical safeguards to protect such information. In addition, many U.S. states, Canadian provinces and other countries have enacted similar laws addressing the privacy and security of health-related information. Failure to comply with laws addressing the privacy and security of health-related information could result in the imposition of significant fines and/or criminal penalties.

The consequences of security breaches, compliance with privacy and data protection laws and regulations and the potential liability associated with the failure to comply with these laws could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

DIVIDENDS

Dividends

Since January 1, 2022, we have declared the following cash dividends on our Common Shares:

|---|---|---|---|
| Common | July 11, 2022 | US$1.00 (quarterly) | June 20, 2022 |
| Common | April 12, 2022 | US$1.00 (quarterly) | March 16, 2022 |

Effective January 2012, our policy is to pay quarterly dividends, subject to Board approval, based on our historical practice and may pay special dividends from time to time. The Board of Directors will determine if and when dividends should be declared and paid in the future based on all relevant circumstances, including the desirability of financing further growth of the Company and our financial position at the relevant time. There is no guarantee that dividends will continue to be paid in the future.

On February 6, 2023, the Company declared a special dividend pursuant to which all holders of Common Shares of record on February 16, 2023 were entitled to receive, by way of a dividend-in-kind, 3.0003833 subordinate voting shares of Lumine Group Inc. for each Common Share held. The dividend was distributed on February 23, 2023.

On August 15, 2023, the Company declared a special dividend pursuant to which all holders of Common Shares on September 1, 2023 were entitled to receive, by way of a dividend-in-kind, one warrant of the Company (the "Warrants") for each Common Share held. The dividend was distributed on August 29, 2023. See "Description of Capital Structure – Warrants and Subordinated Debentures".

On August 23, 2023, the Company declared a special dividend pursuant to which all holders of Common Shares of record on September 1, 2023 were entitled to receive, by way of a dividend-in-kind, one right of the Company (each, a "Right") for each Common Share held. The dividend was distributed on September 8, 2023. For every 3.03 Rights held, the holder of such Rights was entitled to participate in the 2023 Rights Offering by subscribing for C$100 Series 1 Debentures at a price of C$133 per C$100 principal amount of Series 1 Debentures purchased. See "General Development of the Business – Rights Offerings".

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

Effective May 16, 2013, the Company adopted a dividend reinvestment plan (the "DRIP"), under which all registered holders of Common Shares in Canada are eligible to participate. Non-registered holders of Common Shares may be able to participate through their financial institution, broker or other intermediary through which their Common Shares are held. Alternatively, non-registered holders of Common Shares may become registered holders of such shares in order to participate in the DRIP. Computershare Trust Company of Canada is the agent and administrator of the DRIP.

Pursuant to the DRIP, eligible participants are permitted to increase their investment in the Company by choosing to automatically reinvest cash dividends received on the Common Shares held by them in additional Common Shares, which will be purchased by the Company (or a trustee, custodian or administrator on the Company's behalf) on the open market, or at the Company's discretion, issued from treasury. If the Common Shares issued pursuant to the DRIP are to be issued from treasury, such Common Shares will be issued at a price equal to the weighted average market price of the Common Shares on the TSX for the five trading days immediately preceding the applicable dividend payment date. To date, the Company has satisfied its obligation under the DRIP by purchasing shares on the open market.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STRUCTURE

Share Capital

The authorized capital of the Company consists of an unlimited number of Common Shares and a number of Preferred Shares, issuable in series, limited to not more than 20% of the number of issued and outstanding Common Shares at the time of issuance of any Preferred Shares. As at March 31, 2025 there were 21,191,530 Common Shares outstanding and no Preferred Shares outstanding.

Common Shares

The holders of the Common Shares are entitled to receive notice of and to attend all of our annual and special meetings of the shareholders and to one vote in respect of each Common Share held at all such meetings. The holders of the Common Shares are entitled, at the discretion of the Board, to receive out of any or all of our profits or surplus properly available for the payment of dividends, any dividend declared by the Board and payable on the Common Shares. The holders of the Common Shares will participate ratably in any distribution of assets, or liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or other distribution of our assets among shareholders for the purpose of winding up our affairs.

Preferred Shares

The Preferred Shares will be issuable in one or more series, where the Board will be authorized to fix the number of shares of each series, subject to the limitation on the number of Preferred Shares to be issued as described below, and to determine for each series, subject to the terms and conditions set out herein, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions, including dividend rates, redemption prices, conversion rights and other matters.

Ranking and Priority

Each series of Preferred Shares will be entitled to priority over the Common Shares and any other shares of the Company ranking junior to the Preferred Shares with respect to priority in the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, and any other distribution of the assets of the Company among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs. The Preferred Shares of any series may also be given such other preferences, not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, over the Common Shares and any other shares of the Company ranking junior to the Preferred Shares, as may be determined by the Board.

Parity Among Series

Each series of Preferred Shares will rank on a parity with every other series of Preferred Shares with respect to priority in the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, and any other distribution of the assets of the Company among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs.

Participation Upon Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company or other distribution of assets of the Company among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive from the assets of the Company any cumulative dividends, whether or not declared, or declared non-cumulative dividends or amounts payable on a return of capital which are not paid in full in respect of any Preferred Shares and any redemption price or other liquidation amount in accordance with the rights, terms and conditions of any particular series, before any amount is paid or any assets of the Company are distributed to the holders of any Common Shares or shares of any other class ranking junior to the Preferred Shares. After payment to the holders of the Preferred Shares of the amount so payable to them as above provided they will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of assets of the Company among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs.

Dividends

The holders of each series of Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive dividends (which may be cumulative or non-cumulative and variable or fixed) as and when declared by the Board.

Conversion

No series of Preferred Shares will be convertible into any other class of shares but they may be convertible into another series of Preferred Shares.

Redemption

Each series of Preferred Shares may be redeemable by the Company on such terms as may be determined by the Board.

Voting

Holders of any series of Preferred Shares will not be entitled (except as otherwise provided by law and except for meetings of the holders of Preferred Shares or a series thereof) to receive notice of, attend at, or vote at any meeting of shareholders of the Company, unless the Board determines otherwise, in which case voting rights will only be provided in circumstances where the Company has failed to pay a certain number of dividends on such series of Preferred Shares, which determination and number of dividends and any other terms in respect of such voting rights, will be determined by the Board and set out in the designations, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of such series of Preferred Shares.

Warrants and Subordinated Debentures

Warrants

As at March 31, 2025 there were 21,191,530 Warrants outstanding. The Warrants are not exercisable by the holders thereof unless and until the Company exercises the company redemption right in respect of the Series 1 Debentures. If the Company exercises such company redemption right, each Warrant will become exercisable by the holder thereof for a period of 30 calendar days (the "Warrant Exercise Period") starting from the date that the Company provides notice to the holders of its Series 1 Debentures that the Company is exercising the company redemption right to redeem the Series 1 Debentures. Following notice by the Company of the exercise of the company redemption right, each Warrant will, upon exercise, entitle the holder thereof to receive, on the 10th business day following the last date of the Warrant Exercise Period (the "Series 2 Issuance Date") C$100 principal amount of unsecured subordinated floating rate debentures, Series 2 of the Company (the "Series 2 Debentures", and together with the Series 1 Debentures, the "Subordinated Debentures") for each C$100 principal amount of Series 1 Debentures tendered for repurchase by the Company. The Company will pay any accrued and unpaid interest on the Series 1 Debentures tendered for repurchase up to, but excluding, the Series 2 Issuance Date. Other than tendering the Series 1 Debentures for repurchase, no additional exercise price will be owing by a holder of a Warrant upon the exercise of a Warrant.

The Warrants are not currently listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange or any other exchange. If and when the company redemption right in respect of the Series 1 Debentures is exercised, the Company plans to apply to list the Warrants on the TSX, so that the Warrants would trade on the TSX during the Warrant Exercise Period. The Company's ability to list the Warrants will be subject to the approval of the TSX at such time

All unexercised Warrants will expire on the earlier of (i) the first date on which all the outstanding Series 1 Debentures have matured or have otherwise been repurchased, redeemed or cancelled, and (ii) March 31, 2040.

Subordinated Debentures

In connection with the 2014 Rights Offering, on October 1, 2014 and November 19, 2014, the Company issued two tranches of Series 1 Debentures with an aggregate principal amount of C$96.0 million for total proceeds of C$91.2 million to the Company. In connection with the 2015 Rights Offering, on September 30, 2015, the Company issued another tranche of Series 1 Debentures with a total principal amount of C$186.2 million for total proceeds of C$214.1 million. In connection with the 2023 Rights Offering, on October 6, 2023, the Company issued another tranche of Series 1 Debentures with a total principal amount of C$213 million for total proceeds of C$282 million.

As at March 31, 2025, the total principal amount of Series 1 Debentures outstanding was C$495 million, and there were no Series 2 Debentures outstanding.

The Subordinated Debentures have a maturity date of March 31, 2040 (the "Maturity Date"). The interest rate from and including March 31, 2024 to but excluding March 31, 2025 is 10.4%. The interest rate from and including March 31, 2025 to but excluding March 31, 2026 will be 8.9%. From and including March 31, 2026 to but excluding the Maturity Date, the interest rate applicable to the Subordinated Debentures will be reset on an annual basis on March 31 of each year, at a rate equal to the annual average percentage change in the All-items Consumer Price Index during the 12 month period ending on December 31 in the prior year (which amount may be positive or negative) plus 6.5%. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the interest rate applicable to the Subordinated Debentures will not be less than 0%. The Company may, subject to certain approvals, elect to make payment in kind (a "PIK Election"), in lieu of paying interest in cash, to satisfy all or any portion of its interest obligation payable on an interest payment date by issuing to each Subordinated Debenture holder Subordinated Debentures equal to the amount of the interest obligation to be satisfied ("PIK Debentures"). The PIK Debentures will have the same terms and conditions as the Subordinated Debentures and will form part of the principal amount of the Subordinated Debentures. If, on any interest payment date, the Company fails to pay the amount of interest owing on the Subordinated Debentures in full in cash, the Company will not (A) declare or pay dividends of any kind on the Common Shares, nor (B) participate in any share buyback or redemption involving the Common Shares, until the date on which the Company pays such interest (or the unpaid portion thereof) in cash to holders of the Subordinated Debentures; however, if the Company has issued PIK Debentures in respect of all or a portion of the amount of interest owing on the Subordinated Debentures on one or more interest payment dates, the Company may resume declaring or paying dividends of any kind on the Common Shares and participating in any share buyback or redemption involving the Common Shares beginning on the earlier of (i) the next interest payment date in respect of which the Company pays the amount of interest owing on the Subordinated Debentures in full in cash and (ii) the date on which the Company repays all amounts owing under the PIK Debentures. All payments in respect of the Subordinated Debentures will be subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all senior indebtedness of the Company, including the Senior Notes.

The Subordinated Debentures will be redeemable in certain circumstances at the option of the Company or the holder. During the period beginning on March 16 and ending on March 31 of each year, the Company will have the right, at its option, to give notice to holders of Subordinated Debentures of its intention to redeem the Subordinated Debentures, in whole or in part, on March 31 in the year that is five years following the year in which notice is given, at a price equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest up to but excluding the date fixed for redemption. During the period beginning on March 1 and ending on March 15 of each year, holders of Subordinated Debentures will have the right, at their option, to give notice to the Company of their intention to require the Company to repurchase (or to "put") the Subordinated Debentures, in whole or in part, on March 31 in the year that is five years following the year in which notice is given, at a price equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest up to but excluding the date fixed for repurchase.

Upon the occurrence of a change of control of the Company involving the acquisition of voting control or direction of more than 50% of the votes represented by the issued and outstanding Common Shares by any person or group of persons acting jointly or in concert (a "Change of Control"), each holder of Subordinated Debentures may require the Company to purchase, on the date which is 30 days following the giving of notice of the Change of Control as set out below (the "Change of Control Put Date"), the whole or any part of such holder's Subordinated Debentures at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof (the "Change of Control Put Price") plus accrued and unpaid interest up to, but excluding, the Change of Control Put Date. If 90% or more of the aggregate principal amount of the Subordinated Debentures outstanding on the date of the giving of notice of the Change of Control have been tendered for purchase on the Change of Control Put Date, the Company will have the right to redeem all the remaining Subordinated Debentures on such date at the Change of Control Put Price, together with accrued and unpaid interest to such date. Notice of such redemption must be given to the debenture trustee prior to the Change of Control Put Date and, as soon as possible thereafter, by the debenture trustee to the holders of the Subordinated Debentures not tendered for purchase.

The rights of the holders of the Subordinated Debentures as well as any other series of debentures that may be issued under the Subordinated Debenture Indenture may be modified in accordance with the terms of the Subordinated Debenture Indenture. For that purpose, among others, the Subordinated Debenture Indenture contains certain provisions which will make binding on all Subordinated Debenture holders resolutions passed at meetings of the holders of the debentures issued under the Subordinated Debenture Indenture by votes cast thereat by holders of not less than $66^{2/3}\%$ of the principal amount of the then outstanding debentures present at the meeting or represented by proxy, or rendered by instruments in writing signed by the holders of not less than $66^{2/3}\%$ of the principal amount of the then outstanding debentures. In certain cases, the modification will, instead of or in addition to the foregoing, require assent by the holders of the required percentage of debentures of each particularly affected series. Under the Subordinated Debenture Indenture, the debenture trustee will have the right to make certain amendments to the Subordinated Debenture Indenture in its discretion, without the consent of the holders of Subordinated Debentures.

The Subordinated Debenture Indenture provides that an event of default ("Event of Default") in respect of the Subordinated Debentures will occur if certain events described in the Subordinated Debenture Indenture occur, including if any one or more of the following described events has occurred and is continuing with respect to the Subordinated Debentures: (i) failure to pay principal or premium, if any, on the Subordinated Debentures, whether at the maturity date, upon redemption, by acceleration or otherwise; or (ii) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Company under bankruptcy or insolvency laws. Subject to the senior indebtedness postponement provisions, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the debenture trustee may, in its discretion, and shall, upon the request of holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Subordinated Debentures, declare the principal of (and premium, if any) and accrued interest on all outstanding Subordinated Debentures to be immediately due and payable.

The Series 2 Debentures are identical in all material respects to the Series 1 Debentures, except that the Series 2 Debentures do not include a company redemption right.

Senior Notes

The 2029 Notes will accrue interest at a rate of 5.158% per year and will mature on February 16, 2029 unless redeemed or repurchased prior to that date. The 2034 Notes will accrue interest at a rate of 5.461% per year and will mature on February 16, 2034 unless redeemed or repurchased prior to that date. Interest will accrue on the Senior Notes from the most recent interest payment date to or for which interest has been paid or duly provided for (or if no interest has been paid or duly provided for, from the issue date of the notes), payable semi-annually in arrears on February 16 and August 16 of each year, beginning on August 16, 2024.

The Senior Notes are not listed on any securities exchange or included in any automated quotation system and are not subject to any sinking fund.

The Company may, subject to compliance with applicable law, at any time purchase Senior Notes in the open market or otherwise.

The Senior Note Indenture contains certain covenants that limit the Company's ability to incur liens, enter into sale and leaseback transactions and sell or transfer all or substantially all of its assets to another entity.

Each of the Company's subsidiaries that is a guarantor of indebtedness outstanding under the Company's revolving credit facility agreement dated as of January 31, 2024 (the "Credit Facility") has guaranteed each series of Senior Notes. In addition, each of the Company's subsidiaries that becomes a guarantor of indebtedness outstanding under the Credit Facility will be required to guarantee the Senior Notes on a senior unsecured basis. The guarantors will, jointly and severally, irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee the Company's obligations under each series of Senior Notes and all obligations under the Senior Note Indenture.

The Senior Notes and the guarantees will be senior unsubordinated obligations of the Company and the guarantors and will rank equally (pari passu) with all other senior unsubordinated debt obligations of the Company and the guarantors from time to time outstanding, including the Credit Facility.

The Senior Notes and the guarantees are unsecured obligations of the Company and the guarantors, respectively. Secured indebtedness of the Company and the guarantors will be effectively senior to the Senior Notes and the guarantees to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness.

The Senior Notes and the guarantees rank senior in right of payment to all of the existing and future obligations of the Company and guarantors that are expressly subordinated to the Senior Notes, including the Subordinated Debentures.

Prior to January 16, 2029 (one month prior to their maturity date), in the case of the 2029 Notes (the "2029 Par Call Date") and prior to November 16, 2033 (three months prior to their maturity date), in the case of the 2034 Notes (the "2034 Par Call Date" and together with the 2029 Par Call Date, the "Par Call Dates"), the Company may redeem the Senior Notes of the applicable series at its option, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to the greater of 100% of the principal amount to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, such redemption date and the applicable "make-whole" redemption amount calculated as described under the Senior Note Indenture.

On or after the applicable Par Call Date, the Company may redeem the applicable series of Senior Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of such Senior Notes being redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon if any, to but excluding, the redemption date.

Subject to certain limitations, the Company will have the right to redeem the Senior Notes in whole, but not in part, at any time, in the event that, due to an amendment to, or change in, tax laws (or the official application, interpretation or administration thereof or assessing practices thereunder), including by judicial decision, it would become obligated to pay additional amounts with respect to the Senior Notes. If the Company redeems the Senior Notes in such circumstances, the redemption price of each Senior Note redeemed will be equal to 100% of the principal amount of such Senior Note plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the date of redemption.

If a change of control repurchase event occurs, each holder of the notes of such series will have the right to require the Company to repurchase all or any part of that holder's notes at a repurchase price in cash equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes repurchased plus any accrued and unpaid interest on the Senior Notes repurchased to, but excluding, the date of repurchase.

"change of control repurchase event" means, with respect to each series of Senior Notes, the occurrence of both a change of control and a ratings event.

"change of control" means the occurrence of any of the following: (1) the sale, transfer, conveyance or other disposition (other than by way of merger, amalgamation, consolidation or arrangement) of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole to any person; (2) the adoption of a plan by the Company's board of directors relating to the Company's liquidation or dissolution; (3) the consummation of any transaction (including, without limitation, any merger, amalgamation, consolidation or arrangement) the result of which is that any person becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the aggregate of the total voting power of the voting stock of the Company; or (4) subject to certain exceptions, the Company consolidates, amalgamates or arranges with, or merges with or into, any person, or any person consolidates, amalgamates or arranges with, or merges with or into, the Company, in any such event pursuant to a transaction in which any of the outstanding voting stock of the Company or the outstanding voting stock of such other person is converted into or exchanged for cash, securities or other property.

"ratings event" means the rating on the Senior Notes of a series is lowered by each of Fitch and S&P (or applicable successor), and such notes are rated below investment grade by each of the rating agencies on any day during the period commencing on the earlier of (a) the first public notice of the occurrence of a change of control or (b) the public announcement by the Company of its intention to effect a change of control, and ending 60 days following consummation of such change of control (subject to extension in certain circumstances).

The Company will not be required to repurchase the Senior Notes upon a change of control repurchase event if a third party agrees to repurchase the Senior Notes in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements for the Company under the Senior Note Indenture and such third party repurchases all Senior Notes properly tendered and not withdrawn by the holders.

Each of the following is an "event of default" under the Senior Note Indenture with respect to a series of Senior Notes:

1) default in the payment of any interest on any Senior Note of such series when it becomes due and payable, and the continuance of such default for a period of 30 days or more;

2) default in the payment of the principal of or any premium, if any, on any Senior Note of such series when due at its maturity, upon optional redemption, or otherwise;

3) failure by the Company to repurchase Senior Notes of such series tendered for repurchase following the occurrence of a change of control repurchase event;

4) default in the observance or performance of any other covenant by the Company in the Senior Note Indenture (other than those referred to in (1), (2) or (3) above), which default continues uncured for a period of 60 days or the Company or trustee receives written notice from the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the applicable series of Senior notes then outstanding as provided in the Senior Note Indenture;

5) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization with respect to the Company;

6) (a) failure by the Company or any guarantor to make any payment at maturity, including any applicable grace period, on any indebtedness of the Company or such guarantor (other than, in the case of the Company, indebtedness of the Company owing to any of its subsidiaries or in the case of the guarantors, indebtedness of such guarantors owing to the Company or any other subsidiary) outstanding in an amount in excess of $50 million and continuance of this failure to pay or (b) a default on any indebtedness of the Company or any guarantor (other than, in the case of the Company, indebtedness of the Company owing to any of its subsidiaries or in the case of the guarantors, indebtedness of such subsidiaries owing to the Company or any other subsidiary), which default results in the acceleration of such indebtedness in an amount in excess of $50 million without such indebtedness having been discharged or the acceleration having been cured, waived, rescinded or annulled, in the case of clause (a) or (b) above, for a period of 30 days after written notice thereof to the Company by the trustee or to the Company and the trustee by the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the applicable series of Senior Notes then outstanding; provided, however, that if any failure, default or acceleration referred to in clause (a) or (b) above ceases or is cured, waived, rescinded or annulled, then the event of default will be deemed cured; and

7) the guarantee of a material subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect with respect to a series of Senior Notes (except as contemplated by the terms of the Senior Note Indenture) or such guarantor denies or disaffirms in writing its obligations under the Senior Note Indenture or any guarantee, other than by reason of the release of such guarantee in accordance with the terms of the Senior Note Indenture.

The Senior Note Indenture provides that if an event of default has occurred with respect to the Senior Notes of a series and is continuing, the trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of such series of Senior Notes then outstanding may declare the entire principal amount of all the notes of such series then outstanding to be immediately due and payable.

The Company may amend the Senior Note Indenture in certain circumstances without the consent of the holders of the Senior Notes. Certain other changes to the Senior Note Indenture require the consent of the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount outstanding of the 2029 Senior Notes or the 2034 Senior Notes, in each case affected by the amendments.

Credit Ratings

Fitch Ratings ("Fitch") has assigned a rating to the Subordinated Debentures of 'BBB' and a rating to the Senior Notes of 'BBB+'. According to Fitch's website, a credit rating of 'BBB' represents good credit quality and indicates that expectations of default risk are currently low. The capacity for payment of financial commitments is considered adequate but adverse business or economic conditions are more likely to impair this capacity. The modifiers "+" or "-" may be appended to a rating to denote relative status within major rating categories. The 'BBB' rating assigned by Fitch is the 4th highest of Fitch's 11 rating categories, which range from 'AAA' to 'D'.

Standard & Poor's Global Ratings, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. ("S&P") has assigned a rating to the Senior Notes of 'BBB'. According to S&P's website, a credit rating of 'BBB' represents adequate capacity to meet financial commitments, but more subject to adverse economic conditions. The modifiers "+" or "-" may be appended to a rating to denote relative standing within the major rating categories. The 'BBB' rating assigned by S&P is the 4th highest of S&P's 12 rating categories, which range from 'AAA' to 'D'.

A credit rating or a stability rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the credit rating organization.

The Company has made customary payments of fees to Fitch and S&P in connection with the above-mentioned ratings but has not made any payments to Fitch or S&P in respect of any other service provided to the Company by Fitch or S&P, as applicable, during the last two years.

Mr. Pastor has a BA from the University of Western Ontario and is a CFA charterholder.

Damian McKay, Chief Executive Officer, Vela Software Group
Mr. McKay is currently the CEO of Vela Software. Mr. McKay has been with Constellation Software (CSI) since 2015 when he joined with CSI's acquisition of Datamine where he was the CEO. Prior to joining CSI, Mr. McKay held a number of roles with GE and two electric utilities. Mr. McKay holds a Bachelor of Business from RMIT and Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance & Investment from the Securities Institute of Australia.

Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors has an audit committee and a compensation, nominating and human resources committee.

Audit Committee

The audit committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities for oversight and supervision of financial and accounting matters. The committee supervises the adequacy of internal accounting controls and financial reporting practices and procedures and the quality and integrity of audited and unaudited financial statements, which includes discussions with external auditors. The committee monitors the management of financial risk throughout our organization.

Audit Committee Charter

Our audit committee operates under a written charter that sets out its responsibilities and composition requirements. A copy of this charter is attached as Appendix "A" to this Annual Information Form.

Relevant Education and Experience

All members of the audit committee meet the independence criteria set out in National Instrument 52-110 – Audit Committees ("NI 52-110"). The following sets out the relevant education and experience of each director relevant to the performance of his duties as a member of the audit committee:

Mr. Kittel is the Chief Operating Officer of Westaim Canada Services Corporation. He also served as a director on several public boards, both in Canada and the United States. Mr. Kittel holds a BBA Honours (Gold Medalist) from Wilfrid Laurier University and is a Chartered Professional Accountant and a Chartered Financial Analyst.

Ms. O'Neill was an audit partner at Deloitte LLP from 1996 to 2012. She also serves as a director on several boards previously including Sierra Wireless. Ms. O'Neill is a Chartered Professional Accountant.

Ms. Gayner recently retired as President and CEO of ParkLand Ventures, Inc., an owner-operator of multifamily housing communities in the US, where she had been since 2008. She is a Chemical Engineer by training and prior to her tenure with ParkLand served in various capacities with both the DuPont Company and Hercules, Inc. She previously served on the board of directors of Synalloy Corporation. She holds a BA (Chemistry) and an ME (Chemical Engineering), both from the University of Virginia.

Based on the above information provided by each director, we believe that all members of the audit committee are "financially literate" as that term is defined in NI 52-110.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

The audit committee reviews and approves all audit and non-audit services performed by our auditors in advance of services being performed.

Auditor Fee Disclosure

The following table sets forth the fees billed or accrued for various services provided by KPMG LLP and its affiliates to the Company during the Company's last two fiscal years:

| Services | Fees Accrued During the Year Ended (US$) | |
|---|---|---|
| | December 31, 2024 | December 31, 2023 |
| Audit Fees | 2,907,481 | 2,439,232 |
| Statutory Audit Fees | 7,014,604 | 4,870,577 |
| Audit-Related Fees | 936,835 | 605,295 |
| Tax Compliance Fees | 5,038,075 | 3,939,394 |
| Other Tax Fees | 43,351 | 87,495 |
| All Other Fees | 133,116 | 542,936 |
| Total | 16,073,462 | 12,484,929 |

Audit Fees relate to professional services rendered for audits of the Company's annual consolidated financial statements, and reviews of our interim consolidated financial statements for the first three quarters of the year. Statutory Audit Fees relate to statutory and stand-alone audits of certain of our subsidiaries. Audit-Related Fees relate to certification/attestation services. Tax Compliance Fees relate principally to fees associated with assistance in respect of tax compliance requirements in various jurisdictions and investment (research and development) tax credit filings. Other Tax Fees relate to tax due diligence and tax structuring advisory services in support of mergers and acquisitions, divestiture and financing transactions. The Company regularly solicits bids from multiple service providers for tax compliance work and other tax services, and makes decisions based on factors such as expertise, capabilities and price. The time and effort required by service providers to understand the multitude of businesses owned by the Company is fairly extensive, thus developing long term relationships results in process efficiencies. All Other Fees primarily relate to merger and acquisition advisory and due diligence services, cyber security detection and response assessments, and assistance with preparation and language translation of statutory and/or stand-alone financial statements of certain of our subsidiaries. The amounts indicated above are exclusive of related taxes.

Compensation, Nominating and Human Resources Committee ("CNHR")

The CNHR committee ensures that we have a high caliber executive management team in place and a total compensation plan that is competitive, motivating and rewarding for participants. The committee also advises the Board in filling vacancies on the Board. The committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board regarding the appointment of executive officers, and the establishment of, and any material changes to, executive compensation programs, including that of the President. This committee also reviews management succession plans and is responsible for overseeing employee compensation. A copy of the CNHR committee's charter is attached to the Company's most recently filed Management Information Circular.

INTEREST OF MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Except as disclosed above under the heading "General Development of the Business – Acquisitions", in the last three years, there were no material transactions in which any director, executive officer or person that beneficially owns or controls or directs more than 10% of the Common Shares or any affiliate thereof had an interest.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

We and our subsidiaries are engaged in legal proceedings from time to time, arising in the ordinary course of business. None of these actions, individually or in the aggregate, are expected to have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position or results of operations.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The transfer agent and registrar for the Common Shares is Computershare Trust Company of Canada at its principal transfer office in Toronto, Ontario.

INTERESTS OF EXPERTS

Names of Experts

The consolidated financial statements of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 have been audited by KPMG LLP.

Interests of Experts

KPMG LLP are the external auditors of the Company and have confirmed that they are independent with respect to the Company within the meaning of the relevant rules and related interpretations prescribed by the relevant professional bodies in Canada and any applicable legislation or regulations.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

From time to time, the Company may invest in shares or other securities of publicly traded companies in which certain of our executive officers or directors may also own securities. While the Company is acquiring and holding securities of any such issuer, the Company's executive officers and directors are prohibited from acquiring or selling securities of such issuer.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information, including directors' and officers' remuneration and indebtedness, principal holders of the Company's securities, and securities authorized for issuance under equity compensation plans, where applicable, are contained in our Management Information Circular for our most recent annual meeting of shareholders that involved the election of directors, and additional financial information is provided in the Company's comparative financial statements and management discussion and analysis for our most recently completed financial year.

Additional information about the Company is available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.com.

APPENDIX A

CONSTELLATION SOFTWARE INC.

AUDIT COMMITTEE MANDATE

Responsibilities

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee shall be responsible for assisting in the Board of Directors' oversight of the reliability and integrity of the accounting principles and practices, financial statements and other financial reporting, and disclosure practices followed by management of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The Audit Committee shall also have oversight responsibility for

(i) the qualifications, independence and performance of the independent auditors,
(ii) the establishment by management of an adequate system of internal controls and
(iii) the preparation by management of quarterly and annual financial statements and
(iv) the maintenance by management of practices and processes to assure compliance with applicable laws.

Composition

The Committee shall be composed of not less than three Directors of the Corporation, all of whom are not officers or employees of the Corporation or any of its affiliates. Each member of the Committee shall be financially literate[1] or must become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Committee.

Meetings

The committee shall meet in regular sessions at least four times each year; to review and recommend to the board approval of the financial statements for the first three quarters as well as the annual financial statements. Special meetings of the Committee may be called by the Chairman of the Board, any member of the Committee, or by the independent auditors. The independent auditors shall receive notice of every meeting of the Committee and the independent auditors are entitled to attend and participate in such meetings. Minutes of Committee meetings shall be prepared and be made available to the Board of Directors.

Nomination of Independent Auditors

The Board of Directors, after consideration of the recommendation of the Committee, shall nominate the independent auditors for appointment by the shareholders of the Corporation in accordance with applicable law. The independent auditors are ultimately accountable to the Committee and the Board of Directors as representatives of shareholders.

Specific Oversight Duties

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee shall have the following specific oversight duties:

I) INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

a) review, at least annually, the performance of the independent auditors, and annually recommend to the Board of Directors, for approval by the shareholders, the appointment of the independent auditors of the Corporation in accordance with the Act;

[1] "Financially literate" shall mean that the Director is able to critically read and understand a balance sheet, an income statement, a cash flow statement and the notes attached thereto.

b) engage in an active dialogue with the independent auditors on their independence from the Corporation, and where it is determined that independence no longer exists recommend that the Board of Directors take appropriate action;

c) review and recommend to the Board of Directors for approval the terms of any annual audit engagement of the independent auditors, including the appropriateness of the proposed audit fees with respect to the engagement of the independent auditors for any audit related services;

d) approve any non-audit services to be provided by the firm of the independent auditors;

e) review and approve annually the overall scope of the independent auditors' annual audit plan;

II) INTERNAL CONTROLS

f) periodically review the status and findings of the independent auditors' audit plan and the adequacy of internal controls established by management and, where appropriate, make recommendations or reports thereon to the Board of Directors;

g) understand the scope of internal and external auditors' review of internal control over financial reporting, and obtain reports on significant findings and recommendations, together with management's responses;

h) annually, and at any time in response to a specific request by management or the independent auditors, meet separately with the relevant parties with respect to such matters as the effectiveness of the system of internal controls established by management, the adequacy of the financial reporting process, the quality and integrity of the financial statements, the evaluation of the performance of the independent auditor and any other matter that may be appropriate;

III) FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

i) review significant accounting and reporting issues, including complex or unusual transactions and highly judgmental areas, and recent professional and regulatory pronouncements, and understand their impact on the financial statements;

j) review the quarterly and annual financial statements, and consider whether they are complete, consistent with information known to committee members, and reflect appropriate accounting principles;

k) review significant changes in the accounting principles to be observed in the preparation of the accounts of the Corporation and its subsidiaries, or in their application, and in financial statement presentation;

l) review and, following discussion with the independent auditors (following their review of the financial statements) and management, recommend to the Board of Directors, approval of unaudited quarterly and audited annual consolidated financial statements of the Corporation;

IV) COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAWS

m) review and monitor practices and procedures adopted by management to assure compliance with applicable laws, and, where appropriate, make recommendations or reports thereon to the Board of Directors;

Specific Issue Examinations

In discharging its duties and responsibilities, the Committee may direct that the independent auditors examine or consider a specific matter or area and report to the Committee on the findings of such examination. The Committee may direct the independent auditors or other party to perform supplemental reviews or audits as the Committee deems desirable.

Authority

The audit committee has authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibility. It is empowered to:

- Retain outside counsel, accountants or others to advise the committee or assist in the conduct of an investigation
- Seek any information it requires from employees – all of whom are directed to cooperate with the committee's request – or external parties
- Meet with company officers, external auditors or outside counsel as necessary

Mandate Review

The Committee shall review and assess the adequacy of the Committee mandate annually, and recommend any proposed changes to the Board of Directors for approval.

Limitation of Responsibilities

While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this mandate, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits, to determine that the Corporation's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, or to design or implement an effective system of internal controls. Such matters are the responsibility of management and the independent auditors, as the case may be. Nor is it the duty of the Committee to conduct investigations, to resolve disagreements, if any, between management and the independent auditors or to assure compliance with applicable accounting standards, laws and regulations.

IN EXECUTING THIS BID, THE BIDDER WARRANTS THAT THE PRICES SUBMITTED HEREIN ARE NOT HIGHER THAN THOSE OFFERED TO ANY GOVERNMENTAL OR COMMERCIAL CONSUMER FOR LIKE DELIVERIES. THE PRICES HEREIN SHOULD NOT INCLUDE ANY FEDERAL EXCISE TAXES OR SALES TAXES IMPOSE BY ANY STATE OR MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT. SUCH TAXES, IF INCLUDED, MUST BE DEDUCTED BY THE BIDDER WHEN SUBMITTING BID. BIDDERS ARE REQUESTED TO ALSO READ THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

BID TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Bids on equipment must be on standard new equipment, latest model, except as otherwise specifically stated in proposal or detailed specification. Where any part of nominal appurtenances of equipment is not described, it shall be understood that all equipment and appurtenances which are usually provided in the manufacturer's stock model shall be furnished.
2. Bids on materials and supplies must be for new items except as otherwise specifically stated in bid or detailed specifications.
3. Bidder declares that the bid is made without any connection with any other Bidder, submitting a bid for the same items, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud.
4. PRICES The provisions of the New York State Fair Trade Law (Fed-Crawford Act) and the federal price discrimination law (Robinson-Patman Act) do not apply to purchases made by the County.
5. SURETY In the event that an award is made hereunder, The Director of Purchase reserves the right to request successful bidders to post, within one week, security for faithful performance, with the understanding that the whole or any part thereof may be used by the County of Nassau to supply any deficiency that may arise from any default on the part of the Bidder. Such security must meet all the requirements of the County Attorney and be approved by the County Attorney.

6. SAMPLES Samples, when required, must be submitted strictly in accordance with instructions; otherwise bid may not be considered. If samples are requested subsequent to bid opening they shall be delivered within five (5) days of the request for bid to have consideration. Samples must be furnished free of charge and must be accompanied by descriptive memorandum invoices indicating if the Bidder desires their return; also specifying the address to which they are to be returned, provided they have not been used or made useless by tests. Award samples may be held for comparison with deliveries. Samples will be returned at the Bidders risk and expense.

7. Award The Director, Office of Purchasing reserves the right before making award to make investigations as to whether or not the items, qualifications or facilities offered by the Bidder meet the requirements set forth herein and are sample and sufficient to insure the proper performance in the event of award. The Bidder must be prepared, if requested by the Director, to present evidence of experience, ability and financial standing, as well as a statement as to plant, machinery and capacity of the manufacturer for the production and distribution of the material on which he is bidding. Upon request of the Director, successful bidder shall file certification from the manufacturer relative to authorization, delivery, service and guarantees. If it is found that the conditions of the bids are not complied with or that articles or equipment proposed to be furnished do not meet the requirements called for, or that the qualification, financial standing or facilities are not satisfactory, the Director may reject such bids. It is distinctly understood, however, that nothing in the foregoing shall mean or imply that it is obligatory upon the Director to make any examinations before award; and it is further understood that, if such examination is made, it in no way relieves the Bidder from fulfilling all requirements and conditions of the bid.

8. Awards will be made to the lowest responsible Bidder. Cash discounts will not be a factor in determining awards, except in tie bids. Consideration will be given to the reliability of the Bidder, the quantities of the materials, equipment or supplies to be furnished, their conformity with the specifications, the purpose for which required and the terms of delivery.

9. The Director reserves the right to reject and all bids in whole or in part and to waive technical defects, irregularities and omissions if in his judgment the best interests of the County will be served.

10. Unless otherwise indicated herein, the Director reserves the right to make award by items, by classes, by group of items, or as a whole.

11. DELIVERIES Upon failure of the Vendor to deliver within the time specified, or within reasonable time as interpreted by the Director, or failure to make replacement of rejected articles, when so requested immediately or as directed by the Director, the Director may purchase from other sources to take the place of the item rejected or not delivered. The Director reserves the right to authorize immediate purchase from other sources against rejections on any order when necessary. On all-such purchases the Vendor agrees to promptly reimburse the County for excess cost occasioned by such purchases. Should the cost be less, the Vendor shall have no claim to the difference. Such purchases will be deducted from order quantity.

12. An order may be canceled at the Vendors expense upon nonperformance. Failure of the Vendor to furnish additional surety within ten (10) days from date of requested shall be sufficient cause for the cancellation of the order.

13. When in the determination of the Director, the articles or equipment delivered fail to meet County specifications or, if in the determination of the Director, the Vendor consistently fails to deliver as ordered, the Director reserves the right, to cancel the order and purchase the balance from other sources at Vendor expense.

14. Delivery must be made as ordered and in accordance with the bid. If delivery instructions do not appear on order. It will be interpreted to mean prompt delivery. The decision of the Director as to reasonable compliance with delivery terms shall be final. Burden of proof of delay in receipt of order shall rest with the Vendor.

15. The County Agencies will not schedule any deliveries for Saturdays, Sundays or Legal Holiday, except commodities required for daily consumption or where the delivery is an emergency, a replacement, or is overdue, in which event the convenience of the Agency will govern.

16. Supplies shall be securely and properly packed for shipment, according to accepted commercial practice, without extra charge for packing cases, reels, bailing or sacks, the containers to remain the property of the agency unless definitely stated otherwise in the bid.

17. The Vendor shall be responsible for delivery of supplies in good condition at point of destination. The Vendor shall file all claims with carrier for breakage, imperfections and other losses, which will be deducted from invoices. The receiving Agency will note for the benefit of Vendor when packages are not received in good conditions.

18. All supplies which are customarily labeled or identified must have securely affixed thereto the original un-mutilated label or marking of the manufacturer.

19. Billings for deliveries must be rendered on County claim forms.

20. Furniture, machines, and other equipment must be delivered, installed and set in place as directed, ready for use unless otherwise specified.

21. Deliveries are subject to reweighing at destination by the County and payment will be made on the basis of materials delivered. Normal shrinkage will be allowed in such instances where shrinkage is possible. Short weight shall be sufficient cause for cancellation of order at Vendors expense.

22. GUARANTEES BY BIDDER Bidder hereby guarantees: (a) To save the County, its agents and employees harmless from liability of any nature or kind for the use of any copyrighted or un-copyrighted composition, secret process, patented or unpatented invention, article or appliance furnished or used in the performance hereof of which the Bidder is not the Patentee, assignee or licensee, and to defend any action brought against the County in the name of the County and under the direction of the County Attorney at the sole cost of the Bidder or in the sole option of the Director to pay the cost of such defense to the County. (b) His products against defective material or workmanship and to repair any damages or marring occasioned in transit.

(c) To furnish adequate protection from damage for all work and to repair damages of any kind, for which he or his workmen are responsible, to the building or equipment, to this own work or the work of other Vendors, or in the opinion of the Director to pay for the same by deductions in payments due under this contract.

(d) To pay for ail permits, licenses and fees and give all notices and comply with all laws ordinances, rules and regulations of the city, village or town in which the installation his to be made, and of the County of Nassau and the State of New York.

(e) To carry proper insurance in the opinion of the Director, and approved by the County Attorney to protect the County from loss in case of accident, fire and theft.

(f) That he will keep himself fully informed, of all municipal ordinances and regulations, state and national laws in any manner affecting the work or goods herein specified, and any extra work contracted for by him, and shall at all times observe and comply with said ordinances, laws and regulations, including all provisions of the Workmen Compensation and Labor Laws, and shall indemnify and save harmless the County of Nassau and the Nassau County Legislature from loss and liability upon any and all Claims on account of any physical injury to persons, including death, or damage to property and from all cost and expenses in suits which may be brought against the same on account of such injuries irrespective of the actual cost of the same and irrespective of whether the same shall have been due to the negligence of the Bidder or his agents.

(g) That the items furnished shall conform to all the provisions of the bid and this warranty shall survive acceptance, or use of any material so furnished.

(h) That all deliveries will not be inferior to the accepted bid sample.

23. LABOR LAWS and ANTIDISCRIMINATION. Upon the vendor acceptance hereof, the vendor agrees to comply with Article IX, Section 2 C of the Constitution of the State of New York, Section 220 220a, 220b, 220d, 220e and 230 of the Labor Law, Section 5 and 12 of the Lien Law, Article 2 of the Uniform Commercial Code, Sections 108 and 109 as well as Article 18 of the General Municipal Law, Section 2218 of the County Government Law of Nassau County. Section 224.2 of the Nassau County Administrative Code, the provisions of the anti-Discrimination Order of Nassau County, and the vendor shall keep himself fully informed of all additional municipal ordinances and regulations, State and National Laws in any manner affecting this order and the goods or services delivered or rendered or to be delivered or rendered there under, and shall at all times observe and comply with said ordinances, laws and regulations at his sole cost and expense.

24. ASSIGNMENT. The contractor is hereby prohibited from assigned, transferring, conveying, subletting or otherwise disposing of this contract or his right, title, or interest therein, or his power to execute such contract, to any other person or corporation without the previous consent in writing of the officer, board or agency awarding the contract.

25. The County of Nassau will not be responsible nor liable for any shipment or delivery of any materials, supplies, or equipment without it's express written instructions or valid Purchase Order.

26. No agreements, changes, modifications or alterations shall be deemed effective nor shall the same be binding upon the County unless in writing and signed by the Director, Office of Purchasing or his duly/ designated representative.

Director. Office of Purchasing

Appendix EE

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR MINORITIES AND WOMEN

The provisions of this Appendix EE are hereby made a part of the document to which it is attached.

The Contractor shall comply with all federal, State and local statutory and constitutional anti-discrimination provisions. In addition, Local Law No. 14-2002, entitled "Participation by Minority Group Members and Women in Nassau County Contracts," governs all County Contracts as defined by such title and solicitations for bids or proposals for County Contracts. In accordance with Local Law 14-2002:

(a) The Contractor shall not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status in recruitment, employment, job assignments, promotions, upgradings, demotions, transfers, layoffs, terminations, and rates of pay or other forms of compensation. The Contractor will undertake or continue existing programs related to recruitment, employment, job assignments, promotions, upgradings, transfers, and rates of pay or other forms of compensation to ensure that minority group members and women are afforded equal employment opportunities without discrimination.

(b) At the request of the County contracting agency, the Contractor shall request each employment agency, labor union, or authorized representative of workers with which it has a collective bargaining or other agreement or understanding, to furnish a written statement that such employment agency, union, or representative will not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or marital status and that such employment agency, labor union, or representative will affirmatively cooperate in the implementation of the Contractor's obligations herein.

(c) The Contractor shall state, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees, that, in the performance of the County Contract, all qualified applicants will be afforded equal employment opportunities without discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status.

(d) The Contractor shall make Best Efforts to solicit active participation by certified minority or women-owned business enterprises ("Certified M/WBEs") as defined in Section 101 of Local Law No. 14-2002, including the granting of Subcontracts.

(e) The Contractor shall, in its advertisements and solicitations for Subcontractors, indicate its interest in receiving bids from Certified M/WBEs and the requirement that Subcontractors must be equal opportunity employers.

(f) Contractors must notify and receive approval from the respective Department Head prior to issuing any Subcontracts and, at the time of requesting such authorization, must submit a signed Best Efforts Checklist.

(g) Contractors for projects under the supervision of the County's Department of Public Works shall also submit a utilization plan listing all proposed Subcontractors so that, to the greatest extent feasible, all Subcontractors will be approved prior to commencement of work. Any additions or changes to the list of subcontractors under the utilization plan shall be approved by the Commissioner of the Department of Public Works when made. A copy of the utilization plan any additions or changes thereto shall be submitted by the Contractor to the Office of Minority Affairs simultaneously with the submission to the Department of Public Works.

(h) At any time after Subcontractor approval has been requested and prior to being granted, the contracting agency may require the Contractor to submit Documentation Demonstrating Best Efforts to Obtain Certified Minority or Women-owned Business Enterprises. In addition, the contracting agency may require the Contractor to submit such documentation at any time after Subcontractor approval when the contracting agency has reasonable cause to believe that the existing Best Efforts Checklist may be inaccurate. Within ten working days (10) of any such request by the contracting agency, the Contractor must submit Documentation.

(i) In the case where a request is made by the contracting agency or a Deputy County Executive acting on behalf of the contracting agency, the Contractor must, within two (2) working days of such request, submit evidence to demonstrate that it employed Best Efforts to obtain Certified M/WBE participation through proper documentation.

(j) Award of a County Contract alone shall not be deemed or interpreted as approval of all Contractor's Subcontracts and Contractor's fulfillment of Best Efforts to obtain participation by Certified M/WBEs.

(k) A Contractor shall maintain Documentation Demonstrating Best Efforts to Obtain Certified Minority or Women-owned Business Enterprises for a period of six (6) years. Failure to maintain such records shall be deemed failure to make Best Efforts to comply with this Appendix EE, evidence of false certification as M/WBE compliant or considered breach of the County Contract.

(l) The Contractor shall be bound by the provisions of Section 109 of Local Law No. 14-2002 providing for enforcement of violations as follows:

a. Upon receipt by the Executive Director of a complaint from a contracting agency that a County Contractor has failed to comply with the provisions of Local Law No. 14-2002, this Appendix EE or any other contractual provisions included in furtherance of Local Law No. 14-2002, the Executive Director will try to resolve the matter.

b. If efforts to resolve such matter to the satisfaction of all parties are unsuccessful, the Executive Director shall refer the matter, within thirty days (30) of receipt of the complaint, to the American Arbitration Association for proceeding thereon.

c. Upon conclusion of the arbitration proceedings, the arbitrator shall submit to the Executive Director his recommendations regarding the imposition of sanctions, fines or penalties. The Executive Director shall either (i) adopt the recommendation of the arbitrator (ii) determine that no sanctions, fines or penalties should be imposed or (iii) modify the recommendation of the arbitrator, provided that such modification shall not expand upon any sanction recommended or impose any new sanction, or increase the amount of any recommended fine or penalty. The Executive Director, within ten days (10) of receipt of the arbitrators award and recommendations, shall file a determination of such matter and shall cause a copy of such determination to be served upon the respondent by personal service or by certified mail return receipt requested. The award of the arbitrator, and the fines and penalties imposed by the Executive Director, shall be final determinations and may only be vacated or modified as provided in the civil practice law and rules ("CPLR").

(m) The contractor shall provide contracting agency with information regarding all subcontracts awarded under any County Contract, including the amount of compensation paid to each Subcontractor and shall complete all forms provided by the Executive Director or the Department Head relating to subcontractor utilization and efforts to obtain M/WBE participation..

Failure to comply with provisions (a) through (m) above, as ultimately determined by the Executive Director, shall be a material breach of the contract constituting grounds for immediate termination. Once a final determination of failure to comply has been reached by the Executive Director, the determination of whether to terminate a contract shall rest with the Deputy County Executive with oversight responsibility for the contracting agency.

Provisions (a), (b) and (c) shall not be binding upon Contractors or Subcontractors in the performance of work or the provision of services or any other activity that are unrelated, separate , or distinct from the County Contract as expressed by its terms.

The requirements of the provisions (a), (b) and (c) shall not apply to any employment or application for employment outside of this County or solicitations or advertisements therefore or any existing programs of affirmative action regarding employment outside of this County and the effect of contract provisions required by these provisions (a), (b) and (c) shall be so limited.

The Contractor shall include provisions (a), (b) and (c) in every Subcontract in such manner that these provisions shall be binding upon each Subcontractor as to work in connection with the County Contract.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "Best Efforts Checklist" shall mean a list signed by the Contractor, listing the procedures it has undertaken to procure Subcontractors in accordance with this Appendix EE.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "County Contract" shall mean (i) a written agreement or purchase order instrument, providing for a total expenditure in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whereby a County contracting agency is committed to expend or does expend funds in return for labor, services, supplies, equipment, materials or any combination of the foregoing, to be performed for, or rendered or furnished to the County; or (ii) a written agreement in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), whereby a County contracting agency is committed to expend or does expend funds for the acquisition, construction, demolition, replacement, major repair or renovation of real property and improvements thereon. However, the term "County Contract" does not include agreements or orders for the following services: banking services, insurance policies or contracts, or contracts with a County contracting agency for the sale of bonds, notes or other securities.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "County Contractor" means an individual, business enterprise, including sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, not-for-profit corporation, or any other person or entity other than the County, whether a contractor, licensor, licensee or any other party, that is (i) a party to a County Contract, (ii) a bidder in connection with the award of a County Contract, or (iii) a proposed party to a County Contract, but shall not include any Subcontractor.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "County Contractor" shall mean a person or firm who will manage and be responsible for an entire contracted project.

As used in this Appendix EE "Documentation Demonstrating Best Efforts to Obtain Certified Minority or Women-owned Business Enterprises" shall include, but is not limited to the following:

a. Proof of having advertised for bids, where appropriate, in minority publications, trade newspapers/notices and magazines, trade and union publications, and publications of general circulation in Nassau County and surrounding areas or having verbally solicited M/WBEs whom the County Contractor reasonably believed might have the qualifications to do the work. A copy of the advertisement, if used, shall be included to demonstrate that it contained language indicating that the County Contractor welcomed bids and quotes from M/WBE Subcontractors. In addition, proof of the date(s) any such advertisements appeared must be included in the Best Effort Documentation. If verbal solicitation is used, a County Contractor's affidavit with a notary's signature and stamp shall be required as part of the documentation.

b. Proof of having provided reasonable time for M/WBE Subcontractors to respond to bid opportunities according to industry norms and standards. A chart outlining the schedule/time frame used to obtain bids from M/WBEs is suggested to be included with the Best Effort Documentation

c. Proof or affidavit of follow-up of telephone calls with potential M/WBE subcontractors encouraging their participation. Telephone logs indicating such action can be included with the Best Effort Documentation

d. Proof or affidavit that M/WBE Subcontractors were allowed to review bid specifications, blue prints and all other bid/RFP related items at no charge to the M/WBEs, other than reasonable documentation costs incurred by the County Contractor that are passed onto the M/WBE.

e. Proof or affidavit that sufficient time prior to making award was allowed for M/WBEs to participate effectively, to the extent practicable given the timeframe of the County Contract.

f. Proof or affidavit that negotiations were held in Best Efforts with interested M/WBEs, and that M/WBEs were not rejected as unqualified or unacceptable without sound business reasons based on (1) a thorough investigation of M/WBE qualifications and capabilities reviewed against industry custom and standards and (2) cost of performance The basis for rejecting any M/WBE deemed unqualified by the County Contractor shall be included in the Best Effort Documentation

g. If an M/WBE is rejected based on cost, the County Contractor must submit a list of all sub-bidders for each item of work solicited and their bid prices for the work.

h. The conditions of performance expected of Subcontractors by the County Contractor must also be included with the Best Effort Documentation

i. County Contractors may include any other type of documentation they feel necessary to further demonstrate their Best Efforts regarding their bid documents.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "Executive Director" shall mean the Executive Director of the Nassau County Office of Minority Affairs; provided, however, that Executive Director shall include a designee of the Executive Director except in the case of final determinations issued pursuant to Section (a) through (l) of these rules.

BIDDER TITLE

As used in this Appendix EE the term "Subcontract" shall mean an agreement consisting of part or parts of the contracted work of the County Contractor.

As used in this Appendix EE, the term "Subcontractor" shall mean a person or firm who performs part or parts of the contracted work of a prime contractor providing services, including construction services, to the County pursuant to a county contract. Subcontractor shall include a person or firm that provides labor, professional or other services, materials or supplies to a prime contractor that are necessary for the prime contractor to fulfill its obligations to provide services to the County pursuant to a county contract. Subcontractor shall not include a supplier of materials to a contractor who has contracted to provide goods but no services to the County, nor a supplier of incidental materials to a contractor, such as office supplies, tools and other items of nominal cost that are utilized in the performance of a service contract.

Provisions requiring contractors to retain or submit documentation of best efforts to utilize certified subcontractors and requiring Department head approval prior to subcontracting shall not apply to inter-governmental agreements. In addition, the tracking of expenditures of County dollars by not-for-profit corporations, other municipalities, States, or the federal government is not required.

Prohibition of Gifts. In accordance with County Executive Order 2-2018, the Contractor shall not offer, give, or agree to give anything of value to any County employee, agent, consultant, construction manager, or other person or firm representing the County (a "County Representative"), including members of a County Representative's immediate family, in connection with the performance by such County Representative of duties involving transactions with the Contractor on behalf of the County, whether such duties are related to this Agreement or any other County contract or matter. As used herein, "anything of value" shall include, but not be limited to, meals, holiday gifts, holiday baskets, gift cards, tickets to golf outings, tickets to sporting events, currency of any kind, or any other gifts, gratuities, favorable opportunities or preferences. For purposes of this subsection, an immediate family member shall include a spouse, child, parent, or sibling. The Contractor shall include the provisions of this subsection in each subcontract entered into under this Agreement.

Disclosure of Conflicts of Interest. In accordance with County Executive Order 2-2018, the Contractor has disclosed as part of its response to the County's Business History Form, or other disclosure form(s), any and all instances where the Contractor employs any spouse, child, or parent of a County employee of the agency or department that contracted or procured the goods and/or services described under this Agreement. The Contractor shall have a continuing obligation, as circumstances arise, to update this disclosure throughout the term of this Agreement.

Vendor Code of Ethics. By executing this Agreement, the Contractor hereby certifies and covenants that:

1) The Contractor has been provided a copy of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics issued on June 5, 2019, as may be amended from time to time (the "Vendor Code of Ethics"), and will comply with all of its provisions;
2) All of the Contractor's Participating Employees, as such term is defined in the Vendor Code of Ethics (the "Participating Employees"), have been provided a copy of the Vendor Code of Ethics prior to their participation in the underlying procurement;
3) All Participating Employees have completed the acknowledgement required by the Vendor Code of Ethics;
4) The Contractor will retain all of the signed Participating Employee acknowledgements for the period it is required to retain other records pertinent under this Agreement;
5) The Contractor will continue to distribute the Vendor Code of Ethics, obtain signed Participating Employee acknowledgements as new Participating Employees are added or changed during the term of this Agreement, and retain such signed acknowledgements for the period the Contractor is required to retain other records pertinent to performance under this Agreement; and
6) The Contractor has obtained the certifications required by the Vendor Code of Ethics from any subcontractors or other lower tier participants who have participated in procurements for work under this Agreement.

INDEMNIFICATION:

Contractor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless County and its agents, officers and employees, from and against any and all losses, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements), damages and liabilities, arising out of or in connection with any acts or omissions of Contractor, its officers, agents or employees, provided, however, that Contractor shall not be responsible for that portion, if any, of a loss that is caused by the negligence of the County; and provided, further, that Contractor shall not be liable for consequential, indirect or special damages. Contractor shall, at County's demand and at County's direction, defend at its own risk and expense any and all suits, actions or legal proceedings which may be brought against County, its agents, officers or employees in connection with a loss for which Contractor is responsible under this paragraph.

DEFINITIONS:

- The term "County" as used herein, shall be deemed as reference to the County of Nassau, State of New York.
- The term "Contractor" as used herein, shall be deemed as reference to the successful bidder, vendor, proprietor, partnership, or corporation receiving an award to perform any or all of the services specified herein in accordance with the terms of this agreement.
- The term "agency" as used herein, shall be deemed as the department, division, bureau, office, agency or other Nassau County establishment authorized to receive the service specified herein.
- The term "Director" as used herein, shall be deemed as reference to the Director of the Office of Purchasing.
- The term "Blanket Order" as used herein, shall be deemed as the multiple use pricing agreement as a result of this bid.
- The term "Purchase Order" as used herein, shall be deemed as the single use pricing agreement as a result of this bid.
- The term "complete" as written in this bid must include all equipment, delivery and installation of same in its entirety, as listed in the contract documents, and is to include all supervision, labor, materials, plant equipment, transportation, testing, (if required) incidentals, and other facilities as necessary and/or required to execute all the work as herein specified, or as incidentally required to provide a complete operating installation.

NOTE: INSERT FEDERAL IDENTIFICATION NUMBER IN SPACE PROVIDED ON PAGE 1.

M/WBE, SDVOB and DBE Participation: The County encourages the participation of certified Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Businesses ("SDVOB"), Minority or Women-Owned Business Enterprises ("M/WBE"), and Disadvantaged Business Enterprises ("DBE") in the bidding process. A Contractor that is certified by New York State or the County as a SDVOB, M/WBE, and/or DBE should include this information in their bid. For more information regarding the County's SDVOB, M/WBE, or DBE programs, please visit the Nassau County Office of Minority Affairs website

REQUIRED VENDOR DISCLOSURE FORMS

Prior to the bid opening, the following disclosure forms (the "Disclosure Forms") must be submitted in the Nassau County Vendor Portal at https://apex5.nassaucountyny.gov/ords/f?p=312:LOGIN_DESKTOP:3445712403627:

a. A duly completed and verified Business History Form, together with a current certified or verified financial statement and/or other commercially reliable written evidence of the bidder's credit, financial standing and capacity to perform in accordance with the terms of the Contract.

b. All officers, and any individuals who hold a ten percent (10%) or greater ownership interest in the bidder, shall complete and verify the Principal Questionnaire.

c. The County of Nassau Consultant's, Contractor's and Vendor's Disclosure Form

d. Additionally, if the bidder utilizes the services of any individual or organization for the purposes of conducting lobbying activities and is awarded the contract, the successful proposer will be required to provide a copy of the Lobbyist Registration and Disclosure Form, completed and verified by that individual/organization.

PLEASE NOTE:

- If a bidder has previously submitted the Disclosure Forms in the Nassau County Vendor Portal, the bidder must ensure that the forms on file in the Portal are current, accurate, and have been recertified within three (3) months prior to the bid opening date. The bidder must also ensure that their response to question 7, and its subparts, on the Consultant's, Contractor's, and Vendor's Disclosure Form is provided in relation to the specific solicitation under consideration.

ALL DISCLOSURE FORMS MUST BE UPLOADED PRIOR TO BID OPENING

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION OR CLARIFICATION

Before bidding, bidders must examine all of the Contract documents, including the specifications, any drawings, and all instructions. If the bidder finds any inconsistency, ambiguity, omission or error in the specifications, drawings, instructions or any other Contract document, or if the bidder is in doubt as to the meaning of any term or condition of the Contract, the bidder must promptly so notify the Office of Purchasing in writing prior to the bid opening. The failure of the bidder to notify the Office of Purchasing, prior to the bid opening of any inconsistency, ambiguity, omission or error that the bidder actually found, or that should have been discovered by a reasonably prudent bidder, will preclude and negate acceptance of the bidder's claim.

If the Office of Purchasing receives a notification from a bidder of a differing site condition or an inconsistency, ambiguity, omission or error in the Contract documents, the Office of Purchasing will, as it deems necessary or desirable, issue a written interpretation or correction to the Contract documents as an amendment to the Contract documents. Any such amendment will be made available electronically to each person that received a copy of the Contract documents as reflected in the records of the Office of Purchasing , and any such amendment will also be available at the place where the Contract documents are available for inspection by prospective bidders.

Upon such mailing or delivery, such amendment shall become part of the Contract documents and shall be binding on all bidders, whether or not they have had actual notice of such addendum.

Please note that all bidder requests for information or clarification must be received by the Authority at least 72 hours prior to the bid opening. Any bidder requests for information or issues with the contract documents presented after that time may not be addressed by the Office of Purchasing.

Ordinance # 153-2018

Pursuant to Ordinance # 153-2018, a bidder that is awarded a contract under this bid is required to pay the County an administrative service charge in accordance with the following schedule:

| Value of Contract | Administrative Fee |
|---|---|
| $0-$10,000 | $0 |
| Over $10,000-$50,000 | $160 |
| Over $50,000-$100,000 | $266 |
| Over $100,000 | $533 |

After an award, the successful bidder(s) will be notified by the Director of Shared Services, or their designee, when payment of the administrative charge is due. Please note, if you are a religious, charitable, nonprofit, or not-for-profit organization, please include this information in your bid for consideration by the Director of the Shared Services to waive the fee.

Ordinance # 72-2014

The bidder declares that they are a registered vendor with the County. All registered vendors must pay a Two Hundred Seventy-Five Dollar ($275.00) per contract fee to register Blanket contracts on the County's procurement website, as required under Ordinance # 72-2014.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this bid is to establish a price structure on which items and/or services will be made under Blanket Orders.

INTENT

SCOPE: It is the INTENT of the County of Nassau to properly describe by these specifications, terms and conditions an adequate method of providing HELICOPTER REPAIR SERVICE for the agency or agencies named herein in order that they may enjoy uninterrupted service in consideration for payment of the price bid.

AWARD: Award, if any, will be made to the lowest responsible bidder, who in the opinion of the Director of Purchasing, meets the specifications and qualifications stated herein. The Director of Purchasing reserves the right to make an award be items, groups, or classes of items or as a whole. Awards will be made in accordance with the terms and conditions attached hereto and made part hereof.

PERIOD COVERED: Shall be for one (1) year from the effective date. The County of Nassau reserves the right to extend the Blanket Order up to an additional four (4) year(s), at up to one (1) year options. However, the termination of the Blanket Order may be further extended up to two (2) months beyond the stated termination date. The maximum period of any Blanket Order as a result of this bid with renewal options applied shall be five (5) year(s), and if the further extension is applied, five (5) years and two (2) months.

ALL EXTENSIONS ARE SUBJECT UPON THE MUTUAL CONSENT OF BOTH PARTIES.

PAYMENT IN DETAIL: Billing shall be rendered in detail, listing parts and materials used, their prices and labor shown in hours and extended rates.

PAYMENT: A certified invoice, or a County claim form to which the invoice is attached, shall be submitted in arrears, directly to the using agency, supported by vouchers signed by agency personnel attesting to satisfactory completion of the required services as specified.

VENDOR CLAIM CERTIFICATION**********************

If a claim voucher is not being submitted, the following certification MUST appear on the invoice:

I hereby certify that all items or services were delivered or rendered as set forth in this claim; that the prices charged are in accordance with referenced purchase order, delivery order or contract, that the claim is just, true and correct; that the balance stated herein is actually due and owing and has not been previously claimed; that no taxes from which the County is exempt are included; and that any amounts claimed for disbursements have actually and necessarily been made.

FIRM PRICES Price shall remain firm for the first year of the Blanket Purchase Order and no upward escalation will be permitted. Thereafter, increases in labor and/or material(s) costs may be considered provided they are based on certified labor contracts, uncontrollable materials costs which can be verified in national publications or other increases auditable by the County of Nassau. The burden of proof for such increases shall be upon the Contractor and shall be formally directed to the Director of Purchasing. The decision as to whether or not such increases will be granted shall be made by the Director of Purchasing and shall be final. In the event an increase in not granted when requested, the Contractor may elect to continue at the bid prices or given written notice of termination, upon receipt of which the Blanket Purchase Order will be re-bid.

TERMINATION PREROGATIVE: The Director reserves the right to cancel the Blanket Order by giving not less than thirty (30) days written notice that, on or after a date therein specified, the contract shall be deemed terminated and cancelled.

DISCLAIMER

Any Blanket Purchase Order issued as a result of this bid will establish terms and conditions pursuant to which certain materials and/or services are to be supplied or performed, from time to time, for a specified period upon issuance by the County of Delivery Orders. The Blanket Purchase Order is non-exclusive and the County is not bound to purchase, and no materials are to be delivered or services performed without a Delivery Order. The County shall be under no obligation whatsoever to issue such Delivery Orders. The Blanket Purchase shall not apply in any way to items of material or service deemed by the County in its sole discretion to be extraordinary or involve any special conditions, quantities, circumstances or complexities.

NEW YORK STATE PRICES: Bidders must represent and warrant that if they are under contract with New York State for items specified herein, that the price quoted to the County is not higher than the price per unit quoted to New York State for like quantities.

VENDOR RESPONSIBILITY CRITERIA: The Director of Purchasing reserves the right before making an award to make investigations as to whether or not the qualifications, services, facilities or items offered by the bidder meet the requirements set forth herein and are ample and sufficient to ensure the proper performance in the event of an award. The bidder must be prepared, if requested by the Director of Purchasing, to present evidence of experience, ability, financial standing, as well as a statement as to plant, machinery, trained personnel and capacity for the rendition of the service on which the vendor is bidding. Upon request of the Director, the successful bidder shall file certification from the manufacturer relative to authorization, delivery, service and guarantees. If it is found that the conditions of the bid are not complied with or that the services or equipment proposed to be furnished do not meet the requirements called for, or that the qualifications, financial standing, or facilities are not satisfactory, the Director may reject such bids. It is distinctly understood, however, that nothing in the forgoing shall mean or imply that it is obligatory upon the Director to make any examinations before an award; and it is further understood that, if such examination is made, it in no way relieves the bidder from fulfilling all requirements and conditions of the bid.

EVALUATION:

The Director of the Office of Purchasing (hereinafter known as the Director) reserves the right before making award to make investigations as to whether or not the items, qualifications, services or facilities offered by the Bidder meet the requirements set forth herein and are ample and sufficient to insure the proper performance in the event of an award. The Bidder must be prepared, if requested by the Director, to present evidence of experience, ability and financial standing, as well as a statement as to plant, machinery, trained personnel and capacity for the rendition of the service on which he his bidding. Upon request of the Director of Purchasing, successful bidder shall file certification from the manufacturer relative to authorization, delivery, service and guarantees. If it is found that the conditions of the bids are not complied with or that the services or equipment proposed to be furnished do not meet the requirements called for, or that the qualifications, financial standing or facilities are not satisfactory, the Director may reject such bids. It is distinctly understood, however, that nothing in the foregoing shall mean or imply that it is obligatory upon the Director to make any examinations before award; and it is further understood that, if such examination is made, it in no way relieves the Bidder from fulfilling all requirements and conditions of the bid.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The Director reserves the right to accept or reject any and all bids, or separable portions of offers, and waive technicalities, irregularities, and omissions if the Director determines the best interests of the County of Nassau will be served. The Director, in his sole discretion, may accept or reject illegible, incomplete or vague bids and his decision shall be final. A conditional or revocable bid which clearly communicates the terms or limitations of acceptance may be considered and contract award may be made in compliance with the bidder's conditional or revocable terms in the offer. Prior to award, the Director reserves the right to seek clarifications, request bid revisions, or to request any information deemed necessary for proper evaluation of bids from all bidders deemed to be eligible for contract award. Failure to provide requested information may result in rejection of the bid.

NON PERFORMANCE

The Contractor agrees that in the event any of the services provided for under the terms of this contract should in any way be omitted or unsatisfactorily performed by the Contractor and/or his employees, the county shall so notify the contractor verbally and follow with a written notification of the deficient services for immediate correction. In the event the Contractor does not correct the deficient services after receipt of written notification, the Nassau County Department concerned will deduct a percentage based on the work not performed or performed unsatisfactorily from the Contractor's claim for the period covered. If the Contractor continues to omit or unsatisfactorily perform the required services, the County will arrange for the work to be done by another contractor and the cost of such work shall be deducted from any monies due or that may become due to the Contractor.

Contractor shall retain complete and accurate records and documents related to this Agreement for six (6) years following the later of termination or final payment. Such records shall at all times be available for audit and inspection by the County.

Governing Law – Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue; Governing Law. Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement or required by Law, exclusive original jurisdiction for all claims or actions with respect to this Agreement shall be in the Supreme Court in Nassau County in New York State and the parties expressly waive any objections to the same on any grounds, including venue and forum non conveniens. This Agreement is intended as a contract under, and shall be governed and construed in accordance with, the Laws of New York State, without regard to the conflict of laws provisions thereof.

MINIMUM ORDERS: There will be many County Agencies ordering from Blanket Orders. Therefore, NO MINIMUMS SHALL BE APPLIED TO THIS BID.

ALL BIDS MUST BE F.O.B. DESTINATION AND INCLUDE DELIVERY WITHIN DOORS UNLESS OTHERWISE SPECIFIED.

BIDDER SIGN HERE _____ Philip C. Bidden _____ President and CEO

BIDDER TITLE

PRICE LISTS AND DISCOUNTS: Bidders may attach price lists and catalogs indicating discounts available to the County for all other products not listed herein. New items may be added to the price list at the then current price at the same discount schedule during the life of the contract.

PRICE LIST AND CATALOG SERVICE: The successful bidder shall furnish, upon request, price lists and catalogs to agencies authorized to use the Blanket Order which may be awarded under this bid. Photocopies will be accepted in lieu of originals. Two (2) copies of the current price list/catalog must be sent to the Nassau County Office of Purchasing. Failure to keep the Nassau County Office of Purchasing advised of price list/catalog changes may delay the processing of payments.

NY STATE LABOR LAW

If any portion of work being Bid is subject to the prevailing wage rate provisions of the Labor Law, the following shall apply:

a. "Public Works" and "Building Services" - Definitions

i. Public Works Labor Law Article 8 applies to county contracts for public improvements in which laborers, workers or mechanics are employed on a "public works" project (distinguished from public "procurement" or "service" contracts).

ii. Building Services Labor Law Article 9 applies to Contracts for building service work with the county, that: (i) involve the care or maintenance of an existing building, or (ii) involve the transportation of office furniture or equipment to or from such building, or (iii) involve the transportation and delivery of fossil fuel to such building, and (iv) the principal purpose of which is to furnish services through use of building service employees.

b. Prevailing Wage Rate Applicable to Bid Submissions A copy of the applicable prevailing wage rates to be paid or provided are annexed to the Bid Documents. Bidders must submit Bids which are based upon the prevailing hourly wages, and supplements in cash or equivalent benefits (i.e., fringe benefits and any cash or non-cash compensation which are not wages, as defined by law) that equal or exceed the applicable prevailing wage rate(s) for the location where the work is to be performed. Bidders may not submit Bids based upon hourly wage rates and supplements below the applicable prevailing wage rates as established by the New York State Department of Labor. Bids that fail to comply with this requirement will be disqualified. Information indicating that prevailing wages are not being paid on a public works project will be forwarded to the New York State Department of Labor for investigation. Willful violations of the prevailing wage provisions of the Labor Law may result in debarment from the bidding and award of public contracts.

c. Wage Rate Payments / Changes During Contract Term The wages to be paid under any resulting Contract shall not be less than the prevailing rate of wages and supplements as set forth by law. It is required that the Contractor keep informed of all changes in the Prevailing Wage Rates during the Contract term that apply to the classes of individuals supplied by the Contractor on any projects resulting from this Contract, subject to the provisions of the Labor Law. Contractor is solely liable for and must pay such required prevailing wage adjustments during the Contract term as required by law.

d. Public Posting & Certified Payroll Records In compliance with Article 8, Section 220 of the New York State Labor Law:

i. Posting The Contractor must publicly post on the work site, in a prominent and accessible place, a legible schedule of the prevailing wage rates and supplements.

ii. Payroll Records Contractors and Subcontractors must keep original payrolls or transcripts subscribed and affirmed as true under the penalties of perjury as required by law. For public works contracts over $25,000 where the Contractor maintains no regular place of business in New York State, such records must be kept at the work site. For building services contracts, such records must be kept at the work site while work is being performed.

iii. Submission of Certified Payroll Transcripts for Public Works Contracts Only Contractors and Subcontractors on public works projects must submit monthly payroll transcripts to the project manager for a public works project.

iv. Records Retention Contractors and Subcontractors must preserve copies of such certified transcripts for a period of three years from the date of completion of work on the awarded contract.

If this contract is for Building Service Work as defined in Article 9 of the Labor Law, State law prohibits other political subdivisions and districts within the County from making purchases pursuant to this agreement.

The County Living Wage Law, Title 57, Section 3(a)(i), states: employers who provide building services shall pay their employees no less than the living wage, as required by this section, or the prevailing wage, whichever is greater. In future bidding procedures, the requirement should be "vendor must pay the prevailing wage, or the County Living Wage, whichever is greater", or similar language.

Low Vendor Participation for formal sealed bid 90516-05216-117

HELICOPTER REPAIRS

1) Review the specification to ensure that it is not unduly restrictive to limit competition. Some factors to consider in this regard include: 1) Is any component of the solicitation so restrictive that only one or a small number of vendors can respond to the solicitation? 2) If so, were those vendors notified of the solicitation? yes.

2) This was a commodity purchase. The commodity code use was the best code in the county's system that described the item (s) that were requested. The commodity specifications were such that the vendor understood what the County was requesting. All vendors listed were notified.

3) Was the solicitation advertised and posted on the County website as required yes

4) Would the County be likely to obtain greater vendor participation by advertising in other venues (e.g. New York State Contract Reporter, trade journals, other local media, etc.)? Advertised in NY State Contractor

5) Was the commodity code used to conduct the solicitation appropriate? Were appropriate vendors registered with the County for that commodity code or otherwise notified yes

6) Is the market for the specified goods or services structurally limited (i.e. are there geographic, capital, vendor capacity, service schedule, or other requirements) that may inhibit greater vendor participation.no.

7) Was the solicitation conducted in a manner consistent with this Policy yes

8) Survey vendors that received notice of the solicitation but did not respond to determine why the vendor chose not to do so. Questions to be asked include: o Why did the vendor decline to bid or propose?
   Was there anything in the County's specifications, terms or conditions that caused them not to bid? If so, what?
   What changes, if any, could the County make to the solicitation to encourage competition? none

9) If a vendor indicates that they did not bid or propose due to the specifications, terms or conditions, or if one indicates a change to the solicitation could enhance competition, then such feedback must be conveyed in writing to the subject matter expert responsible for the specification and the DCCO for consideration prior to recommending an award or reissuing the solicitation. No.

Re: Stryker Sales LLC. Adverse information

In reviewing the Business History Form it was brought to our attention that there were potential claims.

April 1, 2025 – United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), United States Department of Justice ("DOJ"), and certain other regulatory authorities – Stryker was informed by the DOJ that it had closed its inquiry into potential FCPA violations without further action.

Having reviewed this matter, we find there is no justification to find the vendor non-responsible for this award.

YES [X] NO [ ] If yes, provide details for each such investigation, an explanation of the circumstances and corrective action taken.

Stryker, founded in 1964, is a global leader in medical technologies which operates numerous business units, including surgical equipment and navigation systems (Instruments), endoscopic and communications systems (Endoscopy), patient handling, emergency medical equipment and intensive care disposable products (Medical), minimally invasive products for treatment of acute ischemic and hemorrhagic stroke and venous thromboembolism (Vascular), a comprehensive line of products for traditional brain and open skull based surgical procedures; orthobiologic and biosurgery products, including synthetic bone grafts and vertebral augmentation products (Neuro Cranial), and orthopeadics products consisting primarily of implants used in hip and knee joint replacements and trauma and extremity surgery (Orthopaedics).

Accordingly, as a global corporation operating through numerous different business units, Stryker Corporation (and/or certain subsidiaries) has been the "subject of" "criminal investigation or civil anti-trust investigation byany Federal, State, or Local prosecutorialor investigative agency" and/or "investigation by any government agency, including regulatory agencies." As a publicly traded corporation, Stryker discloses all such information to the public via different regulatory filings. The following is a list of investigations" of which Stryker was a subject:
- April 1, 2025 – United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), United States Department of Justice ("DOJ"), and certain other regulatory authorities – Stryker was informed by the DOJ that it had closed its inquiry into potential FCPA violations without further action.
- September 28, 2018 – SEC- Stryker was charged with violating FCPA by having insufficient accounting controls in connection with subsidiaries in India, China, and Kuwait. Stryker agreed to settle the charges by paying approximately $7.8M.
- December 8, 2014 – DOJ – OtisMed (and former CEO) admitted to certain violations of the FDCA. OtisMed was fined approximately $40M. Stryker acquired OtisMed in 2009, which connected Stryker to this investigation; however, OtisMed's alleged violations occurred prior to Stryker's acquisition.
- October 24, 2013 – SEC – Stryker was charged with violating the FCPA in connection with subsidiaries in Argentina, Greece, Mexico, Poland, and Romania. Stryker settled the charges and agreed to pay approximately $13M to settle charges.
The above list is not intended to include every instance in which Stryker was "[s]ubject of an investigation by any government agency, including regulatory agencies"; however, it is intended to highlight the more significant investigations related to Stryker.

13) In the past 5 years, has this business and/or any of its owners and/or officers and/or any affiliated business been the subject of an investigation by any government agency, including but not limited to federal, state and local regulatory agencies? And/or, in the past 5 years, has any owner and/or officer of an affiliated business been the subject of an investigation by any government agency, including but not limited to federal, state and local regulatory agencies, for matters pertaining to that individual's position at or relationship to an affiliated business.

A second chance at life

On the day of the 2024 Belfast Marathon, 63-year-old John was feeling fit and ready to run. But he doesn't remember much about the race. Despite his years of experience with long distance running, including two marathons the year before, John collapsed at the halfway mark. He wasn't just exhausted—he was in cardiac arrest.

Luckily, bystander Peter O'Hare saw John collapse and quickly recognized the severity of the situation. Peter is a Senior Manager of Global Upstream Marketing for Stryker's Emergency Care Business, and having trained in emergency response, knew that John would need both CPR to keep his blood pumping and the help of an automated external defibrillator (AED) to get his heart beating again. A nurse began CPR while Peter ran to get the Stryker-made AED he keeps in his car, knowing that every minute counts.

AEDs are used in cardiac events to help restore the heart to its normal rhythm and are essential to saving the lives of people like John. Stryker's devices are designed to be intuitive, easy to use and clinically effective, with proprietary CPR Advisor technology that gives real-time feedback on the quality of CPR. Peter explained that while performing CPR for John, it was like "having someone standing over your shoulder saying 'keep doing what you're doing.'"

> "My angels were all aligned that day."

John refers to Peter, and the others who intervened that day, as his "angels." After Peter helped restore his heartbeat at the scene, John was transported to the local hospital, beginning his journey to a full recovery. "My angels were all aligned that day," says John, "It's a miracle what happened. I'm here today because of the defib."

John's story underscores the importance of having defibrillators in the community—and making them easy to use in emergency situations. Of his work, Peter noted, "I'm so grateful every day that we get to make products that literally help save and change people's lives. It really is a terrifying experience when someone's life is at threat, but I'm so thankful I was able to take immediate action."

A message from Stryker's Chair and CEO, Kevin Lobo

Dear stakeholders,

> "Innovation is the lifeblood of a high-tech MedTech company, and we have healthy product pipelines across our businesses to help fuel future growth."

We delivered an excellent year of results in 2024 and continued to grow our global impact, touching the lives of over 150 million patients. We are driving outstanding innovation and had an active year of acquisitions that will help sustain our growth at the high end of MedTech. Our strong talent and culture, combined with our decentralized operating model, are key to our success. I'd like to thank our employees for their dedication and continued partnership with our customers to make healthcare better.

Talent and culture

Our mission and values are unifying forces in our company and our culture centers on purpose, talent, relationships and growth. Aligned with our commitment to employee engagement, we continue to advance our diversity and inclusion efforts, which are contributing to our success. In recognition of our talent and culture, Stryker continues to be honored as a Great Place to Work across the world and across categories including World's Best Workplaces, Best Workplaces in Asia, 100 Best Companies to Work for in U.S. and Europe and Best Workplaces for Women.

We had two changes to our Board of Directors in 2024. After 15 years of distinguished service, Dr. Srikant Datar announced he would not be standing for re-election (see page 37). We also welcomed new board member Rachel Ruggeri, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Starbucks, and she is having a positive impact on the board.

Innovation

Innovation is the lifeblood of a high-tech MedTech company, and we have healthy product pipelines across our businesses to help fuel future growth. Our deep customer insights allow us to understand their needs and build or buy technologies and solutions to address them. We launched numerous high-impact products in 2024 including our Pangea Plating System and LIFEPAK 35 monitor/defibrillator. We were also active in M&A, completing seven deals in the year, which are illustrated on pages 11–12. These acquisitions all fit within our existing businesses and will help accelerate growth and deliver more value to our customers. For example, care.ai, is positioned to build upon our recent Vocera purchase, showing our commitment to growing our presence in healthcare information technology, and will help optimize clinical and operational workflows for our customers.

Performance

In 2024, Stryker achieved another year of double-digit organic sales growth. We remain focused on advancing globalization, and our international success continued with 8.8% organic sales growth in the year. We continue to be under-penetrated in many markets outside of the U.S., and our international opportunity remains significant. We also delivered on our adjusted operating margin goal, expanding margins by 110 bps, and we remain on track to achieve our stated goal of returning to the 2019 level of adjusted operating margin by the end of 2025. Our adjusted earnings per share grew an impressive 15%, and we delivered solid free cash flow.

Corporate responsibility

We are committed to making an impact toward a better, healthier world as outlined in our Corporate Responsibility (CR) framework of "stronger people, healthier planet and good business." We are making progress toward our environmental commitments to be carbon neutral in our facilities by 2030 and power all facilities with renewable electricity by 2027. Our environmental initiatives are also beneficial to our business and our customers; for example, by reducing material use in packaging. As you read this report, you will see the numerous ways we are driving impact to improve the health of our employees, communities and the planet. I was particularly impressed by the charitable giving of our employees, which was supplemented by a strong company matching program.

"Our mission and values are unifying forces in our company."

In summary, our strategy is working, and we continue to drive high growth across our key metrics. I would like to thank my fellow employees and Board of Directors for their passion and dedication to living our mission and values. I continue to believe that Stryker's best days are ahead of us.

Kevin Lobo

Clinical Specialist

Stryker aims to make healthcare better—for the healthcare customers we serve, professionals who use our products and patients receiving care. We leverage market insights to better understand and create value for the people we impact.

To deliver on our mission, Stryker continually adapts to the ever-changing healthcare environment. Digitization is disrupting the industry, providing opportunities for us to help healthcare professionals use technology to manage complexity and reduce cognitive burdens. Growing global demand and a shift from inpatient to outpatient care is creating new demand for our products in different care settings.

Stryker is investing in innovation and acquisitions that allow us to meet these evolving needs. At the same time, many aspects of our approach remain constant, including a focus on health equity, an emphasis on educating the next generation of healthcare professionals and a steadfast commitment to quality in all we do.

Healthcare innovation

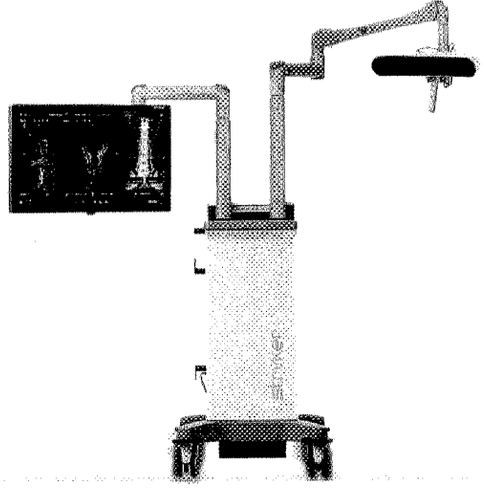
Internal research and development (R&D) is an important part of how we innovate. Stryker's R&D Fellows program recognizes our most esteemed technical leaders whose impactful innovations have meaningfully advanced Stryker's mission to make healthcare better. In 2024, the company welcomed three new Distinguished R&D Fellows and 10 Technical R&D Fellows. We are also driving innovation suited to local markets with centers of excellence such as Stryker's Global Technology Center in Gurugram, India, and an R&D Lab in Brisbane, Australia.

For more than a decade, mergers and acquisitions have also been a critical part of Stryker's growth strategy. The company has completed 60 acquisitions since 2014, and seven in 2024 alone. Inorganic innovation supports our company strategy and complements the work of our R&D Teams to strengthen our portfolio and deliver on our mission.

Investing in advanced digital healthcare

Stryker has an enterprise-wide focus on integrating digital features and other enabling technologies into our products, that can help improve outcomes and create value for customers and patients. Examples of this innovation from across our portfolio include:

- Our latest Spine Guidance 5 Software is designed to help surgeons plan and execute complex spinal procedures. Features include automatic screw suggestion, rod visualization and alert zone notifications that include audible and tactile feedback to help guide the surgeon's movement during bone resection and screw insertion.



- With over 18+ years of experience and more than 1.5 million procedures[3] performed across 45 countries globally, Mako SmartRobotics has demonstrated enhanced outcomes, such as shorter recovery times and less pain, for total hip, partial knee and total knee patients when compared to manual surgery.[4,5,6]

- LIFEPAK 35 is Stryker's first monitor/defibrillator launch in years and comes with technology upgrades that meet the needs of today's healthcare professionals, including a large, intuitive touchscreen and advanced clinical decision-support tools that help reduce cognitive burden.
- In 2024, Stryker completed the acquisition of care.ai, whose platform and sensors enable a variety of artificial intelligence-enabled workflows, allowing caregivers to spend more time with patients. This technology will one day integrate with our Clinical Communication and Workflow platform and many other Stryker devices, helping deliver Dynamic Clinical Workflow solutions that further enable a smarter continuum of care.

Healthcare innovation

Responding to evolving sites of care

Around the world, people are staying active as they age. And post-pandemic, more people are opting for elective surgeries. The rising number of elective surgeries, coupled with a shift toward performing these procedures in ambulatory surgical center (ASCs), is reshaping the landscape of care delivery. Today, there are more than 6,300 Medicare-certified ASCs in the United States, and ASCs are being constructed at a ratio of 7 to 1 when compared to traditional hospitals.[7,8]

ASCs are highly specialized facilities, focused on specific types of procedures, such as orthopaedic surgeries. This specialization enables them to handle a high volume of cases efficiently, improving patient throughput and allowing more people to receive care in a timely manner. Stryker understands the unique needs of ASCs and offers solutions suited to this emerging care setting, including:

- The Artelon FlexBand Systems come in single-use, sterile blister packs, providing a complete set of tools and implants. For ASCs, where efficiency, safety and cost-effectiveness are paramount, sterile-packed solutions can be beneficial. They help streamline operating room (OR) workflows by reducing setup time, minimizing instrument clutter and reducing the need for in-house sterilization. This helps save on both time and resources while reducing the risk of contamination.

  Designed to support the growing volume of elective soft tissue procedures in ASCs, these kits also feature the Artelon differentiated synthetic technology. This technology is designed to load share with native tissue. Load sharing may support induction of regenerative biological signaling. With convenience, reliability, and innovation in one package, the Artelon FlexBand Systems align with the evolving needs of modern ASCs.

- The Mild procedure, created by Vertos Medical, provides a minimally invasive treatment option for patients with lumbar spinal stenosis who are not receiving adequate relief from conservative therapies. Stryker's acquisition of Vertos Medical strengthens our Interventional Spine Business, further enhancing our focus on advanced pain procedures.

- The Triathlon Cementless primary knee implant incorporates the same design as the trusted Triathlon brand[9] without the need for cement. The Triathlon Cementless knee implant has demonstrated improved patient satisfaction[10,11] than cemented knees and allows for enhanced operational efficiencies including OR time savings[10,12] and elimination of cost storage and cement mixers[13] that can be beneficial to the ASC setting.

Advancing education

Worldwide, healthcare systems are evolving. Advances in technology are making novel treatments and procedures an option for people in many parts of the world—while others are at risk of being left behind. At the same time, we're seeing increased focus on controlling healthcare costs from payers, including governments and insurers.

Advancing healthcare access

Stryker's Global Government Affairs and Market Access (GAMA) organization is designed to navigate the intricacies of government policies, reimbursement systems and market access challenges across the globe. By advocating for patients, supporting healthcare providers and working to streamline market access, GAMA helps make innovative medical technologies available to those who need them most. For example, Stryker recently successfully advocated for increased availability of automated external defibrillators (AEDs) at schools in the state of Michigan—a development that will help keep children safe.

Supporting medical education

As new procedures and products become available, healthcare professionals' knowledge must keep up. Recent highlights from Stryker's medical education programs include:

- Onsite training—We continue to focus on hands-on training at our company-owned lab facilities and local institutions. Many of our facilities saw record levels of in-person participation in 2024.
- Virtual training—We have enhanced our virtual training opportunities through the deployment of new learning management systems, technology to support live surgeries and options for virtual surgical observations. We have also increased the amount of online learning available, including new Mako on-demand courses.
- Mobile labs—Stryker had 657 mobile lab stops in 2024. Mobile labs put the latest advancements in Stryker's portfolio in reach of more people, including those in rural and remote locations, while reducing the need for busy executives and clinicians to travel.

Engaging women in orthopaedics

Women remain significantly underrepresented among orthopaedic surgeons. To identify and advance qualified women into the orthopaedics field, Stryker supports organizations including the Ruth Jackson Orthopaedic Society, Women in Arthroplasty, the Orthopaedic Diversity Leadership Consortium and Women Orthopaedist Global Outreach, all of which work to develop skills and drive more women into this important field.

Learn more about Stryker's efforts around medical education and healthcare access and affordability in Stryker's Corporate Responsibility reports and resources.

Product quality and safety

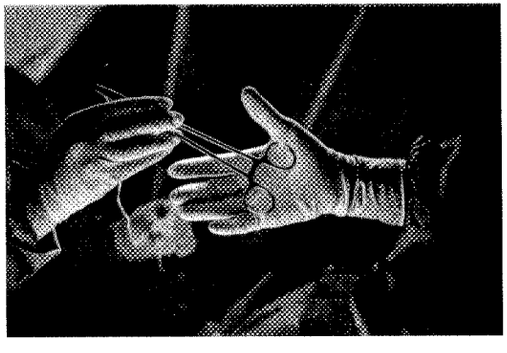
Stryker's Quality Policy guides our approach to product quality, promoting that our healthcare solutions meet or exceed safety, efficacy and efficiency standards.

Our global design and manufacturing sites hold International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 13485:2016 certification for medical devices and meet numerous other relevant standards. These certifications play a pivotal role in shaping our product design, manufacturing and distribution processes. Dedicated teams ensure that products and solutions obtained via acquisition meet our quality standards.



Stryker undergoes rigorous independent assessments for quality, including 192 external quality audits in 2024. Covering our design, manufacturing, logistics and distribution sites, these audits ensure that our operations consistently meet industry standards. Alongside external evaluations, Stryker also conducted 386 independent internal quality audits in 2024. The insights gained from these assessments drive continuous improvement.

Product quality and safety

Quality training

We require all employees to complete quality-related training applicable to their roles, using self-paced reading, web-based training and in-person training as required. When procedures change, we retrain employees as needed.

Quality monitoring

Stryker's quality processes are supported by a robust quality data program that includes key process indicators for different dimensions of quality. The data we collect guides us in managing day-to-day quality activities and is regularly reviewed with executive leadership.

Designing for quality

We have dedicated Quality Teams working throughout the new product development process to challenge assumptions and drive high standards for product validations. These teams partner with our Design Engineering Teams to instill our quality culture into the product lifecycle. They analyze the risks of health and safety impacts for our products and assess them for improvements. We also take feedback from current-generation products to R&D Teams to improve next-generation designs.

Ensuring product security and trust

Stryker is committed to ensuring the security and safety of our medical devices through a proactive approach to product security. Our dedicated Product Security Team integrates security measures throughout the product lifecycle, from design and development to deployment and maintenance. We collaborate closely with suppliers, industry partners and regulatory authorities to address emerging threats, safeguard sensitive data and maintain compliance with industry standards such as FDA cybersecurity guidelines for medical devices, as well as industry standards like ISO 13485 and International Electrotechnical Commission 62304. Learn more about our commitment to product security.

Product quality and safety

Continuous improvement

Stryker uses an industry-leading Corrective and Preventive Action (CAPA) program to drive continuous improvement. This program follows a rigorous process to determine the root causes of defects and develop improvement plans to help eliminate recurrence. One vital input to our program is post-market surveillance, where we evaluate customer-reported issues. This information feeds into our CAPA system, providing a feedback loop directly from customers into future product and process designs.

Clinical trials

To generate data and establish evidence on the safety and efficacy of our products in humans, Stryker's Clinical Teams conduct and oversee clinical trials, including Stryker-sponsored and investigator-initiated studies. We conduct clinical trials in line with specific business needs by division and product family. Our clinical trials follow all divisional, corporate clinical and company policies, as well as applicable regional regulations.

Stryker's clinical trials comply with Good Clinical Practice (GCP), the international ethical and scientific quality standard for human subject trials. In addition to clinical trial data credibility, compliance with GCP provides assurance that the rights, safety and wellbeing of trial participants are protected according to principles derived from the Declaration of Helsinki. Clinical trials also comply with other applicable standards by geography.

Stryker remains committed to updating our clinical procedures and policies in line with regulatory requirements, ensuring high-quality evidence through both clinical studies and real-world data. Guided by evolving regulations, we plan to design and conduct clinical studies with broader patient participation. Moreover, our continued advocacy efforts on the regulatory front, coupled with cross-industry collaboration, will help drive representative enrollment in clinical trials, ultimately leading to meaningful improvements in patient care.

Stronger people

Mark Larson,
Senior Machine Shop Manager

People are the heart of our company and core to our mission. We are committed to our employees and the communities we serve, who together form the foundation of our culture and fuel our efforts to make a positive impact on the healthcare industry.

Stronger people make a stronger culture, and Stryker works to foster this strength through our inclusion initiatives, career development opportunities, commitment to environment, health and safety (EHS) practices and work we do to improve lives in our communities.

These efforts help build our culture—a core part of our overall company story. Our mission and values tell the story of why we exist and what we believe, our company strategy tells the story of where we are going and how we will get there, and the following culture statements, introduced in 2024, describe how we get things done.

- Purpose: Customers and patients are at the heart of what we do
- Talent: We value our diverse strengths
- Relationships: We care for each other and collaborate to win
- Growth: We're passionately driven to deliver

Our success depends on our ability to attract and retain the best talent. To do so, we continue to focus on creating and maintaining a great workplace. We believe in attracting the right people, maintaining and building employee engagement and developing our employees. When people are able to do what they do best, they will look forward to coming to work and, in turn, will deliver great business results.

Career development

We proudly live our values, one of which is to grow talent. Through leadership and employee development, and by listening to the various points of view of our employees, we have maintained our reputation as a great place to work. In 2024, we built upon the foundation of our Talent Offense—a comprehensive approach to attract, engage, align and develop talent—to enhance development and goal setting, prepare leaders for critical and evolving roles and expand opportunities to help employees advance their careers.

Fostering leadership at every level

Since 2014, our Leadership Expectations have provided common language for our team on what good leadership looks like at every level of the organization. They describe the behaviors that drive our success, deliver on our mission and strategy and build a culture that focuses on our purpose, talent, relationships and growth. Since creating our Leadership Expectations, our business has doubled in size, and the external environment has changed dramatically. In response, we refreshed our Leadership Expectations in 2024 to align with our culture statements and help ensure we focus on what matters most for employees and leaders today.

Our updated Leadership Expectations ask our leaders to:

Lead from our mission

by designing the future with our customers and patients in mind.

Win together

by collaborating to accelerate innovation and global growth.

Develop people

by investing in everyone to help them reach their full potential.

Make growth happen

by delivering exceptional results in a sustainable way.

We provide specific examples of how to embody these Leadership Expectations based on different roles in the organization, whether an employee leads an organization, a practice or process, other leaders or employees or themselves. Every leader at every level adds value and paves the way for our future success.

Career development

Developing goals that matter

Professional growth happens at Stryker in a variety of ways. Individuals set goals for performance, Leadership Expectations and individual development, using Workday as a centralized tool where employees and managers can collaborate and measure progress. In 2024, we evolved our goal-setting process to align with our updated Leadership Expectations. In parallel with this process, our Human Resources Team has created comprehensive support materials to help people understand best practices of goal writing and evaluation, providing a clear roadmap for how to learn, grow and advance at Stryker.

Beyond annual performance reviews, we encourage open dialogue by offering two formal manager-employee progress check-ins each year, to ensure there is clear understanding of expectations, performance progress and opportunities for growth. Additionally, Stryker has more than 330 employees trained to coach other employees on career development.

Taking the pulse

Employee surveys also provide valuable insights that managers can use to inform development conversations. More than 40,000 employees participated in our latest pulse survey, which focused on psychological safety, inclusion, career and overall wellbeing. In our annual pulse survey, 80 percent reported having meaningful development discussions with their managers. In addition, we saw a notable improvement in employees reporting that they feel managers care about their wellbeing.

Growing participation in career development

In 2024, we launched and expanded five key employee development programs, including:

Impact from the Core

A program to enable Managers and Senior Managers to lead through change, create psychological safety on their teams, navigate paradoxes and build their self-awareness

280 participants globally

Grow-on-the-Go

A new mobile app to support professional development

1,600 participants globally

Big Think

Developing leaders through a partnership with the Big Think platform and Stryker's leaders

530+ employees have completed the program; 670 more currently enrolled

Business Acumen

A program leveraging an interactive simulation to bring to life the challenges of setting a strategy, balancing priorities, allocating resources and delivering on key metrics to drive overall business success

100 people in first global cohort

PEAK Commercial Leader program

A development journey designed to provide leaders with a high impact, personalized learning experience

25 senior leaders participated over nine-month period

Diversity, equity and inclusion

We are united by our mission and strengthened by our culture. Our employees' diverse strengths, experiences and perspectives are essential for driving innovation and making healthcare better. By caring for each other, we foster an inclusive workplace where everyone feels seen, heard and valued.

Our commitment to DE&I

We remain committed to strengthening the diversity of our workforce, advancing a culture of inclusion and growth. We believe that diverse perspectives help drive innovation, engagement and a strong culture.

Tapping into homegrown talent

In Kalamazoo, Michigan, our efforts to expand access and invest in local talent are paying off. In 2024, our investments in the Career Right Here program came full circle when Higher Promise interns who came to Stryker through the program became full-time hires. Additionally, we engaged more than 200 students through Stryker Day, a program designed to introduce middle and high school students to career possibilities in medical technology.

Environment, health and safety

Stryker is committed to a safe and sustainable future. Guided by core values, Stryker's business is conducted in a way that is protective of the health, safety and wellbeing of our people, those working on our behalf, our customers, the environment and our communities.

Our EHS management system elevates our organizational success by focusing on people and protecting the environment. The system has established standards that we implement across our organization, and this helps foster a culture of responsibility, continuous improvement and accountability that is at the core of our business.

Our EHS strategic framework is grounded in four essential pillars:

People
Promoting the safety, health and wellbeing of all people in the work environment

Engagement
Leadership empowering teams to own and drive excellence in EHS

Compliance
Reaching beyond compliance in EHS and operational efficiency

Agility
Building capability for sustained growth and asset protection and development

Together, we are committed to a safe and sustainable future.

EHS governance and policies

In 2024, we issued a new Global EHS Policy, which outlines the long-term direction and commitment of the company to support and continually improve EHS performance.

Our EHS Leadership Team has also continued to develop and operationalize EHS Management and Technical Standards tailored to our risk profile and aligned with International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 14001 and ISO 45001 management systems. Our Global EHS Leadership Team oversees execution of these standards, and a designated owner is identified for each, which helps ensure implementation at the facility level. We continue to expand and strengthen our EHS model with expertise in process safety, industrial hygiene, radiation physics, combustible dust hazards and other domains.

EHS Risk Assessment is a fundamental part of our safe workplace, and in 2024 we have seen the benefits of a concerted effort to focus and reduce risk associated with fire safety. We will continue to focus on this fundamental program in 2025 to lower incident rates, enhance compliance with regulations and continue to build upon our strong safety culture.

Safety performance across our facilities

Prevention of illness and injury is paramount to all EHS efforts, and we continue to strive to eliminate hazards from our facilities and improve our EHS culture. We engage site leaders and local EHS committees to implement our risk management strategies and continually improve our safety culture and performance. The risk management plan systematically identifies, assesses, prioritizes, mitigates and monitors potential risks and uncertainties that could impact our employee safety.

In 2024 we achieved the following:

- Annual Global Safety Month reached manufacturing, commercial, distribution and field employees.
- Monthly EHS Leadership Forums were conducted to highlight outstanding performance and opportunities for improvement.
- We supported year-round efforts, including CPR training and workplace walkthroughs.
- We increased focus on safety observations as a leading indicator.

In addition to these initiatives, we continued to strengthen our risk management program, as well as our injury investigation and reporting process. We focused on leading indicators for EHS performance, such as the closure of safety observations and hazard identification, which are critical to addressing potentially unsafe conditions. We also continued to measure lagging indicators, including recordable injury rate and lost time injury rate.

Focus on our key risk areas

As a leader in selling imaging, medical and other supportive technologies, Stryker is dedicated to ensuring the safety of customers and other individuals who encounter radiation emitting equipment. Our Radiation Safety program is based on As Low As Reasonably Achievable (ALARA) principles, a radiation safety principle based on the minimization of exposure to ionizing radiation. In addition, we educate X-ray equipment operators, lab managers and our sales force on safe practices for radiation technology and the importance of data registration and monitoring.

In 2024, Stryker focused on other key safety improvements and initiatives, informed by third-party expertise, to ensure a comprehensive review of operational risk.

Key additions to our safety practices include:

- Risk hazard assessment standard
- Combustible dust standard
- Contractor safety standard
- Blood borne pathogens and other potentially infectious materials standard
- Driver safety standard

Communities

In 2024, Stryker's employees continued to drive our company-wide passion for improving the lives of others. We deepened our signature partnerships and investments in our local communities while forging new initiatives to deliver support where it is most needed.

We envision a society where every person feels they belong and can reach their full potential, regardless of their race, identity or area code. Stryker's social impact strategy is guided by four areas of focus, all viewed through the lens of equity:

Advancing healthcare
Provide access to safe, timely healthcare to underresourced groups

Improving environmental health
Tackle global and local sustainability challenges

Supporting education
Help public education prepare every child to achieve their potential

Enriching community culture
Connect, strengthen and empower people and communities

Employees driving impact
Employees have always been key contributors to our social impact efforts, and we amplify their generosity through company giving and volunteering programs. Their involvement not only delivers value to the nonprofits we support but helps support employee engagement and retention.

Our impact in 2024
$11.3M donated through our giving and volunteering platform, Impact

11,000+ employee donors and volunteers

35,000+ hours volunteered

5,700 total nonprofits supported

Giving back in Michigan
As the city where Dr. Homer Stryker founded our company in 1941, we remain committed to investing in Kalamazoo as a vibrant place to live, work and play. In 2024, we provided support to local nonprofits, including YWCA Kalamazoo, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southwest Michigan, Kalamazoo Nature Center and more.

Kalamazoo Regional Educational Service Agency (KRESA)—a local cornerstone of the community—provides high-quality educational and career readiness experiences for youth across Southwest Michigan. Stryker supports MiCareerQuest, an interactive career exploration event programmed by KRESA, in which more than 5,000 students participate each year to learn about careers in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM).

Communities

In 2024, we saw a significant increase in employees engaging with Impact, our global giving and volunteering platform. The number of participants grew from 6,900 to 11,200 between 2023 and 2024, while the number of hours volunteered also increased from 22,500 to 35,800—thanks in part to two new programs that have enhanced employees' engagement and ability to give back:

- Impact 101, a rewards-based campaign, through which the company adds reward dollars to each employee's "Impact account," allows individuals to then decide where to donate these funds.
- Our Global Volunteer Network was launched in 2023 to help employees organize their own volunteer opportunities. The Network includes members who volunteer strategy and guide goal setting and training, as well as planning and hosting events. The Global Volunteer Network works with Visit.org, a signature partner, to provide a range of volunteer opportunities globally. For example, in 2024, Stryker's employees packed hygiene kits and engaged youth in Costa Rica, created care packages for hospitalized children and supported the conservation of local bee populations, all within our giving and volunteering focus areas.

Aligning our DE&I strategy with our volunteering

Stryker's Employee Resource Groups (ERGs) are deeply integrated in our volunteering and giving efforts. Through our ERG Social Impact Ambassador network, which launched in 2024, representatives meet quarterly to identify key causes, plan giving or fundraising opportunities, and undertake volunteering opportunities on Impact, our global giving and volunteering platform.

Communities

Driving impact with signature partners

Stryker's social impact work aims to advance healthcare, support education, improve environmental health and foster community culture. As part of these efforts, we fund a curated group of signature partners and invite employees to support them as well. These valued partners, whose work aligns with both our social impact strategy and company mission to make healthcare better through giving and volunteering, are:

Supporting relief efforts as a Red Cross Annual Disaster Giving Program (ADGP) member

Stryker's humanitarian relief strategy is rooted in the safety and wellbeing of our employees and communities, and we support those impacted by disaster through our partnership with the Red Cross. We are a member of the Red Cross ADGP, providing an annual donation that helps enable the Red Cross not only to respond immediately to disasters around the world, but also proactively prepare before a crisis strikes.

Through this partnership, our employees are able to get involved in their communities through organized blood drives, emergency preparedness training and other community initiatives. Additionally, employees amplify our giving by supporting humanitarian relief through Impact.

Operating more efficiently—by reducing energy, materials, process complexity and operating costs—benefits Stryker's business. It also helps us meet our environmental sustainability goals.

As a major player in the medical device and equipment supply chain, Stryker's actions to protect the environment are of interest to many stakeholders. Each year, we see a growing interest from customers and investors around what we're doing to reduce our footprint. We know that future talent and current employees alike take pride in working for a company that sets sustainability goals and steps up to achieve them. For all of these stakeholders and our planet, we're proud to share our progress in 2024.

Operational carbon emissions

We remain committed to making progress on carbon emissions reduction, with the long-term goal for Stryker's facilities to be carbon neutral (Scope 1 and 2) by 2030. As of the end of 2023, we exceeded our interim 2024 goal for emissions reduction, due primarily to our strategic investments in energy efficiency and renewable energy.

Eight of our sites are International Organization for Standardization (ISO) certified and have undergone environmental assessments or certification procedures.

In 2024, Stryker strengthened our processes to drive completeness and accuracy of our reported data, and, for the first time, we solicited and received third-party limited assurance. Given regulatory requirements and investor requests with respect to transparency into our reporting processes and data, receiving limited assurance from an external auditor helps Stryker report on our progress with confidence in the accuracy of our claims.

For more information on our greenhouse gas emissions and energy consumption, please see our 2023 environmental performance data and assurance certificate in the Appendix.

Progress toward our operational carbon emissions goals[14]

| Goal | Progress |
|---|---|
| Reduce Scope 1 and 2 carbon emissions by 20% by 2024 and become carbon neutral for Stryker's facilities by 2030 (compared to a 2019 baseline)[14] | 32% emissions reduction of total Scope 1 and Scope 2 footprint as of the end of 2023 |
| Power all facilities with 100% renewable electricity by 2027 | 45% used 45 percent renewable electricity to power facilities worldwide |

Installing renewable energy

In 2024, Stryker added new renewable procurement contracts at three sites and new onsite solar installations at our St. Leonards, Australia, and Venlo, Netherlands, sites. 2024 was the first year we had a full 12 months of production from the North American virtual power purchase agreement (VPPA) we signed with Orsted, which projects to cover roughly 70 percent[15] of electricity use at our facilities in North America. We expect this to greatly expand our renewable electricity usage in 2024. We are pursuing strategies to remain on track to meet our 2027 100 percent renewable goal.

Improving energy efficiency

Stryker continues to identify and execute on more efficient approaches to electricity, heating, ventilation and air conditioning. Recent projects include:

Combined heat and power installation
Arroyo, Puerto Rico
16,500 MWh of electricity will be saved annually

Reuse steam energy in production process
Cary, Illinois
1,490 MWh of electricity will be saved annually

Enhanced roof and building insulation
Tuttlingen, Germany and Montbonnot, France
450 MWh of electricity will be saved annually

LED lighting upgrades
Phoenix, Arizona
122 MWh of electricity will be saved annually

Value chain carbon emissions

The majority of Stryker's carbon footprint is found in Scope 3 emissions, which includes our supply chain, transportation, logistics and product use, among other categories. In late 2023, Stryker signed a commitment letter to the Science Based Targets initiative (SBTi), signaling our intent to set a science-based target within two years. Throughout 2024, we focused on refining our Scope 3 data and we are assessing the viability of submitting an SBTi target in 2025. In 2024, we established a Value Chain Carbon Emissions Steering Committee to develop our Scope 3 strategy, focusing on data pre-assurance processes and controls, onboarding a new Scope 3 data platform and creating a supplier engagement roadmap.
We also teamed up with Kaiser Permanente and Vizient to launch the Collaborative for Healthcare Action to Reduce MedTech Emissions (CHARME) collaborative. Together with health systems, medical device and equipment suppliers, distributors, group purchasing organizations, and other key industry stakeholders, we'll explore a roadmap to reduce emissions through product innovation, product durability, reprocessed single-use devices and renewable energy.

Design for sustainability

As a supplier to health systems around the world, Stryker strives to incorporate sustainable design into our products and packaging, which helps our customers address their value chain impacts. In 2024, we refined our sustainable design framework to align with four priorities:

- Selecting materials and process
- Optimizing lifecycles
- Lightweighting
- Reducing disposal

Trident II Tritanium Acetabular Shells made with additive manufacturing

The following examples highlight how we apply these priorities across our products.

Selecting materials and processes

Advanced manufacturing processes allow us to use less energy and create less waste.[16] For example, additive manufacturing (AM), also known as 3D printing, uses computer-aided design software to create objects one layer at a time. We recently conducted a lifecycle assessment (LCA) comparing one version of our Trident II acetabular shell made with AM with another made by forging. The acetabular shell made with AM was shown to have a lower environmental impact due to reduced raw material and energy usage versus the similar forged product.[17]

Other state-of-the-art processes we're leveraging include Low Pressure Metal Injection Molding, a proprietary technique that streamlines the production of intricate metal components, reducing material usage and environmental impact compared to traditional foundry methods.[18] Our Knee Business uses this technique to manufacture the Triathlon Pro PS femoral component, for which it won Stryker's internal 2024 Design for Environmental Sustainability Award.

Optimizing lifecycles

By making products modular, we make it easier for customers to replace only the components they need. We've also designed selected products for refurbishment and reuse. Stryker offers capital product take-back through various Certified Preowned (CPO) programs. Our Medical, Instruments and Endoscopy Divisions have established CPO programs that revitalize products and reintroduce them into the market. This approach minimizes waste to landfill and reduces the need for new production. In 2024, our Medical and Instruments Divisions' CPO programs diverted approximately 7,000 products, preventing around 940,000 pounds of waste from reaching landfills.

Design for sustainability

The primary focus of Stryker's Sustainability Solutions (SSS) Business is to extend the lifecycle of single-use medical devices through reprocessing. Devices can be reprocessed more than once—some reusable devices as many as 20 times.[19] LCAs underscore the environmental benefits of reprocessing. For example, a 2024 LCA of our reprocessed HARMONIC 1100 [HAR1136] Shears showed a 38 percent reduction in carbon footprint for devices that are reprocessed compared to those that are not.[20] In 2024, SSS helped customers divert more than 5 million pounds of waste from landfills through our reprocessing programs, saving 3,250 customers approximately $239 million.[21] In the same time period, we have helped more than 50 Integrated Delivery Networks save over $1 million annually in supply chain costs.[21]

One way we enhance product lifecycles and reduce waste across various Stryker products is through the repacking of items that have damaged cosmetic outer packaging for select markets. We have established a process that involves our distribution center in Venlo, Netherlands, as well as divisional QA and manufacturing sites, to perform reviews of these products. Where repacking is not feasible, the products are returned to manufacturing sites for appropriate rework or recycling. This approach has substantially reduced the necessity to scrap products or return them to suppliers, saving over 500,000 pounds of product from being discarded thereby reducing environmental costs.

Lightweighting

By reducing product and packaging weight, we strive to decrease not only materials used, but also the impact associated with transportation. Our Craniomaxillofacial Business unit redesigned the packaging for its QuikFlap product to enhance sustainability. The packaging reduced paper use by 89 percent*, and the cardboard is Forest Stewardship Council certified and is made with 85 percent recycled material.

Reducing disposal

In 2024, Stryker expanded its use of electronic instructions for use (eIFUs) and reduced the size of IFUs to minimize waste. Through Project GreenTree in our Instruments Division, we printed IFUs only in required regional languages, avoiding unnecessary printing and conserving resources.

At our Kiel site, we implemented a process to minimize product waste through repacking and resterilization. This initiative prevents products from being scrapped through expiration, significantly reducing waste and reducing disposal. By repackaging and resterilizing these products, we conserve valuable resources, provide high-quality products through smarter processes and support a more sustainable supply chain.

The lifespan of medical devices varies, with many designed for only a single use. As a result, hospitals send thousands of tons of medical materials to landfills each year. We look for opportunities to reduce this waste and promote circularity. While SSS prioritizes reprocessing of devices wherever possible, we also recycle some devices that can no longer be reprocessed. For example, our recycling initiatives for pulse oximeter sensors and electrocardiogram leads have sent over 365,000 pounds of these products to a third-party recycler in 2024.

As a member of the Healthcare Plastics Recycling Council, Stryker is also co-leading a project to create a short list of procurement criteria to enhance healthcare plastics recycling.

*compared to previous packaging

Operational waste reduction

Stryker's waste management strategy is to decrease the amount of waste we generate through our operations and increase recycling and reuse where possible. At our six facilities in Ireland, we have achieved zero waste to landfill designation. Operations of SSS in Tijuana, Mexico, reduce the waste sent to landfill by converting production waste into energy though cement co-processing.

Reprocessing single-use medical devices involves extensive use of personal protective equipment (PPE) by employees at our reprocessing facilities. To address this operational waste, SSS has collaborated with a third-party partner to recycle PPE used by our manufacturing teams at the Phoenix, Arizona, facility.

Good business

As we work to make healthcare better, we aim to do so in a way that instills confidence. A strong foundation of ethical business conduct and compliance with global regulations helps us win in the right ways.

In line with the company's strategic objectives, good governance reduces risk and enables growth. Stryker maintains high expectations of our senior leaders, Board of Directors and other leadership, including those responsible for corporate responsibility at the company. We are continually strengthening our practices and educating employees on our standards for ethical behavior, respect for human rights, security and privacy principles. These expectations extend to third-party partners, suppliers and others who interact with us.

Juliet Younger,
Field Operations Associate

Governance

In 2024, we updated our Corporate Governance Guidelines to limit the number of public company boards on which our directors may serve. Under the new guidelines, Stryker's Board members may sit on a maximum of four public company boards, except for sitting CEOs of a public company, who may serve on a maximum of three public company boards. We also periodically review the Board Committee Charters and make updates to all the committee charters to stay current with new regulations, market trends and investor expectations.

All of our directors, other than Stryker's CEO Kevin Lobo, are independent under the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. Rachel Ruggeri was elected to the Board at our 2024 annual meeting.

For more information about our governance practices, policies and responsibilities of Board committees, visit our Corporate governance webpage. ## Corporate responsibility governance

Stryker has a Corporate Responsibility (CR) Steering Committee which includes three executive officers who report to the CEO. The Committee meets monthly to drive CR strategy across the company, advocate for responsible, sustainable practices and oversee performance. The Committee also:

- Advises on strategy and initiatives for CR
- Provides accountability for CR-related budget and resources
- Guides company-level disclosures and business integration strategies
- Oversees development of future CR operating models
- Provides accountability for progress toward goals, including setting new goals

Members of the CR Steering Committee, along with other Leadership Team members, provide quarterly updates to the Governance and Nominating Committee, which oversees all CR matters at the Board level, as well as annual updates to the full Board of Directors.

Stryker's Human Resources (HR) function regularly briefs the Compensation and Human Capital Committee and the Board on diversity, equity and inclusion matters and performance. Our global Chief Information Officer/Chief Information Security Officer, a member of our Senior Management, provides quarterly updates to the Audit Committee and/or full Board of Directors on company policies, practices and performance with respect to cybersecurity risk assessment and risk management. Stryker's Board of Directors and the Board's Committees also oversee the Good Clinical Practice (GCP) program with quarterly updates from our Global Chief Compliance Officer.

Stryker includes select non-financial metrics in the compensation plans of Named Executive Officers (NEOs). The details of our NEOs' compensation plan for 2024 are available in our Proxy Statement.

Risk assessment

In 2024, Stryker significantly overhauled its annual enterprise-wide risk assessment process to include more data, more voices, participation from more functions and an enhanced focus on risk tolerance and guardrails. Previously, each function identified key risks independently. Our new process includes a survey of more than 300 leaders across the company to help us establish a more accurate and broad-ranging picture of the risks we face.

We use this process as a baseline for risk assessment discussions with business and function leaders, resulting, we believe, in a more quantitative process and more accurate outcomes. More than 30 identified risk owners participate in risk discussions monthly, quarterly or biannually, depending on risk impact and likelihood. These discussions help create an ongoing process of assessment and control instead of annual reassessment.

The Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) program has also deepened connectivity with other risk functions by using a model known as dynamic risk management. This model facilitates better connectivity on risk identification, assessment and control. For example, the enterprise risk assessment now forms the risk baseline for the strategy formulation process, enabling participants in that process to focus on risks to strategy in addition to risks to the businesses.

Our Board of Directors considers environmental, social and governance risks as part of the ERM process. For example, our ERM program includes consideration of risks associated with climate, emissions, waste and resource depletion. We also regularly assess climate-related risks associated with our operations, technology, current and emerging regulation, and reputation. ERM reports to the Governance and Nominating Committee, as well as the full Board of Directors annually.

Company leaders and local managers are responsible for these risks. During shareholder engagement sessions pertaining to CR matters, we typically receive questions about our product quality processes and supply chain practices, governance models, ethical marketing practices and carbon reduction commitments.

Political engagement and advocacy

Stryker engages political leaders at the United States federal and state level, as well as globally, to advocate for policies that support our mission. In 2024, our United States federal lobbying expenses totaled $690,000. Stryker neither operates nor contributes to a political action committee, and we do not make political contributions at the United States federal or state level.

Stryker is a member of trade associations that engage in advocacy on behalf of their members. In 2024, we paid more than $1,600,000 in dues to U.S. trade associations that included:

- AdvaMed—$1,283,009 (14 percent)[22]
- Healthcare Leadership Council—$200,000 (25 percent)
- Medical Device Manufacturers Association—$135,244 (30 percent)

Business ethics and integrity

Stryker's GCP program focuses on our core values and aims to promote ethical behavior in all business transactions. The program's key components of prevention, detection and response are guided by applicable laws, regulations and industry standards.

Focusing on priority risks and business growth

The compliance risk assessment is a process designed to proactively identify, prioritize and manage compliance risks in collaboration with business and other stakeholders. It enables Stryker's business leaders to make risk-informed decisions, drive sustainable growth and allocate resources effectively by standardizing and consistently applying a global approach to monitor risk trends and evaluate the effectiveness of risk mitigation efforts. Continued areas of focus include interactions with healthcare professionals, management of indirect channels and business development through acquisitions.

Stryker sells products directly and through third parties, including independent commission agents, distributors, dealers and resellers, which we refer to as indirect channels (ICs). Our IC Management Team provides global oversight, alignment and consistency in managing ICs across geographies. We share periodic newsletters with ICs to provide updates, increase understanding of bribery and corruption risk and focus on appropriate healthcare professional interactions. Newsletters also direct our ICs to the IC Resource Center, where tools, trainings and templates are available for them to enhance ethical decision-making and build their own compliance programs. Stryker has adopted the AdvaMed Code of Ethics and similar regional and local industry association codes to guide our internal sales force and ICs regarding ethical interactions with healthcare professionals.

When evaluating potential acquisitions, Stryker conducts a thorough review of each organization's compliance environment. Stryker's dedicated Mergers & Acquisitions (M&A) Team, along with local compliance officers and external advisors, identify business practices that may not align with our standards and develop an integration plan that will be implemented as part of the transaction. The GCP Team onboards acquired companies into Stryker's GCP program through education on policies and processes, and implementation of Stryker's compliance systems/controls.

Code of Conduct

Stryker's Code of Conduct (Code), available in 21 languages, empowers employees to conduct business in line with our values. Throughout the year, we raise awareness of the Code through employee training and focus on integrating key messages of the Code in targeted communication campaigns.

of employees completed Code of Conduct training of people managers completed a new course, Fostering a Culture of Integrity in 2024

Employees and third parties can report ethical concerns or allegations of noncompliance with our Code and Stryker's policies and standards to their manager, Compliance, Legal, HR or Stryker's Ethics Hotline. The Ethics Hotline is accessible via the web, telephone and text messaging, and allows individuals to report their concerns confidentially and anonymously, if desired. Responsibility for the hotline lies with Stryker's Ethics Hotline Committee, which receives regular reports on key trends and critical issues. In 2024, more than 1,700 matters were raised and tracked through the Hotline.

As part of our effort to build a culture of integrity, our global Conflicts of Interest program sets clear expectations for employees about identifying, avoiding, disclosing and managing conflicts. The program includes online learning modules for managers and employees, as well as materials to enhance transparency and guide employees in navigating potential conflict situations effectively.

Maintaining our culture of integrity

Our Code emphasizes the importance of managers creating a "speak up" culture and leading by example. Our global Speak Up Policy encourages employees to report concerns and reinforces our commitment to no retaliation against employees who raise concerns in good faith. In 2024, we updated the Speak Up Policy to address new laws and regulations in certain European countries in response to the EU Whistleblowing Directive.

We also organized a global Integrity Matters Week in 2024, during which we aimed to increase awareness about Stryker's Speak Up Policy, with a particular focus on nonretaliation. Through interactive workshops for people managers and role-playing exercises, managers improved their listening skills and learned about the investigation process and how to avoid or identify retaliation.

Throughout the year, we issued Integrity Matters newsletters that included updates about our prioritized risk areas, including real-world examples and spotlights on employees who showcased integrity, like speaking up and raising concerns. The newsletters, available in multiple languages, also focused on business-related issues for different parts of the company. New in 2024, we introduced guidance for people managers to reinforce the messages shared in these newsletters.

Information security and data privacy

Stryker's cybersecurity program is designed to defend the company and our customers against cybercrime activity around the globe. Our CyberSecurity, Cyber Risk and IT Compliance Team strives to keep Stryker's data and assets secure while responding quickly to cyber threats and mitigating risks. Our Security Operations Centers and Cyber Fusion Center monitors and detects threat activity 24/7 by gathering, analyzing and acting on intelligence. In 2024, we opened a new Security Operations Center in Warsaw, Poland, to enhance our security coverage.

All of Stryker's employees with network access undergo mandatory security education several times a year, including regular cybersecurity awareness training and role-specific security and data protection training. In addition, we provide monthly content for all employees on cybersecurity topics through newsletters, trainings, in-person sessions, digital signage, our employee social platform, an annual Cybersecurity Awareness Month and local roadshows. Visit our website to learn more about Stryker's cybersecurity practices.

Privacy

Privacy is a fundamental aspect of our company's data use and innovation. Our Chief Legal Counsel, Privacy and Technology oversees the Global Privacy organization and program, and leads organizational compliance with laws, regulations and standards. We hold ourselves accountable through comprehensive and role-based training for our workforce and integrating privacy into data processes and product development. Our practices and standards extend to our third-party partners.

Read more about Stryker's measures to protect third-party data from unauthorized access or disclosure and our policies on record retention.

Managing artificial intelligence risk

The dynamic landscape of AI and machine learning (ML) technology holds immense promise for revolutionizing healthcare and enabling personalized diagnoses and treatments with unprecedented speed and precision. Stryker is an active participant in this transformative journey, evaluating the potential use of AI, ML and deep learning across our development portfolio and internal operations. In 2024, we established an AI Governance Committee dedicated to managing risks and addressing ethical considerations in Stryker's burgeoning AI initiatives. This committee oversees both internal and external AI development and usage, with a goal of our new products meeting the highest standards of safety, effectiveness and security.

Human rights

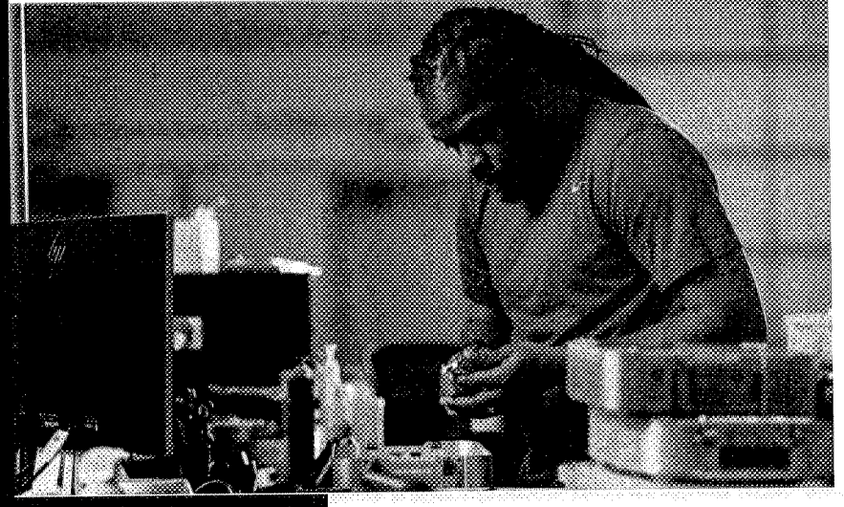
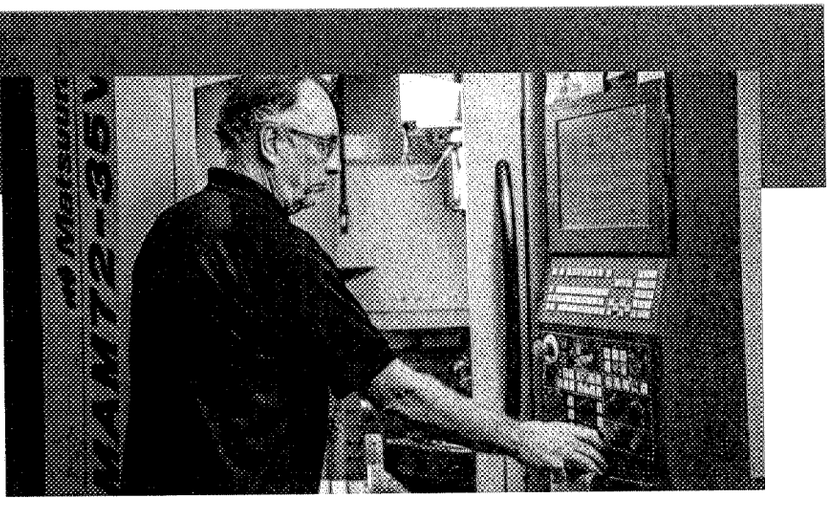
The following practices, captured in our Code and Supplier Code of Conduct, guide how we do business with respect for human rights:

- No forced labor, involuntary labor or human trafficking
- No child labor and fair treatment of young workers
- Fair labor practices
- Nondiscrimination and anti-harassment
- Safe working environment

We are also guided by global human rights principles, including:

- International Labour Organization Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work
- Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Responsible Business Conduct
- United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights
- Universal Declaration on Human Rights





Our Human Rights Council is the highest body responsible for human rights governance and due diligence at Stryker. The Council's members provide input and counsel on human rights strategy and initiatives, embedding and advocating for human rights principles in their respective functions and tracking implementation and results. Our group president of Global Quality and Operations (GQO) serves as executive sponsor. The Council reports directly to Stryker's CR Steering Committee and provides regular updates on human rights topics.

We require that Stryker's employees who most frequently visit or interact with suppliers complete annual training on the prevention of forced labor and human trafficking in our supply chain. In 2024, 100 percent of these employees completed training. We also encourage employees to report any human rights concerns to their manager, Legal, Compliance or HR, or by using our Ethics Hotline.

Stryker expects third parties, including indirect channels, suppliers, vendors and contractors, to share our commitment to human rights. We engage with suppliers on this topic in accordance with the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Business Conduct. Additionally, human rights topics are addressed in performance assessments in which we engage suppliers to measure progress on responsible, sustainable practices.

Upstream supply chain management

Stryker requires any supplier doing business with us to adhere to our Supplier Code of Conduct through our supplier contracts and purchase order terms and conditions. The Supplier Code communicates our expectations for suppliers in key areas, including:

- General business and ethics
- Human rights
- Labor and employment
- Health, safety and environment
- Intellectual property and data

Our Direct Procurement Team completes annual training focused on understanding the covered topics and assisting suppliers in meeting their obligations under the Supplier Code. In 2024, 100 percent of these employees completed this training.

Supplier engagement and risk management

We regularly engage with direct suppliers through our procurement operations and a structured supplier management framework to ensure they understand and meet our expectations. To assess supplier performance and foster an open dialogue, we use a balanced scorecard and conduct supplier business reviews with targeted suppliers based on their specific relationship with us. The criteria used in the balanced scorecard and supplier business reviews include responsiveness, delivery, quality, technology, general business (including social and environmental practices and risk topics) and cost. We also continuously monitor risk indicators that inform our risk mitigation activities and sourcing decisions.

Specific to human rights, environment and ethics, we assess our direct suppliers through recognized third-party platforms leveraging a risk-based approach. Once a supplier has completed an assessment, we review the results and provide feedback as necessary. When we identify areas for improvement, we direct suppliers to relevant development resources available through these platforms and align with them on their improvement efforts.

Supplier engagement target

Engage 85% of our direct suppliers (by spend) on environmental, human rights and ethical performance by 2027.[23]

- To date, we've assessed suppliers covering 70% of our 2024 direct spend, keeping us on track to meet our 2027 target.

Supplier quality management

In order to drive product quality and compliance with regulations and standards, such as International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 13485, we implement robust processes to manage our suppliers. Our approval process includes classifying suppliers by category and risk on our quality-controlled approved supplier list. We evaluate and onboard suppliers to assess their ability to meet quality requirements. This may include execution of audits, quality agreements and other deliverables, commensurate with risk.

Changes to products or processes that may impact quality as per our supplier agreements, are required to undergo a rigorous review and approval process by Stryker's Quality Team. Suppliers who propose a quality-impacting change to products must follow a formal risk-based change approval process to ensure that products continue to meet Stryker's and customer's expectations.

Ways we engage with our suppliers to improve quality performance include:

- Monitoring key performance indicators, including those related to supplier defects per million, product nonconformances, corrective and preventive actions, nonconformances not in Stryker's control and product field actions
- Partnering with suppliers to implement quality improvement projects
- Executing product and process audits
- Conducting Supplier Quality Onboarding Days, which give suppliers resources to understand our quality requirements and expectations
- Holding Supplier Quality Symposiums, both in person and virtually, where suppliers can learn about Stryker's quality programs and best practices
- Providing supplier trainings focused on topics such as line clearance, labeling, human error and risk management
- Sharing our Supplier Quality Guidebook

In 2024, we focused on even greater standardization and leaning out of our supplier quality management processes, enabling us to improve upon our quality and service targets for customers.

Our conflict minerals reporting

We support the responsible procurement of tin, tantalum, tungsten and gold, commonly referred to as conflict minerals, including those that originate from the Democratic Republic of the Congo and adjoining countries. We maintain a Conflict Minerals Policy and provide updates on our efforts in a Conflict Minerals Report, filed annually with the Securities and Exchange Commission in accordance with the U.S. Dodd-Frank Act. Additionally, we are members of the Responsible Minerals Initiative, which provides companies with tools and resources supporting responsible procurement from conflict-affected and high-risk areas.

Supplier diversity

We drive positive company and community outcomes by engaging a diverse supply chain to support innovation, resiliency and growth. Stryker's Supplier Diversity Council, consisting of senior functional leaders from across the company, meets quarterly to oversee the implementation of our strategy. The work of the Council centers on:

- Building awareness
- Identifying and growing our business with our current qualified diverse suppliers
- Identifying new capable diverse suppliers with potential to support future opportunities
- Engaging our supply base to expand positive supplier diversity outcomes

We engaged externally on supplier diversity topics in 2024 by participating in:

- National Minority Supplier Development Council Annual Conference and Exchange
- Women's Business Enterprise National Council National Conference
- Michigan Diversity Connections events

2024 North America spend[24]

Independent Limited Assurance Report

ERM Certification & Verification Services Incorporated) ("ERM CVS") was engaged by Stryker Corporation ("Stryker") to provide limited assurance in relation to the Selected Information set out below and presented in the Stryker 2024 Comprehensive Report (the "Report").

ENGAGEMENT SUMMARY

Scope of our assurance engagement

Whether the following Selected Information for 2023, as indicated on Page 54 are fairly presented in the Report, in all material respects, in accordance with the reporting criteria.

Our assurance engagement does not extend to information in respect of earlier periods or to any other information included in the Report.

Selected Information

- Total Scope 1 GHG emissions (metric tonnes $CO_2e$)
- Total Scope 2 GHG emissions (location-based) (metric tonnes $CO_2e$)
- Total Scope 2 GHG emissions (market-based) (metric tonnes $CO_2e$)
- Total Scope 1 and 2 GHG emissions (market-based) (metric tonnes $CO_2e$)
- Total Renewable Energy (%)

Reporting period

1 January 2023 – 31 December 2023

Reporting criteria

- Stryker's Basis of Reporting (available at: https://www.stryker.com/us/en/about/corporate-responsibility/cr-hub.html)
- The GHG Protocol Corporate Accounting and Reporting Standard (WBCSD/WRI Revised Edition 2015) for Scope 1 and 2 GHG emissions
- GHG Protocol Scope 2 Guidance (An amendment to the GHG Protocol Corporate Standard (WRI 2015) for Scope 2 GHG emissions

Assurance standard and level of assurance

We performed a limited assurance engagement, in accordance with the International Standard on Assurance Engagements ISAE 3000 (Revised) 'Assurance Engagements other than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information' issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board.

The procedures performed in a limited assurance engagement vary in nature and timing from and are less in extent than for a reasonable assurance engagement and consequently, the level of assurance obtained in a limited assurance engagement is substantially lower than the assurance that would have been obtained had a reasonable assurance engagement been performed.

Respective responsibilities

Stryker is responsible for preparing the Report and for the collection and presentation of the information within it, and for the designing, implementing and maintaining of internal controls relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Report.

ERM CVS' responsibility is to provide a conclusion to Stryker on the agreed assurance scope based on our engagement terms with Stryker, the assurance activities performed and exercising our professional judgement.

OUR CONCLUSION

Based on our activities, as described overleaf, nothing has come to our attention to indicate that the Selected Information for 2023 is not fairly presented in the Report, in all material respects, in accordance with the reporting criteria.

OUR ASSURANCE ACTIVITIES

Considering the level of assurance and our assessment of the risk of material misstatement of the Selected Information a multi-disciplinary team of sustainability and assurance specialists performed a range of procedures that included, but was not restricted to, the following:

- Evaluating the appropriateness of the reporting criteria for the Selected Information;
- Interviewing management representatives responsible for managing the Selected Information;
- Interviewing relevant staff to understand and evaluate the management systems and processes (including internal review and control processes) used for collecting and reporting the Selected Information;
- Reviewing of a sample of qualitative and quantitative evidence supporting the Selected Information at a corporate level;
- Performing an analytical review of the year-end data submitted by all locations included in the consolidated 2023 group data for the Selected Information which included testing the completeness and mathematical accuracy of conversions and calculations, and consolidation in line with the stated reporting boundary;
- Conducting visits to Portage, MI (USA), Mahwah, NJ (USA), Limerick (Ireland) and Kayseri (Turkey) production sites to review source data and local reporting systems and controls;
- Evaluating the conversion and emission factors and assumptions used; and
- Reviewing the presentation of information relevant to the assurance scope in the Report to ensure consistency with our findings.

THE LIMITATIONS OF OUR ENGAGEMENT

The reliability of the Selected Information is subject to inherent uncertainties, given the available methods for determining, calculating or estimating the underlying information. It is important to understand our assurance conclusions in this context.

OUR INDEPENDENCE, INTEGRITY AND QUALITY CONTROL

ERM CVS is an independent certification and verification body accredited by UKAS to ISO 17021:2015. Accordingly, we maintain a comprehensive system of quality control, including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards, and applicable legal and regulatory requirements. Our quality management system is at least as demanding as the relevant sections of ISQM-1 and ISQM-2 (2022).

ERM CVS applies a Code of Conduct and related policies to ensure that its employees maintain integrity, objectivity, professional competence and high ethical standards in their work. Our processes are designed and implemented to ensure that the work we undertake is objective, impartial and free from bias and conflict of interest. Our certified management system covers independence and ethical requirements that are at least as demanding as the relevant sections of the IESBA Code relating to assurance engagements.

ERM CVS has extensive experience in conducting assurance on environmental, social, ethical and health and safety information, systems and processes, and provides no consultancy related services to Stryker in any respect.

Forward-looking statements

This Report contains information that includes or is based on forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities law that are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: weakening of economic conditions, or the anticipation thereof, that could adversely affect the level of demand for our or Inari Medical, Inc.'s ("Inari") products; geopolitical risks, including from international conflicts, which could, among other things, lead to increased market volatility; pricing pressures generally, including cost-containment measures that have adversely affected and could in the future adversely affect the price of or demand for our or Inari's products; changes in foreign currency exchange markets; legislative and regulatory actions; unanticipated issues arising in connection with clinical studies and otherwise that affect approval of new products, including Inari products, by the United States Food and Drug Administration and foreign regulatory agencies; inflationary pressures; increased interest rates or interest rate volatility; supply chain disruptions; changes in labor markets; changes in coverage and reimbursement levels from third-party payors; changes in the competitive environment; breaches, failures or other disruptions of our or our vendors' or customers' information technology systems or products, including by cyber attack, data leakage, unauthorized access or theft; a significant increase in product liability claims; the ultimate total cost with respect to recall-related and other regulatory and quality matters; the impact of investigative and legal proceedings and compliance risks; resolution of tax audits; changes in tax laws and regulations; the impact of legislation to reform the healthcare system in the United States or other countries; costs to comply with medical device regulations; changes in financial markets; changes in our credit ratings; our ability to integrate and realize the anticipated benefits of acquisitions in full or at all or within the expected timeframes, including our acquisition of Inari; our ability to realize any anticipated cost savings; potential negative impacts resulting from climate change or other environmental, social and governance and sustainability-related matters; the impact on our operations and financial results of any public health emergency and any related policies and actions by governments or other third parties; unexpected liabilities, costs, charges or expenses in connection with the acquisition of Inari; and the effects of the Inari transaction on the parties' relationships with employees, customers, other business partners or governmental entities. Additional information concerning these and other factors is contained in our filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. We disclaim any intention or obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement to reflect any change in our expectations or in events, conditions or circumstances on which those expectations may be based, or that affect the likelihood that actual results will differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements, except to the extent required by law.

Stryker was incorporated in Michigan in 1946 as the successor company to a business founded in 1941 by Dr. Homer H. Stryker, a prominent orthopaedic surgeon and inventor of several medical products. Our products are sold in approximately 61 countries through company-owned subsidiaries and branches as well as third-party dealers and distributors, and include surgical equipment and surgical navigation systems; endoscopic and communications systems; patient handling, emergency medical equipment and intensive care disposable products; clinical communication and artificial intelligence-assisted virtual care platform technology; products for traditional brain and open skull-based surgical procedures; minimally invasive products for the treatment of acute ischemic and hemorrhagic stroke and venous thromboembolism; implants used in joint replacement and trauma surgeries; Mako robotic-arm assisted technology; as well as other products used in a variety of medical specialties. Most of our products are marketed directly to doctors, hospitals and other healthcare facilities.

As used herein, and except where the context otherwise requires, "Stryker," "we," "us," and "our" refer to Stryker Corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries.

Business Segments and Geographic Information

We segregate our operations into two reportable business segments: (i) MedSurg and Neurotechnology and (ii) Orthopaedics. Financial information regarding our reportable business segments and certain geographic information is included under "Consolidated Results of Operations" in Item 7 of this report and Note 14 to our Consolidated Financial Statements.

MedSurg and Neurotechnology

MedSurg and Neurotechnology products include surgical equipment, patient and caregiver safety technologies, and navigation systems (Instruments), endoscopic and communications systems (Endoscopy), and patient handling, emergency medical equipment, intensive care disposable products, clinical communication and artificial intelligence-assisted virtual care platform technology (Medical), minimally invasive products for the treatment of acute ischemic and hemorrhagic stroke and venous thromboembolism (Vascular) and a comprehensive line of products for traditional brain and open skull-based surgical procedures, orthobiologic and biosurgery products, including synthetic bone grafts and vertebral augmentation products (Neuro Cranial).

We are one of five leading global competitors in Instruments; the other four being Zimmer Biomet Holdings, Inc. (Zimmer), Medtronic plc (Medtronic), Johnson & Johnson MedTech (a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson) and ConMed Linvatec, Inc. (a subsidiary of CONMED Corporation). We are one of seven leading global competitors in Endoscopy; the other six being Karl Storz GmbH & Co., Olympus Optical Co. Ltd., Smith & Nephew plc (Smith & Nephew), ConMed Linvatec, Arthrex, Inc. and STERIS plc. We are one of five leading global competitors in Medical; the other four being Baxter International Inc., Zoll Medical Corporation, Medline Industries and Ferno-Washington, Inc. We are one of five leading global competitors in Vascular and Neuro Cranial; the other four being Medtronic, Johnson & Johnson MedTech, Terumo Corporation and Penumbra, Inc.

In 2025 Instruments launched Steri-Shield 8 which is a lighter, more comfortable, and more customizable operating room personal protection system, with improved visibility, cooling, and battery performance versus prior generations. In addition, we completed the acquisition of Guard Medical Inc., whose primary focus is on Negative Pressure Wound Therapy for surgical patients. The acquisition of Guard Medical, Inc. is complementary to our Orthopaedic Instruments business as we continue to focus on the surgical wound care market.

Endoscopy continued to deliver its 4K 1788 Camera platform to the market in addition to the launch of the Connected OR IP BRAVoE integration portfolio. Our 1788 Camera platform features several enhancements for a broader range of clinical applications and specialties, including urology, neurology, ear, nose, throat and arthroscopy and can be used to visualize indocyanine green and CYTALUX. The Connected OR IP BRAVoE launch expands the connected capabilities of iSuite.

Medical continued the global launch of the LIFEPAK 35 monitor/ defibrillator, our next generation platform designed to optimize care with new clinical features such as the new Glasgow 30.4 algorithm, cprINSIGHT, 15-lead monitoring capabilities, and STJ insight and mapping. LIFEPAK 35 combines a modern intuitive touch screen display and increased processing power with Bluetooth and WiFi data connectivity. We also launched the Vocera Sync Badge this year, a trusted clinician handsfree communication endpoint that provides real-time communication and alerts while extending Smart Hospital workflows directly into daily clinical practice. Medical also completed the acquisition of Advanced Medical Balloons (AMB), an indwelling fecal management system that specializes in solutions that help enhance care delivery by combining intelligent design with the exceptional properties of ultra-thin polyurethane. AMB Medical adds complementary technology to the Stryker Sage incontinence portfolio and will help address problems in the market that include hospital-acquired infections, pressure injuries, staff satisfaction and retention.

In 2025 we changed the name of our Neurovascular business to Vascular with the acquisition of Inari Medical, Inc. (Inari) whose product portfolio includes minimally invasive products for the treatment of venous thromboembolism. Neurovascular and Inari are jointly now Vascular. Vascular launched the Broadway System in the United States, a fully integrated stroke solution that provides a new level of access and support in large- and super-bore catheter procedures. Additionally, Vascular accelerated the launch of the Surpass Elite Flow Diverting Stent (FDS) in the United States, Europe, and parts of Asia-Pacific. Surpass Elite FDS is designed to reduce thrombin generation when compared to unmodified stents.

Neuro Cranial launched OptaBlate BVN in 2025 which is a radiofrequency nerve ablation system used to access and ablate the basivertebral nerve to treat vertebrogenic pain.

Orthopaedics

Orthopaedics products primarily include implants used in total joint replacements, such as hip, knee and shoulder, ankle, and trauma and extremities surgeries. We bring patients and physicians advanced implant designs and specialized instrumentation that make orthopaedic surgery and recovery simpler, faster and more effective. We support surgeons with the technologies, products and services they need to support each patient's clinical challenge.

We are one of four leading global competitors for joint replacement and trauma and extremities products and robotics; the other three being Zimmer, Johnson & Johnson MedTech and Smith & Nephew.

In 2025 we continued to expand the global footprint of Mako SmartRobotics, which is now available in more than 45 countries. To date, over one million robotic Mako Total Knee procedures and more than two million robotic procedures across Mako Total Knee, Mako Total Hip, and Mako Partial Knee have been performed worldwide.

2025 also marked a significant period of product launches and new application development. Most notably, we introduced the Mako 4 platform, a meaningful advancement for both newly established and existing Mako sites. This platform is built around our Q-Guidance system—an advanced guidance technology designed to enable new hardware and software capabilities across a broad range of subspecialties.

The first application released on the Mako 4 platform is the Total Hip Advanced Primary and Revision application. We received 510(k) clearance for Mako Total Hip with Advanced Primary and Revision with full market release in the third quarter of 2025. Complex primary and revision total hip arthroplasty procedures often present challenges such as bone loss and absent anatomical landmarks. With our advanced Mako Total Hip solution, we aim to extend the benefits of Mako SmartRobotics™ to simplify these demanding cases. Mako Total Hip with Advanced Primary and Revision represents Stryker's first-to-market, robotically enabled revision hip arthroplasty procedure.

We also introduced Mako Shoulder, which expands the SmartRobotics suite of applications. Mako Shoulder integrates three market-leading technologies: Tornier implants, Blueprint planning software, and Mako SmartRobotics. The application offers haptically guided preparation for Tornier Perform Reversed Glenoid and Tornier Reversed Augmented Glenoid implants for primary shoulder arthroplasty. We completed the first Mako Shoulder cases in 2024, and the application remained in limited market release throughout 2025. Full commercial launch in the United States is planned for the first quarter of 2026.

Raw Materials and Inventory

Raw materials essential to our business are generally readily available from multiple sources; however, certain of our raw materials are currently sourced from single suppliers. Substantially all products we manufacture are stocked in inventory, while certain MedSurg products are assembled to order.

Patents and Trademarks

Patents and trademarks are significant to our business to the extent that a product or an attribute of a product represents a unique design or process. Patent protection of such products restricts competitors from duplicating these unique designs and features. We seek to obtain patent protection on our products whenever appropriate for protecting our competitive advantage. On December 31, 2025 we owned approximately 5,600 United States patents and approximately 9,000 patents in other countries.

Seasonality

Our business is generally not seasonal in nature; however, the number of orthopaedic implant surgeries is typically lower in the summer months, and sales of capital equipment are generally higher in the fourth quarter.

Competition

In each of our product lines we compete with local and global companies. The development of innovative products is important to our success in all areas of our business. Competition in research involving the development and improvement of new and existing products and processes is particularly significant. The competitive environment requires substantial investments in continuing research and maintaining sales forces.

We believe our commitment to innovation, quality and service and our reputation differentiates us in the highly competitive product categories in which we operate and enables us to compete effectively. We believe that our competitive position in the future will depend largely on our ability to develop new products and make improvements to existing products.

Regulation

Our businesses are subject to varying degrees of governmental regulation in the countries in which we operate, and the general trend is toward increasingly stringent regulation. We are required to comply with the unique regulatory requirements of each country in which we market and sell our products.

In the United States the Medical Device Amendments of 1976 to the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act and its subsequent amendments and the regulations issued and proposed thereunder provide for federal regulation by the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) of the design, manufacture and marketing of medical devices, including most of our products. In addition, state licensing requirements often apply to certain of our business operations and products. On the federal level, many of our new products fall into FDA classifications that require notification submitted as a 510(k) and review by the FDA before we begin marketing them. Certain of our products require extensive clinical testing, consisting of safety and efficacy studies, followed by pre-market approval applications for specific surgical indications. Certain of our products also fall under other FDA classifications, such as drugs and Human Cells, Tissues, and Cellular and Tissue-Based Products.

The FDA's Quality System regulations set forth standards for our product design and manufacturing processes, require the maintenance of certain records and provide for inspections of our facilities by the FDA. There are also certain requirements of state, local and foreign governments that must be complied with in the manufacture and marketing of our products.

The European Union enacted the European Union Medical Device Regulation in May 2017 with an original effective date of May 2022, which imposes stricter requirements for the marketing and sale of medical devices, including in the areas of clinical evaluation requirements, quality systems, labeling and post-market surveillance. Extended transition timelines were published in 2023 which range from May 2026 through December 2028 depending on the type of device and we are on track to meet these timelines.

Initiatives to limit the growth of general healthcare expenses and hospital costs are ongoing. These initiatives are sponsored by government agencies, legislative bodies and the private sector and include price regulation and competitive pricing. It is not possible to predict the long-term impact of such cost containment measures on our future business. In addition, business practices in the healthcare industry are scrutinized, particularly in the United States, by federal and state government agencies. Any resulting investigations and prosecutions potentially carry the risk of significant civil and criminal penalties.

Environment

We are subject to various rules and regulation in the United States and internationally related to the protection of human health and the environment. Our operations involve the use of substances regulated under environmental laws, primarily in manufacturing and sterilization processes. We believe our policies, practices and procedures are properly designed to comply, in all material respects, with applicable environmental laws and regulations. We do not expect compliance with these requirements to have a material effect on purchases of property, plant and equipment, cash flows, net earnings or competitive position.

Employees

On December 31, 2025 we had approximately 56,000 employees globally, with approximately 28,000 employees in the United States. Our talented employees are an integral reason for our standing as a global leader in medical technologies where, together with our customers, we are driven to make healthcare better. Our company values of integrity, accountability, people and performance are a key component of that mission. Our people, as one of our core values, continue to be a key focus.

Our success depends on our ability to attract the best talent. To do so, we continue to focus on establishing and maintaining a great workplace. We believe in attracting the right people, maintaining and building employee engagement and developing our employees. We believe when people are able to do what they do best, they will look forward to coming to work and, in turn, will deliver great business results.

Our leadership team and Board of Directors receive regular updates on our people and culture strategy and provide feedback on our strategy and goals, including alignment to our mission and values, peer benchmarking and stakeholder feedback.

Employee Development

Our employee development is extensive and exists at all levels of the organization, including company-wide training on our Code of Conduct, job-related technical training and management and leadership training. Our development programs include on-the-job learning, coaching and mentoring, management and leadership development courses, team building and collaboration training and immersive experiences with expert partners.

We encourage all employees to establish development objectives, in partnership with their manager, to help employees gain the needed development experience to grow their careers.

Employee Engagement

An engaged workplace culture that drives performance and business outcomes is central to our mission. Listening to and learning from our employees forms the foundation of an engaging culture. More than 90% of our employees participate in our annual engagement survey, which provides a valued platform for listening and allows us to act on the feedback collected.

We supplement our annual engagement survey with targeted pulse surveys to gather feedback on topics relevant to the current climate.

We also provide tools and resources that enable managers and teams to act on the insights we gain from our surveys and to drive employee engagement and strong business outcomes.

Inclusion

We believe our individual strengths, experiences, and perspectives are essential for delivering on our mission. By caring for each other, we foster a culture where everyone feels heard and valued. How we work together is critical to our success, and we believe it takes everyone. Every voice. Every person. Every connection.

Attracting and Hiring

We understand that every employee drives our success. We focus on attracting, identifying and selecting strong candidates who will be successful at Stryker and ensuring that each person we hire brings the talent, expertise and passion we need to continue to be successful.

Health and Safety

Ensuring our employees' safety is a top priority. It is a responsibility that we share throughout the company and one that has evolved to meet the needs of our workforce. Employees' safety risks vary depending on the roles they perform, so we tailor our safety efforts accordingly.

Competitive Pay and Benefits

Our compensation and benefits programs are designed to attract and retain top talent and to incentivize performance and alignment to our mission and values.

We offer market-competitive base pay and benefits to our employees in countries around the world. We regularly evaluate our compensation and benefit offerings and levels, using recognized outside consulting firms to ensure internal fairness and competitiveness in our offerings.

Most of our employees also have variable compensation components that reward employees based on individual, business unit and/or company-wide performance.

Our proxy statement provides more detail on the competitive compensation programs we offer to our executive officers.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains statements that are not historical facts and are considered "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on current projections about operations, industry conditions, financial condition and liquidity. Words that identify forward-looking statements include, without limitation, words such as "may," "could," "will," "should," "possible," "plan," "predict," "forecast," "potential," "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "project," "intend," "believe," "may impact," "on track," "goal," "strategy" and words and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future operating or financial performance, an acquisition or our businesses. In addition, any statements that refer to expectations, projections or other characterizations of future events or circumstances, including any underlying assumptions, are forward-looking statements. Those statements are not guarantees and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual results could differ materially and adversely from these forward-looking statements, historical experience or our present expectations. Some important factors that could cause our actual results to differ from our expectations in any forward-looking statements include:

- weakening of economic conditions, or the anticipation thereof, that could adversely affect the level of demand for our products;
- geopolitical risks, including from international conflicts and tariffs, which could, among other things, lead to increased market volatility;
- pricing pressures generally, including cost-containment measures that have adversely affected and could in the future adversely affect the price of or demand for our products;
- changes in foreign currency exchange markets;
- legislative and regulatory actions;
- unanticipated issues arising in connection with clinical studies and otherwise that affect approval of new products by the FDA and foreign regulatory agencies;
- inflationary pressures;
- increased interest rates or interest rate volatility;
- supply chain disruptions;
- changes in labor markets;
- changes in coverage and reimbursement levels from third-party payors;
- changes in the competitive environment;
- breaches, failures or other disruptions of our or our vendors' or customers' information technology systems or products, including by cyber-attack, data leakage, unauthorized access or theft;
- a significant increase in product liability claims;
- the ultimate total cost with respect to recall-related and other regulatory and quality matters;
- the impact of investigative and legal proceedings and compliance risks;
- resolution of tax audits;
- changes in tax laws and regulations;
- the impact of legislation to reform the healthcare system in the United States or other countries;
- costs to comply with medical device regulations;
- changes in financial markets;
- changes in our credit ratings;
- our ability to integrate and realize the anticipated benefits of acquisitions in full or at all or within the expected timeframes, including our acquisition of Inari Medical, Inc. ("Inari");
- our ability to realize any anticipated cost savings;
- potential negative impacts resulting from climate change or other environmental, social and governance and sustainability related matters;
- the impact on our operations and financial results of any public health emergency and any related policies and actions by governments or other third parties; and
- other risks detailed in our filings with the SEC.

While we believe that the assumptions underlying such forward-looking statements are reasonable, there can be no assurance that future events or developments will not cause such statements to be inaccurate. All forward-looking statements contained in this report are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. We expressly disclaim any intention or obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement to reflect any change in our expectations or in events, conditions or circumstances on which those expectations may be based, or that affect the likelihood that actual results will differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements

Trademarks

All trademarks or trade names referred to in this report are the property of the Company, or, to the extent trademarks or trade names belonging to other companies are referenced in this report, the property of their respective owners. Solely for convenience, the trademarks and trade names in this report are referred to without the ® and ™ symbols, but such references should not be construed as any indicator that the Company or, to the extent applicable, their respective owners will not assert, to the fullest extent under applicable law, the Company's or their rights thereto. We do not intend the use or display of other companies' trademarks and trade names to imply a relationship with, or endorsement or sponsorship of us by, any other companies.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS.

Our operations and financial results are subject to various risks and uncertainties discussed below that could materially and adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem not to be material or that could apply to any company may also materially and adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition or results of operations. If any of the risks discussed below or other risks actually occur or continue to occur, our business, financial condition, operating results or cash flows could be materially adversely affected. Accordingly, you should carefully consider the following risk factors, as well as other information contained in or incorporated by reference in this report.

BUSINESS AND OPERATIONAL RISKS

We use a variety of raw materials, components, devices and third-party services in our global supply chains, production and distribution processes; significant shortages, price increases or unavailability of third-party services have in the past increased, and could in the future increase, our operating costs and could require significant capital expenditures or adversely impact the competitive position of our products: Our reliance on certain suppliers to secure raw materials, components and finished devices, and on certain third-party service providers, such as sterilization service providers, exposes us to the risk of product shortages and unanticipated increases in prices, whether due to inflationary pressure, regulatory changes, litigation exposure, tariffs, geopolitical tensions or otherwise. For example, in the past we have experienced limited product availability due to an electronic component shortage in certain product lines. If a similar shortage occurs in the future with respect to any raw materials or components, we may not be able to obtain them from our suppliers on a timely basis, or at all, or identify alternative suppliers. In addition, several raw materials, components, finished devices and services are procured from a sole source due to, among other things, the quality considerations, unique intellectual property considerations or constraints associated with regulatory requirements. If sole-source suppliers or service providers are unable or unwilling to deliver these materials or services as a result of financial difficulties, business disruptions, acquisition by a third party, natural disasters, embargoes, tariffs or otherwise, we may not be able to manufacture or have available one or more products during such period of unavailability and our business could suffer, possibly materially. In certain cases, we may not be able to establish additional or replacement suppliers for such materials or service providers for such services in a timely or cost-effective manner, often as a result of FDA and other regulations that require, among other things, validation of materials, components and services prior to their use in or with our products. In certain instances we have been unable to meet demand due to supply chain challenges, which has led to loss of sales. Although the impacts have not been material to date, an inability to meet demand due to supply chain challenges in the future could materially adversely impact our reputation, the competitive position of our products and our business. In addition, recently enacted tariffs by the United States government and retaliatory measures by other governments could adversely impact our supply chain or the availability of certain components. Any of the foregoing risks could have a material adverse impact on our profitability and results of operations.

In addition, in recent years, the market has experienced inflationary pressures in part due to global supply chain disruptions, labor shortages and other impacts following the COVID-19 pandemic. Inflation in the United States and in many of the countries where we conduct business has resulted in, and may in the future result in, high interest rates and increased capital, energy, shipping and labor costs, weakening or strengthening exchange rates against the United States Dollar and other similar effects. We have continued to experience, and may in the future experience, inflationary increases in manufacturing costs and operating expenses, as well as negative impacts from weakening or strengthening exchange rates against the United States Dollar. Although we have been able to pass certain cost increases on to our customers, we have not been able to pass along all cost increases and we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so in the future, including in connection with proposed or enacted tariffs. Inflation, high interest rates, interest rate volatility or proposed or enacted tariffs may also cause our customers to reduce or delay orders for our products and services. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse impact on our sales, profitability and results of operations.

We are subject to pricing pressures as a result of cost containment measures in the United States and other countries and other factors, including changes in reimbursement practices and coverage policies and third-party payor cost containment measures: Initiatives to limit the growth of general healthcare expenses and hospital costs are ongoing and gaining increased attention in the markets in which we do business. These initiatives are sponsored by government agencies, legislative bodies and the private sector and include price regulation and competitive pricing. For example, China has implemented a volume-based procurement process designed to decrease prices for medical devices and other products. Pricing pressure has also increased due to pressures on healthcare budgets, continued consolidation among healthcare providers, trends toward managed care, the shift toward governments becoming the primary payers of healthcare expenses, reduction in coverage or reimbursement levels and medical procedure volumes and government laws and regulations relating to sales and promotion, reimbursement and pricing generally. Coverage policies and reimbursement levels can vary across the payer community globally, regionally, and locally, and may affect which products customers purchase, the market acceptance rate for new technologies and the prices customers are willing to pay for those products in a particular jurisdiction. Furthermore, any changes to the coverage or reimbursement landscape, or adverse decisions relating to our products by administrators of these systems could significantly reduce reimbursement for procedures using our products or result in denial of reimbursement for those products, which could adversely affect customer demand, or the price customers are willing to pay for such products. Public and private payers have challenged, and are expected to continue to challenge, prices charged for medical products and services. Such downward pricing pressures from any or all of these payers may result in an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. We have also reduced prices for certain products due to increased competition and if we further reduce prices, we could become less profitable. In addition, due to healthcare industry consolidation in recent years, competition to provide goods and services to industry participants has become, and may continue to become, more intense, and this consolidation has produced, and may continue to produce, larger enterprises with more bargaining power. Pricing pressures related to any of the foregoing or other factors have impacted and could in the future impact our results of operations and profitability.

We operate in a highly competitive industry in which competition and the regulatory burden in the development and improvement of new and existing products is significant: The markets in which we compete are highly competitive, and a significant element of our strategy is to increase revenue growth by focusing on innovation, new product development and improvement of existing products, including connectivity solutions. New business models, products and surgical procedures, as well as improvements to existing products, are introduced on an ongoing basis and our present or future products could be rendered obsolete or uneconomical by internal or external technological advances, including by our existing competitors and new market entrants, which could adversely impact demand for certain of our existing products. The success of our products and services depends on, among other things, our ability to properly identify customer needs and predict future needs, including connectivity solutions; innovate and develop new technologies, services and applications at an accelerated pace; and appropriately allocate our research and development spending to products and services with higher growth. Our existing competitors and new market entrants may respond more quickly to or integrate new or emerging technologies such as robotics, artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning in their product offerings, undertake more extensive marketing campaigns, have greater access to clinical information to support ongoing product position in the market, have greater financial, marketing and other resources or be more successful in attracting potential customers, employees and strategic partners. There can be no assurance that any products now in development, or that we may seek to develop in the future, will achieve technological feasibility, obtain regulatory approval or gain market acceptance. If we are unable to develop and launch new products, our ability to maintain or expand our market position in the markets in which we participate may be negatively impacted.

We may be unable to maintain adequate working relationships with healthcare professionals: We work with healthcare professionals in a transparent and responsible manner and seek to maintain these relationships with respected physicians and medical personnel in healthcare organizations, such as hospitals and universities, who assist in product research and development. We rely on these professionals to assist us in the development and improvement of proprietary products. If we are unable to maintain these relationships due to regulatory restrictions, hospital access restrictions for non-patients or for other reasons, our ability to develop, market and sell new and improved products could be adversely affected.

We rely on indirect distribution channels and major distributors that are independent of Stryker: In many markets we rely on indirect distribution channels to market, distribute and sell our products. These indirect channels often are the main point of contact for the healthcare professionals and healthcare organization customers who buy and use our products. Our ability to continue to market, distribute and sell our products may be at risk if the indirect channels become insolvent, choose to sell competitive products, choose to stop selling medical technology, fail to adhere to Stryker requirements or are subject to new or additional government regulation.

We are subject to risks associated with our extensive global operations: We develop, manufacture and distribute our products globally. Our global operations are subject to risks and costs related to, among other things, changes in coverage or reimbursement levels from third-party payors in the United States and other countries; changes in regulatory requirements (such as the staggered phase-in period for manufacturers to comply with the European Union Medical Device Regulation (MDR) through December 2028); differing local product preferences and product requirements; diminished protection of intellectual property in some countries; tariffs and other trade protection measures, as well as increasing localization and protectionism policies in certain jurisdictions; international trade disputes and import or export requirements; difficulty in staffing and managing foreign operations; introduction of new internal business structures and programs; political and economic instability and uncertainty; current or potential geopolitical conflicts, such as the tensions between China and Taiwan and the wars in Ukraine and the Middle East, and related sanctions and other developments; disruptions of transportation, including port closures, increased border controls or border closures or reduced transportation availability, due to military conflicts, a global pandemic of contagious diseases; increased energy or transportation costs; fluctuations in currency exchange rates and financial markets; and increased security threats to our supply chain. For example, the United States has recently enacted and proposed to enact new tariffs. These developments, the perception they could occur, or changes to the existing exemption framework may have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and may significantly reduce global trade. Many of these risks are rapidly evolving and subject to an accelerating pace of change. Our business could be adversely impacted if we are unable to successfully manage these and other risks of global operations in an increasingly volatile environment. In addition, in many countries, the laws and regulations applicable to us or our industry are evolving, and we have in certain cases become subject to divergent and conflicting laws and regulations across our operations, which has increased the risks we are subject to.

We may be unable to capitalize on previous or future acquisitions: In addition to internally developed products, we invest in new products and technologies through acquisitions, including our acquisition of Inari in 2025. Such investments are inherently risky, and we cannot guarantee that any acquisition will be successful or will not have a material unfavorable impact on us. The risks include the activities required and resources allocated to integrate new businesses, a slower pace of integration than initially projected, diversion of management time that could adversely affect management's ability to focus on other projects, the inability to realize the expected benefits, savings or synergies from the acquisition, the loss of key personnel, litigation resulting from the acquisition and exposure to unexpected liabilities of acquired companies. Certain acquisitions are subject to antitrust and competition laws, and antitrust scrutiny by regulatory agencies and changes to the regulatory approval process in the United States and foreign jurisdictions may cause approvals to take longer than anticipated to obtain, not be obtained at all, or contain burdensome conditions, which may jeopardize, delay or reduce the anticipated benefits of acquisitions to us and could impede the execution of our business strategy. In addition, we cannot be certain that the businesses we acquire will become or remain profitable.

We, our business partners or our third-party vendors could experience a material failure or breach of a key information technology system, network, process or site: We rely extensively on information technology (IT) systems to conduct business. In addition, we rely on networks and services, including internet sites, cloud and software-as-a-service solutions, data hosting and processing facilities and tools and other hardware, software (including open-source software) and technical applications and platforms, some of which are managed, hosted, provided and/or used by third parties or their vendors, to assist in conducting our business. Furthermore, numerous and evolving cybersecurity threats have posed, and will continue to pose, risks to the security of our IT systems, networks and product offerings, as well as the confidentiality, availability and integrity of our data. Emerging technologies such as generative AI may be used by malicious actors to create more targeted phishing narratives, spread disinformation about us or our products or otherwise strengthen social engineering capabilities. An increasing risk of civil unrest, political tensions, wars or other military conflicts may also impact the cybersecurity threat risk landscape. Some of our products, services, and information technology systems contain or use open-source software which poses particular risks, including potential security vulnerabilities, licensing compliance issues and quality issues. We, our customers and third-party hosting services have experienced, and expect to continue to experience, security breaches of, unauthorized access to, and disruptions of, products or systems. While such breaches, unauthorized access and disruptions have not had a material effect on us to date, we cannot guarantee that any future breach or unauthorized access will not be material and any breach or unauthorized access could impact the use of such products and systems and the security of information stored therein. Although we have made investments and expect to continue to make investments seeking to address these threats, including monitoring of networks and systems, use of AI, hiring of experts, employee training, security policies for employees and third-party providers and designing, developing and maintaining processes and procedures to come into compliance with regulatory and legal enactments such as Section 524B of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act in the United States, the techniques used in these attacks change frequently and may be difficult to detect for periods of time and we may face difficulties in anticipating and implementing adequate preventative measures.

When cybersecurity or other technology related incidents occur, we follow our incident response protocols and address them in accordance with applicable governmental regulations and other legal requirements. Our response to these incidents and our investments to protect our product offerings and information technology infrastructure and data may not shield us from significant losses and potential liability or prevent any future interruption or breach of our systems. Moreover, given the increasing complexity and sophistication of the techniques used by threat actors to obtain unauthorized access or disable or degrade systems, a cyberattack could occur and persist for an extended period of time before being detected, and we may not anticipate these acts or mitigate them adequately or timely, which may compound damages before the incident is discovered or remediated. The extent of a particular cyber incident and the steps that we may need to take to investigate the incident may not be immediately clear, and it may take a significant amount of time before such investigation can be completed and full and reliable information about the incident is known. New regulations may require us to disclose information about a material cybersecurity incident before it has been resolved or fully investigated. Additionally, as threats continue to evolve and increase, and as the regulatory environment and customer requirements related to information security, data collection and use, and privacy become increasingly rigorous, we may be required to devote significant additional resources to modify and enhance our security controls and to identify and remediate any security vulnerabilities, which could adversely impact our net income. In addition, a significant number of our employees working remotely has exposed us, and may continue to expose us, to greater risks related to cybersecurity and cyber-liability.

Hardware and software failures or delays in our key information technology systems, networks, processes or sites could disrupt our operations, cause the loss of confidential information or otherwise adversely impact our business. Our systems, networks, processes and sites may be vulnerable to damage, disruptions and shutdown from a variety of sources, including malfunctions in maintenance updates or security patches, design defects, the age of the technology, network failures, modernization or other initiatives, human acts and natural disasters. For example, some of our information technology systems contain legacy third-party software components for which we depend on a layered security approach to protect against exploitation, which may not be effective. Any such damage or disruptions could also compromise the security of our information systems and networks. These issues can also arise as a result of failures by, or in the software or hardware of, third parties, including networks or service providers, with whom we do business and over whom we have limited or no control. Any disruption or failure of our systems, networks, processes or sites could have a material impact on our business and operations.

If our IT systems, networks or processes are damaged or cease to function properly for any reason, the networks, service providers, hardware or software we rely upon fail to function properly, or we or one of our third-party providers suffer a loss or disclosure of our business or stakeholder information due to any number of causes ranging from catastrophic events or power outages to improper data handling or security breaches or unauthorized access and our business continuity plans do not effectively address these failures on a timely basis, we may be exposed to reputational, competitive and business harm as well as litigation and regulatory action and fines, penalties and expenses related thereto.

An inability to successfully manage the implementation of our new commercial global enterprise resource planning (ERP) system could adversely affect our operations and operating results: We are in the process of implementing a new commercial ERP system. This system will replace many of our existing operating and financial systems. The implementation is a major undertaking, both financially and from a management and personnel perspective. Any material disruptions, delays or deficiencies in the design and implementation of our new ERP system could adversely affect our ability to process orders, ship products, provide services and customer support, send invoices and track payments, fulfill contractual obligations or otherwise operate our business.

We may be unable to attract, develop and retain executives and key employees: Our sales, technical and other key personnel play an integral role in the development, marketing and selling of new and existing products. Our future performance also depends in large part on the continued services of our senior management. If we are unable to recruit, hire, develop and retain a talented, competitive workforce in our highly competitive industry, or if we are unable to plan effective succession for the future, we may not be able to meet our strategic business objectives. Inflationary pressures, labor demand and shortages and other macroeconomic factors have increased and could further increase the cost of labor and could harm our ability to recruit, hire and retain talented employees. In addition, increased unionization could negatively impact our labor costs and ability to create an engaging, connected culture, which could adversely affect our ability to recruit, hire, develop and retain a talented, competitive workforce. Further, if we are unable to maintain competitive and equitable compensation and benefit programs, including incentive programs which reward financial and operational performance, our ability to recruit, hire, engage, motivate and retain talent could be negatively affected. Additionally, if we are unable to maintain an inclusive culture that aligns our workforce with our mission and values, it could adversely impact our ability to recruit, hire, develop and retain key talent. Further, our remote and hybrid work practices, and ability to provide flexible and alternative work arrangements may not meet the needs or expectations of our employees, including senior management or other key employees, which could negatively impact our ability to attract and retain highly skilled employees, or may harm our culture and/or decrease employee engagement, which could adversely impact our ability to recruit, hire, develop and retain a talented, competitive workforce.

Effective succession planning is also important to our long-term success. Failure to ensure effective transfer of knowledge and smooth transitions involving executives and other key employees could hinder our strategic planning and execution. Changes in our management team may be disruptive to our business, and any failure to successfully integrate key new hires or promoted employees could adversely affect our business and results of operations. The loss of the services of any of our senior management or other key personnel, or our inability to attract highly qualified senior management and other key personnel, could harm our business. Our ability to execute our business strategy could be impaired if we are unable to replace such persons timely. In addition, recent legal and regulatory changes affect our ability to enforce post-termination obligations from certain employees with respect to non-competition, non-solicitation and protection of confidential information. This may negatively impact our ability to retain employees and protect our information and relationships with customers and other third parties.

Interruption of manufacturing operations could adversely affect our business: We and our suppliers have manufacturing and supply sites all over the world. However, the manufacturing of certain of our product lines is concentrated in one or more plants or geographic regions. We have principal manufacturing and distribution facilities in the United States in Arizona, California, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, Tennessee, Texas, Utah and Washington, and outside the United States in China, France, Germany, Ireland, Mexico, the Netherlands, Poland, Switzerland and Turkey. Damage to our facilities, to our suppliers' or service providers' facilities, or to our central distribution centers as a result of natural disasters, fires, explosions or otherwise, as well as issues in our manufacturing arising from a failure to follow specific internal protocols and procedures, compliance concerns relating to the quality systems regulation, equipment breakdown or malfunction, IT system failures or cybersecurity incidents, environmental hazard incidents or changes to environmental regulations or other factors, could adversely affect the availability of our products. In the event of an interruption in manufacturing, we may be unable to move quickly to alternate means of producing and distributing affected products to meet customer demand. In the event of a significant interruption, we may experience lengthy delays in resuming production or distribution of affected products due to the need for regulatory approvals, and we may experience loss of market share, additional expense and harm to our reputation.

Our insurance program may not be adequate to cover future losses: We maintain third-party insurance to cover our exposure to certain property and casualty losses and are self-insured for claims and expenses related to other property and casualty losses, including product liability, intellectual property infringement and enforcement, environmental, and cybersecurity and data privacy losses. We manage a portion of our exposure to self-insured losses through a wholly-owned captive insurance company. Insurance coverage limits provided by third-party insurers and/or our captive insurance company may not be sufficient to fully cover certain losses we may experience.

We have experienced, and may continue to experience, a significant and unpredictable need to adjust our operations as market demand for certain of our products has shifted and continues to shift or as may be mandated by governmental authorities: Some of our products are particularly sensitive to reductions in elective medical procedures. It is not possible to predict whether elective medical procedures will be suspended or reduced in the future and, to the extent individuals and customers are required to delay or cancel elective procedures, our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations could be negatively affected. Further, our customers have experienced, and may continue to experience, staffing shortages that may result in decreased demand for our products, which could negatively affect our business and financial results.

Unpredictable increases in demand for certain of our products have exceeded in the past, and could exceed in the future, our capacity to meet such demand timely, which could adversely affect our customer relationships and result in negative publicity. In this regard, the accelerated development and production of products and services to address medical and other requirements could increase the risk of regulatory enforcement actions, product defects or related claims or reputational harm, among other things.

Our use of AI and other emerging technologies could adversely impact our business and financial results: We have begun to deploy AI and other emerging technologies in various facets of our operations and products and we continue to explore further use cases. The rapid advancement of these technologies presents opportunities for us in research, manufacturing, commercialization, and other business endeavors, but also entails risks, including that AI-generated content, analyses, or recommendations we utilize could be deficient, that our competitors may more quickly or effectively adopt AI capabilities, or that our use of AI or other emerging technologies increases regulatory, cybersecurity and other significant risks. In addition, any disruption or failure in the AI functionality we incorporate into our business activities, products or services could adversely impact our business or result in delays or errors in our product offerings. The legal and regulatory landscape surrounding AI technologies is rapidly evolving and uncertain, including in the areas of intellectual property, cybersecurity and privacy and data protection. Compliance with new or changing laws, regulations or industry standards relating to AI may impose significant costs on us and limit our ability to effectively develop, deploy or use AI technologies. Furthermore, if we are unable to effectively manage the use of AI technologies by our employees and service providers, our confidential information, intellectual property and reputation could be put at risk. Failure to appropriately respond to this evolving landscape may result in reputational, competitive and business harm as well as litigation and regulatory action and fines, penalties and expenses related thereto.

Pandemics and public health emergencies, and the fear thereof, have in the past materially adversely affected and could in the future materially adversely affect, our operations, supply chain, manufacturing, product distribution, customers and other business activities:

Pandemics and public health emergencies, and the fear thereof, have in the past materially adversely affected and could in the future materially adversely affect, our operations, supply chain, manufacturing, product distribution, customers and other business activities:

In connection with prior pandemics, governmental authorities and private enterprises implemented, and may in the future implement in connection with another pandemic or public health emergency (or in response to the fear thereof), measures, such as travel bans and restrictions, quarantines, shelter-in-place orders and shutdowns. Our customers, global suppliers, distributors and manufacturing facilities have in the past been, and could in the future be, materially affected by restrictive measures implemented in response to a pandemic or public health emergency, which has in the past caused and could in the future cause them to be unable to hire and retain employees, distribute or use our products or provide required services. We have as a result experienced, and could in the future experience, delays in, or the suspension of, our manufacturing operations, sales activities, research and product development activities, regulatory work streams, clinical development programs and other important commercial functions, which may result in our inability to satisfy consumer demand for our products in a timely manner or at all and which could harm our reputation, future sales and profitability. The extent of any future pandemic or public health emergency's effect on our business and industry will depend on, among other things, the severity of the disease, the successful development, distribution and acceptance of vaccines for diseases, future resurgences and/or the spread of disease variants, all of which are uncertain and difficult to predict. The COVID-19 pandemic materially impacted us, and any future pandemic or public health emergency could materially impact us and would heighten many of the other risks described in this report.

LEGAL AND REGULATORY RISKS

Current economic and political conditions make tax rules in jurisdictions subject to significant change: Our future results of operations could be affected by changes in the effective tax rate as a result of changes in tax laws, regulations and judicial rulings. We are continuing to evaluate the impact of tax reform in the countries in which we operate as new guidance is published and new regulations are adopted. In addition, further changes in the tax laws could arise, including as a result of the base erosion and profit shifting project undertaken by the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). The OECD, which represents a coalition of member countries, has put forth two proposed frameworks that revise the existing profit allocation and nexus rules (Pillar 1) and ensure a minimal level of taxation (Pillar 2), respectively, and several countries enacted tax legislation based on these frameworks. In January 2026 the OECD released Administrative Guidance containing the Side-by-Side system (SbS System) and introduced two new Pillar 2 safe harbors for multinationals headquartered in jurisdictions including the United States with eligible tax systems. The safe harbors must now be legislated domestically by each country with enacted Pillar 2 legislation impacted by the new OECD Administrative Guidance. These tax law changes and any additional contemplated tax law changes could impact tax expense in future periods.

We could be negatively impacted by future changes in the allocation of income to each of the income tax jurisdictions in which we operate: We operate in multiple income tax jurisdictions both in the United States and internationally. Accordingly, our management must determine the appropriate allocation of income to each jurisdiction based on current interpretations of complex income tax regulations. Income tax authorities regularly perform audits of our income tax filings. Income tax audits associated with the allocation of income and other complex issues, including inventory transfer pricing and cost sharing, product royalty and foreign branch arrangements, may require an extended period to resolve and may result in significant income tax adjustments including the assessment of additional income taxes, interest and penalties. For example, we received a final audit report and assessments from the German Federal Central Tax Office ("FCTO") related to audits of tax years 2010 through 2017. Although we intend to defend our filing positions through the FCTO independent appeals process and, if necessary, litigation, there can be no assurance that we will be successful. If the resolution of this matter results in additional German income taxes, we intend to seek associated foreign tax credits, but such credits may not be available on a timely basis or at all, or may not fully offset any additional liability. Any such outcome could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. See Note 11 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

The impact of healthcare reform legislation on our business remains uncertain: Several markets where we sell our products are making efforts to expand access to healthcare or health insurance coverage while decreasing costs. These efforts may have a direct or unintended negative impact on access to medical technology and could have a significant effect on our business. Both in the United States and internationally, governmental authorities may make legislative or administrative reforms to existing reimbursement programs, make adverse decisions relating to our products' coverage or reimbursement, or make changes to patient access to healthcare, all of which could adversely impact the demand for and usage of our products or the prices that our customers are willing to pay for them. We cannot predict what healthcare programs and regulations could ultimately be implemented at the federal or state level or the effect that any future legislation or regulation in the United States may have on our business. Similarly, we cannot predict the impact that healthcare reform legislation in other countries where we sell our products may have on our business.

We are subject to extensive governmental regulation relating to the classification, manufacturing, sterilization, licensing, labeling, marketing and sale of our products: The classification, manufacturing, sterilization, licensing, labeling, marketing and sale of our products are subject to extensive and evolving regulations and rigorous regulatory enforcement by the FDA, state governments, European Union and other governmental authorities in the United States and internationally. These governmental authorities may impose additional requirements or limits on the methods, procedures or agents we use to manufacture and sterilize our products, which could have a negative impact on our business. For example, governmental authorities in the United States and internationally have or are considering adopting regulations on the use of per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances. In addition, the process of obtaining licenses, regulatory clearances and/or approvals to market and sell our products can be costly and time consuming and the clearances and/or approvals might not be granted timely. We have ongoing responsibilities under the laws and regulations applicable to the manufacturing of products within our facilities and those contracted by third parties that are subject to periodic inspections by the FDA, state Boards of Pharmacy and other governmental authorities to determine compliance with the quality system, medical device reporting regulations and other requirements. We may also be subject to legal obligations in some countries that require disclosure or sharing of proprietary information. We incur significant costs to comply with regulations, including the MDR. If we fail to comply with applicable regulatory requirements, we may be subject to a range of sanctions, including substantial fines, warning letters that require corrective action, product seizures, recalls, import restrictions, the suspension of product manufacturing or sales, revocation of approvals, exclusion from future participation in government healthcare programs, substantial fines and criminal prosecution.

We are subject to federal, state and foreign healthcare regulations, including anti-bribery, anti-corruption, anti-kickback and false claims laws, globally and could face substantial penalties if we fail to comply with such regulations and laws: The relationships that we, and third parties that market and/or sell our products, have with healthcare professionals, such as physicians, hospitals, healthcare organizations and others, are subject to scrutiny under various state and federal laws often referred to collectively as healthcare fraud and abuse laws. In addition, the United States and foreign government regulators have increased the enforcement of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and other anti-bribery and anti-kickback laws. We also must comply with a variety of other laws that impose extensive tracking and reporting related to all transfers of value provided to certain healthcare professionals and others. These laws and regulations are broad in scope and are subject to evolving interpretation and we have in the past been, and in the future could be, required to incur substantial costs to investigate, audit and monitor compliance or to alter our practices. Violations or alleged violations of these laws have in the past resulted and could in the future result in investigations, litigation or government proceedings, and we have been and may in the future be subject to criminal or civil penalties and sanctions, including substantial fines, imprisonment of current or former employees and exclusion from participation in governmental healthcare programs. For example, in 2013 and 2018 we settled claims brought by the SEC related to the FCPA. Pursuant to these settlements, we paid fines and penalties and retained an independent compliance consultant. We continue to implement recommendations that resulted from the independent compliance consultant's review of our commercial practices to enhance our commercial business practices. In addition, as disclosed in our prior filings, we were previously contacted by the SEC, the United States Department of Justice, and other regulatory authorities involving whether certain business activities in certain foreign countries violated provisions of the FCPA and analogous local laws. We have completed our investigation into these matters. On April 1, 2025, and December 16, 2025, we were informed by the DOJ and SEC, respectively, that each agency had closed its inquiry. We are currently responding to inquiries by certain foreign authorities arising in the normal course of business, however, we do not expect these matters to have a material effect, if any, on our financial statements.

We are subject to privacy, data protection and data security regulations and laws globally, and could face substantial penalties if we fail to comply with such regulations and laws: We are subject to a variety of laws and regulations globally regarding privacy, data protection and data security, including those related to the collection, storage, handling, use, disclosure, transfer and security of personally identifiable healthcare information and the development and use of AI in sharing certain data. For example, in the United States, privacy and security regulations under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, including the expanded requirements under the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act of 2009, establish comprehensive standards with respect to the use and disclosure of protected health information (PHI), by covered entities, in addition to setting standards to protect the confidentiality, integrity and security of PHI. Regulators are also imposing new data privacy and security requirements, including new and greater monetary fines for privacy violations. For example, the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) established rules regarding the handling of personal data. Non-compliance with the GDPR may result in monetary penalties of up to 4% of total company revenue. Various government authorities within the United States and around the world have imposed or are considering similar types of laws and regulations, data breach reporting and penalties for non-compliance or unauthorized disclosure and increasing security requirements. These laws and regulations are broad in scope and are subject to evolving interpretation and enforcement and we have in the past been, and in the future could be, required to incur substantial costs to monitor compliance or to alter our practices. As new privacy-related laws and AI-related regulations are implemented, the time and resources needed for us to comply with such laws and regulations, as well as our potential liability for non-compliance and reporting obligations in the case of data breaches, have increased and may further increase.

We may be adversely affected by product liability claims, unfavorable court decisions or legal settlements: We are exposed to potential product liability risks inherent in the design, manufacture and marketing of medical devices, many of which are implanted in the human body for long periods of time or indefinitely. We are currently defendants in a number of product liability matters, including those relating to our Rejuvenate and ABGII Modular-Neck hip stems, LFIT Anatomic CoCr V40 Femoral Heads and the product liability lawsuits and claims relating to Wright Medical Group N.V. (Wright) legacy hip products discussed in Note 7 to our Consolidated Financial Statements. These matters are subject to uncertainties and outcomes are not predictable. Further, the European Representative Actions Directive (the Collective Redress Directive) mandates a class action regime in each EU member state to facilitate domestic and cross-border class actions in a wide range of areas, including product liability claims with medical devices. The European Product Liability Directive was revised in 2024 and will become fully adopted into each member state's national laws by December 9, 2026. The revised Product Liability Directive and Collective Redress Directive exposes us to additional litigation risks and could result in significant legal expenses. In addition, we may incur significant legal expenses or reputational damage for product liability claims regardless of whether we are found to be liable.

Intellectual property litigation and infringement claims could cause us to incur significant expenses or prevent us from selling certain of our products: The medical device industry is characterized by extensive intellectual property litigation and, from time to time, we are the subject of claims of infringement or misappropriation. Regardless of the outcome, such claims are expensive to defend and divert management and operating personnel from other business issues. A successful claim or claims of patent or other intellectual property infringement against us could result in payment of significant monetary damages and/or royalty payments or negatively impact our ability to sell current or future products in the affected category.

Dependence on intellectual proprietary rights and failing to protect such rights or to be successful in litigation related to such rights may impact offerings in our product portfolios: Our long-term success largely depends on our ability to market technologically competitive products. If we fail to obtain or maintain adequate intellectual property protection, it could allow others to sell products that directly compete with proprietary features in our product portfolio. Also, our issued patents may be subject to claims challenging their validity and scope and raising other issues. In addition, currently pending or future patent applications may not result in issued patents and the expiration of patents may lead to a loss of exclusive rights and/or increased competition.

MARKET RISKS

We have exposure to exchange rate fluctuations on cross border transactions and translation of local currency results into United States Dollars: We report our financial results in United States Dollars and approximately 24% of our net sales are denominated in foreign currencies, including the Australian Dollar, British Pound, Canadian Dollar, Euro and Japanese Yen. Cross border transactions with external parties, financing transactions in currencies other than the United States Dollar and intercompany relationships result in increased exposure to foreign currency exchange effects. While we use derivative instruments to manage the impact of currency exchange, our hedging strategies may not be successful, and our unhedged exposures continue to be subject to currency fluctuations. In addition, the weakening or strengthening of the United States Dollar results in favorable or unfavorable translation effects when the results of our foreign locations are translated into United States Dollars. Currency exchange rates continue to be volatile, and these currency fluctuations have affected, and may continue to affect, our results of operations.

Additional capital that we may require in the future may not be available to us or may only be available to us on unfavorable terms, which could negatively affect our liquidity: Our future capital requirements will depend on many factors, including operating requirements, current and future acquisitions and the need to refinance existing debt. Our ability to issue additional debt or enter into other financing arrangements on acceptable terms could be adversely affected by our debt levels, unfavorable changes in economic conditions or uncertainties that affect the capital markets. Changes in credit ratings issued by nationally recognized credit rating agencies could also adversely affect our access to and cost of financing. Higher borrowing costs or the inability to access capital markets could adversely affect our ability to support future growth and operating requirements. In addition, we have experienced, and could in the future experience, loss of sales and profits due to delayed payments or insolvency of healthcare professionals, hospitals and other customers and suppliers facing liquidity issues due to the current macroeconomic environment, type and number of conditions being treated or for other reasons. As a result, we may be compelled to take additional measures to preserve our cash flow, including through the reduction of operating expenses or suspension of dividend payments.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE RISKS

We could be negatively impacted by evolving requirements and expectations related to corporate responsibility and sustainability-related matters, including those related to climate: Governments, investors, customers, employees and other stakeholders have been focused on corporate responsibility practices and disclosures, and expectations in this area continue to rapidly evolve, including in diverging directions. On occasion, we announce new initiatives and make disclosures, including goals, relating to various corporate responsibility matters. Implementation of these initiatives involves risks and uncertainties, requires investments and depends in part on third-party performance or data that is outside our control. We cannot guarantee that we will achieve our announced corporate responsibility initiatives. If we fail or are perceived to have failed to achieve previously announced initiatives or goals, comply with corporate responsibility laws and regulations, meet evolving expectations or accurately disclose our progress, we could face legal and regulatory proceedings and our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely impacted. Furthermore, there is no guarantee that we will satisfy the evolving and diverging expectations of our various stakeholders on corporate responsibility matters, and a failure to satisfy the expectations of any key stakeholder group could result in, among other things, reduced demand for our products, reduced profits, increased investigations and litigation and an increased risk of reputational damage. If we are unable to satisfy evolving and diverging expectations on these matters, certain investors and other stakeholders may conclude that our policies and/or actions with respect to corporate responsibility matters are inadequate or undesirable.

Physical weather events, as well as legal, regulatory or market measures related to environmental, climate and other sustainability matters, could adversely affect our operations and operating results: Weather-related events and evolving environmental conditions may result in operational, supply chain and infrastructure disruptions. Such events, including hurricanes, tornadoes, wildfires, droughts, extreme temperatures, flooding, and other natural disasters, could damage our facilities and products, or those of our suppliers, disrupt manufacturing and distribution, reduce workforce availability, increase raw material and component costs, increase liabilities, or adversely affect the operations of hospitals, medical care facilities and other customers, any of which could negatively impact our results of operations. In addition, sustainability-related matters continue to be the subject of regulatory, legal and market attention. Regulatory requirements and enforcement approaches may evolve, differ by jurisdiction, or change over time, including through the adoption, modification, interpretation, or enforcement of environmental laws and regulations. Such developments may increase compliance costs, create uncertainty, affect raw material availability and sourcing, require operational changes, or otherwise adversely affect our manufacturing, supply chain, distribution activities or operating results.

ITEM 1B. UNRESOLVED STAFF COMMENTS.

None.

ITEM 1C. CYBERSECURITY.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND STRATEGY

We review cybersecurity risk as part of our overall enterprise risk management program. This ensures that cybersecurity risk management remains a top priority in our business strategy and operations.

MANAGEMENT'S ROLE IN MANAGING RISK

Primary management responsibility for assessing, monitoring and managing our cybersecurity risks rests with our chief information security officer ("CISO"). Our current CISO has over 30 years of experience in information technology and cybersecurity in the United States military, retail and healthcare sectors and oversees our team of cybersecurity professionals. The CISO is regularly informed about recent developments in cybersecurity, including potential threats and innovative risk management techniques.

The CISO implements and oversees processes for the regular monitoring of our information systems. We use various tools and methodologies to manage cybersecurity risk that are tested regularly. We also monitor and evaluate our cybersecurity posture and performance on an ongoing basis through regular vulnerability scans, penetration tests and threat intelligence feeds. In addition, we engage third-party consultants to conduct annual cybersecurity assessments and to conduct audits for compliance with regulatory, Sarbanes-Oxley Act, Service Organization Control Type 2 and International Organization for Standardization standards. We also engage third parties to assess our cybersecurity maturity and risk management programs.

We use a cross-departmental approach to addressing cybersecurity risk, with our cybersecurity, product security and legal teams presenting quarterly on key topics to a committee of leaders in technology, legal, finance, regulatory and corporate affairs functions. This leadership committee meets quarterly to ensure that we have input and oversight from critical stakeholders into our cybersecurity program and evolving issues.

The CISO oversees a training and awareness program for employees to take part in protecting the Company against cybersecurity risks. We have implemented annual mandatory security education to help employees understand cybersecurity risks and comply with our cybersecurity policies. Additionally, we provide frequent communications around pertinent cybersecurity topics and policies to all employees. We also provide additional cybersecurity and data protection training to employees in certain roles.

As part of our cybersecurity risk management program, we also conduct cybersecurity, data protection, and privacy assessments on all third parties who integrate with Stryker's data, network, systems and products. We use a combination of internal and external tools to confirm that these third parties meet our security requirements. We leverage standard industry threat model and privacy impact assessment concepts to confirm that data minimization and adequate data protections are in place. We perform supplemental reviews as necessary, commensurate with the risk associated with each vendor.

In the event of a cybersecurity incident, we have an incident response plan that includes immediate actions to mitigate the impact and long-term strategies for remediation and prevention of future incidents. The cybersecurity and product security teams routinely practice this plan with functions across the organization. We conduct tabletop exercises with senior management, during which we practice the procedures in place to ensure that potentially material cybersecurity risks and incidents are escalated to management and the Board of Directors where applicable.

GOVERNANCE

Cybersecurity risks are overseen by the full Board of Directors and the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is central to the Board of Directors' oversight of cybersecurity risks and bears the primary responsibility for overseeing cybersecurity risk. The Audit Committee actively participates in strategic decisions related to cybersecurity, offering guidance and approval for major cybersecurity initiatives. This involvement ensures that cybersecurity considerations are integrated into our broader strategic objectives.

Our CISO provides comprehensive updates to the Audit Committee at least three times a year and the full Board of Directors periodically. These briefings include a range of topics, including:

- Current cybersecurity landscape and emerging threats;
- Status of ongoing cybersecurity initiatives and strategies;
- Incident reports and learnings from any cybersecurity events;
- Metrics demonstrating company and industry-standard prevention of common threats; and
- Regulatory changes impacting cybersecurity requirements and strategy.

The Board of Directors is aware of the critical nature of managing risks associated with cybersecurity threats and is actively engaged in our cybersecurity risk management strategy.

RISKS FROM CYBERSECURITY THREATS

Although cybersecurity risks have not materially affected us, including our business strategy, results of operations or financial condition, to date, we face numerous and evolving cybersecurity threats in our business. For more information about the cybersecurity risks we face, see the risk factor entitled "We, our business partners or our third-party vendors could experience a material failure or breach of a key information technology system, network, process or site" in Item 1A. Risk Factors.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES.

We have approximately 27 company-owned and 306 leased locations worldwide including 55 manufacturing locations. We believe that our properties are in good operating condition and adequate for the manufacture and distribution of our products. We do not anticipate difficulty in renewing existing leases as they expire or in finding alternative facilities.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

We are involved in various ongoing proceedings, legal actions and claims arising in the normal course of our business, including proceedings related to product, labor, tax, intellectual property and other matters. Refer to Notes 7 and 11 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

ITEM 4. MINE SAFETY DISCLOSURES.

Not applicable.

PART II

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR THE REGISTRANT'S COMMON EQUITY, RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS AND ISSUER PURCHASES OF EQUITY SECURITIES.

Our common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol SYK.

Our Board of Directors considers payment of cash dividends at its quarterly meetings. On January 31, 2026 there were 2,323 shareholders of record of our common stock.

We did not repurchase any shares in the three months ended December 31, 2025 and the total dollar value of shares that could be acquired under our authorized repurchase program at December 31, 2025 was $1,033.

In the fourth quarter 2025 we did not issue shares of our common stock as performance incentive awards to employees. When issued, these shares are not registered under the Securities Act of 1933 based on the conclusion that the awards are not events of sale within the meaning of Section 2(a)(3) of the Act.

The following graph compares our total returns (including reinvestment of dividends) against the Standard & Poor's (S&P) 500 Index and the S&P 500 Health Care Index. The graph assumes $100 (not in millions) invested on December 31, 2020 in our common stock and each of the indices.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

About Stryker

Stryker is a global leader in medical technologies and, together with our customers, we are driven to make healthcare better. We offer innovative products and services in MedSurg, Neurotechnology, and Orthopaedics that help improve patient and healthcare outcomes. Alongside our customers around the world, we impact more than 150 million patients annually. Our goal is to achieve sales growth at the high-end of the medical technology (MedTech) industry and maintain our long-term capital allocation strategy that prioritizes: (1) Acquisitions, (2) Dividends and (3) Share repurchases.

We segregate our operations into two reportable business segments: (i) MedSurg and Neurotechnology and (ii) Orthopaedics. MedSurg and Neurotechnology products include surgical equipment and navigation systems (Instruments), endoscopic and communications systems (Endoscopy), patient handling, emergency medical equipment and intensive care disposable products (Medical), minimally invasive products for the treatment of acute ischemic and hemorrhagic stroke and venous thromboembolism (Vascular), a comprehensive line of products for traditional brain and open skull-based surgical procedures; orthobiologic and biosurgery products, including synthetic bone grafts and vertebral augmentation products (Neuro Cranial). Orthopaedics products consist primarily of implants used in hip and knee joint replacements and trauma and extremity surgeries.

Macroeconomic Environment

In 2025 the United States government has announced new tariffs on goods imported into the United States from dozens of countries, including China and the European Union member states. In response, governments have threatened or imposed reciprocal tariffs or taken other measures, and the United States is in the process of negotiating with certain governments. We continue to monitor and evaluate the situation. Tariffs are expected to continue to result in an increase in certain product costs or have adverse impacts on, among other things, demand for our products and supply chains. The overall macroeconomic and geopolitical environment, including tariffs or changes in trade policies, slower economic growth or recession, market volatility and inflation, and uncertainty regarding all of the foregoing, pose risks that could impact our business and results of operations. For more information about these risks, see Item 1A. "Risk Factors."

Overview of 2025

In 2025 we achieved reported net sales growth of 11.2%. Excluding the impact of acquisitions and divestitures, sales grew 10.3% in constant currency. We reported net earnings of $3,246 and net earnings per diluted share of $8.40. Excluding the impact of certain items, we achieved adjusted net earnings[1] of $5,267 and adjusted net earnings per diluted share[1] of $13.63 representing growth of 11.8%.

We continued our capital allocation strategy by investing $4,960 in acquisitions and paying $1,284 in dividends to our shareholders.

In 2025 we completed various acquisitions for total consideration of $4,960, net of cash acquired. Refer to Note 6 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

In February 2025 we entered into a new revolving credit agreement that replaces our previous agreement dated October 2021. The primary changes included increasing the aggregate principal amount of the facility by $750 to $3,000 and extending the maturity date to February 25, 2030. On December 31, 2025 there were no borrowings outstanding under our revolving credit facility or our commercial paper program which allows for maturities up to 397 days from the date of issuance. The maximum amount of our commercial paper that can be outstanding at any time is $3,000.

In February 2025 we issued $500 of 4.550% senior unsecured notes due February 10, 2027, $700 of 4.700% senior unsecured notes due February 10, 2028, $800 of 4.850% senior unsecured notes due February 10, 2030 and $1,000 of 5.200% senior unsecured notes due February 10, 2035. In the second quarter 2025 we repaid $650 of 1.150% senior unsecured notes and in the fourth quarter 2025 we repaid $750 of 3.375% senior unsecured notes.

Consolidated Net Sales

Consolidated net sales in 2025 increased 11.2% as reported and 10.7% in constant currency, as foreign currency exchange rates positively impacted net sales by 0.5%. Excluding the 0.4% impact of acquisitions and divestitures, net sales in constant currency increased by 9.9% from increased unit volume and 0.4% due to higher prices. The unit volume increase was primarily due to higher shipments across all businesses.

Consolidated net sales in 2024 increased 10.2% as reported and 10.7% in constant currency, as foreign currency exchange rates negatively impacted net sales by 0.5%. Excluding the 0.5% impact of acquisitions and divestitures, net sales in constant currency increased by 9.1% from increased unit volume and 1.1% due to higher prices. The unit volume increase was due to higher shipments across all MedSurg and Neurotechnology businesses and most Orthopaedics businesses.

MedSurg and Neurotechnology Net Sales

MedSurg and Neurotechnology net sales in 2025 increased 15.7% as reported and 15.4% in constant currency, as foreign currency exchange rates positively impacted net sales by 0.3%. Excluding the 4.7% impact of acquisitions and divestitures, net sales in constant currency increased by 10.0% from increased unit volume and 0.7% due to higher prices. The unit volume increase was due to higher shipments across all MedSurg and Neurotechnology businesses.

MedSurg and Neurotechnology net sales in 2024 increased 11.1% as reported and 11.6% in constant currency, as foreign currency exchange rates negatively impacted net sales by 0.5%. Excluding the 0.4% impact of acquisitions and divestitures, net sales in constant currency increased by 9.5% from increased unit volume and 1.7% due to higher prices. The unit volume increase was due to higher shipments across all MedSurg and Neurotechnology businesses.

Orthopaedics Net Sales

Orthopaedics net sales in 2025 increased 4.3% as reported and 3.8% in constant currency, as foreign currency exchange rates positively impacted net sales by 0.5%. Excluding the 5.7% impact of acquisitions and divestitures, net sales in constant currency increased by 9.6% from increased unit volume partially offset by 0.1% due to lower prices. The unit volume increase was due to higher shipments across most Orthopaedics businesses.

Orthopaedics net sales in 2024 increased 8.9% as reported and 9.4% in constant currency, as foreign currency exchange rates negatively impacted net sales by 0.5%. Excluding the 0.7% impact of acquisitions and divestitures, net sales in constant currency increased by 8.7% from increased unit volume. The unit volume increase was due to higher shipments across all Orthopaedics businesses.

Gross Profit

Gross profit was $16,065, $14,440 and $13,058 in 2025, 2024, and 2023. The key components of the change were:

| | Gross Profit Percent Net Sales |
|---|---|
| 2023 | 63.7 % |
| Sales pricing | 40 bps |
| Volume and mix | 60 bps |
| Manufacturing and supply chain costs | (40) bps |
| Inventory stepped up to fair value | (20) bps |
| Structural optimization and other special charges | (20) bps |
| 2024 | 63.9 % |
| Sales pricing | 10 bps |
| Volume and mix | 70 bps |
| Manufacturing and supply chain costs | 0 bps |
| Inventory stepped up to fair value | (60) bps |
| Structural optimization and other special charges | (10) bps |
| 2025 | 64.0 % |

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales increased to 64.0% in 2025 from 63.9% in 2024 primarily due to higher sales pricing and favorable volume partially offset by higher amortization of inventory stepped up to fair value.

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales increased to 63.9% in 2024 from 63.7% in 2023 due to higher sales pricing and favorable volume offset by higher manufacturing and supply chain costs primarily due to inflationary pressures impacting fixed and variable manufacturing costs as well as higher amortization of inventory stepped up to fair value.

While segment mix was not a significant driver of the change in gross profit as a percent of net sales between 2025, 2024 and 2023, we generally expect segment mix to have an unfavorable impact for the foreseeable future as we anticipate more rapid sales growth in our lower gross margin MedSurg and Neurotechnology segment than our Orthopaedics segment.

Research, Development and Engineering Expenses

Research, development and engineering expenses as a percentage of net sales in 2025 of 6.5% remained flat with 2024.

Research, development and engineering expenses as a percentage of net sales in 2024 decreased to 6.5% from 6.8% in 2023 primarily due to lower spend on medical device regulations in the European Union.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales in 2025 increased to 34.4% from 34.0% in 2024 primarily due to higher acquisition-related costs and continued investments to support our growth. A charge of $139 for share-based awards for Inari employees that vested upon our acquisition is included in 2025.

Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales in 2024 decreased to 34.0% from 34.7% in 2023 primarily due to continued spend discipline and lower charges for structural optimization and certain legal matters partially offset by higher acquisition-related costs.

Amortization of Intangible Assets

Amortization of intangible assets was $732, $623 and $635 in 2025, 2024 and 2023. These amounts include amortization related to intangible assets acquired in 2025 from Inari, 2024 from various acquisitions and 2023 from Cerus Endovascular Limited (Cerus). Refer to Notes 6 and 8 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

Goodwill and Other Impairments

Goodwill and other impairments of $170, $977 and $36 were recorded in 2025, 2024 and 2023.

In 2024 we recorded goodwill impairment charges of $456 related to our Spine business and recognized an estimated loss of $362 as a result of classifying certain assets in our Spinal Implants business as held for sale. Refer to Notes 8 and 16 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

In 2025, 2024 and 2023 we recorded other impairments of $109, $159 and $36. Refer to Note 15 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

Operating Income

Operating income was $4,889, $3,689 and $3,888 in 2025, 2024 and 2023. Operating income increased as a percentage of sales to 19.5% in 2025 from 16.3% in 2024 and increased from 19.0% in 2023. Refer to the comments above for discussion of the primary drivers of the change.

MedSurg and Neurotechnology operating income as a percentage of net sales increased to 29.9% in 2025 from 29.6% in 2024. MedSurg and Neurotechnology operating income as a percentage of net sales increased to 29.6% in 2024 from 28.5% in 2023. Orthopaedics operating income as a percentage of net sales increased to 29.8% in 2025 from 28.5% in 2024. Orthopaedics operating income as a percentage of net sales increased to 28.5% in 2024 from 27.2% in 2023. The key components of the change were:

| | Operating Income Percent Net Sales | |
|---|---|---|
| | MedSurg and Neurotechnology | Orthopaedics |
| 2023 | 28.5 % | 27.2 % |
| Sales pricing | 70 bps | 0 bps |
| Volume | 40 bps | 70 bps |
| Manufacturing and supply chain costs | (40) bps | (20) bps |
| Research, development and engineering expenses | 0 bps | 10 bps |
| Selling, general and administrative expenses | 40 bps | 70 bps |
| 2024 | 29.6 % | 28.5 % |
| Sales pricing | 30 bps | 0 bps |
| Volume | 90 bps | 30 bps |
| Manufacturing and supply chain costs | 80 bps | (90) bps |
| Research, development and engineering expenses | (30) bps | 50 bps |
| Selling, general and administrative expenses | (140) bps | 140 bps |
| 2025 | 29.9 % | 29.8 % |

The increase in MedSurg and Neurotechnology operating income as a percentage of net sales in 2025 from 2024 was primarily driven by higher unit volumes and prices, and lower manufacturing and supply chain costs partially offset by higher selling, general and administrative expenses due to the acquisition of Inari.

The increase in MedSurg and Neurotechnology operating income as a percentage of net sales in 2024 from 2023 was primarily driven by higher unit volumes, higher prices and a decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of sales partially offset by higher manufacturing and supply chain costs.

The increase in Orthopaedics operating income as a percentage of net sales for 2025 from 2024 was primarily by driven lower selling, general and administrative expenses and higher unit volumes partially offset by higher manufacturing and supply chain costs.

The increase in Orthopaedics operating income as a percentage of net sales for 2024 from 2023 was primarily driven by higher sales volumes and a decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of sales partially offset by higher manufacturing and supply chain costs.

Interest Expense

Interest expense was $607, $409 and $363 in 2025, 2024 and 2023. The increase in 2025 from 2024 was due to increased interest expense from our 2025 debt issuances. The increase in 2024 from 2023 was primarily due to the impact of additional interest expense from our 2024 debt issuances.

Other Income

Other income was $232, $212 and $148 in 2025, 2024 and 2023. The increase in 2025 from 2024 was primarily due to higher interest income in 2025. The increase in 2024 from 2023 was primarily due to higher interest income.

Income Taxes

Our effective tax rate was 28.1%, 14.3% and 13.8% for 2025, 2024 and 2023. The effective income tax rate for 2025 increased from 2024 due to the 2025 tax effect of transfers of intellectual property between tax jurisdictions and the 2024 tax effect of the sale of the Spinal Implants business. The effective income tax rate for 2024 increased from 2023 due to the 2023 tax effect of transfers of intellectual property between tax jurisdictions offset by the 2024 tax effect of the sale of the Spinal Implants business.

Our future results of operations could be affected by changes in the effective tax rate as a result of changes in tax laws, regulations and judicial rulings. We are continuing to evaluate the impact of tax reform in the countries in which we operate as new guidance is published and new regulations are adopted. In addition, further changes in the tax laws could arise, including as a result of the base erosion and profit shifting project undertaken by the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). The OECD, which represents a coalition of member countries, has put forth two proposed frameworks that revise the existing profit allocation and nexus rules (Pillar 1) and ensure a minimal level of taxation (Pillar 2), respectively, and several countries enacted tax legislation based on these frameworks. In January 2026, the OECD released Administrative Guidance containing the SbS System and introduced two new Pillar 2 safe harbors for multinationals headquartered in jurisdictions including the United States with eligible tax systems. The safe harbors must now be legislated domestically by each country with enacted Pillar 2 legislation impacted by the new OECD Administrative Guidance. These tax law changes and any additional contemplated tax law changes, could impact tax expense in future periods.

Net Earnings

Net earnings for 2025 increased to $3,246 or $8.40 per diluted share from $2,993 or $7.76 per diluted share in 2024 and $3,165 or $8.25 per diluted share in 2023. Refer to the comments above for discussion of the primary drivers of the change.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We supplement the reporting of our financial information determined under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) with certain non-GAAP financial measures, including percentage sales growth in constant currency; percentage organic sales growth; adjusted gross profit; adjusted selling, general and administrative expenses; adjusted research, development and engineering expenses; adjusted operating income; adjusted other income (expense), net; adjusted income taxes; adjusted effective income tax rate; adjusted net earnings; and adjusted net earnings per diluted share (Diluted EPS). We believe these non-GAAP financial measures provide meaningful information to assist investors and shareholders in understanding our financial results and assessing our prospects for future performance. Management believes percentage sales growth in constant currency and the other adjusted measures described above are important indicators of our operations because they exclude items that may not be indicative of or are unrelated to our core operating results and provide a baseline for analyzing trends in our underlying businesses. Management uses these non-GAAP financial measures for reviewing the operating results of reportable business segments and analyzing potential future business trends in connection with our budget process and bases certain management incentive compensation on these non-GAAP financial measures. To measure percentage sales growth in constant currency, we remove the impact of changes in foreign currency exchange rates that affect the comparability and trend of sales. Percentage sales growth in constant currency is calculated by translating current and prior year results at the same foreign currency exchange rate. To measure percentage organic sales growth, we remove the impact of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, acquisitions and divestitures, which affect the comparability and trend of sales. Percentage organic sales growth is calculated by translating current year and prior year results at the same foreign currency exchange rates excluding the impact of acquisitions and divestitures. To measure earnings performance on a consistent and comparable basis, we exclude certain items that affect the comparability of operating results and the trend of earnings. The income tax effect of each adjustment was determined based on the tax effect of the jurisdiction in which the related pre-tax adjustment was recorded. These adjustments are irregular in timing and may not be indicative of our past and future performance. The following are examples of the types of adjustments that may be included in a period:

1. Acquisition and integration-related costs. Costs related to integrating recently acquired businesses (e.g., costs associated with the termination of sales relationships, employee retention and workforce reductions, manufacturing integration costs and other integration-related activities), changes in the fair value of contingent consideration, amortization of inventory stepped-up to fair value, specific costs (e.g., deal costs and costs associated with legal entity rationalization) related to the consummation of the acquisition process and legal entity rationalization and acquisition-related tax items.
2. Amortization of purchased intangible assets. Periodic amortization expense related to purchased intangible assets.
3. Structural optimization and other special charges. Costs associated with employee retention and workforce reductions, the closure or transfer of manufacturing and other facilities (e.g., site closure costs, contract termination costs and redundant employee costs during the work transfers), product line exits (primarily inventory, long-lived asset and specifically-identified intangible asset write-offs), certain long-lived and intangible asset write-offs and impairments and other charges.
4. Medical device regulations. Costs specific to updating our quality system, product labeling, asset write-offs and product remanufacturing to comply with the new medical device reporting regulations and other requirements of the European Union.
5. Recall-related matters. Changes in our best estimate of the probable loss, or the minimum of the range of probable losses when a best estimate within a range is not known, to resolve the Rejuvenate, LFIT V40, Wright legacy hip products and other product recalls.
6. Regulatory and legal matters. Changes in our best estimate of the probable loss, or the minimum of the range of probable losses when a best estimate within a range is not known, to resolve certain regulatory or other legal matters and the amount of favorable awards from settlements.
7. Tax matters. Impact of accounting for certain significant and discrete tax items.

Because non-GAAP financial measures are not standardized, it may not be possible to compare these financial measures with other companies' non-GAAP financial measures having the same or similar names. These adjusted financial measures should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for reported sales growth, gross profit, selling, general and administrative expenses, research, development and engineering expenses, operating income, other income (expense), net, income taxes, effective income tax rate, net earnings and net earnings per diluted share, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures. These non-GAAP financial measures are an additional way of viewing aspects of our operations when viewed with our GAAP results and the reconciliations to corresponding GAAP financial measures at the end of the discussion of Consolidated Results of Operations below. We strongly encourage investors and shareholders to review our financial statements and publicly-filed reports in their entirety and not to rely on any single financial measure.

The weighted-average diluted shares outstanding used in the calculation of adjusted net earnings per diluted share are the same as those used in the calculation of reported net earnings per diluted share for the respective period.

FINANCIAL CONDITION AND LIQUIDITY

| Net cash provided by (used in): | 2025 | 2024 | 2023 |
|---|---|---|---|
| Operating activities | $ 5,044 | $ 4,242 | $ 3,711 |
| Investing activities | (4,866) | (3,000) | (962) |
| Financing activities | 113 | (525) | (1,594) |
| Effect of exchange rate changes | 68 | (36) | (28) |
| Change in cash and cash equivalents | $ 359 | $ 681 | $ 1,127 |

We believe our financial condition continues to be of high quality, as evidenced by our ability to generate substantial cash from operations and to readily access capital markets at competitive rates despite the current macroeconomic environment. Operating cash flow provides the primary source of cash to fund operating needs and capital expenditures. Excess operating cash is used first to fund acquisitions to complement our portfolio of businesses. Other discretionary uses include dividends and potentially share repurchases. We supplement operating cash flow with debt to fund our activities as necessary. Our overall cash position reflects our business results and a global cash management strategy that takes into account liquidity management, economic factors and tax considerations.

Operating Activities

Cash provided by operating activities was $5,044, $4,242 and $3,711 in 2025, 2024 and 2023. The increase in 2025 was primarily due to higher cash earnings and working capital improvements. The increase in 2024 from 2023 was primarily due to higher cash earnings partially offset by changes in working capital.

Investing Activities

Cash used in investing activities was $4,866, $3,000 and $962 in 2025, 2024 and 2023. Cash used in 2025 included cash paid for the acquisition of Inari, purchases of property, plant and equipment, partially offset by proceeds from the sale of short term investments and our Spinal Implants business. Cash used in 2024 included cash paid for various acquisitions and purchases of short-term investments partially offset by proceeds from other investing activities.

Financing Activities

Cash provided by financing activities in 2025 was $113 and used in financing activities in 2024 and 2023 was $525 and $1,594. Cash provided by 2025 was primarily driven by dividend payments of $1,284 and repayments of $1,400 to pay off maturing senior unsecured notes. These repayments were offset by net proceeds of $2,979 from the issuance of senior unsecured notes as described in Note 10 to our Consolidated Financial statements. Cash used in 2024 was primarily driven by dividend payments of $1,219 and repayments of $2,039 to pay off maturing senior unsecured notes. These repayments were offset by net proceeds of $3,011 from issuance of senior unsecured notes.

We maintain debt levels that we consider appropriate after evaluating a number of factors including cash requirements for ongoing operations, investment and financing plans (including acquisitions and share repurchase activities) and overall cost of capital. Refer to Note 10 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

|---|---|---|---|
| Dividends paid per common share | $ 3.36 | $ 3.20 | $ 3.00 |
| Total dividends paid to common shareholders | $ 1,284 | $ 1,219 | $ 1,139 |

Liquidity

Cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities were $4,100 and $3,743, and our current assets exceeded current liabilities by $6,961 and $7,231 on December 31, 2025 and 2024. We anticipate being able to support our short-term liquidity and operating needs from a variety of sources including cash from operations, commercial paper and existing credit lines. We also have a revolving credit agreement maturing in February 2030 with an aggregate principal amount of $3,000.

We raised funds in the capital markets in the past and may continue to do so from time-to-time. We continue to have strong investment-grade short-term and long-term debt ratings that we believe should enable us to refinance our debt as needed.

Our cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities held in locations outside the United States was approximately 20% on December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Guarantees and Other Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have guarantees or other off-balance sheet financing arrangements, including variable interest entities, of a magnitude that we believe could have a material impact on our financial condition or liquidity.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS AND FORWARD-LOOKING CASH REQUIREMENTS

In 2025 we recorded charges for various legal matters as further described in Note 7 to our Consolidated Financial Statements. Recorded reserves represent the best estimate of the probable loss, or the minimum of the range of probable losses when a best estimate within the range is not known. The final outcome of these matters is dependent on many variables that are difficult to predict. The ultimate cost to entirely resolve these matters may be materially different from the amount of the current estimates and could have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations and cash flows. We are not able to reasonably estimate the future periods in which payments will be made.

As further described in Note 11 to our Consolidated Financial Statements, on December 31, 2025 we had a reserve for uncertain income tax positions of $403. Due to uncertainties regarding the ultimate resolution of income tax audits, we are not able to reasonably estimate the future periods in which any income tax payments to settle these uncertain income tax positions will be made.

As further described in Note 12 to our Consolidated Financial Statements, on December 31, 2025 our defined benefit pension plans were underfunded by $269, of which approximately $268 related to plans outside the United States. Due to the rules affecting tax-deductible contributions in the jurisdictions in which the plans are offered and the impact of future plan asset performance, changes in interest rates and potential changes in legislation in the United States and other foreign jurisdictions, we are not able to reasonably estimate the amounts that may be required to fund defined benefit pension plans.

|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Debt repayments | $15,973 | $1,000 | $3,988 | $4,256 | $6,729 |
| Interest payments | 4,287 | 536 | 957 | 670 | 2,124 |
| Minimum lease payments | 524 | 164 | 212 | 93 | 55 |
| Other | 85 | 6 | 28 | 27 | 24 |
| Total | $20,869 | $1,706 | $5,185 | $5,046 | $8,932 |

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

In preparing our financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, there are certain accounting policies, which may require substantial judgment or estimation in their application. We believe these accounting policies and the others set forth in Note 1 to our Consolidated Financial Statements are critical to understanding our results of operations and financial condition. Actual results could differ from our estimates and assumptions, and any such differences could be material to our results of operations and financial condition.

Income Taxes

Our annual tax rate is determined based on our income, statutory tax rates and the tax impacts of items treated differently for tax purposes than for financial reporting purposes. Tax law requires certain items be included in the tax return at different times than the items are reflected in the financial statements. Some of these differences are permanent, such as expenses that are not deductible in our tax return, and some differences are temporary and reverse over time, such as depreciation expense. These temporary differences create deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets generally represent the tax effect of items that can be used as a tax deduction or credit in future years for which we have already recorded the tax benefit in our income statement. Deferred tax liabilities generally represent tax expense recognized in our financial statements for which payment was deferred, the tax effect of expenditures for which a deduction was taken in our tax return but has not yet been recognized in our financial statements or assets recorded at fair value in business combinations for which there was no corresponding tax basis adjustment.

Inherent in determining our annual tax rate are judgments regarding business plans, tax planning opportunities and expectations about future outcomes. Realization of certain deferred tax assets is dependent upon generating sufficient taxable income in the appropriate jurisdiction prior to the expiration of the carryforward periods. Although realization is not assured, management believes it is more likely than not that our deferred tax assets, net of valuation allowances, will be realized.

We operate in multiple jurisdictions with complex tax policy and regulatory environments. In certain of these jurisdictions, we may take tax positions that management believes are supportable but are potentially subject to successful challenge by the applicable taxing authority. These differences of interpretation with the respective governmental taxing authorities can be impacted by the local economic and fiscal environment. We evaluate our tax positions and establish liabilities in accordance with the applicable accounting guidance on uncertainty in income taxes. We review these tax uncertainties in light of changing facts and circumstances, such as the progress of tax audits, and adjust them accordingly. We have a number of audits in process in various jurisdictions. Although the resolution of these tax positions is uncertain, based on currently available information, we believe that it is more likely than not that the ultimate outcomes will not have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Due to the number of estimates and assumptions inherent in calculating the various components of our tax provision, certain changes or future events, such as changes in tax legislation, geographic mix of earnings, completion of tax audits or earnings repatriation plans, could have an impact on those estimates and our effective tax rate.

We received a final audit report and assessments from the German Federal Central Tax Office (FCTO) related to the years 2010 through 2017 of $754 and expect to receive additional assessments of $11 based on the final audit report. We intend to defend our filing positions through the FCTO independent appeals process and/or litigation as necessary. If the resolution of this matter results in additional German income taxes, we expect to pursue a claim for associated foreign tax credits. Our unrecognized tax benefits associated with this matter remain unchanged from 2024. Refer to Note 11 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion.

Acquisitions, Goodwill and Intangibles, and Long-Lived Assets

Our financial statements include the operations of an acquired business starting from the completion of the acquisition. In addition, the assets acquired and liabilities assumed are recorded on the date of acquisition at their respective estimated fair values, with any excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair values of the net assets acquired recorded as goodwill.

Significant judgment is required in estimating the fair value of intangible assets and in assigning their respective useful lives. Accordingly, we typically obtain the assistance of third-party valuation specialists for significant items. The fair value estimates are based on available historical information and on future expectations and assumptions deemed reasonable by management but are inherently uncertain. We typically use an income method to estimate the fair value of intangible assets, which is based on forecasts of the expected future cash flows attributable to the respective assets. Significant estimates and assumptions inherent in the valuations reflect a consideration of other marketplace participants and include the amount and timing of future cash flows (including expected growth rates and profitability), the underlying product or technology life cycles, the economic barriers to entry and the discount rate applied to the cash flows. Unanticipated market or macroeconomic events and circumstances may occur that could affect the accuracy or validity of the estimates and assumptions.

Determining the useful life of an intangible asset also requires judgment. With the exception of certain trade names, the majority of our acquired intangible assets (e.g., certain trademarks or brands, customer and distributor relationships, patents and technologies) are expected to have determinable useful lives. Our assessment as to the useful lives of these intangible assets is based on a number of factors including competitive environment, market share, trademark, brand history, underlying product life cycles, operating plans and the macroeconomic environment of the countries in which the trademarked or branded products are sold. Our estimates of the useful lives of determinable-lived intangibles are primarily based on these same factors. Determinable-lived intangible assets are amortized to expense over their estimated useful life.

In some of our acquisitions, we acquire in-process research and development (IPRD) intangible assets. For acquisitions accounted for as business combinations, IPRD is considered to be an indefinite-lived intangible asset until the research is completed (then it becomes a determinable-lived intangible asset) or determined to have no future use (then it is impaired). For asset acquisitions, IPRD is expensed immediately unless there is an alternative future use.

Indefinite-lived intangible assets and goodwill are not amortized but are tested annually for impairment or whenever events or circumstances indicate such assets may be impaired. Our annual impairment testing date is October 31. When it is unlikely that an indefinite-lived intangible asset or goodwill of a reporting unit is impaired, we perform a qualitative assessment. For goodwill, that qualitative assessment may be periodically supplemented with a corroborative quantitative analysis.

When necessary, we perform a quantitative impairment test and determine the fair value of the indefinite-lived intangible asset or reporting unit using an income approach. For the quantitative impairment test of goodwill, when appropriate, we corroborate our concluded value under the income approach using a market approach that utilizes trading multiples derived from a peer set of similar companies. The income approach calculates the present value of estimated future cash flows and requires certain assumptions and estimates be made regarding market conditions and our future profitability. Considerable management judgment is necessary to evaluate the impact of operating and macroeconomic changes and to estimate future cash flows used to measure fair value. Assumptions used in our impairment evaluations, such as forecasted growth rates and cost of capital, are consistent with internal business plans. We believe such assumptions and estimates are also comparable to those that would be used by other marketplace participants.

We review our other long-lived assets for indicators of impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The evaluation is performed at the lowest level of identifiable cash flows, which is at the individual asset level or the asset group level. The undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by the related assets are estimated over their useful life based on updated projections. If the evaluation indicates that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable, any potential impairment is measured based upon the fair value of the related assets or asset group as determined by an appropriate market appraisal or other valuation technique. Assets classified as held for sale, if any, are recorded at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell.

In our annual impairment test of goodwill as of October 31, 2024 we performed a quantitative assessment of the Spine reporting unit using a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate the fair value. The carrying value of the Spine reporting unit exceeded its fair value and a charge of $273 was recognized in goodwill and other impairments in our Consolidated Statements of Earnings. The impairment charge for the Spine reporting unit was driven by a decrease in future product demand due to the competitive environment and an increase in the Spine reporting unit's weighted average cost of capital.

During the fourth quarter 2024 management committed to a plan to sell certain assets associated with the Spinal Implants business (disposal group) and such assets were classified as held for sale beginning November 2024. We tested the net carrying amounts of other assets, such as working capital accounts, and determined that there was no impairment as the fair values of these assets approximated their carrying values.

Goodwill was allocated to the disposal group and the retained portion of the Spine reporting unit based on the relative fair values. Goodwill allocated to the disposal group was tested for impairment which resulted in an impairment charge of $183. As of December 31, 2024, there was no goodwill remaining attributable to the Spinal Implants disposal group.

Finally we compared the carrying amount of the disposal group to the fair value less cost to sell. As a result, we recognized an estimated loss of $362 to record the disposal group at its fair value less cost to sell in goodwill and other impairments in our Consolidated Statements of Earnings.

In April 2025 we completed the sale of the disposal group to the Viscogliosi Brothers, LLC as further discussed in Note 16. In the first half of 2025 we recognized immaterial impairment charges to record the disposal group at its fair value less cost to sell within goodwill and other impairments in our Consolidated Statements of Earnings. The fair value of the disposal group and consideration received was measured using a discounted cash flow analysis based upon the selling price and unobservable inputs, such as market conditions and the rate used to discount the estimated future cash flows to their present value based on factors including the disposal group's cost of equity and market yield rates, which are Level 3 inputs. Consideration could increase by up to $57 or decrease by up to $245 based on the amount received.

With the acquisition of Inari in February 2025 discussed in Note 6 to our Consolidated Financial Statements, we established a new Peripheral Vascular reporting unit consisting of the acquired Inari business. Given the proximity of the impairment testing date to the date of acquisition, the fair value of this new reporting unit was not expected to exceed its carrying value by a significant amount. We performed a quantitative impairment test for our Peripheral Vascular reporting unit at October 31, 2025 and determined that its fair value exceeded its carrying amount by 12%. At October 31, 2025, goodwill attributable to this reporting unit was $3,203. The fair value of this reporting unit was determined using a discounted cash flow analysis, which is a form of the income approach. Significant inputs to the analysis included assumptions for future revenue growth, operating margin and the rate used to discount the estimated future cash flows to their present value, based on the reporting unit's estimated weighted average cost of capital. We believe our estimates are appropriate based upon current and future market conditions and the best information available at the impairment assessment date; however, future impairment charges could be required if we do not achieve our cash flow, revenue and profitability projections or if there is an increase in the weighted average cost of capital.

The assumptions used in the discounted cash flow analysis are subject to inherent uncertainties and subjectivity. The use of different assumptions, estimates or judgments with respect to the estimation of future cash flows and the determination of the discount rate used to reduce such estimated future cash flows to their net present value could materially affect the determination of any impairment charges. Hypothetical changes in our estimates of the discount rate, long-term revenue growth and long-term operating margin would result in impairment charges as follows:

| Change in selected assumption | Percentage decline in fair value | Impairment charge |
|---|---|---|
| 100 bps increase in discount rate | 14 % | $ 198 |
| 100 bps decrease in long-term revenue growth | 8 | — |
| 100 bps decrease in long-term operating margin | 2 | — |

We did not identify any factors in 2025 or 2024 that would lead us to believe that our other reporting units were at risk of a goodwill impairment. Accordingly, we performed qualitative assessments and concluded it was more likely than not that the fair values of those reporting units exceeded their respective carrying amounts.

In 2025 our qualitative assessment was supplemented with a corroborative quantitative analysis which indicated that the implied fair values of our other reporting units exceed their respective carrying amounts by at least 100%. Future changes in the judgments, assumptions and estimates that are used in our impairment testing for goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets, including discount rates and cash flow projections, could result in different estimates of fair value. A significant reduction in estimated fair values could result in impairment charges that could materially affect our results of operations.

Legal and Other Contingencies

We are involved in various ongoing proceedings, legal actions and claims arising in the normal course of business, including proceedings related to product, labor, tax, intellectual property and other matters that are more fully described in Notes 7 and 11 to our Consolidated Financial Statements. The outcomes of these matters will generally not be known for prolonged periods of time. In certain of the legal proceedings, the claimants seek damages, as well as other compensatory and equitable relief, that could result in the payment of significant claims and settlements and/or the imposition of injunctions or other equitable relief. For legal matters for which management had sufficient information to reasonably estimate our future obligations, a liability representing management's best estimate of the probable loss, or the minimum of the range of probable losses when a best estimate within the range is not known, for the resolution of these legal matters is recorded. The estimates are based on consultation with legal counsel, previous settlement experience and settlement strategies. If actual outcomes are less favorable than those projected by management, additional expense may be incurred, which could unfavorably affect future operating results. We are currently self-insured for certain claims and expenses. The ultimate cost to us with respect to product liability claims could be materially different than the amount of the current estimates and accruals and could have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Refer to Note 1 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK.

We sell our products globally and, as a result, our operations and financial results could be significantly affected by market risk exposure from exchange rate risk. Our operating results are primarily exposed to changes in exchange rates among the United States Dollar, Australian Dollar, British Pound, Canadian Dollar, Euro and Japanese Yen. We develop and manufacture products in the United States, Canada, China, Costa Rica, France, Germany, India, Ireland, Israel, Mexico, Poland, Switzerland, Turkey and the United Kingdom and incur costs in the applicable local currencies. This global deployment of facilities serves to partially mitigate the impact of currency exchange rate changes on our cost of sales. Refer to Notes 1, 4 and 5 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for information regarding our use of derivative instruments to mitigate these risks. A hypothetical 10% change in foreign currencies relative to the United States Dollar would change the December 31, 2025 fair value of these instruments by approximately $449.

ITEM 8. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTARY DATA.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholders and the Board of Directors of Stryker Corporation

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Stryker Corporation and subsidiaries (the Company) as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the related consolidated statements of earnings, comprehensive income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes and financial statement schedule listed in the Index at Item 15(a) (collectively referred to as the "consolidated financial statements"). In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB), the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (2013 framework), and our report dated February 11, 2026 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matters

The critical audit matters communicated below are matters arising from the current period audit of the financial statements that were communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that: (1) relate to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of critical audit matters does not alter in any way our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matters below, providing separate opinions on the critical audit matters or on the accounts or disclosures to which they relate.

Uncertain Tax Positions

Description of the Matter

As described in Note 11 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company is involved in various income tax matters for which the ultimate outcomes are uncertain. As of December 31, 2025, the Company had unrecognized tax benefits of $403. The Company received a final audit report and assessments from the German Federal Central Tax Office (FCTO) related to the years 2010 through 2017 of $754 and expect to receive additional assessments of $11 based on the final audit report.

Auditing management's evaluation of the uncertain tax positions associated with the FCTO tax assessments was especially challenging due to the level of subjectivity and significant judgment associated with the recognition and measurement of the tax positions.

How We Addressed the Matter in Our Audit

We obtained an understanding, evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of controls over the Company's accounting process for uncertain tax positions. For example, we tested controls over management's identification of uncertain tax positions and its application of the recognition and measurement principles, including management's review of developments related to existing uncertain tax positions.

Our audit procedures included, among others, evaluating the assumptions the Company used to assess its uncertain tax positions and related unrecognized tax benefits. We evaluated evidence of management's assessment of the uncertain tax positions related to certain German tax matters. Including inspection of technical memos, inspection of the FCTO tax assessments, and written representations of management. We involved professionals with specialized skill and knowledge to assist in our evaluation of the tax technical merits of the Company's assessments, the amount of the potential benefits to be realized, and the application of relevant tax law. We also assessed the Company's disclosures of uncertain tax positions included in Note 11 related to this tax matter.

Acquisitions

Description of the Matter

As described in Note 6 to the consolidated financial statements, in 2025 the Company completed the acquisition of Inari Medical, Inc. (Inari) for total consideration of $4,810, net of cash acquired. The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination. Auditing the Company's fair value measurement of certain acquired developed technologies was complex and required significant auditor judgment due to the significant estimation uncertainty in determining the fair value of these intangible assets. The Company used an income approach to measure the developed technology intangible assets acquired. The significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of the intangible assets included discount rates and certain assumptions that form the basis of the forecasted results, including revenue growth rates and profit margins.

How We Addressed the Matter in Our Audit

We obtained an understanding, evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of the controls over the identification and measurement of developed technologies. For example, we tested controls over the valuation of intangibles, including the valuation models and underlying assumptions used to develop such estimates.

To test the fair value measurement of developed technologies, we performed audit procedures that included, among others, evaluating the Company's use of the income approach and testing the significant assumptions used in the model, as described above. We involved our valuation specialists in assisting with the evaluation of methodologies used by the Company and significant assumptions included in the fair value measurements. For example, to evaluate the revenue growth rates and projected profit margins, we compared the amounts to historical results of the Company's business, as well as the acquired business' historical results, and current industry and market trends for those in which the Company operates and performed sensitivity analyses on key assumptions. We also evaluated the adequacy of the Company's disclosures included in Note 6 related to these acquisitions.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations: Stryker (the "Company," "we," "us," or "our") is a global leader in medical technologies and, together with our customers, we are driven to make healthcare better. We offer innovative products and services in MedSurg, Neurotechnology and Orthopaedics that help improve patient and healthcare outcomes. Our products include surgical equipment and surgical navigation systems; endoscopic and communications systems; patient handling, emergency medical equipment and intensive care disposable products; clinical communication and artificial intelligence-assisted virtual care platform technology; products for traditional brain and open skull-based surgical procedures; minimally invasive products for the treatment of acute ischemic and hemorrhagic stroke and venous thromboembolism; implants used in joint replacement and trauma surgeries; Mako robotic-arm assisted technology; as well as other products used in a variety of medical specialties.

Basis of Presentation and Consolidation: The Consolidated Financial Statements include the Company and its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation. We have no material interests in variable interest entities. Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with current year presentation in our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of net sales and expenses in the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition: Sales are recognized as the performance obligations to deliver products or services (including services under extended warranty service contracts) are satisfied and are recorded based on the amount of consideration we expect to receive in exchange for satisfying the performance obligations. Our sales are recognized primarily when we transfer control to the customer, which can be on the date of shipment, the date of receipt by the customer or, for most Orthopaedics products, when we have received a purchase order and appropriate notification the product has been used or implanted. Products and services are primarily transferred to customers at a point in time, with some transfers of services taking place over time.

Sales represent the amount of consideration we expect to receive from customers in exchange for transferring products and services. Net sales exclude sales, value added and other taxes we collect from customers. Other costs to obtain and fulfill contracts are generally expensed as incurred due to the short-term nature of most of our sales. We extend terms of payment to our customers based on commercially reasonable terms for the markets of our customers, while also considering their credit quality.

A provision for estimated sales returns, discounts and rebates is recognized as a reduction of sales in the same period that the sales are recognized. Our estimate of the provision for sales returns has been established based on contract terms with our customers and historical business practices and current trends. Shipping and handling costs charged to customers are included in net sales.

Cost of Sales: Cost of sales include direct materials and supplies consumed in the manufacture of product, as well as manufacturing labor, depreciation expense and direct overhead expense necessary to acquire and convert the purchased materials and supplies into finished product. Cost of sales also includes the cost to distribute products to customers, inbound freight costs, warehousing costs and other shipping and handling activity.

Research, Development and Engineering Expenses: Research, development and engineering costs are charged to expense as incurred and include research, development and engineering activities relating to the development of new products, improvement of existing products, technical support of products and compliance with governmental regulations for the protection of customers and patients. Costs primarily include salaries, wages, consulting and depreciation and maintenance of research facilities and equipment.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses: Costs include selling expenses, marketing expenses, administrative and other indirect overhead costs, amortization of loaner instrumentation, depreciation and amortization expense of non-manufacturing assets and other miscellaneous operating items.

Currency Translation: Financial statements of subsidiaries outside the United States generally are measured using the local currency as the functional currency. Adjustments to translate those statements into United States Dollars are recorded in other comprehensive income (OCI). Transactional exchange gains and losses are included in other income.

Cash Equivalents: Highly liquid investments with remaining stated maturities of three months or less when purchased or other money market instruments that are redeemable upon demand are considered cash equivalents and recorded at cost.

Short-term Investments: Short-term investments that have a maturity greater than three months and less than a year from the date of purchase primarily include time deposits, certificates of deposit, commercial paper, bonds and notes, substantially all of which are denominated in United States Dollars and are stated at cost plus accrued interest, which approximates fair value. We expect to hold all of our short-term investments to maturity.

Marketable Securities: Marketable securities include marketable debt securities and mutual funds. Mutual funds are acquired to offset changes in certain liabilities related to deferred compensation arrangements and are expected to be used to settle these liabilities. Mutual funds are recognized in other noncurrent assets. Pursuant to our investment policy, all individual marketable security investments must have a minimum credit quality of single A (Standard & Poor's and Fitch) and A2 (Moody's Corporation) at the time of acquisition, while the overall portfolio of marketable securities must maintain a minimum average credit quality of double A (Standard & Poor's and Fitch) or Aa (Moody's Corporation). In the event of a rating downgrade below the minimum credit quality subsequent to purchase, the marketable security investment is evaluated to determine the appropriate action to take to minimize the overall risk to our marketable security investment portfolio. Our marketable securities are classified as available-for-sale and trading securities. Investments in trading securities represent participant-directed investments of deferred employee compensation.

Accounts Receivable: Accounts receivable include trade and other miscellaneous receivables. An allowance is maintained for doubtful accounts for estimated losses in the collection of accounts receivable. Estimates are made regarding the ability of customers to make required payments based on historical credit experience, current market conditions and expected credit losses. Accounts receivable are written off when all reasonable collection efforts are exhausted.

Inventories: Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value, with cost generally determined using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) cost method. For excess and obsolete inventory resulting from the potential inability to sell specific products at prices in excess of current carrying costs, reserves are maintained to reduce current carrying cost to net realizable value.

Financial Instruments: Our financial instruments include cash, cash equivalents, marketable securities, accounts receivable, other investments, accounts payable, debt and foreign currency exchange contracts. The carrying value of our financial instruments, with the exception of our senior unsecured notes, approximates fair value on December 31, 2025 and 2024. Refer to Notes 3 and 10 for further details.

All marketable securities are recognized at fair value. Adjustments to the fair value of marketable securities that are classified as available-for-sale are recognized as increases or decreases, net of income taxes, within accumulated other comprehensive income (AOCI) in shareholders' equity and adjustments to the fair value of marketable securities that are classified as trading are recognized in earnings. The amortized cost of marketable debt securities is adjusted for amortization of premiums and discounts to maturity computed under the effective interest method. Such amortization, interest and realized gains and losses are included in other income. The cost of securities sold is determined by the specific identification method.

We review declines in the fair value of our investments classified as available-for-sale to determine whether the decline in fair value is a result of credit loss or other factors. Impairments of available-for-sale marketable debt securities related to credit loss are included in earnings and impairments related to other factors are recognized within AOCI.

Derivatives: All derivatives are recognized at fair value and reported on a gross basis. We enter into forward currency exchange contracts to mitigate the impact of currency fluctuations on transactions denominated in nonfunctional currencies, thereby limiting our risk that would otherwise result from changes in exchange rates. The periods of the forward currency exchange contracts correspond to the periods of the exposed transactions, with realized gains and losses included in the measurement and recording of transactions denominated in the nonfunctional currencies. All forward currency exchange contracts are recorded at their fair value each period.

Forward currency exchange contracts designated as cash flow hedges are designed to hedge the variability of cash flows associated with forecasted transactions denominated in a foreign currency that will take place in the future. These nonfunctional currency exposures principally relate to forecasted intercompany sales and purchases of manufactured products and generally have maturities up to eighteen months. Changes in value of derivatives designated as cash flow hedges are recorded in AOCI in shareholders' equity until earnings are affected by the variability of the underlying cash flows. At that time, the applicable amount of gain or loss from the derivative instrument that is deferred in shareholders' equity is reclassified into earnings and is included in cost of goods sold. Cash flows associated with these hedges are included in cash provided by operating activities in the same category as the cash flows from the items being hedged.

Forward currency exchange contracts are used to offset our exposure to the change in value of specific foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities, primarily intercompany payables and receivables. These derivatives are not designated as hedges and, therefore, changes in the value of these forward contracts are recognized in earnings, thereby offsetting the current earnings effect of the related changes in value of foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities. The estimated fair value of our forward currency exchange contracts represents the measurement of the contracts at month-end spot rates as adjusted by current forward points.

From time to time, we designate derivative and non-derivative financial instruments as net investment hedges of our investments in certain international subsidiaries. For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as a net investment hedge, the effective portion of the derivative's gain or loss is recognized in OCI and reported as a component of AOCI. We have elected to use the spot method to assess effectiveness for our derivatives designated as net investment hedges. Accordingly, the change in fair value attributable to changes in the spot rate is recorded in AOCI. We exclude the spot-forward difference from the assessment of hedge effectiveness and amortize this amount separately on a straight-line basis over the term of the forward contracts. This amortization is recognized in other income.

From time to time, we designate forward starting interest rate derivative instruments as cash flow hedges to manage the exposure to interest rate volatility with regard to future issuance and refinancing of debt. Changes in value of derivatives designated as cash flow hedges are recorded in AOCI until earnings are affected by the variability of the underlying cash flows. At that time, the applicable amount of gain or loss from the derivative instrument that is deferred in shareholders' equity is reclassified into earnings and is included in interest expense.

Interest rate derivative instruments designated as fair value hedges have been used in the past to manage the exposure to interest rate movements and to reduce borrowing costs by converting fixed-rate debt into floating-rate debt. Under these agreements, we agree to exchange, at specified intervals, the difference between fixed and floating interest amounts calculated by reference to an agreed-upon notional principal amount.

Property, Plant and Equipment: Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is generally computed by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of three to 30 years for buildings and improvements and three to 15 years for machinery and equipment.

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets: Goodwill represents the excess of purchase price over fair value of tangible net assets of acquired businesses at the acquisition date, after amounts allocated to other identifiable intangible assets. Factors that contribute to the recognition of goodwill include synergies that are specific to our business and not available to other market participants and are expected to increase net sales and profits; acquisition of a talented workforce; cost savings opportunities; the strategic benefit of expanding our presence in core and adjacent markets; and diversifying our product portfolio.

The fair values of other identifiable intangible assets acquired in a business combination are primarily determined using the income approach. Other intangible assets include, but are not limited to, developed technologies, customer and distributor relationships (which reflect expected continued customer or distributor patronage) and trademarks and patents. Intangible assets with determinable useful lives are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of four to 40 years. Certain acquired trade names are considered to have indefinite lives and are not amortized, but are assessed annually for potential impairment as described below.

In some of our acquisitions, we acquire in-process research and development (IPRD) intangible assets. For acquisitions accounted for as business combinations IPRD is considered to be an indefinite-lived intangible asset until the research is completed (then it becomes a determinable-lived intangible asset) or determined to have no future use (then it is impaired). For asset acquisitions IPRD is expensed immediately unless there is an alternative future use.

Goodwill, Intangibles and Long-Lived Asset Impairment Tests: We perform our annual impairment test for goodwill as of October 31 each year. We consider qualitative indicators of the fair value of a reporting unit when it is unlikely that a reporting unit has impaired goodwill and periodically corroborate that assessment with quantitative information. In certain circumstances, we may also utilize a discounted cash flow analysis that requires certain assumptions and estimates be made regarding market conditions and our future profitability. Indefinite-lived intangible assets are also tested at least annually for impairment by comparing the individual carrying values to the fair value.

We review long-lived assets for indicators of impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The evaluation is performed at the lowest level of identifiable cash flows. Undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by the related assets are estimated over the asset's useful life based on updated projections. If the evaluation indicates that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable, any potential impairment is measured based upon the fair value of the related asset or asset group as determined by an appropriate market appraisal or other valuation technique.

Assets and Liabilities Held for Sale: We classify assets and liabilities or disposal groups to be sold as held for sale in the period in which all of the following criteria are met: management, having the authority to approve the action, commits to a plan to sell the disposal group; the disposal group is available for immediate sale in its present condition subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sales of such disposal groups; an active program to locate a buyer and other actions required to complete the plan to sell the disposal group have been initiated; the sale of the disposal group is probable, and transfer of the disposal group is expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year, except if events or circumstances beyond our control extend the period of time required to sell the disposal group beyond one year; the disposal group is being actively marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value; and actions required to complete the plan indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made or that the plan will be withdrawn.

We initially measure a disposal group that is classified as held for sale at the lower of its carrying value or fair value less any costs to sell. Any loss resulting from this measurement is recognized in the period in which the held for sale criteria are met. Conversely, gains are not recognized on the sale of a disposal group until the sale is completed. We assess the fair value of a disposal group, less any costs to sell, each reporting period it remains classified as held for sale and report any subsequent changes as an adjustment to the carrying value of the disposal group, as long as the new carrying value does not exceed the carrying value of the disposal group at the time it was initially classified as held for sale.

Upon determining that a disposal group meets the criteria to be classified as held for sale, we cease depreciation and amortization of the assets and disclose the major classes of assets and liabilities of the disposal group in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements. Refer to Note 16 for further information.

Share-Based Compensation: Share-based compensation is in the form of stock options, restricted stock units (RSUs) and performance stock units (PSUs). Stock options are granted under long-term incentive plans to certain key employees and non-employee directors at an exercise price not less than the fair market value of the underlying common stock, which is the quoted closing price of our common stock on the day prior to the date of grant. The options are granted for periods of up to 10 years and become exercisable in varying installments.

We grant RSUs to key employees and non-employee directors and PSUs to certain key employees under our long-term incentive plans. The fair value of RSUs is determined based on the number of shares granted and the quoted closing price of our common stock on the date of grant, adjusted for the fact that RSUs do not include anticipated dividends. RSUs generally vest in one-third increments over a three-year period and are settled in stock. PSUs are earned over a three-year performance cycle and vest in March of the year following the end of that performance cycle. The number of PSUs that will ultimately be earned is based on our performance relative to pre-established goals in that three-year performance cycle. The fair value of PSUs is determined based on the quoted closing price of our common stock on the day of grant.

Compensation expense is recognized in the Consolidated Statements of Earnings based on the estimated fair value of the awards on the grant date. Compensation expense recognized reflects an estimate of the number of awards expected to vest after taking into consideration an estimate of award forfeitures based on actual experience and is recognized on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period, which is generally the period required to obtain full vesting. Management expectations related to the achievement of performance goals associated with PSU grants is assessed regularly and that assessment is used to determine whether PSU grants are expected to vest. If performance-based milestones related to PSU grants are not met or not expected to be met, any compensation expense recognized associated with such grants will be reversed.

Income Taxes: Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted income tax rates in effect for the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred income tax benefits generally represent the change in net deferred income tax assets and liabilities in the year. Other amounts result from adjustments related to acquisitions and foreign currency as appropriate.

We operate in multiple income tax jurisdictions both within the United States and internationally. Accordingly, management must determine the appropriate allocation of income to each of these jurisdictions based on current interpretations of complex income tax regulations. Income tax authorities in these jurisdictions regularly perform audits of our income tax filings. Income tax audits associated with the allocation of this income and other complex issues, including inventory transfer pricing and cost sharing, product royalty and foreign branch arrangements, may require an extended period of time to resolve and may result in significant income tax adjustments if changes to the income allocation are required between jurisdictions with different income tax rates.

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the Act) was enacted in 2017 in the United States. The Act also subjects a United States shareholder to tax on Global Intangible Low-Taxed Income (GILTI) earned by certain foreign subsidiaries. We have elected to account for GILTI tax in the year the tax is incurred.

New Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In December 2025 the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued ASU 2025-10 (Topic 832): Accounting for Government Grants Received by Business Entities. This update establishes guidance on the recognition, measurement and presentation of government grants received by business entities including grants related to the purchase, construction or acquisition of an asset and grants related to income. The update is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2028 including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted. We do not expect this ASU to have a significant impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

In September 2025 the FASB issued ASU 2025-07 (Topics 815 and 606): Derivatives and Hedging: Derivatives Scope Refinements and Revenue from Contracts with Customers: Scope Clarification for Share-Based Noncash Consideration from a Customer in a Revenue Contract. This update expands the scope exception in Topic 815 to certain nonexchange-traded contracts for which settlement is based on operations or activities specific to one of the parties to the contract. The update is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2026 including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted. We are evaluating if the ASU will have an impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

In September 2025 the FASB issued ASU 2025-06 (Subtopic 350-40): Intangibles - Goodwill and Other - Internal-Use Software: Targeted Improvements to the Accounting for Internal-Use Software. This update clarifies and modernizes the accounting for costs related to internal-use software by removing all references to project stages and clarifying that the probable-to-complete threshold is not met if significant development uncertainty exists. The update is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027 including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted. We do not expect this ASU to have a significant impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

In July 2025 the FASB issued ASU 2025-05 (Topic 326): Financial Instruments - Credit Losses: Measurement of Credit Losses for Accounts Receivable and Contract Assets. This update provides a practical expedient allowing entities to assume that current conditions as of the balance sheet date will remain unchanged for the remaining life of the asset when estimating expected credit losses for current accounts receivable and current contract assets arising from transactions accounting for under Accounting Standards Codification 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The update is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2025 including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted. We are evaluating if the ASU will have an impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

In November 2024 the FASB issued ASU 2024-03 (Subtopic 220-40): Income Statement: Reporting Comprehensive Income - Expense Disaggregation Disclosures which requires disaggregation of certain expense captions into specified categories in disclosures within the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements. The new disclosure requirements are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2026 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027. Early adoption is permitted. We are evaluating these new expanded disclosure requirements.

We evaluate all ASUs issued by the FASB for consideration of their applicability. ASUs not included in our disclosures were assessed and determined to be either not applicable or are not expected to have a material impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Accounting Pronouncements Recently Adopted

We adopted ASU 2023-09 (Topic 740): Income Taxes: Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures for the annual period beginning on January 1, 2025. Refer to Note 11 for further information.

NOTE 2 - REVENUE RECOGNITION

We disaggregate our net sales by business and geographic location for each of our segments as we believe it best depicts how the nature, amount, timing and certainty of our net sales and cash flows are affected by economic factors.

Products and services are primarily transferred to customers at a point in time, with some transfers of services taking place over time. In 2025 less than 10% of our sales were recognized as services transferred over time. Refer to Note 1 for further discussion on our revenue recognition policies.

MedSurg and Neurotechnology

MedSurg and Neurotechnology products include surgical equipment, patient and caregiver safety technologies, and navigation systems (Instruments), endoscopic and communications systems (Endoscopy), patient handling, emergency medical equipment, intensive care disposable products, clinical communication and artificial intelligence-assisted virtual care platform technology (Medical), minimally invasive products for the treatment of acute ischemic and hemorrhagic stroke and venous thromboembolism (Vascular) and a comprehensive line of products for traditional brain and open skull-based surgical procedures, orthobiologic and biosurgery products, including synthetic bone grafts and vertebral augmentation products (Neuro Cranial). Substantially all MedSurg and Neurotechnology sales are recognized when a purchase order has been received and control has transferred. For certain Endoscopy, Instruments and Medical services, we may recognize sales over time as we satisfy performance obligations that may include an obligation to complete installation, provide training and perform ongoing services, generally performed within one year.

Orthopaedics

Orthopaedics products primarily include implants used in total joint replacements, such as hip, knee and shoulder, ankle and trauma and extremities surgeries. Substantially all Orthopaedics sales are recognized when we have received a purchase order and appropriate notification the product has been used or implanted. For certain Orthopaedic products in the "other" category, we recognize sales at a point in time, as well as over time for performance obligations that may include an obligation to complete installation and provide training and ongoing services. Performance obligations are generally satisfied within one year.

Costs to Obtain or Fulfill a Contract

We typically do not incur costs to fulfill a contract before a product or service is provided to a customer due to the nature of our products and services. Our costs to obtain contracts are typically in the form of sales commissions paid to employees or third-party agents. Certain sales commissions paid to employees prior to recognition of sales are recorded as deferred contract costs. We expense sales commissions associated with obtaining a contract at the time of the sale or as incurred as the amortization period is generally less than one year. These costs have been presented within selling, general and administrative expenses. On December 31, 2025 and 2024 deferred contract costs recorded in our Consolidated Balance Sheets were not significant.

Contract Assets and Liabilities

Our contract assets primarily relate to conditional rights to consideration for work completed but not billed at the reporting date. On December 31, 2025 and 2024 contract assets recorded in our Consolidated Balance Sheets were not significant.

Our contract liabilities arise as a result of consideration received from customers at inception of contracts for certain businesses or where the timing of billing for services precedes satisfaction of our performance obligations. This occurs primarily when payment is received upfront for certain multi-period extended warranty service contracts. Our contract liabilities of $1,024 and $978 on December 31, 2025 and 2024 are classified within accrued expenses and other liabilities and other noncurrent liabilities in our Consolidated Balance Sheets based on the timing of when we expect to complete our performance obligations. Changes in contract liabilities during the year were as follows:

|---|---|---|
| Beginning contract liabilities | $ 978 | $ 860 |
| Revenue recognized from beginning of year contract liabilities | (546) | (553) |
| Net advance consideration received during the period | 592 | 671 |
| Ending contract liabilities | $ 1,024 | $ 978 |

Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets

We sell certain customer lease agreements and the related leased assets to third-party financial institutions to accelerate our cash collection cycle. The lease receivables are sold without recourse and are derecognized from our Consolidated Balance Sheets at the time of sale. Under the terms of our arrangements, we collect lease payments on behalf of the financial institutions but maintain no other form of continuing involvement. Sales of these lease agreements are classified as operating activities in our Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. Fees earned for our servicing activities are immaterial. Revenue related to customer lease agreements sold under these arrangements represented less than 4% of our total revenue for 2025, 2024 and 2023.

NOTE 3 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

| Level 1 | Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. |
| Level 2 | Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data. |
| Level 3 | Unobservable inputs reflecting our assumptions or external inputs from active markets. |

Use of observable market data, when available, is required in making fair value measurements. When inputs used fall within different levels of the hierarchy, the level within which the fair value measurement is categorized is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement. We determine fair value for Level 1 instruments using exchange-traded prices for identical instruments. We determine fair value of Level 2 instruments using exchange-traded prices of similar instruments, where available, or utilizing other observable inputs that take into account our credit risk and that of our counterparties. Foreign currency exchange contracts and interest rate hedges, when outstanding, are included in Level 2 and are primarily valued using standard calculations and models that use readily observable market data as their basis. Our Level 3 liabilities comprise contingent consideration arising from recently completed acquisitions. We determine fair value of these Level 3 liabilities using a discounted cash flow technique. Significant unobservable inputs were used in our assessment of fair value, including assumptions regarding future business results, discount rates, discount periods and probability assessments based on the likelihood of reaching various targets. We remeasure the fair value of our assets and liabilities each reporting period. We record the changes in fair value within selling, general and administrative expense.

In 2025 we assumed contingent consideration liabilities with a fair value of $90 related to previous acquisitions made by Inari Medical Inc. (Inari). Refer to Note 6 for further information on the acquisition of Inari.

In 2024 we recorded $208 of contingent consideration related to various acquisitions described in Note 6.

There were no significant transfers into or out of any level of the fair value hierarchy in 2025.

On December 31, 2025 the aggregate difference between the cost and fair value of available-for-sale marketable securities was nominal. Interest income on cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and marketable securities income was $121, $139 and $75 in 2025, 2024 and 2023, which was recorded in other income.

Our investments in available-for-sale marketable securities had a minimum credit quality rating of A2 (Moody's), A (Standard & Poor's) and A (Fitch). We do not plan to sell the investments, and it is not more likely than not that we will be required to sell the investments before recovery of their amortized cost basis, which may be maturity.

NOTE 4 - DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

We use operational and economic hedges, foreign currency exchange forward contracts, net investment hedges (both derivative and non-derivative financial instruments) and interest rate derivative instruments to manage the impact of currency exchange and interest rate fluctuations on earnings, cash flow and equity. We do not enter into derivative instruments for speculative purposes. We are exposed to potential credit loss in the event of nonperformance by counterparties on our outstanding derivative instruments but do not anticipate nonperformance by any of our counterparties. Should a counterparty default, our maximum loss exposure is the asset balance of the instrument.

We had €2.3 billion at December 31, 2025 and 2024 in certain forward currency contracts designated as net investment hedges, for which the maximum term is 8.7 years, to hedge a portion of our investments in certain of our entities with functional currencies denominated in Euros. In addition to these derivative financial instruments designated as net investment hedges, we had €5.0 billion at December 31, 2025 and 2024 of senior unsecured notes designated as net investment hedges to selectively hedge portions of our investment in certain international subsidiaries. The currency effects of our Euro-denominated senior unsecured notes are reflected in AOCI within shareholders' equity where they offset gains and losses recorded on our net investment in international subsidiaries.

The total after-tax gain (loss) recognized in OCI related to designated net investment hedges was ($715) in 2025.

Pretax gains (losses) on derivatives designated as cash flow hedges of $39 and net investment hedges of $38 recorded in AOCI are expected to be reclassified to cost of sales and other income in earnings within 12 months of December 31, 2025. This cash flow hedge reclassification is primarily due to the sale of inventory that includes previously hedged purchases. A component of the AOCI amounts related to net investment hedges is reclassified over the life of the hedge instruments as we elected to exclude the initial value of the component related to the spot-forward difference from the effectiveness assessment.

Interest Rate Hedges

Pretax gains of $5 recorded in AOCI related to interest rate hedges closed in conjunction with debt issuances are expected to be reclassified to interest expense in earnings within 12 months of December 31, 2025. The cash flow effect of interest rate hedges is recorded in cash flow from operations.

NOTE 6 - ACQUISITIONS

We acquire stock in companies and various assets that continue to support our capital deployment and product development strategies. Cash paid for acquisitions, net of cash acquired was $4,960 and $1,628 in 2025 and 2024.

In February 2025 we completed the acquisition of Inari for $80 per share, or an aggregate purchase price of $4,810, net of cash acquired. Inari's product portfolio includes minimally invasive products for the treatment of venous thromboembolism. Inari is part of our Peripheral Vascular business within MedSurg and Neurotechnology. The purchase price allocation for Inari is based on preliminary valuations, primarily related to developed technologies and customer relationships. Goodwill attributable to the acquisition reflects the strategic benefits of expanding our market presence, diversifying our product portfolio and advancing innovations. This goodwill is not deductible for tax purposes. Share-based awards for Inari employees vested upon our acquisition and a charge of $139 was recorded in selling, general and administrative expenses in 2025.

In 2024 we completed various acquisitions for total consideration that includes $1,628 in upfront payments, net of cash acquired, and $400 contingent upon the achievement of certain commercial or clinical milestones. The combined acquisition-date fair values of the contingent milestone payments totaled $208. The acquired companies expand the product portfolios of our Instruments, Endoscopy, Medical and Neuro Cranial businesses within MedSurg and Neurotechnology and our Trauma and Extremities and Joint Replacement businesses within Orthopaedics. Goodwill attributable to the acquisitions reflects the strategic benefits of expanding our market presence, diversifying our product portfolio and advancing innovations. This goodwill is not deductible for tax purposes.

The purchase price allocations for Inari and the acquisitions completed in the full year 2024 are:

NOTE 7 - CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

We are involved in various ongoing proceedings, legal actions and claims arising in the normal course of business, including proceedings related to product, labor, tax, intellectual property and other matters, the most significant of which are more fully described below. The outcomes of these matters will generally not be known for prolonged periods of time. In certain of the legal proceedings the claimants seek damages as well as other compensatory and equitable relief that could result in the payment of significant claims and settlements and/or the imposition of injunctions or other equitable relief. For legal matters for which management had sufficient information to reasonably estimate our future obligations, a liability representing management's best estimate of the probable loss, or the minimum of the range of probable losses when a best estimate within the range is not known, is recorded. The estimates are based on consultation with legal counsel, previous settlement experience and settlement strategies. If actual outcomes are less favorable than those estimated by management, additional expense may be incurred, which could unfavorably affect future operating results. We are self-insured for certain claims and expenses. The ultimate cost to us with respect to product liability claims could be materially different than the amount of the current estimates and accruals and could have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

Previously we were contacted by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), United States Department of Justice (DOJ) and certain other regulatory authorities regarding whether certain business activities in certain foreign countries violated provisions of the FCPA and analogous local laws. We have completed our investigation into these matters. During 2025 we were informed by the SEC and DOJ that each agency had closed its inquiry. We are currently responding to inquiries by certain foreign authorities arising in the normal course of business. We do not expect these matters to have a material effect, if any, on our financial statements.

We have conducted voluntary recalls of certain products, including our Rejuvenate and ABG II Modular-Neck hip stems and certain lot-specific sizes and offsets of LFIT Anatomic CoCr V40 Femoral Heads. Additionally, we are responsible for certain product liability claims, primarily related to certain hip products sold by Wright prior to its 2014 divestiture of the OrthoRecon business.

We have incurred, and expect to incur in the future, costs associated with the defense and settlement of claims and lawsuits. Based on the information that has been received related to the matters discussed above, our accrual for these matters was $144 at December 31, 2025, representing our best estimate of probable loss. The final outcomes of these matters are dependent on many factors that are difficult to predict. Accordingly the ultimate cost related to these matters may be materially different than the amount of our current estimate and accruals and could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and cash flows.

Leases

We lease various manufacturing, warehousing and distribution facilities, administrative and sales offices as well as equipment under operating leases. We evaluate our contracts to identify leases, which is generally if there is an identified asset and we have the right to direct the use of and obtain substantially all of the economic benefit from the use of the identified asset. Certain of our lease agreements contain rent escalation clauses (including index-based escalations), rent holidays, capital improvement funding or other lease incentives. We recognize our minimum rental expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease beginning with the date of initial control of the asset. Right-of-use assets are recorded in other noncurrent assets on our Consolidated Balance Sheets. Current and noncurrent lease liabilities are recorded in accrued expenses and other liabilities and other noncurrent liabilities, respectively.

We have made certain significant assumptions and judgments when recording leases. For all asset classes, we do not recognize a right-of-use asset and lease liability for short-term leases. We also do not separate non-lease components from lease components to which they relate and account for the combined lease and non-lease components as a single lease component. The determination of the discount rate used in a lease is our incremental borrowing rate which is based on what we would normally pay to borrow on a collateralized basis over a similar term an amount equal to the lease payments.

|---|---|---|
| Right-of-use assets | $ 519 | $ 516 |
| Lease liabilities, current | $ 153 | $ 144 |
| Lease liabilities, noncurrent | $ 348 | $ 379 |
| Other information: | | |
| Weighted-average remaining lease term (years) | 5.0 | 5.1 |
| Weighted-average discount rate | 3.77 % | 3.87 % |

Operating lease expense totaled $205, $190 and $172 in 2025, 2024 and 2023.

Future Obligations

We lease various manufacturing, warehousing and distribution facilities, administrative and sales offices as well as equipment under operating leases. Refer to Note 10 for more information on the debt obligations.

| | 2026 | 2027 | 2028 | 2029 | 2030 | Thereafter |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Debt repayments | $1,000 | $1,382 | $2,606 | $1,691 | $2,565 | $ 6,729 |

Other Contractual Obligations and Commitments

We participate in a supplier financing program that enables our suppliers, at their sole discretion, to sell their Stryker receivables to a financial institution on a non-recourse basis in order to be paid earlier than our payment terms provide. Under this program, we agree to pay participating banks the stated amount of confirmed invoices from its designated suppliers on the original maturity dates of the invoices, generally within 90 days of the invoice date. We or the banks may agree to terminate the agreements with advance notice. Separately, the banks may have arrangements with the suppliers that provide them the option to request early payment from the bank for invoices confirmed by us. Our outstanding balances of confirmed invoices in the programs were $75 and $71 on December 31, 2025 and 2024 and are included within accounts payable on our Consolidated Balance Sheets.

NOTE 8 - GOODWILL AND OTHER INTANGIBLE ASSETS

In our annual impairment test of goodwill as of October 31, 2024 we performed a quantitative assessment of the Spine reporting unit using a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate the fair value. The carrying value of the Spine reporting unit exceeded its fair value and a charge of $273 was recognized in goodwill and other impairments in the Consolidated Statements of Earnings. The impairment charge for the Spine reporting unit was driven by a decrease in future product demand due to the competitive environment and an increase in the Spine reporting unit's weighted average cost of capital. Subsequent to the annual goodwill impairment test management committed to a plan to sell certain assets associated with the Spinal Implants business (disposal group). Goodwill was allocated to the disposal group based on the relative fair values of the disposal group and the portion of the Spine reporting unit that will be retained. Goodwill allocated to the disposal group was tested for impairment which resulted in an impairment charge of $183 recognized in goodwill and other impairments in the Consolidated Statements of Earnings. Refer to Note 16 for additional information on the sale of the Spinal Implants business.

In our annual impairment test as of October 31, 2025 we performed a quantitative impairment test for our Peripheral Vascular reporting unit and determined that its fair value exceeded its carrying amount by 12%. At October 31, 2025, goodwill attributable to the Peripheral Vascular reporting unit was $3,203. The fair value of this reporting unit was determined using a discounted cash flow analysis, which is a form of the income approach. Significant inputs to the analysis included assumptions for future revenue growth, operating margin and the rate used to discount the estimated future cash flows to their present value, based on the reporting unit's estimated weighted average cost of capital.

For our other reporting units, we considered qualitative indicators of impairment as it was considered more likely than not that the fair values of those reporting units exceeded their respective carrying values. No impairment was identified for those reporting units in 2025 or 2024.

Future changes in the judgments, assumptions and estimates that are used in our impairment testing for goodwill, including discount and tax rates and future cash flow projections, could result in different estimates of the fair values. A significant reduction in the estimated fair values could result in impairment charges that could materially affect our results of operations.

In 2024 goodwill of $117 previously reported within Orthopaedics was reclassified to MedSurg and Neurotechnology to reflect the reclassification of the Interventional Spine reporting unit from Orthopaedics to MedSurg and Neurotechnology to align with certain updates in our internal reporting structure.

NOTE 9 - CAPITAL STOCK

The aggregate number of shares of all classes of stock which we are authorized to issue is up to 1,000,500,000, divided into two classes consisting of 500,000 shares of $1 par value preferred stock and 1,000,000,000 shares of common stock with a par value of $0.10. No shares of preferred stock were outstanding on December 31, 2025.

We made no repurchases of shares in 2025. The manner, timing and amount of repurchases are determined by management based on an evaluation of market conditions, stock price and other factors and are subject to regulatory considerations. Purchases are made from time-to-time in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. On December 31, 2025 the total dollar value of shares of our common stock that could be purchased under our authorized repurchase program was $1,033.

Shares reserved for future compensation grants of our common stock were 31 million and 18 million on December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Stock Options

We measure the cost of employee stock options based on the grant-date fair value and recognize that cost using the straight-line method over the period in which a recipient is required to provide services in exchange for the options, typically the vesting period. The weighted-average fair value per share of options is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

Option Value and Assumptions

| | 2025 | 2024 | 2023 |
|---|---|---|---|
| Weighted-average fair value per share | $141.40 | $118.22 | $ 83.59 |
| Assumptions: | | | |
| Risk-free interest rate | 4.4 % | 4.3 % | 4.0 % |
| Expected dividend yield | 0.9 % | 1.1 % | 1.2 % |
| Expected stock price volatility | 29.1 % | 29.9 % | 29.0 % |
| Expected option life (years) | 6.4 | 6.3 | 6.2 |

The risk-free interest rate for periods within the expected life of options granted is based on the United States Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant. Expected stock price volatility is based on the historical volatility of our stock. The expected option life, representing the period of time that options granted are expected to be outstanding, is based on historical option exercise and employee termination data.

2025 Stock Option Activity

| | Shares (in millions) | Weighted-Average Exercise Price | Weighted-Average Remaining Term (in years) | Aggregate Intrinsic Value |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Outstanding January 1 | 10.8 | $ 214.87 | | |

| Options expected to vest | 3.3 | $ 309.91 | 7.5 | $ 166.7 |

The aggregate intrinsic value of options, which represents the cumulative difference between the fair market value of the underlying common stock and the option exercise prices, exercised was $260, $362 and $318 in 2025, 2024 and 2023. Exercise prices for options outstanding ranged from $96.64 to $392.39 on December 31, 2025. On December 31, 2025 there was $160 of unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested stock options granted under the long-term incentive plans. That cost is expected to be recognized as expense over the weighted-average period of approximately 1.5 years.

Restricted Stock Units (RSUs) and Performance Stock Units (PSUs) Activity

| | Shares (in millions) | | Weighted-Average Grant Date Fair Value | |

On December 31, 2025 there was $100 of unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested RSUs. That cost is expected to be recognized as expense over the weighted-average period of approximately one year. The weighted-average grant date fair value per share of RSUs granted was $385.68 and $332.64 in 2025 and 2024. The fair value of RSUs and PSUs vested in 2025 was $91 and $26. On December 31, 2025 there was $26 of unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested PSUs. That cost is expected to be recognized as expense over the weighted-average period of approximately one year.

Employee Stock Purchase Plans (ESPP)

Employees may participate in our ESPP provided they meet certain eligibility requirements. The purchase price for our common stock under the terms of the ESPP is defined as 95% of the closing stock price on the last trading day of a purchase period. We issued 178,090 and 173,708 shares under the ESPP in 2025 and 2024.

NOTE 10 - DEBT AND CREDIT FACILITIES

We have lines of credit issued by various financial institutions that are available to fund our day-to-day operating needs. Certain of our credit facilities require us to comply with financial and other covenants. We were in compliance with all covenants on December 31, 2025.

In February 2025 we entered into a new revolving credit agreement that replaces our previous agreement dated October 2021. The primary changes included increasing the aggregate principal amount of the facility by $750 to $3,000 and extending the maturity date to February 25, 2030. On December 31, 2025 there were no borrowings outstanding under our revolving credit facility or our commercial paper program which allows for maturities up to 397 days from the date of issuance. The maximum amount of our commercial paper that can be outstanding at any time is $3,000.

In February 2025 we issued $500 of 4.550% senior unsecured notes due February 10, 2027, $700 of 4.700% senior unsecured notes due February 10, 2028, $800 of 4.850% senior unsecured notes due February 10, 2030 and $1,000 of 5.200% senior unsecured notes due February 10, 2035. In June 2025 we repaid $650 of 1.150% senior unsecured notes. In November 2025 we repaid $750 of 3.375% senior unsecured notes. The following table summarizes our total debt at December 31:

The fair value of the senior unsecured notes was estimated using quoted interest rates, maturities and amounts of borrowings based on quoted active market prices and yields that took into account the underlying terms of the debt instruments. Substantially all of our debt is classified within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

Interest expense on outstanding debt and credit facilities, including required fees incurred totaled $582, $396 and $356 in 2025, 2024 and 2023.

NOTE 11 - INCOME TAXES

On January 1, 2025 we prospectively adopted ASU 2023-09 (Topic 740): Income Taxes: Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures which expands the existing rules on income tax disclosures. This update requires entities to disclose specific categories in the tax rate reconciliation, provide additional information for reconciling items that meet a quantitative threshold and disclose additional information about income taxes paid on an annual basis. In determining the reconciling items we considered the effect of tax rulings as part of the statutory tax rate.

Our effective tax rate was 28.1%, 14.3% and 13.8% for 2025, 2024 and 2023. The effective income tax rate for 2025 increased from 2024 due to the 2025 tax effect of transfers of intellectual property between tax jurisdictions and the 2024 tax effect of the sale of the Spinal Implants business. The effective income tax rate for 2024 increased from 2023 due to the 2023 tax effect of transfers of intellectual property between tax jurisdictions offset by the 2024 tax effect of the sale of the Spinal Implants business.

Accrued interest was $96 and $71 on December 31, 2025 and 2024 which was reported in accrued expenses and other liabilities and other noncurrent liabilities.

United States federal loss carryforwards of $271, with $57 of associated deferred tax asset and with $2 being subject to a valuation allowance, begin to expire in 2026. United States state loss carryforwards of $1,606, with $64 associated deferred tax asset and with $33 being subject to a valuation allowance, begin to expire in 2026. International loss carryforwards of $309, with $67 of associated deferred tax asset and with $61 being subject to a valuation allowance, begin to expire in 2026; however, some have no expiration. We also have tax credit carryforwards of $141 with $4 being subject to a full valuation allowance. The credits with a full valuation allowance begin to expire in 2026.

We recorded deferred income tax on undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries not determined to be indefinitely reinvested. The amount of undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries determined to be indefinitely reinvested at December 31, 2025 was approximately $11.7 billion. Determination of the total amount of unrecognized deferred income tax on undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries is not practicable.

Uncertain Income Tax Positions

Our income tax expense would have been reduced by $279 and $224 in 2025 and 2024 had our uncertain income tax positions been favorably resolved. It is reasonably possible that the amount of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly change due to one or more of the following events in the next 12 months: expiring statutes, audit activity, tax payments, competent authority proceedings related to transfer pricing or final decisions in matters that are the subject of controversy in various taxing jurisdictions in which we operate, including inventory transfer pricing, cost sharing, product royalty and foreign branch arrangements. We are not able to reasonably estimate the amount or the future periods in which changes in unrecognized tax benefits may be resolved. Interest incurred associated with uncertain tax positions is included in interest expense.

Income tax authorities in various jurisdictions globally conduct routine audits of our income tax returns to determine if they agree with our interpretations of income tax regulations. Any audit assessment, draft audit assessment, or final audit report received is reviewed for new information and evaluated for proper financial statement treatment. We received a final audit report and assessments from the German Federal Central Tax Office (FCTO) related to the years 2010 through 2017 of $754 and expect to receive additional assessments of $11 based on the final audit report. We intend to defend our filing positions through the FCTO independent appeals process and/or litigation as necessary. If the resolution of this matter results in additional German income taxes, we expect to pursue a claim for associated foreign tax credits. Our unrecognized tax benefits associated with this matter remain unchanged from 2024.

Income tax years are open from 2019 through 2025 for the United States federal jurisdiction and are open for other major jurisdictions from 2010 through 2025.

NOTE 12 - RETIREMENT PLANS

Defined Contribution Plans

We provide certain employees with defined contribution plans and other types of retirement plans. A portion of our retirement plan expense under the defined contribution plans is funded with Stryker common stock. The use of Stryker common stock represents a non-cash operating activity that is not reflected in our Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

| | 2025 | 2024 | 2023 |
|---|---|---|---|
| Plan expense | $ 399 | $ 376 | $ 327 |
| Expense funded with Stryker common stock | 72 | 62 | 57 |
| Stryker common stock held by plan: | | | |
| Dollar amount | $ 763 | $ 781 | $ 649 |
| Shares (in millions) | 2.2 | 2.2 | 2.2 |
| Value as a percentage of total plan assets | 8 % | 10 % | 10 % |

Defined Benefit Plans

Certain of our subsidiaries have both funded and unfunded defined benefit pension plans covering some or all of their employees. The majority of our defined benefit pension plans have projected benefit obligations in excess of plan assets.

Discount Rate

The discount rates were selected using a hypothetical portfolio of high quality bonds on December 31 that would provide the necessary cash flows to match our projected benefit payments.

Expected Return on Plan Assets

The expected return on plan assets is determined by applying the target allocation in each asset category of plan investments to the anticipated return for each asset category based on historical and projected returns.

Components of Net Periodic Pension Cost

| Net periodic benefit cost: | 2025 | 2024 | 2023 |
|---|---|---|---|
| Service cost | $ (42) | $ (39) | $ (32) |
| Interest cost | (24) | (21) | (23) |

| Recognized actuarial gain (loss) | (2) | (1) | 4 |
| Net periodic benefit cost | $ (44) | $ (41) | $ (32) |
| Changes in assets and benefit obligations recognized in OCI: | | | |
| Net actuarial gain (loss) | $ 93 | $ 43 | $ (67) |
| Recognized net actuarial (gain) loss | 2 | 1 | (4) |
| Prior service credit and transition amount | (2) | (1) | (1) |
| Total recognized in other comprehensive income (loss) | $ 93 | $ 43 | $ (72) |
| Total recognized in net periodic benefit cost and OCI | $ 49 | $ 2 | $(104) |
| Weighted-average rates used to determine net periodic benefit cost: | | | |
| Discount rate | 2.9 % | 2.8 % | 3.3 % |
| Expected return on plan assets | 4.1 % | 4.3 % | 4.2 % |
| Rate of compensation increase | 2.9 % | 3.0 % | 3.0 % |
| Weighted-average discount rate used to determine projected benefit obligations | 3.6 % | 2.9 % | 2.8 % |

The actuarial gain (loss) for all pension plans was primarily related to a change in the discount rate used to measure the benefit obligations of those plans.

Investment Strategy

The investment strategy for our defined benefit pension plans is to meet the liabilities of the plans as they fall due and to maximize the return on invested assets within appropriate risk tolerances.

Our Level 3 pension plan assets primarily include guaranteed investment contracts with insurance companies. The insurance contracts guarantee us principal repayment and a fixed rate of return. The $3 decrease in Level 3 pension plan assets is primarily driven by the change in the corresponding pension liability. We expect to contribute $24 to our defined benefit pension plans in 2026.

NOTE 14 - SEGMENT AND GEOGRAPHIC DATA

We segregate our operations into two reportable business segments: (i) MedSurg and Neurotechnology and (ii) Orthopaedics which aligns to our internal reporting structure and how our Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) assesses performance and allocates resources. The CODM is the Chief Executive Officer. The CODM makes decisions on resource allocation, assesses performance of the business, and monitors budget versus actual results using segment operating income.

The Corporate and Other category shown in the table below includes corporate and administration, corporate initiatives and share-based compensation, which includes compensation related to employee stock options, restricted stock units and performance stock unit grants and director stock options and restricted stock unit grants.

We measure the financial results of our reportable segments using an internal performance measure that excludes acquisition and integration-related charges, structural optimization and other special charges, goodwill and other impairments, reserves for certain product recall matters and reserves for certain legal and regulatory matters. Identifiable assets are those assets used exclusively in the operations of each business segment or allocated when used jointly. Corporate assets are principally property, plant and equipment and noncurrent assets.

The countries in which we have local revenue generating operations have been combined into the following geographic areas: the United States; Europe, Middle East, Africa; Asia Pacific; and other foreign countries, which include Canada and countries in the Latin American region. Net sales are reported based on the geographic area of the Stryker location where the sales to the customer originated.

NOTE 15 - ASSET IMPAIRMENTS

During 2025, 2024 and 2023 we recorded impairment charges of $109, $159 and $36 to write off long-lived and intangible assets excluding long-lived assets held for sale which included charges related to certain product line exits.

NOTE 16 - SALE OF SPINAL IMPLANTS BUSINESS

During the fourth quarter 2024 management committed to a plan to sell certain assets associated with the Spinal Implants business (disposal group) and such assets were classified as held for sale beginning November 2024. As a result we recorded a valuation allowance of $362 to record the disposal group at its fair value less cost to sell within goodwill and other impairments in our Consolidated Statements of Earnings.

In April 2025 we completed the sale of the disposal group to the Viscogliosi Brothers, LLC. In the first half of 2025 we recognized immaterial impairment charges to record the disposal group at its fair value less cost to sell within goodwill and other impairments in our Consolidated Statements of Earnings. The fair value of the disposal group and consideration received was measured using a discounted cash flow analysis based upon the selling price and unobservable inputs, such as market conditions and the rate used to discount the estimated future cash flows to their present value based on factors including the disposal group's cost of equity and market yield rates, which are Level 3 inputs. Consideration could increase by up to $57 or decrease by up to $245 based on the amount received.

The assets associated with the disposal group are reported in our Orthopaedics segment at December 31, 2024. The assets and liabilities held for sale at December 31, 2024 are classified within prepaid expenses and other current assets and accrued expenses and other liabilities in our Consolidated Balance Sheets. The assets and liabilities of the disposal group at the date of sale and at December 31, 2024 were as follows:

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE.

Not applicable.

ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company's management, with the participation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer (the Certifying Officers), evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) or 15d-15(e) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) (Exchange Act) as of December 31, 2025. Based on that evaluation, the Certifying Officers concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of December 31, 2025.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting during the fourth quarter of 2025 that materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as such term is defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(f). The Company's internal control over financial reporting was designed to provide reasonable assurance to the Company's management and Board of Directors regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and includes those policies and procedures that: (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that in reasonable detail accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

The Company's management assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting on December 31, 2025. In making this assessment, we used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission in Internal Control—Integrated Framework (2013). We have excluded from our assessment the operations and related assets of Inari, which we acquired in February 2025. As of December 31, 2025 Inari represented approximately 10% of our total assets, including the goodwill and intangible assets recorded as part of the purchase price allocation, and approximately 2.3% of our net sales for the year ended December 31, 2025. Based on its assessment, management concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was effective as of December 31, 2025.

Stryker's independent registered public accounting firm has issued an audit report on their assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholders and the Board of Directors of Stryker Corporation

Opinion on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

We have audited Stryker Corporation and subsidiaries' internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (2013 framework) (the COSO criteria). In our opinion, Stryker Corporation and subsidiaries (the Company) maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on the COSO criteria.

As indicated in the accompanying Management's Annual Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting, management's assessment of and conclusion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting did not include the internal controls of Inari Medical, Inc. (Inari), which is included in the 2025 consolidated financial statements of the Company and constituted 10% of total assets as of December 31, 2025 and 2.3% of net sales for the year then ended. Our audit of internal control over financial reporting of the Company also did not include an evaluation of the internal control over financial reporting of Inari.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB), the 2025 consolidated financial statements of the Company and our report dated February 11, 2026 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Basis for Opinion

The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects.

Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Definition and Limitations of Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

W9s and Stryker's legal entity name

Stryker Sales, LLC

Effective January 1, 2021, Stryker Sales Corporation converted to a limited liability company (LLC) and operates under the name Stryker Sales, LLC, a Michigan limited liability company. With the exception of the name change and change in entity designation (Stryker Sales Corporation to Stryker Sales, LLC), everything relating to the entity remains the same. Stryker Sales, LLC is a wholly owned subsidiary of Howmedica Osteonics Corp. and Stryker Corporation is the ultimate parent.

Why does Stryker provide a Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) and Certification, to Customers?

An independent contractor fills out a W-9 form to provide their tax-filing name and TIN to the business or employer that will be paying them. As an independent contractor, Stryker provides a Form W-9 to customers that will be paying Stryker for its products and services.

Why is Howmedica Osteonics Corp. listed on Stryker's W-9?

The IRS treats LLCs that are wholly owned by a single owner (i.e., member) as disregarded entities. That means that the IRS does not tax the LLC itself. Instead, the LLC's income or loss is taxed on the owner's individual income tax return. This disregarded entity status simply describes how the IRS classifies the LLC and does not affect any operations or personal liability protection of the LLC. When the disregarded entity LLC is asked to provide a Form W-9, the LLC must provide the owner's EIN, not the LLC's EIN. Therefore, since the sole member/owner of Stryker Sales, LLC is Howmedica Osteonics Corp., the W-9 provided by Stryker Sales, LLC to our customers must reflect Howmedica Osteonics Corp.'s EIN.

Takeaways

As a Michigan limited liability company, Stryker Sales, LLC is a legal entity and all contracts entered into in the name of Stryker Sales, LLC remain valid and binding agreements. Howmedica Osteonics, Corp. is listed on Stryker Sales, LLC's W-9 for tax purposes only. Stryker Sales, LLC can continue to be used as the legal entity in our contracts despite Howmedica Osteonics, Corp. being listed on Stryker's Form W-9. RIDER TO BID

County of Nassau
(hereinafter referred to as the "County")

-and-

Stryker Sales, LLC
(hereinafter referred to as "Stryker")

1. The terms and conditions of this Rider to Bid (together with any appendices or exhibits hereto, this "Rider") supersede and take precedence over the terms of the Formal Sealed Bid Proposal ("Original Bid") submitted by Stryker and received by the County on April 21, 2026.

2. Any information provided by Stryker as part of any fill-in the blank answers shall remain intact and shall be considered incorporated by reference in the Superseding Bid, attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. Exhibit A reflects the modifications to the provisions of the Original Bid which are as follows:

    a. Page 1:
        i. The bulleted "ALL BIDS..." paragraph shall now read as follows: "ALL BIDS MUST BE F.O.B. ORIGIN, FREIGHT PREPAID AND ADDED TO INVOICE."
        ii. The "BIDS MUST BE SIGNED..." paragraph shall now read "BIDS MUST BE SIGNED BY DESIGNEE OF OFFICER AUTHORIZED TO SIGN FOR CORPORATION"
        iii. The box stating "IN EXECUTING THIS BID..." shall include Stryker's insertion so that it now reads as follows: "IN EXECUTING THIS BED, THE BIDDER WARRANTS THAT THE PRICES SUBMITTED HEREIN ARE NOT HIGHER THAN THOSE OFFERED TO ANY GOVERNMENTAL OR COMMERCIAL CONSUMER FOR LIKE DELIVERIES WHEN CONSIDERING SUCH FACTORS SUCH AS COMPARABLE PURCHASING HISTORIESE, PARTICIPATING LEVEL, GEOGRAPHY, AND TERMS OF PURCHASE FOR THE PRODUCTS SOLD HEREUNDER."
        iv. Section 5 titled "SURETY" shall have the contents stricken and replaced with "Not required."
    b. Page 2:
        i. Section 6 titled "SAMPLES," all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows:

"Samples may be furnished at no cost to the County and in accordance with an Evaluation Agreement between the Parties.

ii. Section 11 titled "DELIVERIES," all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows: "Upon failure of the Vendor to deliver, or replace rejected items, within a reasonable time in accordance with Vendor's Return Policy, when so requested immediately or as directed by the Director, the Director may purchase from other sources to take the place of the item rejected or not delivered.

iii. Section 12 shall be stricken and shall now say "Reserved."

iv. Section 13 shall be stricken and shall now say "Reserved."

v. Section 17, all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows: "The Vendor shall be responsible for delivery of supplies in good condition at point of shipment. The vendor shall work with the County to assist in filing claims with carrier for breakage, imperfections, and other losses occurring during shipment. Shipping Shall be F.O.B. Origin, freight prepaid and added to invoice. The receiving Agency will note for the benefit of Vendor when packages are not received in good conditions."

vi. Section 18 shall replace "un-mutilated" with "unmutilated".

vii. Section 20 shall include Stryker's insertions and stricken language to now read as follows: "Equipment must be delivered in accordance with Contract Terms."

viii. Section 21 shall be stricken and shall now say "Reserved."

ix. Section 22 titled "GUARANTEES BY BIDDER" shall have the following changes in each section as follows:

    1. Section (a), all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows: "to indemnify and defend County from any third-party claims against County alleging that County's use of the Products in accordance with the Products' labeling, manuals, and/or instructions for use, constitutes an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any U.S. patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret or other intellectual property right. Should a Product become, or in Bidder's opinion is likely to become, the subject of a claim of any such infringement, Bidder may, in its sole discretion, either procure for County the right to continue using the Product, or replace it or modify it to make it non-infringing. If the foregoing options are not available on commercially reasonable terms, Bidder may refund the purchase price for the Product pro-rated for depreciation based on a three-year straight line model. The foregoing indemnification does not apply to any claims arising from: (i) the combination of any Bidder's Product with one or more non-Stryker Products wherein such combination is the sole basis of the claim; (ii) the use of the Products contrary to their labeling, manuals, and/or instructions for use or (iii) modification of any Product by any person other than Bidder without Bidder's express written authorization.

Bidder will have no liability hereunder unless it is notified promptly of any such claim and given control of the defense and any settlement thereof."

2. Section (b), all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows: "Bidder agrees to indemnify and defend County from any third-party claims related to bodily injury or damage to personal property which County may suffer solely as a result of (i) a defect in workmanship or design of the Products or (ii) the gross negligence or willful misconduct or violation of applicable law by Bidder, its employees and authorized agents in their performance under this Agreement. This indemnification does not apply to liability and/or damages arising from; a) the negligence of any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder; b) the failure of any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder to follow any labeling, manuals and/or instructions for use of the Product; or c) the use of any product not purchased from Bidder, or Product that has been modified, altered, reprocessed, or repaired by any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder."
3. Section (c) shall be stricken and shall now say "Reserved."
4. Section (d) shall have "ail" replaced with "all".
5. Section (e), all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language, with the exception of any language stating the Bidder may self-insure. This section will now read as follows: "To carry proper insurance set forth in the COI attached to the bid, as reviewed and in the opinion of the Director, and approved by the County Attorney to protect the County from loss."
6. Section (f), all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows: "That he will keep himself fully informed, of all municipal ordinances and regulations, state and national laws in any manner affecting the work or goods herein specified, and shall at all times observe and comply with said ordinances, laws and regulations, including all provisions of the Workmen Compensation and Labor Laws."
7. Section (g), all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows: "That the items furnished shall conform to all the provisions of the bid and Bidder's attached limited warranty shall survive acceptance, or use of any material so furnished."

c. Page 3:

i. Section 24 titled "ASSIGNMENT" shall incorporate Stryker's insertion of the following language: "Notwithstanding the foregoing, Bidder may assign contract without the consent of the County to a purchaser of all or substantially all of Bidder's assets to which the contract relates or in connection with Bidder's merger, consolidation, change of control or similar transaction. Any purported assignment in violation of the proceeding sentence will be void."

d. Pages 4 through 28, all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed from the footer and it shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows: "ALL BIDS MUST BE F.O.B. ORIGIN."
e. Pages 8 through 11, Appendix EE shall revert to its original form. No changes are allowed to this portion of the document.
f. Page 12, section titled "Indemnification", all language stricken by Stryker shall be removed and shall include inserted language so that it now reads as follows: "Contractor agrees to indemnify and defend County from any third-party claims related to bodily injury or damage to personal property which County may suffer solely as a result of (i) a defect in workmanship or design of the Products or (ii) the gross negligence or willful misconduct or violation of applicable law by Bidder, its employees and authorized agents in their performance under this Agreement. This indemnification does not apply to liability and/or damages arising from; (a) the negligence of any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder; (b) the failure of any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder to follow any labeling, manuals and/or instructions for use of the Product; or (c) the use of any product not purchased from Bidder, or Product that has been modified, altered, reprocessed, or repaired by any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder."
g. Page 15, section titled "DELIVERY" shall have the last three sentences stricken.
h. Page 17:
    i. Section titled "WARRANTY", the language in this section shall be replaced by Stryker's inserted language.
    ii. Section titled "REDUCTION IN PRICES" shall have "NO" inserted in the heading to read "NO REDUCTION IN PRICES".
    iii. Section titled "PRODUCT LIABILITY INSURANCE" shall be removed.
i. Page 18, section titled "INSURANCE AND WORKERS COMPENSATION" the language in this section shall be removed and replaced with Stryker's inserted language, with the exception of any language stating the Contractor may self-insure.

4. Any language allowing Stryker to comply with any insurance requirements through a program of self-insurance is void.

5. Any changes made by Stryker to the Original Bid, that are not fill-in the blank answers and are not referenced herein, shall be considered removed and shall revert to its original form.

6. Exhibit B to this Rider, Stryker Likepak 35 Quote, dated March 13, 2026, is incorporated by reference herein.

7. Entire Agreement. This Rider and its Exhibits represent the full and entire understanding and agreement between the parties with regard to the subject matter hereof. Should there be any conflict between the terms and conditions of the documents that comprise this Agreement, the order of precedence for the documents shall be as follows: (i) Exhibit A (the "Superseding Bid") and (ii) this Rider.

8. Mutual Drafting. This Rider was arrived at mutually and is not to be construed against any party hereto as being the drafter hereof or causing the same to be drafted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Contractor and the County have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

IN EXECUTING THIS BID, THE BIDDER WARRANTS THAT THE PRICES SUBMITTED HEREIN ARE NOT HIGHER THAN THOSE OFFERED TO ANY GOVERNMENTAL OR COMMERCIAL CONSUMER FOR LIKE DELIVERIES WHEN CONSIDERING SUCH FACTORS SUCH AS COMPARABLE PURCHASING HISTORIES, PARTICIPATING LEVEL, GEOGRAPHY, AND TERMS OF PURCHASE FOR THE PRODUCTS SOLD HEREUNDER. THE PRICES HEREIN SHOULD NOT INCLUDE ANY FEDERAL EXCISE TAXES OR SALES TAXES IMPOSE BY ANY STATE OR MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT. SUCH TAXES, IF INCLUDED, MUST BE DEDUCTED BY THE BIDDER WHEN SUBMITTING BID. BIDDERS ARE REQUESTED TO ALSO READ THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

BID TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Bids on equipment must be on standard new equipment, latest model, except as otherwise specifically stated in proposal or detailed specification. Where any part of nominal appurtenances of equipment is not described, it shall be understood that all equipment and appurtenances which ~~The Director of~~ are usually provided in the manufacturer's stock model ~~shall be furnished. Purchase reserves the right to request successful bidders to post, within one~~
2. Bids on materials and supplies must be for new items except as otherwise specifically stated in bid or detailed specifications.
3. Bidder declares that the bid is made without any connection with any other Bidder, submitting a bid for the same items, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud.
4. PRICES The provisions of the New York State Fair Trade Law (Fed-Crawford Act) and the federal price discrimination law (Robinson-Patman Act) do not apply to purchases made by the County.
5. SURETY Not Required. ~~In the event that an award is made hereunder, any successful bidder shall furnish a surety company bond or bonds as security for faithful performance, with the understanding that the whole or any part thereof may be used by the County of Nassau to supply any deficiency that may arise from any default on the part of the Bidder. Such security must meet all the requirements of the County Attorney and be approved by the County Attorney.~~

6 SAMPLES ~~Samples, when required, must be submitted strictly in accordance with instructions, otherwise bid may not be considered. If samples are requested subsequent to bid opening they shall be delivered within five (5) days of the request for bid to have consideration.~~ Samples ~~must~~may be furnished ~~free of charge and~~ at no cost to the County and in accordance an Evaluation Agreement between Parties. ~~must be accompanied by descriptive memorandum invoices indicating if the Bidder desires their return, also specifying the address to which they are to be returned, provided they have not been used or made useless by tests. Award samples may be held for comparison with deliveries. Samples will be returned at the Bidders risk and expense.~~

7 Award The Director, Office of Purchasing reserves the right before making award to make investigations as to whether or not the items, qualifications or facilities offered by the Bidder meet the requirements set forth herein and are sample and sufficient to insure the proper performance in the event of award. The Bidder must be prepared, if requested by the Director, to present evidence of experience, ability and financial standing, as well as a statement as to plant, machinery and capacity of the manufacturer for the production and distribution of the material on which he is bidding. Upon request of the Director, successful bidder shall file certification from the manufacturer relative to authorization, delivery, service and guarantees. If it is found that the conditions of the bids are not complied with or that articles or equipment proposed to be furnished do not meet the requirements called for, or that the qualification, financial standing or facilities are not satisfactory, the Director may reject such bids. It is distinctly understood, however, that nothing in the foregoing shall mean or imply that it is obligatory upon the Director to make any examinations before award; and it is further understood that, if such examination is made, it in no way relieves the Bidder from fulfilling all requirements and conditions of the bid.

8 Awards will be made to the lowest responsible Bidder. Cash discounts will not be a factor in determining awards, except in tie bids. Consideration will be given to the reliability of the Bidder, the quantities of the materials, equipment or supplies to be furnished, their conformity with the specifications, the purpose for which required and the terms of delivery

9 The Director reserves the right to reject and all bids in whole or in part and to waive technical defects, irregularities and omissions if in his judgment the best interests of the County will be served.

10 Unless otherwise indicated herein, the Director reserves the right to make award by items, by classes, by group of items, or as a whole.

11 DELIVERIES Upon failure of the Vendor to deliver within ~~the time specified~~ reasonable time, or ~~within reasonable time as interpreted by the Director, or failure to make replacement of~~ rejected articles in accordance with Vendor's Return Policy, when so requested immediately or as directed by the Director, the Director may purchase from other sources to take the place of the item rejected or not delivered. ~~The Director reserves the right to authorize immediate purchase from other sources against rejections on any order when necessary. On all such purchases the Vendor agrees to promptly reimburse the County for excess cost occasioned by such purchases. Should the cost be less, the Vendor shall have no claim to the difference. Such purchases will be deducted from order quantity.~~

~~12 An order may be canceled at the Vendors expense upon nonperformance. Failure of the Vendor to furnish additional surety within ten (10) days from date of requested shall be sufficient cause for the cancellation of the order.~~

~~13 When in the determination of the Director, the articles or equipment delivered fail to meet County specifications or, if in the determination of the Director, the Vendor consistently fails to deliver as ordered, the Director reserves the right, to cancel the order and purchase the balance from other sources at Vendor expense.~~

~~11~~12 Delivery must be made as ordered and in accordance with the bid. If delivery instructions do not appear on order. It will be interpreted to mean prompt delivery. The decision of the Director as to reasonable compliance with delivery terms shall be final. Burden of proof of delay in receipt of order shall rest with the Vendor.

~~15~~13 The County Agencies will not schedule any deliveries for Saturdays, Sundays or Legal Holiday, except commodities required for daily consumption or where the delivery is an emergency, a replacement, or is overdue, in which event the convenience of the Agency will govern.

~~16~~14 Supplies shall be securely and properly packed for shipment, according to accepted commercial practice, without extra charge for packing cases, reels, bailing or sacks, the containers to remain the property of the agency unless definitely stated otherwise in the bid.

~~17~~15 The Vendor shall be responsible for delivery of supplies in good condition at point of ~~destination~~shipment. The Vendor shall work with the County to assist in filing ~~file all~~ claims with carrier for breakage, imperfections and other losses, occurring during shipment. Shipping shall be F.O.B Origin, freight prepaid and added to invoice which will be deducted from invoices. The receiving Agency will note for the benefit of Vendor when packages are not received in good conditions.

~~18~~16 All supplies which are customarily labeled or identified must have securely affixed thereto the original ~~un-mutilated~~unmutilated label or marking of the manufacturer

~~19~~17 Billings for deliveries must be rendered on County claim forms.

~~20~~18 Furniture, machines, and other eEquipment must be delivered in accordance with Contract Terms, ~~installed and set in place as directed, ready for use unless otherwise specified.~~

~~21 Deliveries are subject to reweighing at destination by the County and payment will be made on the basis of materials delivered. Normal shrinkage will be allowed in such instances where shrinkage is possible. Short weight shall be sufficient cause for cancellation of order at Vendors expense.~~

~~22~~19 GUARANTEES BY BIDDER Bidder hereby guarantees: (a) to indemnify and defend County from any third-party claims against County alleging that County's use of the Products in accordance with the Products' labeling, manuals, and/or instructions for use, constitutes an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any U.S. patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret or other intellectual property right. Should a Product become, or in Bidder's opinion is likely to become, the subject of a claim of any such infringement, Bidder may, in its sole discretion, either procure for County the right to continue using the Product, or replace it or modify it to make it non-infringing. If the foregoing options are not available on commercially reasonable terms, Bidder may refund the purchase price for the Product pro-rated for depreciation based on a three-year straight line model. The foregoing indemnification does not apply to any claims arising from: (i) the combination of any Bidder's Product with one or more non-Stryker Products wherein such combination is the sole basis of the claim; (ii) the use of the Products contrary to their labeling, manuals, and/or instructions for use or (iii) modification of any Product by any person other than Bidder without Bidder's express written authorization. Bidder will have no liability hereunder unless it is notified promptly of any such claim and given control of the defense and any settlement thereof. ~~To save the County, its agents and employees harmless from liability of any nature or kind for the use of any copyrighted or un-copyrighted composition, secret process, patented or unpatented invention, article or appliance furnished or used in the performance hereof of which the Bidder is not the Patentee, assignee or licensee, and to defend any action brought against the County, in the name of the County and under the direction of the County Attorney at the sole cost of the Bidder or in the sole option of the Director to pay the cost of such defense to the County. (b) His products against defective material or workmanship and to repair any damages or marring occasioned in transit.~~ Bidder agrees to indemnify and defend County from any third-party claims related to bodily injury or damage to personal property which County may suffer solely as a result of (i) a defect in workmanship or design of the Products or (ii) the gross negligence or willful misconduct or violation of applicable law by Bidder, its employees and authorized agents in their performance under this Agreement. Appendix EE

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR MINORITIES AND WOMEN

The provisions of this Appendix EE are hereby made a part of the document to which it is attached.

The Contractor shall comply with all applicable federal, State and local statutory ~~and constitutional anti-discrimination provisions~~ obligations required law. In addition, Local Law No. 14-2002, entitled "Participation by Minority Group Members and Women in Nassau County Contracts," governs all County Contracts as defined by such title and solicitations for bids or proposals for County Contracts. In accordance with Local Law 14-2002:

(a) The Contractor shall not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment because of race, gender, gender identity, creed, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, Veteran or marital status in recruitment, employment, job assignments, promotions, upgradings, demotions, transfers, layoffs, terminations, and rates of pay or other forms of compensation. The Contractor will undertake or continue existing programs related to recruitment, employment, job assignments, promotions, upgradings, transfers, and rates of pay or other forms of compensation to ensure that minority group members and women are afforded equal employment opportunities without discrimination.

~~(b) At the request of the County contracting agency, the Contractor shall request each employment agency, labor union, or authorized representative of workers with which it has a collective bargaining or other agreement or understanding, to furnish a written statement that such employment agency, union, or representative will not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or marital status and that such employment agency, labor union, or representative will affirmatively cooperate in the implementation of the Contractor's obligations herein.~~

~~(c)~~(b) The Contractor shall ~~state, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees, that, in the performance of the County Contract, all~~ consider all qualified applicants will be afforded equal employment opportunities without ~~discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or marital status~~ as set forth in section above.

~~(d)~~(c) The Contractor shall make ~~Best Efforts~~ commercially reasonable efforts to solicit active participation by certified minority or women-owned business enterprises ("Certified M/WBEs") as defined in Section 101 of Local Law No. 14-2002 to the extent available and applicable, ~~including the granting of Subcontracts~~.

~~(e) The Contractor shall, in its advertisements and solicitations for Subcontractors, indicate its interest in receiving bids from Certified M/WBEs and the requirement that Subcontractors must be equal opportunity employers.~~

~~(f) Contractors must notify and receive approval from the respective Department Head prior to issuing any Subcontracts and, at the time of requesting such authorization, must submit a signed Best Efforts Checklist.~~

~~(g) Contractors for projects under the supervision of the County's Department of Public Works shall also submit a utilization plan listing all proposed Subcontractors so that, to the greatest extent feasible, all Subcontractors will be approved prior to commencement of work. Any additions or changes to the list of subcontractors under the utilization plan shall be approved by the Commissioner of the Department of Public Works when made. A copy of the utilization plan any additions or changes thereto shall be submitted by the Contractor to the Office of Minority Affairs simultaneously with the submission to the Department of Public Works.~~

~~(h) At any time after Subcontractor approval has been requested and prior to being granted, the contracting agency may require the Contractor to submit Documentation Demonstrating Best Efforts to Obtain Certified Minority or Women-owned Business Enterprises. In addition, the contracting agency may require the Contractor to submit such documentation at any time after Subcontractor approval when the contracting agency has reasonable cause to believe that the existing Best Efforts Checklist may be inaccurate. Within ten working days (10) of any such request by the contracting agency, the Contractor must submit Documentation.~~

~~(i) In the case where a request is made by the contracting agency or a Deputy County Executive acting on behalf of the contracting agency, the Contractor must, within two (2) working days of such request, submit evidence to demonstrate that it employed Best Efforts to obtain Certified M/WBE participation through proper documentation.~~

~~(j) Award of a County Contract alone shall not be deemed or interpreted as approval of all Contractor's Subcontracts and Contractor's fulfillment of Best Efforts to obtain participation by Certified M/WBEs.~~

ALL BIDS MUST BE F.O.B. ORIGIN ~~DESTINATION AND INCLUDE DELIVERY WITHIN DOORS UNLESS OTHERWISE SPECIFIED~~.

BIDDER SIGN HERE Kathryn E. Janecke — BIDDER

Sr. Director, Commercial Operations — TITLE

~~(k)~~(d) A Contractor shall maintain Documentation Demonstrating Best Efforts to Obtain Certified Minority or Women-owned Business Enterprises for a period of six (6) years or in accordance with applicable law. Failure to maintain such records shall be deemed failure to make Best Efforts to comply with this Appendix EE, evidence of false certification as M/WBE compliant or considered breach of the County Contract.

~~(l)~~(e) The Contractor shall be bound by the provisions of Section 109 of Local Law No. 14-2002 providing for enforcement of violations as follows:

a. Upon receipt by the Executive Director of a complaint from a contracting agency that a County Contractor has failed to comply with the provisions of Local Law No. 14-2002, this Appendix EE or any other contractual provisions included in furtherance of Local Law No. 14-2002, the Executive Director will try to resolve the matter.

b. If efforts to resolve such matter to the satisfaction of all parties are unsuccessful, the Executive Director shall refer the matter, within thirty days (30) of receipt of the complaint, to the American Arbitration Association for proceeding thereon.

c. Upon conclusion of the arbitration proceedings, the arbitrator shall submit to the Executive Director his recommendations regarding the imposition of sanctions, fines or penalties. The Executive Director shall either (i) adopt the recommendation of the arbitrator (ii) determine that no sanctions, fines or penalties should be imposed or (iii) modify the recommendation of the arbitrator, provided that such modification shall not expand upon any sanction recommended or impose any new sanction, or increase the amount of any recommended fine or penalty. The Executive Director, within ten days (10) of receipt of the arbitrators award and recommendations, shall file a determination of such matter and shall cause a copy of such determination to be served upon the respondent by personal service or by certified mail return receipt requested. The award of the arbitrator, and the fines and penalties imposed by the Executive Director, shall be final determinations and may only be vacated or modified as provided in the civil practice law and rules ("CPLR").

~~(m)~~(f) The contractor shall provide contracting agency with information regarding all subcontracts awarded under any County Contract, including the amount of compensation paid to each Subcontractor and shall complete all forms provided by the Executive Director or the Department Head relating to subcontractor utilization and efforts to obtain M/WBE participation..

Failure to comply with provisions (a) through (m) above, as ultimately determined by the Executive Director, shall be a material breach of the contract constituting grounds for immediate termination. Once a final determination of failure to comply has been reached by the Executive Director, the determination of whether to terminate a contract shall rest with the Deputy County Executive with oversight responsibility for the contracting agency.

Provisions (a), (b) and (c) shall not be binding upon Contractors or Subcontractors in the performance of work or the provision of services or any other activity that are unrelated, separate , or distinct from the County Contract as expressed by its terms.

The requirements of the provisions (a), (b) and (c) shall not apply to any employment or application for employment outside of this County or solicitations or advertisements therefore or any existing programs of affirmative action regarding employment outside of this County and the effect of contract provisions required by these provisions (a), (b) and (c) shall be so limited.

The Contractor shall include provisions (a), (b) and (c) in every Subcontract in such manner that these provisions shall be binding upon each Subcontractor as to work in connection with the County Contract.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "Best Efforts Checklist" shall mean a list signed by the Contractor, listing the procedures it has undertaken to procure Subcontractors in accordance with this Appendix EE.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "County Contract" shall mean (i) a written agreement or purchase order instrument, providing for a total expenditure in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whereby a County contracting agency is committed to expend or does expend funds in return for labor, services, supplies, equipment, materials or any combination of the foregoing, to be performed for, or rendered or furnished to the County; or (ii) a written agreement in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), whereby a County contracting agency is committed to expend or does expend funds for the acquisition, construction, demolition, replacement, major repair or renovation of real property and improvements thereon. However, the term

"County Contract" does not include agreements or orders for the following services: banking services, insurance policies or contracts, or contracts with a County contracting agency for the sale of bonds, notes or other securities.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "County Contractor" means an individual, business enterprise, including sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, not-for-profit corporation, or any other person or entity other than the County, whether a contractor, licensor, licensee or any other party, that is (i) a party to a County Contract, (ii) a bidder in connection with the award of a County Contract, or (iii) a proposed party to a County Contract, but shall not include any Subcontractor.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "County Contractor" shall mean a person or firm who will manage and be responsible for an entire contracted project.

As used in this Appendix EE "Documentation Demonstrating Best Efforts to Obtain Certified Minority or Women-owned Business Enterprises" shall include, but is not limited to the following:

a. Proof of having advertised for bids, where appropriate, in minority publications, trade newspapers/notices and magazines, trade and union publications, and publications of general circulation in Nassau County and surrounding areas or having verbally solicited M/WBEs whom the County Contractor reasonably believed might have the qualifications to do the work. A copy of the advertisement, if used, shall be included to demonstrate that it contained language indicating that the County Contractor welcomed bids and quotes from M/WBE Subcontractors. In addition, proof of the date(s) any such advertisements appeared must be included in the Best Effort Documentation. If verbal solicitation is used, a County Contractor's affidavit with a notary's signature and stamp shall be required as part of the documentation.

b. Proof of having provided reasonable time for M/WBE Subcontractors to respond to bid opportunities according to industry norms and standards. A chart outlining the schedule/time frame used to obtain bids from M/WBEs is suggested to be included with the Best Effort Documentation

c. Proof or affidavit of follow-up of telephone calls with potential M/WBE subcontractors encouraging their participation. Telephone logs indicating such action can be included with the Best Effort Documentation

d. Proof or affidavit that M/WBE Subcontractors were allowed to review bid specifications, blue prints and all other bid/RFP related items at no charge to the M/WBEs, other than reasonable documentation costs incurred by the County Contractor that are passed onto the M/WBE.

e. Proof or affidavit that sufficient time prior to making award was allowed for M/WBEs to participate effectively, to the extent practicable given the timeframe of the County Contract.

f. Proof or affidavit that negotiations were held in Best Efforts with interested M/WBEs, and that M/WBEs were not rejected as unqualified or unacceptable without sound business reasons based on (1) a thorough investigation of M/WBE qualifications and capabilities reviewed against industry custom and standards and (2) cost of performance. The basis for rejecting any M/WBE deemed unqualified by the County Contractor shall be included in the Best Effort Documentation

g. If an M/WBE is rejected based on cost, the County Contractor must submit a list of all sub-bidders for each item of work solicited and their bid prices for the work.

h. The conditions of performance expected of Subcontractors by the County Contractor must also be included with the Best Effort Documentation

i. County Contractors may include any other type of documentation they feel necessary to further demonstrate their Best Efforts regarding their bid documents.

As used in this Appendix EE the term "Executive Director" shall mean the Executive Director of the Nassau County Office of Minority Affairs; provided, however, that Executive Director shall include a designee of the Executive Director except in the case of final determinations issued pursuant to Section (a) through (l) of these rules.

BIDDER SIGN HERE Katheryn E. Jaeckle — BIDDER

Sr. Director, Commercial Operations — TITLE

As used in this Appendix EE the term "Subcontract" shall mean an agreement consisting of part or parts of the contracted work of the County Contractor.

As used in this Appendix EE, the term "Subcontractor" shall mean a person or firm who performs part or parts of the contracted work of a prime contractor providing services, including construction services, to the County pursuant to a county contract. Subcontractor shall include a person or firm that provides labor, professional or other services, materials or supplies to a prime contractor that are necessary for the prime contractor to fulfill its obligations to provide services to the County pursuant to a county contract. Subcontractor shall not include a supplier of materials to a contractor who has contracted to provide goods but no services to the County, nor a supplier of incidental materials to a contractor, such as office supplies, tools and other items of nominal cost that are utilized in the performance of a service contract.

Provisions requiring contractors to retain or submit documentation of best efforts to utilize certified subcontractors and requiring Department head approval prior to subcontracting shall not apply to inter-governmental agreements. In addition, the tracking of expenditures of County dollars by not-for-profit corporations, other municipalities, States, or the federal government is not required.

Prohibition of Gifts. In accordance with County Executive Order 2-2018, the Contractor shall not offer, give, or agree to give anything of value to any County employee, agent, consultant, construction manager, or other person or firm representing the County (a "County Representative"), including members of a County Representative's immediate family, in connection with the performance by such County Representative of duties involving transactions with the Contractor on behalf of the County, whether such duties are related to this Agreement or any other County contract or matter. As used herein, "anything of value" shall include, but not be limited to, meals, holiday gifts, holiday baskets, gift cards, tickets to golf outings, tickets to sporting events, currency of any kind, or any other gifts, gratuities, favorable opportunities or preferences. For purposes of this subsection, an immediate family member shall include a spouse, child, parent, or sibling. The Contractor shall include the provisions of this subsection in each subcontract entered into under this Agreement.

Disclosure of Conflicts of Interest. In accordance with County Executive Order 2-2018, the Contractor has disclosed as part of its response to the County's Business History Form, or other disclosure form(s), any and all instances where the Contractor employs any spouse, child, or parent of a County employee of the agency or department that contracted or procured the goods and/or services described under this Agreement. The Contractor shall have a continuing obligation, as circumstances arise, to update this disclosure throughout the term of this Agreement.

Vendor Code of Ethics. By executing this Agreement, the Contractor hereby certifies and covenants that:

1) The Contractor has been provided a copy of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics issued on June 5, 2019, as may be amended from time to time (the "Vendor Code of Ethics"), and will comply with all of its provisions;
2) All of the Contractor's Participating Employees, as such term is defined in the Vendor Code of Ethics (the "Participating Employees"), have been provided a copy of the Vendor Code of Ethics prior to their participation in the underlying procurement;
3) All Participating Employees have completed the acknowledgement required by the Vendor Code of Ethics;
4) The Contractor will retain all of the signed Participating Employee acknowledgements for the period it is required to retain other records pertinent under this Agreement;
5) The Contractor will continue to distribute the Vendor Code of Ethics, obtain signed Participating Employee acknowledgements as new Participating Employees are added or changed during the term of this Agreement, and retain such signed acknowledgements for the period the Contractor is required to retain other records pertinent to performance under this Agreement; and
6) The Contractor has obtained the certifications required by the Vendor Code of Ethics from any subcontractors or other lower tier participants who have participated in procurements for work under this Agreement.

INDEMNIFICATION:

Contractor agrees to indemnify and ~~hold harmless~~ defend County ~~and its agents, officers and employees,~~ from ~~and against~~ any third-party claims related to bodily injury or damage to personal property which County may suffer solely as a result of (i) a defect in workmanship or design of the Products or (ii) the gross negligence or willful misconduct or violation of applicable law by Bidder, its employees and authorized agents in their performance under this Agreement. This indemnification does not apply to liability and/or damages arising from: (a) the negligence of any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder; (b) the failure of any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder to follow and labeling, manuals and/or instructions for use of the Product; or (c) the use of any product not purchased from Bidder, or Product that has been modified, altered, reprocessed, or repaired by any person other than an employee or agent of Bidder. ~~and all losses, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements), damages and liabilities, arising out of or in connection with any acts or omissions of Contractor, its officers, agents or employees, provided, however, that Contractor shall not be responsible for that portion, if any, of a loss that is caused by the negligence of the County; and provided, further, that Contractor shall not be liable for consequential, indirect or special damages. Contractor shall, at County's demand and at County's direction, defend at its own risk and expense any and all suits, actions or legal proceedings which may be brought against County, its agents, officers or employees in connection with a loss for which Contractor is responsible under this paragraph.~~

DEFINITIONS:

- The term "County" as used herein, shall be deemed as reference to the County of Nassau, State of New York.
- The term "Contractor" as used herein, shall be deemed as reference to the successful bidder, vendor, proprietor, partnership, or corporation receiving an award to perform any or all of the services specified herein in accordance with the terms of this agreement.

Additionally, if the bidder utilizes the services of any individual or organization for the purposes of conducting lobbying activities and is awarded the contract, the successful proposer will be required to provide a copy of the Lobbyist Registration and Disclosure Form, completed and verified by that individual/organization.

PLEASE NOTE:

- If a bidder has previously submitted the Disclosure Forms in the Nassau County Vendor Portal, the bidder must ensure that the forms on file in the Portal are current, accurate, and have been recertified within three (3) months prior to the bid opening date. The bidder must also ensure that their response to question 7, and its subparts, on the Consultant's, Contractor's, and Vendor's Disclosure Form is provided in relation to the specific solicitation under consideration.

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION OR CLARIFICATION

Before bidding, bidders must examine all of the Contract documents, including the specifications, any drawings, and all instructions. If the bidder finds any inconsistency, ambiguity, omission or error in the specifications, drawings, instructions or any other Contract document, or if the bidder is in doubt as to the meaning of any term or condition of the Contract, the bidder must promptly so notify the Office of Purchasing in writing prior to the bid opening. The failure of the bidder to notify the Office of Purchasing, prior to the bid opening of any inconsistency, ambiguity, omission or error that the bidder actually found, or that should have been discovered by a reasonably prudent bidder, will preclude and negate acceptance of the bidder's claim.

If the Office of Purchasing receives a notification from a bidder of a differing site condition or an inconsistency, ambiguity, omission or error in the Contract documents, the Office of Purchasing will, as it deems necessary or desirable, issue a written interpretation or correction to the Contract documents as an amendment to the Contract documents. Any such amendment will be made available electronically to each person that received a copy of the Contract documents as reflected in the records of the Office of Purchasing , and any such amendment will also be available at the place where the Contract documents are available for inspection by prospective bidders.

Upon such mailing or delivery, such amendment shall become part of the Contract documents and shall be binding on all bidders, whether or not they have had actual notice of such addendum.

Please note that all bidder requests for information or clarification must be received by the Authority at least 72 hours prior to the bid opening. Any bidder requests for information or issues with the contract documents presented after that time may not be addressed by the Office of Purchasing.

Ordinance # 153-2018

Pursuant to Ordinance # 153-2018, a bidder that is awarded a contract under this bid is required to pay the County an administrative service charge in accordance with the following schedule:

| Value of Contract | Administrative Fee |
|---|---|
| $0-$10,000 | $0 |
| Over $10,000-$50,000 | $160 |
| Over $50,000-$100,000 | $266 |
| Over $100,000 | $533 |

After an award, the successful bidder(s) will be notified by the Director of Shared Services, or their designee, when payment of the administrative charge is due. Please note, if you are a religious, charitable, nonprofit, or not-for-profit organization, please include this information in your bid for consideration by the Director of the Shared Services to waive the fee.

Ordinance # 72-2014

The bidder declares that they are a registered vendor with the County. All registered vendors must pay a Two Hundred Seventy-Five Dollar ($275.00) per contract fee to register Blanket contracts on the County's procurement website, as required under Ordinance # 72-2014.

INTENT

SCOPE: It is the INTENT of the County of Nassau to properly describe by these specifications, terms and conditions an adequate method of providing CARDIOVASCULAR INSTRUMENTS for the agency or agencies named herein in order that they may enjoy uninterrupted service in consideration for payment of the price bid.

AWARD: Award, if any, will be made to the lowest responsible bidder, who in the opinion of the Director of Purchasing, meets the specifications and qualifications stated herein. The Director of Purchasing reserves the right to make an award be items, groups, or classes of items or as a whole. Awards will be made in accordance with the terms and conditions attached hereto and made part hereof.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this bid is to establish a price structure on which items and/or services listed herein will be purchased at once by Purchase Order.

DELIVERY: Bidders are required to state guaranteed delivery date in terms of days after receipt of order in the space provided below and on page one. ~~Bidders are cautioned to post realistic delivery dates. Guaranteed delivery dates will be strictly enforced. Must be made within 15 days A/R/O unless stated otherwise below~~:

Delivery to be made Within forty five (45) Days A/R/O.

Delivery shall be made ONLY upon receipt of a Purchase Order, or in the case of a Blanket Order, upon receipt of a Direct Purchase Order(s) from a using agency authorized to use the Blanket Order which will be issued to the successful bidder. Purchase Order and Direct Purchase Order shall indicate the destination address. Inside delivery is required on all deliveries.
Bidders agree that all orders shall be effective and binding upon the contractor when PLACED IN THE MAIL addressed to the Contractor at the address shown on the Blanket Order/Purchase Order PRIOR TO MIDNIGHT OF THE FINAL DAY OF CONTRACT.

BILLING: Shall be made on County claim forms or Certified Invoices to the individual using County Agency upon completion of deliveries made against applicable Purchase Order(s) or Direct Purchase Order(s).

NO PARTIAL PAYMENTS WILL BE PAID.

*VENDOR CLAIM CERTIFICATION*******
IF A CLAIM VOUCHER IS NOT BEING SUBMITTED, THE FOLLOWING CERTIFICATION MUST APPEAR ON THE INVOICE:

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT ALL ITEMS OR SERVICES WERE DELIVERED OR RENDERED AS SET FORTH IN THIS CLAIM; THAT THE PRICES CHARGED ARE IN ACCORDANCE WITH REFERENCED PURCHASE ORDER, DIRECT PURCHASE ORDER OR CONTRACT, THAT THE CLAIM IS JUST, TRUE AND CORRECT; THAT THE BALANCE STATED HEREIN IS ACTUALLY DUE AND OWING AND HAS NOT BEEN PREVIOUSLY CLAIMED; THAT NO TAXES FROM WHICH THE COUNTY IS EXEMPT ARE INCLUDED; AND THAT ANY AMOUNTS CLAIMED FOR DISBURSEMENTS HAVE ACTUALLY AND NECESSARILY BEEN MADE.

TOTAL CONSUMPTION: Total consumption of order awarded may be PLUS/MINUS those quantities without any price change.

INSPECTION: Bidders should be aware of Inspection and Delivery requirements as stipulated.

PRICE DISCREPANCY: In the event of a discrepancy between the unit price and the extension price, the unit price will govern.

RETENTION OF BID: Vendor is required to make a copy of his completed bid document and applicable attachments. Any purchase orders issued against this bid will refer to the bid and attachments to designate items awarded.

METHOD OF BIDDING: Please submit unit price in the appropriate column.

ADDITIONAL BIDS: The County reserves the right, for any un-contemplated additional requirements of extraordinary quantities of particular items to call for new bids, therefore, whenever in the opinion of the Director of the Office of Purchase it is in the best interests of the County of Nassau to do so.

TAX PROVISION: Purchases made by the County of Nassau are not subject to State, Local Sales Taxes or Federal Excise Taxes. Federal Exemption #A-109538 State Exemption #EX 7213062C. The County of Nassau is not subject to any Existing "Fair Trade Agreements" and bidders should be governed accordingly.

SPECIFICATIONS: Submit complete specifications and illustrations of products offered with the bid. Acceptance of a bid and designation of a manufacturer's catalog description, brand name or number in any Purchase or Blanket Order resulting there-from shall not be construed as qualification of the specifications of this bid or relief there-from, except as specifically stated in the Purchase or Blanket Order.

PRODUCT IDENTIFICATION: If a product(s) is identified by a BRAND NAME, a substitute of equal quality, construction, finish, composition, size, workmanship and performance characteristics may be acceptable. In submitting a bid, each bidder warrants that the substitute product being offered is an equal. Bid sheets shall be so noted of the manufacturer's name and brand of the product offered as an equal. If as a result of an award, a delivery is made of a brand or product represented as an equal which is subsequently deemed to be unacceptable, the Contractor shall be required, at his expense, to pick up the rejected item and replace it with brand(s) listed in this bid, or an acceptable equal which will have the approval of the Director.

PROTECTION FROM CLAIM AGAINST "OR EQUAL": In the event of any claim by any unsuccessful bidder concerning or relating to the issue of "equal or better" or "or equal", the successful bidder agrees, at his own cost and expense, to defend such claims or claims and agrees to hold the County of Nassau free and harmless from any and all claims for loss or damage arising out of this transaction for any reason whatsoever.

EQUIVALENT BIDS: Bidders may offer a product of the same capability, but of different manufacture and model than that specified in this bid. The use of the name of a manufacturer, brand, make or catalog designation is specifying items described herein does not restrict or preclude bidders from offering equivalent or better product bids. Such a designation is used only to indicate the character, quality and minimum performance desired. Equal or better product bids are permissible. A bidder submitting an equal or better product shall, at his own cost and expense be responsible for submitting proof and/or a demonstration of equivalence, compatibility and performance. However, acceptance of an equivalent product shall be strictly at the discretion of the Director. Any omission of the term "or equal" in any specific bid item listing should be disregarded by the bidder. All bidders shall have an absolute right to submit "equivalent" bids notwithstanding any other provision of the bid specifications.

WARRANTY: ANY WARRANTIES PROVIDED BY COMPANY WITH RESPECT TO A GIVEN PRODUCT ARE AS DESCRIBED IN THE LABELING ACCOMPANYING UNITS OF THAT PRODUCT ON PURCHASE. COMPANY HEREBY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES REGARDING THE PRODUCTS INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. ~~The successful bidder warrants the equipment furnished and all associated equipment against any defects in design, workmanship and materials against failure to operate satisfactorily for one (1) year from the date of acceptance by the using department and/or agency of the equipment, other than defects or failure shown by the Contractor that have arisen solely from accident or abuse occurring after delivery to the Nassau County agency. Contractor agrees to replace any parts, which in the opinion of the user, shall fail from the above reasons.~~

IMPORTANT NOTES: If a company policy or trade practice requires a different warranty period, the bidder may so state without fear of disqualifications. However, the bidder is cautioned that the length of warranty may, in some cases, be a deciding factor in making an award.

Equipment furnished hereunder shall meet the standards set forth in the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970.

BIDDER SHALL STATE WARRANTY
PERIOD: 1 year from date of delivery

NOTE: All warranties take effect only upon written acceptance of equipment by using agency and shall run full term from that point.

BIDDER SHALL INDICATE COST AND TERM OF ANY EXTENDED WARRANTY OPTION, IF AVAILABLE:
Service plan costs available upon request.

NO REDUCTION IN PRICES: ~~If an award is made, the Contractor agrees, should prices be reduced to the general trade during the requirement period, the County shall receive the benefit of such reduction immediately upon effect. It shall be incumbent upon the Contractor to notify the Purchasing Department of such price reductions.~~ No reduction in Prices.

NON-ASSIGNMENT: In accordance with Section 138 of the State Finance Law, the contract may not be assigned by the Contractor or its right, title or interest therein assigned, transferred, conveyed, sublet or otherwise disposed of without the previous consent, in writing, of Nassau County and any attempts to assign the contract without the County's written consent are null and void.

PRICE PROTECTION: Bidders are required to state period of price protection (in terms of days) after the bid opening.

STATE PRICE PROTECTION PERIOD: 90 DAYS AFTER BID OPENING

EXTENSION OF PRICE: It is anticipated that additional quantities of items specified herein may be required in the ensuing year. According, the County of Nassau requests that the prices bid be protected and be available to the County of Nassau for one (1) year from the date of the award. Economic conditions may not permit the price protection for an entire year. Bidders are requested to state the period for which bid prices will be applicable to potential additional orders.

Notwithstanding any other insurance requirements within the agreement to the contrary, to the extent allowed by applicable law or regulation, Contractor shall be permitted to comply with these insurance requirements through a program of self-insurance. Evidence of insurance may be required prior to Notice of Award or issuance of a Purchase Order.

The Contractor shall comply with all provisions of the Workers' Compensation Law and shall furnish a certificate showing evidence of current coverage.

NEW YORK STATE PRICES: Bidders must represent and warrant that if they are under contract with New York State for items specified herein, that the price quoted to the County is not higher than the price per unit quoted to New York State for like quantities.

VENDOR RESPONSIBILITY CRITERIA: The Director of Purchasing reserves the right before making an award to make investigations as to whether or not the qualifications, services, facilities or items offered by the bidder meet the requirements set forth herein and are ample and sufficient to ensure the proper performance in the event of an award. The bidder must be prepared, if requested by the Director of Purchasing, to present evidence of experience, ability, financial standing, as well as a statement as to plant, machinery, trained personnel and capacity for the rendition of the service on which the vendor is bidding. Upon request of the Director, the successful bidder shall file certification from the manufacturer relative to authorization, delivery, service and guarantees. If it is found that the conditions of the bid are not complied with or that the services or equipment proposed to be furnished do not meet the requirements called for, or that the qualifications, financial standing, or facilities are not satisfactory, the Director may reject such bids. It is distinctly understood, however, that nothing in the forgoing shall mean or imply that it is obligatory upon the Director to make any examinations before an award; and it is further understood that, if such examination is made, it in no way relieves the bidder from fulfilling all requirements and conditions of the bid.

Pursuant to State Finance Law §§139-j and 139-k, this Bid includes and imposes certain restrictions on communications between a Governmental Entity and an Offeror/bidder during the procurement process. An Offeror is restricted from making contacts from the earliest posting, on a Governmental Entity's website, in a newspaper of general circulation, or in the procurement opportunities newsletter in accordance with article four-C of the economic development law of written notice, advertisement or solicitation of a request for proposal, invitation for bids, or solicitation of proposals, or any other method provided for by law or regulation for soliciting a response from Offerors intending to result in a Procurement Contract with a Governmental Entity through final award and approval of the Procurement Contract by the Governmental Entity and, if applicable, the Office of the State Comptroller ("Restricted Period") to other than the Designated Contacts for the Governmental Procurement unless it is a Contact that is included among certain statutory exceptions set forth in State Finance Law §139-j(3)(a). The Designated Contact(s) for this Governmental Procurement, as of the date hereof, are identified on the first page of this solicitation. IMPORTANT NOTE: The Director reserves the right to accept or reject any and all bids, or separable portions of offers, and waive technicalities, irregularities, and omissions if the Director determines the best interests of the County of Nassau will be served. The Director, in his sole discretion, may accept or reject illegible, incomplete or vague bids and his decision shall be final. A conditional or revocable bid which clearly communicates the terms or limitations of acceptance may be considered and contract award may be made in compliance with the bidder's conditional or revocable terms in the offer. Prior to award, the Director reserves the right to seek clarifications, request bid revisions, or to request any information deemed necessary for proper evaluation of bids from all bidders deemed to be eligible for contract award. Failure to provide requested information may result in rejection of the bid.

EVALUATION:
The Director of the Office of Purchasing (hereinafter known as the Director) reserves the right before making award to make investigations as to whether or not the items, qualifications, services or facilities offered by the Bidder meet the requirements set forth herein and are ample and sufficient to insure the proper performance in the event of an award. The Bidder must be prepared, if requested by the Director, to present evidence of experience, ability and financial standing, as well as a statement as to plant, machinery, trained personnel and capacity for the rendition of the service on which he his bidding. Upon request of the Director of Purchasing, successful bidder shall file certification from the manufacturer relative to authorization, delivery, service and guarantees. If it is found that the conditions of the bids are not complied with or that the services or equipment proposed to be furnished do not meet the requirements called for, or that the qualifications, financial standing or facilities are not satisfactory, the Director may reject such bids. It is distinctly understood, however, that nothing in the foregoing shall mean or imply that it is obligatory upon the Director to make any examinations before award; and it is further understood that, if such examination is made, it in no way relieves the Bidder from fulfilling all requirements and conditions of the bid.

Contractor shall retain complete and accurate records and documents related to this Agreement for six (6) years following the later of termination or final payment. Such records shall at all times be available for audit and inspection by the County.

Governing Law – Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue; Governing Law. Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement or required by Law, exclusive original jurisdiction for all claims or actions with respect to this Agreement shall be in the Supreme Court in Nassau County in New York State and the parties expressly waive any objections to the same on any grounds, including venue and forum non conveniens. This Agreement is intended as a contract under, and shall be governed and construed in accordance with, the Laws of New York State, without regard to the conflict of laws provisions thereof.

Low Vendor Participation for formal sealed bid 46514-04076-056

CARDIOVASCULAR INSTRUMENTS

1) Review the specification to ensure that it is not unduly restrictive so as to limit competition. Some factors to consider in this regard include: 1) Is any component of the solicitation so restrictive that only one or a small number of vendors can respond to the solicitation? 2) If so, were those vendors notified of the solicitation? yes.

2) This was a commodity purchase. The commodity code use was the best code in the county's system that described the item (s) that were requested. The commodity specifications were such that the vendor understood what the County was requesting. All vendors listed were notified.

3) Was the solicitation advertised and posted on the County website as required yes

4) Would the County be likely to obtain greater vendor participation by advertising in other venues (e.g. New York State Contract Reporter, trade journals, other local media, etc.)? Advertised in NY State Contract Reporter

5) Was the commodity code used to conduct the solicitation appropriate? Were appropriate vendors registered with the County for that commodity code or otherwise notified yes

6) Is the market for the specified goods or services structurally limited (i.e. are there geographic, capital, vendor capacity, service schedule, or other requirements) that may inhibit greater vendor participation. No.

7) Was the solicitation conducted in a manner consistent with this Policy yes

8) Survey vendors that received notice of the solicitation but did not respond to determine why the vendor chose not to do so. Questions to be asked include: Why did the vendor decline to bid or propose?
   Was there anything in the County's specifications, terms or conditions that caused them not to bid? If so, what?
   What changes, if any, could the County make to the solicitation to encourage competition? none

9) If a vendor indicates that they did not bid or propose due to the specifications, terms or conditions, or if one indicates a change to the solicitation could enhance competition, then such feedback must be conveyed in writing to the subject matter expert responsible for the specification and the DCCO for consideration prior to recommending an award or reissuing the solicitation. No.

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE TO AWARD AND EXECUTE A CONTRACT BETWEEN THE COUNTY OF NASSAU ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE NASSAU COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS AND POSILLICO CIVIL, INC.

WHEREAS, in accordance with all Federal, State and Local Law, the County of Nassau on behalf of the NASSAU COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS ["Department"] has received competitive bids for contract S35121-06G, for SOUTH SHORE WRF AERATION BLOWER - NASSAU COUNTY, NY ["Contract"], as more particularly described in the contract documents, a copy of which are on file with the Clerk of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, the firm of POSILLICO CIVIL, INC.

["Vendor"] has submitted the lowest responsible bid for the work described in the contract in accordance with all Federal, State and Local Law as determined by the Department, and

WHEREAS, the funding for this contract is from capital funds approved by the Nassau County Legislature and included in the current four year capital plan, and

WHEREAS, the Commissioner of the Department is representing that the total contract is estimated to be $ 99,639,000.00, now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Rules Committee of the Nassau County Legislature, based on the representations of the Department and the recommendation of the Commissioner of the Department, authorizes the County Executive to award and execute the said contract with the vendor.

FORM OF BID BOND

IMPORTANT The bidder shall instruct the Surety Company to follow the exact language of this form as any omission; addition or change in phraseology may cause rejection of the bid.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS,

that we, the undersigned Posillico Civil, Inc.

as Principal; and Liberty Mutual Insurance Company as surety, who is Licensed to do business in the State of New York, are hereby firmly bound unto the County of Nassau in the penal sum of Ten Percent of Proposal Price dollars ($ 10% of P.P. ) for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

Signed and sealed this 17th day of February 2026

The conditions of the above obligation is such that whereas the Principal has submitted to the County of Nassau a certain Bid attached hereto and hereby made a part hereof, to enter into a contract in writing for the work under

CONTRACT NO. S35121-06G
SOUTH SHORE WRF AERATION BLOWER FACILITY

NOW, THEREFORE, the conditions of this obligation are such that if the Principal shall not withdraw said proposal except by mutual consent of the County of Nassau within a period of ninety (90) days after the opening of bids and in the event of acceptance of the Principal's proposal, if the Principal shall,

a. when notified by the County, execute all necessary counterparts of the contract as set forth in the contract documents in accordance with the proposal as accepted; and
b. furnish bonds and other security as specified in the contract documents for the faithful performance and proper fulfillment of such contract, which bonds or other security shall be satisfactory in all respects to the County; and
c. in all respects, comply with the provisions set forth in the invitation to bid; or if the County of Nassau shall reject the aforesaid proposal for a reason other than the Principal's failure to satisfy the County that they has the necessary skill, experience and liquid assets required for the contract as stated in the documents aforesaid, then this obligation shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

Provided, however, that this bond is subject to the following additional conditions and limitations.

+ + NO TEXT ON THIS PAGE + +

a. In the event that the Principal fails to submit a financial statement when required by the County or in the event that an examination of the Principal indicates to the County that the Principal does not meet the financial requirements required by the County, the undersigned will, upon demand, pay to the County of Nassau, as liquidated damages for the Principal's failure to meet such requirements, a sum equal to the amount that would have been required by a certified check if the same were delivered in accordance with the provisions of the contract documents and specifications herein stated.

b. In case the Principal shall default in the performance of any provision the undersigned will upon demand pay to the County of Nassau the full amount of the damages sustained by the County of Nassau by reason of such default, except however, it is expressly understood and agreed that the liability of the surety for any and all claims hereunder shall in no event exceed the amount of this obligation as herein stated.

The Surety, for value received, hereby stipulates and agrees that the obligation of said Surety and its bond shall be in no way impaired or affected by any extension of time within which the County of Nassau may accept such Bid; and said Surety does hereby waive notice of any such extension.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Principal and the Surety have hereunto set their hands and seals, and such of them as are corporations have caused their corporate seals to be hereto affixed and these presents to be signed by their proper officers, the day and year first set forth above.

This Power of Attorney is made and executed pursuant to and by authority of the following By-laws and Authorizations of The Ohio Casualty Insurance Company, Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, and West American Insurance Company which resolutions are now in full force and effect reading as follows:

ARTICLE IV – OFFICERS: Section 12. Power of Attorney.
Any officer or other official of the Corporation authorized for that purpose in writing by the Chairman or the President, and subject to such limitation as the Chairman or the President may prescribe, shall appoint such attorneys-in-fact, as may be necessary to act in behalf of the Corporation to make, execute, seal, acknowledge and deliver as surety any and all undertakings, bonds, recognizances and other surety obligations. Such attorneys-in-fact, subject to the limitations set forth in their respective powers of attorney, shall have full power to bind the Corporation by their signature and execution of any such instruments and to attach thereto the seal of the Corporation. When so executed, such instruments shall be as binding as if signed by the President and attested to by the Secretary. Any power or authority granted to any representative or attorney-in-fact under the provisions of this article may be revoked at any time by the Board, the Chairman, the President or by the officer or officers granting such power or authority.

ARTICLE XIII – Execution of Contracts: Section 5. Surety Bonds and Undertakings.
Any officer of the Company authorized for that purpose in writing by the chairman or the president, and subject to such limitations as the chairman or the president may prescribe, shall appoint such attorneys-in-fact, as may be necessary to act in behalf of the Company to make, execute, seal, acknowledge and deliver as surety any and all undertakings, bonds, recognizances and other surety obligations. Such attorneys-in-fact subject to the limitations set forth in their respective powers of attorney, shall have full power to bind the Company by their signature and execution of any such instruments and to attach thereto the seal of the Company. When so executed such instruments shall be as binding as if signed by the president and attested by the secretary.

Certificate of Designation – The President of the Company, acting pursuant to the Bylaws of the Company, authorizes Nathan J. Zangerle, Assistant Secretary to appoint such attorneys-in-fact as may be necessary to act on behalf of the Company to make, execute, seal, acknowledge and deliver as surety any and all undertakings, bonds, recognizances and other surety obligations.

Authorization – By unanimous consent of the Company's Board of Directors, the Company consents that facsimile or mechanically reproduced signature of any assistant secretary of the Company, wherever appearing upon a certified copy of any power of attorney issued by the Company in connection with surety bonds, shall be valid and binding upon the Company with the same force and effect as though manually affixed.

I, Renee C. Llewellyn, the undersigned, Assistant Secretary, The Ohio Casualty Insurance Company, Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, and West American Insurance Company do hereby certify that the original power of attorney of which the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the Power of Attorney executed by said Companies, is in full force and effect and has not been revoked.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seals of said Companies this 17th day of February, 2026.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION

THE BIDDER AFFIRMS AND DECLARES:

1. That the above Bidder is of lawful age and the only one interested in this bid; and that no other person, firm or corporation, except those herein named, has any interest in this bid or in the Contract proposed to be entered into.

2. That this bid is made without any understanding, agreement or in connection with any other person, firm or corporation, making a bid for the same Work, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud.

3. That said Bidder is not in arrears to the County of Nassau upon debt or contract, and is not a defaulter, as surety contractor or otherwise.

4. That no officer or employee of the County of Nassau, or person whose salary is payable in whole or in part from the County Treasury is, shall be, or become interested directly, or indirectly as a contracting party, partner, stockholder, surety or otherwise, in this bid, or in the performance of the Contract, or in the supplies, materials, equipment and work or labor to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof.

5. That he/she has carefully examined the Site of the Work and that, from his own personal investigations and research, has satisfied himself as to the nature and location of the work, the character, quality and quantity of existing materials, all difficulties likely to be encountered, the kind and extent of labor, equipment, other facilities needed for the performance of the Work, the general and local conditions, and all other items which may, in any way, affect the Work or its performance.

6. The Bidder also declares that he/she has carefully examined and fully understands all the component parts of this Contract, that the Work can be performed as called for by the Contract, that he/she will execute the Contract and will completely perform it in strict accordance with its terms for the following prices.

7. That the Bidder, for allowance items, will make payment to the parties designated by the County when directed by the County in the amount certified by the Engineer for the purposes indicated. It is also understood and agreed that the Final Contract Payment for allowance items will be based upon such actual payments, and not on the approximate amount cited herein.

8. Where the work performed under this Contract involves a trade or occupation licensed in the County of Nassau by the Towns of Hempstead, Oyster Bay or North Hempstead or by the Cities Glen Cove or Long Beach the contractor shall be required to have such a license.

I. - REJECTION OF BIDS

A. The Commissioner may recommend a rejection of the bid if:

1. The Bidder fails to furnish any of the information required by the bid documents; or if

2. The bidder misstates or conceals any material fact in the bid, or in the sworn written statement; or if

3. The bid does not strictly conform to law or the requirements of this contract; or if

4. The bid is conditional; or if

5. The bid on Unit Price Contracts, in the opinion of the Commissioner, contains unbalanced bid prices, where the unit price proposed for any item exceeds the estimated cost by more than fifteen percent (15%), or if any lump sum item bid exceeds the estimated cost by more than twenty-five percent (25%); or if

6. A determination that the bidder is not responsible is made in accordance with law.

7. Bids may be rejected if the County determines that the contractor's experience and qualifications statement does not show adequate experience with projects of similar size, scope and complexity, particularly concerning MOPO work and complex phasing and sequencing of equipment on and off-line during construction.

B. Rejection of all bids and waiver of informalities.

The Commissioner, however, reserves the right to recommend to reject all bids whenever they deems it in the best interest of the County, and also the right to waive any informalities in a bid.

II. - UNIT PRICE CONTRACTS, COMPARISON OF BIDS

Bids on Unit Price Contracts will be compared on the basis of a total bid price, arrived at by taking the sum of the Approximate Quantities of such item multiplied by the corresponding Unit Price, and including any Lump Sum Bid on individual items, in accordance with the items set forth in the bid proposal.

Bidders are warned that the Approximate Quantities of the various items of work and material is estimated only and is given solely to be used as a uniform basis for the comparison of bids. The quantities actually required to complete the contract work may be more or less than estimated.

III. - LUMP SUM CONTRACTS, COMPARISON OF BIDS

Bids on lump Sum Contracts will be compared on the basis of the Lump Sum Price bid adjusted for alternate prices bid, if any.

IV. - APPRENTICESHIP TRAINING

For all contracts more than $500,000 attach here verification letter regarding your firm's having an approved State of New York Apprenticeship Training Program.

ALLOWANCES

It is expressly understood and agreed that the total Bid presented in this Proposal is the basis for establishing the amount of the Bid Security and includes the following allowances:

- Item No. 2: An allowance of two million thousand dollars ($2,000,000.00) for unforeseen conditions, as specified in Section 01020 – Allowances.

All in accordance with the requirements of Division 1, Special Conditions; Section 01010, Summary of Work; Section 01020, Allowances; and Section 01500, Temporary Facilities and Controls.

Final Contract Payment for allowance items shall be based upon actual payments, and not on the approximate amounts cited herein.

DETERMINATION OF LOW BID

Determination of low Bid will be made by comparing the Total Base Bid which shall include the lump sum Base Bid price, unit price totals and allowances, plus the Add Alternate(s), taken in order, or none of them, whichever amount(s) shall be judged by the Commissioner of Public Works to be in the best interest of the County.

MAJOR EQUIPMENT ITEMS

The Bidder shall fill the name and address of the one proposed manufacturer for each major equipment item tabulated hereinafter. It is expressly understood that the furnishing of this information will not relieve the Bidder of any requirements of the Contract Documents and failure to fill out properly is grounds for rejection.

IRAN DIVESTMENT ACT – CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to New York State Finance Law §165–a, Iran Divestment Act of 2012, the Office of General Services is required to post on its web site http://www.ogs.ny.gov/about/regs/docs/ListofEntities.pdf a list of persons who have been determined to engage in investment activities in Iran ("the List"), as defined in that Act. Under Public Authorities Law § 2879-c, Iranian Energy Sector Divestment, the Authority, may not enter into or award a Contract unless it obtains a certification from a Bidder, who shall check the box and make the certification in Subparagraph a, below, that they are not on the List. If that certification cannot be made, the Authority may consider entering into a Contract, on a case by case basis if the Bidder checks the box and makes the certification in Subparagraph b, below, that their Iran investment is ceasing.

For purposes of this provision, a person engages in investment activities in Iran if: (A) the person provides goods or services of twenty million dollars or more in the energy sector of Iran, including a person that provides oil or liquefied natural gas tankers, or products used to construct or maintain pipelines used to transport oil or liquefied natural gas, for the energy sector of Iran; or (B) the person is a financial institution that extends twenty million dollars or more in credit to another person, for forty-five days or more, if that person will use the credit to provide goods or services in the energy sector in Iran.

The Certification is as follows:

☑ CERTIFICATION THAT THE BIDDER IS NOT ON THE LIST

Each person, where person means natural person, corporation, company, limited liability company, business association, partnership society, trust, or any other nongovernmental entity, organization, or group, and each person signing on behalf of any other party, certifies, and in the case of a joint bid or proposal or partnership each party thereto certifies as to its own organization, under penalty of perjury, that to the best of its knowledge and belief that each person is not on the list created pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision 3 of section 165-a of the State Finance Law, or,

☐ CERTIFICATION THAT THE BIDDER'S INVESTMENT IN IRAN IS CEASING

The person cannot make the certification in Subparagraph a, above, but asks the Authority to consider them for award of the Contract by certifying, under penalty of perjury, that the person's investment activities in Iran were made before April 12, 2012; the person's investment activities in Iran have not been expanded or renewed after April 12, 2012; and the person has adopted, publicized and is implementing a formal plan to cease its investment activities in Iran and to refrain from engaging in any new investments in Iran.

MICHAEL J. POSILLICO

Principal, Secretary, Chairman of the Board,
and Executive Vice President of Business Development, 1985-Present

Mr. Posillico has varied experience in civil, environmental, and development projects. He has worked with government agencies and owners in conjunction with many projects' construction, development, and remediation, including the NYSDOT, NYSDEC, NYCDEP, NJDEP USEPA, and other regional municipal agencies. In the past several years, he has combined this expertise to promote the clean-up and redevelopment of some of the most contaminated projects in our region.

2010 to Present: Mr. Posillico has developed many construction materials facilities, including many that recycle construction waste into reusable construction products. Over the past five years, Mr. Posillico has worked to develop and commission the world's largest soil wash plant that cleans contaminated soils at their Farmingdale, New York facility. He also reorganized business development strategies for companywide goals and individual business units. In 2012 he took on the role of chairman for the New York League of Conservation Voters Long Island Chapter. He restructured their platform to implement a new agenda throughout Long Island. Mr. Posillico is also spearheading a master redevelopment effort of a former quarry in Northern New Jersey.

2005 to 2010: Mr. Posillico formed two new companies, Posillico Development LLC, an organization formed to integrate operations, pool resources, and strategically invest in property development, and Posillico Consulting, LLC, a multi-disciplined Brownsfield redevelopment property management and development consulting service. He expanded Posillico Environmental's marine and mechanical capabilities, which now encompass dredging, synthetic bulkhead installation, sanitary treatment plant construction, and refurbishment. Mr. Posillico also led a re-branding effort for the Posillico companies to improve their recognition under one brand dedicated to setting the standard for excellence in the construction industry for completing complex projects safely, on time, and within budget.

1997 to 2004: Mr. Posillico worked on further expansion of thermally treated contaminated soil and dredge spoil recycling into a product known as "Poscrete." He has worked on significant environmental projects, including the completed dredging of Lake Capri in West Islip, NY, which involved challenging environmental dredging and processing of sediments and solids with a temporary processing plant. In addition, Mr. Posillico worked on developing a remedial SVE system at Northville's Holtsville terminal and affected area with ERM Northeast. Mr. Posillico focused on the re-development of environmentally challenged properties in addition to overseeing significant projects in Posillico Environmental, Inc. Major projects included the partnership in Glen Isle Development, a 50-acre national Brownsfield waterfront redevelopment site, redevelopment of the former Cibro Fuel Oil Terminal in Island Park, NY, and the clean-up of the former GTE and Sylvania site in Hicksville, NY.

1991 to 1996: The majority of Mr. Posillico's efforts were directed at developing a permit with the NYSDEC to thermally treat and recycle petroleum-contaminated soils at Posillico Brothers Asphalt in Farmingdale, N.Y. (Posillico Materials, LLC). During this period, Michael founded and developed the Blue Water Environmental, Inc. petroleum-contaminated soil business, which is now known as Posillico Environmental, Inc. Mr. Posillico expanded Blue Water Environmental, Inc. into other specialized remedial projects, including an expansive tunnel clean-up project for the Brooklyn Navy Yard Development Corp., shallow soil mixing of hazardous wastes for the NYSDEC at Dzus Fasteners in West Islip, NY, and the handling and disposal of

1985 to 1991: Mr. Posillico was the project supervisor for NYSDOT. A nighttime reconstruction of the Long Island Expressway exits 52-57 and exits 32-39. ($10 million), the reconstruction of Route 106/107 and the North Service Road in Syosset, NY. ($4 million, rebuilding the force main and sewer system, Halesite, NY. ($2 million) Mr. Posillico was the project manager for the reconstruction of the Northern State and Meadowbrook Parkways interchange and rebuilding of the intersection of Old Country Road and Glen Cove Road. The total value of both projects was over $70 million, which involved complex bridge reconstruction and highway detour routing.

Affiliation: Mr. Posillico and his partners formed The Posillico Foundation in 2004, donating their time and money to many regional charitable organizations. Mr. Posillico has served numerous charitable and foundation boards, including Farmingdale State College Foundation, where he served as Foundation President. Mr. Posillico is currently an honorary member of this foundation. He served as Chairman of the New York League of Conservation Voters Long Island Chapter and a Board Member of Gilda's Club New York. Mr. Posillico currently serves as a New York State League of Conservation Voters board member and an advisory board member for Clemson University Civil Engineering Department. He formally sat on the Board of Vision Long Island, a regional consortium of professional advocates that promotes "smart growth" in our region, focusing on improving housing, environmental, transportation, and economic development.

Chapter 1: DEFINITIONS

As used in this Code, the following terms have the following meanings:

Adverse Job-Related Action includes any material alteration to existing terms, conditions, and privileges of employment, such as dismissal, demotion, suspension, compulsory leave, disciplinary action, creation of a hostile work environment, negative performance evaluation, any action resulting in loss of staff, office space or equipment or other benefit, reduction in compensation, failure to appoint, failure to promote, or any transfer or assignment or failure to transfer or assign against the wishes of the affected employee.

Contact means any oral or written communication with any Nassau County Employee, other than the Designated Point(s) of Contact, where it could be reasonably inferred that such contact was intended to influence, or could reasonably be expected to influence, the subject of a County procurement.

Designated Point(s) of Contact means the individual(s) designated by the County to be a Vendor's only contact with Nassau County following the public advertisement of a solicitation or the issuance of a request for a bid, proposal, or quote for small purchase, until the award of a resulting contract and, where applicable, approval by the County Legislature. This timeframe, further defined in the State Procurement Lobbying Law, is also known as the Restricted Period.

Nassau County Employee means any officer, official or employee of Nassau County.

Family Member means (i) a Nassau County Employee's Spouse, Domestic Partner, Child, Sibling or Parent; (ii) a person who is a direct descendant (or the spouse of a direct descendant) of a Sibling of the Nassau County Employee or a Sibling of the Nassau County Employee's Spouse or Domestic Partner; or (iii) a person living in the same household as a Nassau County Employee.

Gift means the transfer, without equivalent consideration, of anything of benefit, tangible or intangible, having more than nominal value, including, but not limited to, cash, loans, forbearance, services, travel, gratuities of any kind, favors, money, meals, refreshments, entertainment, hospitality, admittance to private clubs, use of time-shares, personal use of the Vendor's facilities, promises, tickets to entertainment or sporting events, weekend trips, golf outings, loans of equipment, or other thing or benefit. A Gift need not be intended to influence or reward any individual or entity.

Nassau County Code of Ethics means Nassau County Charter Section 2218, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as may be amended or modified.

Participating Employee means any Vendor employee who engages in any written or oral communication of a non-clerical or non-administrative nature with Nassau County or with a Nassau County Employee(s) as part of or in connection with the procurement.

Participating Nassau County Employee means any Nassau County Employee who the Vendor knows, has reason to know, or can reasonably anticipate is involved in a specific procurement, in either a direct or decision-making capacity, but not in a clerical capacity. This includes but is not limited to the Designated Point of Contact, the project manager, the project manager's staff to the extent that they are involved in the procurement, members of selection committees, technical experts and negotiating teams.

Primary Contracting Party means a Vendor who intends to directly enter into or has a contract with Nassau County.

Retaliatory Action is defined as any Adverse Job-Related Action taken by, or at the direction or request of, a Vendor or a Vendors' Employees as a result of any individual's (i) good-faith report with respect to a violation or potential violation of this Code or the law; or (ii) cooperation in any investigation of unlawful conduct or misconduct conducted by Nassau County or by federal, state, or local law enforcement officials.

State Procurement Lobbying Law means New York State Finance Law Sections 139-j and 139-k, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as may be amended or modified.

Vendor means any individual or entity seeking to or doing business with Nassau County within the scope of this Code, including, without limitation, contractors, consultants, suppliers, manufacturers seeking to act as the primary contracting party, officers and employees of the foregoing, as well as any subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers at all lower tiers.

Chapter 2: LIMITATIONS AND REPORTING OF CONTACTS WITH NASSAU COUNTY

Section 2.01 Designated Point(s) of Contact

Each procurement solicitation issued by Nassau County will identify the Designated Point(s) of Contact for that solicitation as required by the State Procurement Lobbying Law. Once the Designated Point(s) of Contact is/are established, the Vendor and any person or entity acting on the Vendor's behalf, including without limitation, those providing compensated or uncompensated lobbying, advocacy, consulting or other services should ensure that its contacts with Nassau County are in compliance with the requirements of the State Procurement Lobbying Law.

Chapter 3: GIFTS OR CONTINGENT FEES

Section 3.01 Zero Tolerance

No Vendor may offer or give any Gift, directly or indirectly, to a Nassau County Employee. Similarly, no Vendor may offer or give any Gift, directly or indirectly, to any Family Member of a Nassau County employee where such Gift is made because of the Vendor's relationship with the Nassau County Employee. Additionally, no Vendor may accept a gift from a Nassau County Employee.

This Zero-Tolerance Policy applies regardless of actual intentions. In other words, even if a Gift does not, or is not intended to, influence an action or decision by a Nassau County Employee, it is prohibited by this Code.

Section 3.02 Personal Relationships

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Vendor has a pre-existing family or personal relationship with the Employee, a Gift that is wholly unconnected with the Employee's duties on behalf of Nassau County is not necessarily prohibited.

In determining whether the giving of an item was motivated by personal rather than business concerns, the following factors are considered:

(a) the history of the relationship between the donor and the recipient, including but not limited to the mutuality of gift giving;

(b) whether the item was paid for by the donor.

The giving of an item shall not be considered to be motivated by a family or personal relationship if the donor seeks to charge or deduct the value of the item as a business expense or seeks reimbursement from a client.

However, regardless of the family or personal relationship between a Vendor and an employee, a Gift is strictly forbidden where it is being given under circumstances where it can reasonably be inferred that it was intended to influence the employee in the performance of his or her official duties.

Section 3.03 Contingent Fees

The Vendor will not employ or retain any individual or entity for the purpose of soliciting or securing a Nassau County contract upon any agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or fee that is contingent or dependent upon the outcome of the procurement.

Chapter 4: NEGOTIATIONS FOR FUTURE EMPLOYMENT

Section 4.01 Restrictions During the Procurement Process

Vendors shall not discuss future employment with Participating Nassau County Employees or their Family Members from the date the procurement is advertised or solicited through 30 days following the date that the procurement is awarded, even if a Participating Nassau County Employee contacts the Vendor regarding employment. Questions regarding whether a particular Nassau County employee is a Participating Nassau County Employee for a specific procurement should be directed to the Designated Point of Contact for the procurement.

Section 4.02 Restrictions Post Award

Vendors are prohibited from offering or discussing an employment opportunity with a Nassau County Employee or his or her Family Members before whom the Vendor has or expects to have a pending specific matter including, but not limited to, negotiations, performance evaluation, task order selection, approval of a voucher or invoice, or approval of or agreement to a contract amendment, change order, or deviation or waiver until:

(i) 30 days from the time the matter before the Employee is closed, or (ii)30 days from the time the Employee has no further involvement with the matter because of recusal or reassignment.

Chapter 5: CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Section 5.01 Financial Interest

Neither the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, as the case may be, may have a 10% or greater interest, nor shall the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, acquire a 10% or greater interest, either directly or indirectly, in any company or firm that would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the Nassau County contract.

The Vendor will not permit an employee having a 10% or greater interest, either directly or indirectly, in any company or firm that would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the Nassau County contract to be employed in the performance of the Nassau County contract.

Section 5.02 Personal Business Dealings

Neither the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, may have a non-County business dealing with a

Participating Nassau County Employee where it can be reasonably inferred that the purpose of the business dealing, at least in part, is to influence the Participating Nassau County Employee's action on a pending County matter.

Section 5.03 Disclosure and Cooperation

The Vendor shall disclose immediately to the County any real or potential conflict of interest of which it becomes aware. This obligation is ongoing and shall last through the completion of performance of the contract. The Vendor shall provide to Nassau County, at the County's request and upon such forms as may be furnished by Nassau County, a disclosure of organizational, financial, contractual or other affiliations with any organization or entity that has interests that may be substantially affected by the procurement solicitation or award. The Vendor shall fully cooperate in any inquiry or investigation undertaken by Nassau County to determine whether any such affiliations present a conflict of interest, or whether any other provision of this Code has been violated. The Vendor shall fully cooperate with audits, investigations, examinations and reviews by the Nassau County Inspector General conducted pursuant to section 187 of the Nassau County Charter.

Section 5.04 Confidential Information

At no time shall any Vendor who obtains confidential or proprietary Nassau County information in the course of doing or seeking to do business with the County disclose any such information to any person not authorized by Nassau County to receive such information or use such information for any personal gain except as necessary to fulfill its contractual obligations to Nassau County.

If the Vendor receives from any source confidential or proprietary Nassau County information prior to the award of a resulting contract and, where applicable, approval by the County Legislature, without the explicit approval of the Designated Point of Contact, the Vendor shall immediately so notify the Designated Point of Contact.

Nassau County confidential or proprietary information includes, but is not limited to, internal cost estimates and proposals submitted by other Vendors.

Section 5.05 Prohibition Regarding Bidding by Participants in Procurement Development

No Vendor who participates in the development of a scope of work, solicitation documents, assessment criteria, contractual instruments or technical specifications may participate as a bidder, sub-bidder, proposer or sub-proposer on that particular procurement or perform any work on that particular procurement or any other procurement that would constitute an organizational conflict of interest or would give that Vendor an unfair advantage over other bidders or proposers on that procurement. This prohibition may be waived in writing by the County Chief Procurement Officer upon a showing of good cause.

Chapter 6: FORMER NASSAU COUNTY EMPLOYEES

Section 6.01 Appearance Before Former Agency-Two Year Bar

Except as provided for in Section 2218(8) of the Nassau County Code of Ethics, the Vendor will not permit a former Nassau County Employee to appear or practice before any Nassau County agency, either prior to award or in the performance of a Nassau County contract, for a period of two years after termination of the Nassau County Employee's services with the County.

Section 6.02 Appearance Before Former Agency-Life Time Bar

Except as provided for in Section 2218(8) of the Nassau County Code of Ethics, the Vendor will not permit a former Nassau County Employee to appear, practice, communicate or otherwise render services before the agency that employed the officer or employee or any other agency of Nassau County, either prior to award or in the performance of an agency's contract in relation to any case, proceeding, application or transaction with respect to which such former officer or employee was directly concerned and in which he or she personally participated, or which was under his or her active consideration during the period of his or her employment. This provision is a lifetime bar on projects that the former Nassau County Employee previously worked on while employed by the County.

Chapter 7: NON-COLLUSION

Section 7.01 Independent Bid Assessment

The Vendor will calculate the price(s) contained in any bid or proposal independently, without collusion, consultation, communication, or agreement with any competing Vendor for the purpose of restricting competition.

Section 7.02 Non-Communication of Bid

Unless otherwise required by law, the price(s) which the Vendor quotes in its bid or proposal will not knowingly be disclosed by the Vendor, directly or indirectly, to any competing Vendor prior to the closing date for bids or proposals.

Section 7.03 Bid Submission

The Vendor will not make any attempt to induce any other individual or entity to submit or not to submit a bid or proposal.

Chapter 8: DISTRIBUTION AND CERTIFICATION

Section 8.01 Distribution of Vendor Code of Ethics and Vendor's Participating Employee Acknowledgements

As a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold of $10,000, the Vendor will be required to distribute copies of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics to all Participating Employees prior to any of those employee's participation in the procurement. The Code may be distributed either in hard copy or electronically as a separate PDF.

Additionally, as a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold, the Vendor will be required to obtain an acknowledgement from each of its Participating Employees ("Participating Employee Acknowledgements") that they have received, read, understand, and will comply with the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics.

The Vendor's responsibility for distributing copies of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics and obtaining such signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements is ongoing until completion of performance of the contract and shall be retained for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County.

Receipt and retention of Participating Employee Acknowledgments by the Vendor shall be subject to audit by Nassau County.

Section 8.02 Vendor Certifications

The vendor by signing the final contract thereby certifies and attests to the following:

(a) The Vendor has been provided with a copy of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics and will comply with all of the provisions of the Code;

(b) All of its Participating Employees during the course of procurement or contract have been provided with a copy of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics prior to any of those employees' participation in the procurement;

(c) All Participating Employees have completed the acknowledgement required by Section 8.01 of this Code;

(d) The Vendor will retain all of the signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County;

(e) The Vendor will continue to distribute the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics, obtain signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements as new Participating Employees are added or changed during the contract period, and retain all of the signed acknowledgements for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County.

Section 8.03 Subcontractor Certifications

As a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold, the Vendor will obtain certifications executed by authorized officials from all of its lower tier subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers (as well as from any other subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers from whom that Vendor is soliciting or has received proposals for work on a Nassau County contract) whose employees have communicated or may communicate with Nassau County Employees. This obligation is ongoing and shall last through the completion of performance of the contract. Receipt and retention of lower tier certifications by the Vendor shall be subject to audit by Nassau County.

Chapter 9: PENALTIES

Section 9.01 Responsibility Determination

For violation of any provision of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics, Nassau County may avail itself of every remedy in law or equity, or as agreed to by parties in any contract, including but not limited to declaring the Vendor non-responsible or in material breach of the contract.

Section 9.02 Civil/Criminal Penalties

Additionally, violation of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics or a provision thereof may subject the Vendor to criminal or civil penalties under State or Federal law.

Chapter 10: REPORTING OBLIGATION

Section 10.01 Reporting Gift Requests

Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 4 above, the Vendor is obligated to immediately report to Nassau County's Inspector General and the County Chief Procurement Officer, any and all requests made to the Vendor by any Nassau County Employee for a Gift.

Section 10.02 Reporting Material Changes

The Vendor is under a continuing obligation to report any change in circumstances that materially affects any prior report to Nassau County to Department of Chief Contracting Officer, including but not limited to disclosure of conflicts of interest and representations made in the Contractor Responsibility Form.

Section 10.03 Reporting Violations and Overpayments

The Vendor is obligated to timely report in writing to Nassau County's Inspector General, in connection with the award, performance or closeout of the Nassau County contract or subcontract, any credible evidence of significant overpayments on the contract or that a principal, employee, agent or subcontractor has committed a violation of law involving fraud, conflict of interest, bribery or gratuities.

Chapter 11: PROHIBITION ON RETALIATION

Section 11.01 Prohibition

To facilitate the reporting obligations under Chapter 10, this code strictly forbids all Vendors and Vendors' Employees from taking any Retaliatory Action against individuals who make such reports.

Responsibility Determination Memo

DPW Summary Finding

It is the Department's opinion that based on the information known to the Department and summarized in this memorandum, that the vendor is a responsible contractor for the purpose of being awarded the above-referenced contracts.

NYS Standard for State and Municipal Contract Approval

Prior to the award of a contract, New York State agencies and political subdivisions, are required to make a determination of responsibility of the proposed vendor. State Finance Law §163 (9) (f); Highway Law §38; Public Building Law §8; General Municipal Law §103. General Municipal Law §103 requires the County to award contracts to a "responsible bidder" but does not define that term. However, the State Finance Law, which is the analogous law for contracting by New York State agencies, defines responsible as: "financial ability, legal capacity, integrity and past performance of a business entity and as such terms have been interpreted relative to public procurements." NY CLS St. Fin §163 (1) (c). This standard is equivalent to the standard applied to procurements pursuant to NYGML §103. Matter of AAA Caring & Rubbish Removal, Inc. v. Town of Southeast 17 N.Y. 3d 136 (2011)

The NY State Office of General Services employees the FLIP analysis -financial ability, legal capacity, integrity and past performance – to meet its obligation to make a responsibility determination.

Application of the FLIP test

As explained in this memorandum, the FLIP test, can be used to evaluate a vendor's responsibility.

1. Financial and Organizational Capacity
   The Department has reviewed materials supplied by vendor as required by the bid documents and is satisfied that the vendor has met the financial and organizational capacity as required by the bid documents.

2. Legal Authority
   Vendor is not debarred. Vendor possesses requisite licenses.

3. Integrity
   Vendor possesses requisite business integrity-analysis of vendor information described in later portion of this memorandum.

4. Past Performance
Based upon the vendor's prior performance on County contracts, as well as a check of vendor's reference, vendor is qualified to perform the work for the above-referenced contract.

Nassau County Procurement Policy Requirements

Similarly, the Nassau County Procurement Policy states that, "a vendor is deemed responsible to be awarded a contract when it has demonstrated that it has the integrity and capacity to perform the required services on behalf of the County." Nassau County Procurement Policy at Appendix E. Appendix E goes on to state that factors to consider in determining the responsibility of a vendor include: financial resources, organizational capacity, a satisfactory record of performance and a satisfactory record of business integrity - an analysis identical to the FLIP test.

For purposes of its consideration of responsibility, the County requires potential vendors to submit vendor disclosure forms. Those forms are used by the Department as a tool when conducting a vendor responsibility review with the intent of determining "if there exists any material adverse information impacting the vendor's capacity or integrity." Quoting Appendix E.

The following is quoted from Appendix E:

> For adverse information to be considered a factor in a vendor responsibility review, the information must be found to be material. Not all adverse information may be material. Materiality is greater for more recent events than for less recent ones, and materiality is greater for events concerning services more closely related to those required by the County than services that are less so. An event is considered most material when it concerns services equivalent or similar to those required by the County, has occurred recently, occurred in close geographic proximity to the County, and involves one or more individuals or organizational departments that may be involved in the conduct of the County contract. Also relevant in this assessment is whether the event involves a relatively large or small amount of money, services or product; whether the event involves a threat to life, health, safety, or property, whether criminality or possible criminality is involved; and the quantity of adverse information. In addition, any adverse information discovered by a department, which should have been, but was not disclosed by the vendor on the appropriate disclosure form(s) may be considered material.
> Examples of adverse information that may not be considered material include adverse social media posts or poor reviews of a company posted on the internet. In addition, adverse information that occurred and/or was resolved more than five years ago generally is not considered material, although once such information has been identified the department conducting the review should investigate whether any similar subsequent event(s) occurred that may be subject to further analysis or suggesting a concern regarding the vendor's corporate culture.
> A finding of nonresponsibility has significant implications for the vendor, since subsequent to that determination the vendor must disclose it in future solicitation responses to public entities. Therefore, the finding must be based upon evidence of a sufficiently severe failure of capacity and/or integrity on the part of the vendor. Any adverse information which is not deemed to be sufficient for a finding of nonresponsibility must be demonstrated by the vendor to have been addressed sufficiently through implementation of corrective actions and/or plans to ensure that the adverse event(s) shall not impact or recur during the conduct of the County contract under consideration. Corrective actions that may be considered in this regard include, but are not limited to, termination of the employee(s) involved, introduction of new policies and procedures, employee trainings, reorganization of the vendor's structure, introduction of new internal or external monitors, payment of all fines, satisfactory resolution of the matter by the investigating entity, etc.

Application of the Materiality Evaluation to Determine Vendor Integrity

As described in this memorandum, the Nassau County Procurement Policy at Appendix E identifies factors that should be considered when determining if the adverse information available about a vendor rises to level of materiality (vendor responsibility determination is dependent upon material information).

Vendor Adverse Information

Vendor reports two OSHA violations, one in 2022 and the other in 2024. Vendor reports that as a result of the incident in Texas, procedures and training were developed to prevent future incidents. Vendor is currently satisfactorily performing work on a large County wastewater construction project. The Department has concluded that the vendor is a responsible vendor for the performance of the scope of work in Contracts S35121-06G.

RE: OSHA Citations – Con-Strux

To whom it may concern,

In 2022, Con-Strux, received (2) OSHA violations, 1 serious and 1 other than serious from an investigation performed after a workplace incident.

As a result of the incident, site specific and equipment specific lock out tag out procedures were developed followed up by training of all personnel at Con-Strux facilities.

Thank you,

William LePage

RE: OSHA Citations

To whom it may concern,

In 2024, Posillico received (2) serious violations dated 11/14/24 and they were promptly disputed and contested upon receipt. Through a negotiation with OSHA, Posillico reached a settlement agreement to which (1) serious citation was removed completely and the other serious received was reduced to an "Other than Serious" severity, which was resolved through a settlement in which Posillico admitted no wrongdoing.

Thank you,

William LePage

Safety

"At Posillico, we believe that safety requires open communication, accountability, ownership, and a personal commitment by members of the organization. Nothing is more important than maintaining an injury and incident free workplace."
- Joseph K. Posillico, President/CEO, 2017

We strive to be the best in our business, and we have enjoyed success and sustainability due to the hard work and dedication of the people within our organization, who have been and continue to be our most valuable and important resource.

Our corporate health and safety program reflects our commitment to ensuring safe work sites and the safety of our workers and subcontractors. We work hard to ensure a safety culture that addresses and integrates safety into everything that we do. From pre-construction, through pre-planning and implementation, we believe that a well-trained, informed and aware organization translates into safe work and projects built on time and on budget.

We focus on preventing loss, incidents, and injuries before they occur, and we provide health and safety training and mentoring programs for all new employees and on-going training to our managers and crews. Regular training and constant reinforcement gives all of our employees the knowledge to identify and the authority to correct hazardous situations before accidents happen. Everyone working on our construction sites or in our facilities can hit the "Stop Button" when unsafe conditions exist.

We strive to continuously improve and impart best practices to all of our employees and subcontractors. Providing a safe working environment ensures that we will continue to set the standard for our industry.

Our dedicated employees are vigilant in training. They are aware of and apply basic safety principals. Teamwork and awareness make our construction sites and our people safe.

Posillico
We know how.

Posillico is New York's Premier Self-Performing General Contractor

Experience. Since 1946, we have been one of the leaders in the construction industry for the Tri-State area. From first breaking ground on the Long Island Expressway to foundation and environmental projects in Manhattan, we have been successful in mastering the complexities of New York construction.

Confidence. When the reputations of all those involved are on the line, we maintain a high-level of confidence - We know how to get the job done, especially in evolving environments. Our family of clients is confident of their project's success because they have prospered from our results in the past.

People. Experience and confidence define our team. We have the best people in the industry working together towards a common goal. From our project managers and engineers to foremen, key laborers, and support staff, every member of our team is highly qualified and work together as a team. The construction industry is challenging, complicated and demanding. Our qualified professionals possess the fundamental experience necessary to impart confidence that our client's projects will succeed.

Safety. When people are involved, safety is more important than just a slogan. We are committed to achieving top safety performance in our industry. Our people and projects both come home on time… safely.

We Embrace Complex Projects

Not only do we like the tough jobs, but we also excel at them. The key to our continued success is the seamless integration of our various business units. We offer a multi-disciplinary excellence – we thrive on value engineering innovative solutions for challenging projects. Our management approach allows us to gauge project complexity from the start and appropriately manage along the way.

In the construction industry, scopes continually change, and issues arise. Our collaborative effort is the key to getting complex projects completed safely, on time and on budget.

Civil - Private

Foundations
Subgrade to Sidewalk

A history of past success, exceeding expectations, confidence, industry relationships, and continuous communication are the keys to building award-winning belowground projects. Our ability to self-perform the majority of belowground work gives us a distinct advantage in controlling costs and meeting difficult schedules.

Our professional engineering staff has developed the necessary experience through our past experience in public sector projects to the private sector. We have the experience in building foundations and other structures in tight urban locations and around existing infrastructures, such as subways, railways, tunnels, and utilities.

We are committed to our private clients to ensure their projects move as quickly as possible to maximize their investment returns.

Our years of experience include the following services:

- Soil Excavation
- Rock Removal
- Design, Engineering and Construction of Support of Excavation and Underpinning Systems
- Deep Foundations
- Dewatering

Civil - Municipal

Innovation, Planning & Design-Build

Our "know how" is the hallmark of large complex civil projects. We have built our reputation on complex municipal projects by leveraging our diverse capabilities and utilizing our various divisions.

Our Team includes design engineers and valued subcontractors that work together on complex projects delivering cost-effective solutions while maintaining an aggressive schedule.

We successfully perform design-build projects with innovation, collaboration and teamwork. We have taken the lead in the design-build project delivery system on various government contracts. Most of these projects include the construction of complex infrastructure that required accelerated schedules delivered in tight timeframes to better the communities we serve. From the expansion of the Long Island Rail Road, to various road and bridge projects throughout the Tri-State region, we have been selected time and time again to partner with various design firms to achieve valued results.

Civil - Wastewater

Partnering & Planning

We provide creative solutions for complex wastewater projects in the New York metropolitan area. Our success over the past 70 years has been based on our commitment to professionalism, partnerships and becoming the thought leader in our industry. These qualities, as well as our experience, have helped us set today's standard in the wastewater industry.

We have worked with a multitude of regional government agencies on virtually all types of wastewater projects, each with their own challenges. Our success is attributable to understanding the special needs of each project, while offering innovative and value engineering options with a partnering approach. Detailed planning and safe execution are some of the key benefits we deliver to our clients.

Materials

Quality, Flexibility & Schedule

Our commitment to quality starts at our plants. We manage everything that goes on at our sites, including the materials we use. Our regional plants are leading materials handling facilities in the region, specializing in producing asphalt for our jobs and customers. By producing only as much material as required, we have the flexibility needed for complex construction projects.

With state-of-the-art facilities that provide the highest quality construction aggregates in the market, we guarantee the quality production and timely delivery to our clients. Our rail offloading expansion to our Farmingdale facility drastically improves aggregate delivery and reduces the impact of fuel, tolls, and other trucking costs.

- Hot Mix Asphalt
- Recycled Asphalt Pavement (RAP)
- Stone, Sand, Clean Fill
- Recycling-Concrete/ Brick/Clean Fill/ Asphalt
- Recycling of Contaminated Soils

Environmental

Remediating Industrial Contamination for a Greener Future

It is a fact: the New York metropolitan area is running out of greenfield properties. Most construction and development projects in the future are likely to require some level of environmental remediation. In 1991, we recognized these changes and have been at the forefront of this new direction in construction. Converting unusable land into a highly desirable property is complicated. Environmental remediation demands expertise.

We have become an expert in environmental remediation by using both industry standards as well as developing our own site-specific techniques. No single function is more important to construction today. No company integrates Environmental with Civil better than us.

- Efficient Delivery of New Infrastructure in Contaminated Environments
- Qualified Expertise in Treatment Systems for Large Scale Clean-Ups
- Experts in Soil and Contaminant Stabilization and Applications for Various Redevelopments
- Wetland Restorations and Storm Water Systems to Improve Water Quality

Paving

Experience & Latest Technology

We believe, that over 45 years of paving qualifies us as experts. Since 1971, we have been providing top quality paving services throughout the Tri-State area. From resurfacing most of Long Island's main thoroughfares including the Long Island Expressway, to paving commercial parking lots, our knowledge and experience in paving are the keys to our success.

We not only break ground to maintain our country's infrastructure, but we break ground in new technology. The quality and workmanship of our Paving division is at the forefront of the industry. Our equipment is constantly updated with the newest and latest technology including intelligent compaction for density and 3D GPS systems for our pavers.

- Highways
- Airport Runways
- Municipal Roadways

Drilling

Integrated Engineered Solutions

We have been installing foundation support systems for over 40 years. Starting with innovative vibration hammer techniques in 1970, we have always strived for obtaining, understanding, and perfecting the latest technology. Our forward-thinking mindset combined with a staff of talented professional engineers and managers enables us to solve complex foundation problems that our competitors cannot.

- Steel Sheet Piling
- Drilled CFA Piles
- Mini/Micropiles
- Deep Soil Mixing

Utilities

Safety, Schedule & Skill Set

We are a full-service utility contractor in the natural gas transmission and distribution industry as well as the telecommunications industry. Our experienced team focuses on delivering cost-effective solutions, bringing projects in safely, on time, and on budget.

Our repeat client base is built on an experienced management team with specific skill sets working throughout the natural gas and telecommunications industries. Our team can handle the challenges and obstacles by focusing on industry-specific tasks. The knowledge gained from each project helps us reduce costs in the future with better planning and awareness of what challenges may arise.

Affiliations and Certifications: Members of the Northeast Gas Association (NGA), our employees are OSHA certified, confined space trained, and Gas Operator Qualified through the NGA and Con Edison.

- Electrical Infrastructure
- Telecommunications
- Natural Gas Main/Services/Leaks

Development & Consulting

Concept to Concrete

Brownfield sites, waterfront revitalization, and energy efficient housing—we have done it all. As part of our commitment to improving life in the Tri-State region, we have put environmentally compromised land to productive reuse instead of developing on untouched land.

As a developer, we are able to take advantage of all of our business units to solve complex construction problems. Our various business units merge to provide a seasoned line-up of experts, who get the job done safely, on time and on budget.

We also offer the following consulting services:

- Evaluation of Critical Infrastructure
- Permit Management
- Pre-construction 3D Scanning
- Environmental Strategies
- Owner Representation and Project Management

History & Culture

The Posillico Family

For four generations, Posillico has combined an ironclad commitment to quality and performance with an unequaled family work ethic, making the company a leader in public and private work projects.

Incorporated in 1946 under the presidency of Joseph D. Posillico, Sr. as a small trucking contractor, with five employees, the company has grown to become one of the top construction firms in New York. We serve the entire Tri-State area and employ hundreds of people.

The culture of the company has been of great importance from the beginning. The natural "family" atmosphere that Posillico began with has extended to incorporate all those who choose to work here. Many of our employees have been with us for 30 or 40 years and some families are on their 3rd generation.

1940s

Construction of suburbia on Long Island. J.D. Posillico, Inc. hauls brick for new homes for returning GI's.

MILESTONES

- January 30, 1946: J.D. Posillico, Inc. is started by Joseph D. Posillico, Sr., Americo Posillico and Virginia Seeley.

1950s

J.D. Posillico, Inc. expands with providing subcontractor site construction services for residential developments.

MILESTONES

- Dominic and Mario Posillico join the firm in 1956.
- Dominic Posillico heads the estimating and engineering departments. He is instrumental in developing an innovative steel sheeting system for the installation of deep drainage and sewer systems.

1960s

J.D. Posillico, Inc. expands subcontracting capacity for new roads and schools being built for the first baby boomers.

MILESTONES

- Mario A. Posillico returns in 1960—after three years in the U.S. Navy—and begins reshaping the company into a major general contractor. He is instrumental in promoting public works projects for local and state governments.
- 1963 Charles Gargano, P.E. joins the firm, transforming J.D. Posillico, Inc. field operations into one of the best on Long Island.
- Joseph D. Posillico, Jr. joins the firm in 1965 and guides the company expansion into the asphalt business and the installation of deep drainage and sewer systems.

1970s

J.D. Posillico, Inc. becomes a general contractor performing bridgework, roadwork and becomes a major builder of sewer infrastructure for Nassau and Suffolk Counties.

MILESTONES

- 1971 Posillico Bros. Asphalt Co. is formed and the plant is erected in Farmingdale, NY.
- J.D. Posillico, Inc. innovatively implements the use of vibratory steel sheeting and large scale dewatering for sewer programs in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, saving millions of taxpayer dollars.
- J.D. Posillico, Inc. completes over $500 million in sewer infrastructure.

1980s

J.D. Posillico, Inc. and Posillico Bros. Asphalt Co. expand their capacity in road and bridge construction during NYSDOT major highway and bridge reconstruction programs. J.D. Posillico, Inc. performs major Long Island landfill closures.

MILESTONES

- J.D. Posillico, Inc. focuses on major New York State road construction and bridge initiatives.
- J.D. Posillico, Inc. initiates construction on the Meadowbrook and Northern State Parkways.
- Construction of the Nassau Expressway.
- Major rehabilitation of the Southern State Parkway.
- Joseph D. Posillico, Sr., Dominic Posillico and Virginia Seeley retire.
- Charles Gargano leaves for government service.
- Third generation of Posillico family completes engineering degrees and begins reshaping the future of Posillico.

1990s

Posillico Bros. Asphalt Co., LLC and Blue Water Environmental, Inc. team up to develop innovative soil and asphalt recycling technologies in response to limited disposal space created by the push to close Long Island landfills.

MILESTONES

- 1991 Blue Water Environmental, Inc. is formed.
- 1992 J.D. Posillico, Inc. constructs the first HOV project on the Long Island Expressway.
- 1992 Posillico Bros. Asphalt Co., LLC receives one of New York State's first petroleum contaminated soil recycling permits.
- 1996 J.D. Posillico, Inc. celebrates 50 years in business.

2000s

Faced with new challenges of an aging suburbia, Posillico looks to develop an integrated construction approach to solving regional transportation, environmental and developmental problems.

MILESTONES

- Posillico's corporate office relocates, providing nearly 20,000 sq. ft. state-of-the art office and training space.
- Posillico Civil, Inc. wins a $360 million JV project with Tully Construction to reconstruct the Belt Pkwy.
- Posillico Development, LLC embarks on its first "Brownfield Project."
- J.D. Posillico, Inc. completes last two HOV expansion projects capping a $600+ million portion of a $1 billion HOV construction program.
- Leadership and project management training is implemented to elevate standards of excellence across all business units.
- Business units unite within one organization, one brand, "Posillico."

BEST VALUE PRACTICES

Posillico is experienced in partnering for Design-Build (DB) success. We promote quality through continuous improvement and innovation during all stages of design and construction. We pride ourselves in Employing Design-Build Principles of Partnering: design excellence, integrated project delivery and cohesive organizational development that allows our DB Team to maximize benefits and optimize solutions for public and private owners; for all stakeholders.

Our specialized proven procedures, methodology and management systems have been successful since our completion of Long Island's first NYSDOT DB Project in 2006. This project won multiple awards for partnering (Accelerated Bridge Project DB 2014 Project of the Year Award from ASCE LI and the 2013 Excellence in Partnering Award from AGC NYS). In the twelve years since, we have been awarded 10 DB Projects (from multiple owners) with a total value exceeding over $660 Million dollars. Several of these projects have also received awards, including the 2017 Jeffrey J. Zogg Build New York Award for DB Services for Wellwood Avenue over Route 27 and the 2017 ASCE LI DB Project of the Year Award for DB Services for the New Second Track on Main Line Ronkonkoma Branch, Phase I, as well as multiple other ACE Industry awards.

Posillico provides an unparalleled commitment to project quality assurance/quality control from executive leadership, through to management and all levels of project delivery. Our detailed QA/QC procedures have been applied successfully to a large number of complex projects including many owned by the NYSDOT, MTA, LIRR, and NYCT.

Critical to DB, Posillico's Health and Safety Department has established and maintained a safe working environment through training, communication, and execution. They continually support the education, training, and assessment of activities that are required to help us identify and eliminate health and safety risks.

Posillico facilitates best-value DB project delivery by creating a unified flow of work through organizational development, stakeholder collaboration and optimizing benefits and solutions for public and private owners. Our cost-effective solutions maximize the lifetime of those critical public and private infrastructure projects:

- Bridges
- Roadways
- Structural (Drilling & Excavation)
- Transit
- Waste Water

Posillico has a stalwart commitment to project success. Our record of communicating with all stakeholders in a cooperative and functional manner has resulted in seventy-two years of delivering many large and highly complex civil construction projects safely, on-time and within budget to public agencies and private owners in the Greater NYC Metro Area. Posillico's home offices are in Farmingdale, however, we also have offices and a yard in College Point, and an office in Valley Cottage where we offer commercial, industrial, and municipal underground utility services. Posillico also has offices and resources in Jersey City and Prospect Park, New Jersey.

Posillico is dedicated to setting the standard for excellence in the construction industry relative to: infrastructure, environment, quality of life, and making a difference through innovation and solid relationships at all levels. We Know How to solve complex construction problems, completing all projects safely, on time, on target, and on budget.

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN-BUILD

Vision - Mission - Core Values

Vision*: To be the employer and organization of choice in each of the markets we serve.
Mission*: Posillico is the company which knows how to solve complex construction problems, completing all projects safely, on time, on target, and on budget.
Core Values*: All of our employees, in each of our companies, are expected to demonstrate the following core values in each of their daily interactions with others, inside and outside of the company:

Caring and Committed Mature and Self-Disciplined
Open Minded and Teachable Ethical Accountable
Innovative/Collaborative

Best Practices*

Posillico prides itself on industry education and best practices. Many of our DB Team members are DBIA Certified Professionals dedicated to maintaining our relevance in the market.

1. All Design-Build Team members should be educated and trained in the Design-Build process, and be knowledgeable of the differences between Design-Build and other delivery systems.
2. The DB Team should establish logistics and infrastructure to support integrated project delivery.
3. The DB Team, at the outset of the project, should establish processes to facilitate timely and effective communication, collaboration, and issue resolution.
4. The DB Team should focus on the design management and commissioning/turnover processes and ensure that there is alignment among the team as to how to execute these processes.

Design-Build Institute of America, 2014

Community Outreach

Community outreach and communication avenues provide stakeholders with the opportunity to communicate their concerns and interests and are key to a project's success. Obtaining feedback from and initiating a two-way dialogue with stakeholders before construction begins and through project completion is crucial to working with the community and reducing the risk of costly delays from community contention or negative press. These stakeholders include, but are not limited to, civic groups, emergency services, unions, local businesses, and Minority (MBE), Women (WBE), Disadvantaged (DBE), and Service Disabled Veteran (SDVOB) Owned Businesses.

Safety

Together Employees Accomplish More. Health and safety of the local communities and our workers is our highest priority.
Posillico works hard to maintain its safety culture and outstanding record of accomplishment. Our project supervisors are keenly aware of the discipline required to perform high profile projects in a low profile, non-disruptive manner, safely and on time. Our program begins with the notion that safety begins with teamwork.

Accelerated Bridge Replacement

Rehabilitation of six bridges at various locations in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. Each project site included complete bridge deck replacement, new bridge sidewalks and railing, approach slabs, bridge joints, and repairs to the bearings and pedestals. This was a design-build project, selected by best-value combining price and technical approach.

Ronkonkoma Branch Second Track, Phase I

Installation of a second track running parallel to the existing Ronkonkoma Branch rail from Ronkonkoma Station to a point west of the Central Islip Station, a total of 5.5 miles. Construction operations included building of modular block and soldier pile with panel retaining walls, grading, placing and compacting sub-ballast, relocating a pedestrian bridge, and rebuilding four grade crossings to create the roadway for the second track.

Ellison Avenue Bridge Replacement

The team coordinated and executed a complete bridge replacement in a residential community, which required close coordination with the Village of Westbury and adequate advanced notification to residents affected by construction. Work was planned on weekdays during daytime hours to minimize impact to adjacent residences with only two LIRR weekend track outages.

Ronkonkoma Branch Second Track, Phase II

Construction of a second track from Central Islip to Farmingdale Station including the building of retaining walls and grading for track bed and installation of cable troughs for the placement of LIRR signal cables and wiring. Work was completed in an accelerated 17 month schedule allowing for the placement of the new second track to be completed by fall 2018.

NY Route 347, Phase I

Project to rehabilitate a mile of Route 347 and add an additional lane in each direction. Work included new drainage, sound walls, median barrier, landscaping, and paving. This project has improved safety and mobility by transforming Route 347 into a greenway for Evergreen Status through the NYSDOT GreenLites program.

Wreck Lead Submarine Cable Replacement

Project involved the replacement of power, signal and communications submarine cables located across Reynolds Channel between Long Beach and Island Park. Restoration was necessary as a direct result of damage caused to LIRR's infrastructure from Superstorm Sandy. The Long Beach branch was one of the four key areas on LIRR's property severely damaged by the storm.

NY Route 347, Phase III

Improvements & reconstruction of Rte 347 from Terry Road to Gibbs Pond Road including highway widening to 3 lanes in each direction, raised landscaped medians, continuous sidewalks along the north side and a shared use path for bicycles and pedestrians along the south side. Other rehabilitations include pavement reconstruction, a positive drainage system, landscaping, bus shelters and utility relocations.

Wellwood Avenue Bridge over Route 27

This project provided for the replacement of the aluminum bridge on Wellwood Avenue over Route 27, an experimental bridge built over 50 years ago. The four-span aluminum bridge was replaced with a two-span adjacent prestressed box beam bridge supported on concrete stub abutments behind mechanically stabilized earth system walls and a concrete stem pier.

Posillico
We know how.

Posillico is New York's Premier Self-Performing General Contractor

Experience. Since 1946, we have been one of the leaders in the construction industry for the Tri-State area. From first breaking ground on the Long Island Expressway to foundation and environmental projects in Manhattan, we have been successful in mastering the complexities of New York construction.

Confidence. When the reputations of all those involved are on the line, we maintain a high-level of confidence - We know how to get the job done, especially in evolving environments. Our family of clients is confident of their project's success because they have prospered from our results in the past.

People. Experience and confidence define our team. We have the best people in the industry working together towards a common goal. From our project managers and engineers to foremen, key laborers, and support staff, every member of our team is highly qualified and work together as a team. The construction industry is challenging, complicated and demanding. Our qualified professionals possess the fundamental experience necessary to impart confidence that our client's projects will succeed.

Safety. When people are involved, safety is more important than just a slogan. We are committed to achieving top safety performance in our industry. Our people and projects both come home on time… safely.

We Embrace Complex Projects

Not only do we like the tough jobs, but we also excel at them. The key to our continued success is the seamless integration of our various business units. We offer a multi-disciplinary excellence – we thrive on value engineering innovative solutions for challenging projects. Our management approach allows us to gauge project complexity from the start and appropriately manage along the way.

In the construction industry, scopes continually change, and issues arise. Our collaborative effort is the key to getting complex projects completed safely, on time and on budget.

Civil - Private

Foundations
Subgrade to Sidewalk

A history of past success, exceeding expectations, confidence, industry relationships, and continuous communication are the keys to building award-winning belowground projects. Our ability to self-perform the majority of belowground work gives us a distinct advantage in controlling costs and meeting difficult schedules.

Our professional engineering staff has developed the necessary experience through our past experience in public sector projects to the private sector. We have the experience in building foundations and other structures in tight urban locations and around existing infrastructures, such as subways, railways, tunnels, and utilities.

We are committed to our private clients to ensure their projects move as quickly as possible to maximize their investment returns.

Our years of experience include the following services:

- Soil Excavation
- Rock Removal
- Design, Engineering and Construction of Support of Excavation and Underpinning Systems
- Deep Foundations
- Dewatering

Civil - Municipal

Innovation, Planning & Design-Build

Our "know how" is the hallmark of large complex civil projects. We have built our reputation on complex municipal projects by leveraging our diverse capabilities and utilizing our various divisions.

Our Team includes design engineers and valued subcontractors that work together on complex projects delivering cost-effective solutions while maintaining an aggressive schedule.

We successfully perform design-build projects with innovation, collaboration and teamwork. We have taken the lead in the design-build project delivery system on various government contracts. Most of these projects include the construction of complex infrastructure that required accelerated schedules delivered in tight timeframes to better the communities we serve. From the expansion of the Long Island Rail Road, to various road and bridge projects throughout the Tri-State region, we have been selected time and time again to partner with various design firms to achieve valued results.

Partnering & Planning

We provide creative solutions for complex wastewater projects in the New York metropolitan area. Our success over the past 70 years has been based on our commitment to professionalism, partnerships and becoming the thought leader in our industry. These qualities, as well as our experience, have helped us set today's standard in the wastewater industry.

We have worked with a multitude of regional government agencies on virtually all types of wastewater projects, each with their own challenges. Our success is attributable to understanding the special needs of each project, while offering innovative and value engineering options with a partnering approach. Detailed planning and safe execution are some of the key benefits we deliver to our clients.

- Wastewater Treatment Plants
- Pump Stations
- Sanitary Support Buildings and Equipment
- Force Mains and Sanitary Piping

Materials

Quality, Flexibility & Schedule

Our commitment to quality starts at our plants. We manage everything that goes on at our sites, including the materials we use. Our regional plants are leading materials handling facilities in the region, specializing in producing asphalt for our jobs and customers. By producing only as much material as required, we have the flexibility needed for complex construction projects.

With state-of-the-art facilities that provide the highest quality construction aggregates in the market, we guarantee the quality production and timely delivery to our clients. Our rail offloading expansion to our Farmingdale facility drastically improves aggregate delivery and reduces the impact of fuel, tolls, and other trucking costs.

- Hot Mix Asphalt
- Recycled Asphalt Pavement (RAP)
- Stone, Sand, Clean Fill
- Recycling-Concrete/ Brick/Clean Fill/ Asphalt
- Recycling of Contaminated Soils

Environmental

Remediating Industrial Contamination for a Greener Future

It is a fact: the New York metropolitan area is running out of greenfield properties. Most construction and development projects in the future are likely to require some level of environmental remediation. In 1991, we recognized these changes and have been at the forefront of this new direction in construction. Converting unusable land into a highly desirable property is complicated. Environmental remediation demands expertise.

We have become an expert in environmental remediation by using both industry standards as well as developing our own site-specific techniques. No single function is more important to construction today. No company integrates Environmental with Civil better than us.

- Efficient Delivery of New Infrastructure in Contaminated Environments
- Qualified Expertise in Treatment Systems for Large Scale Clean-Ups
- Experts in Soil and Contaminant Stabilization and Applications for Various Redevelopments
- Wetland Restorations and Storm Water Systems to Improve Water Quality

Paving

Experience & Latest Technology

We believe, that over 45 years of paving qualifies us as experts. Since 1971, we have been providing top quality paving services throughout the Tri-State area. From resurfacing most of Long Island's main thoroughfares including the Long Island Expressway, to paving commercial parking lots, our knowledge and experience in paving are the keys to our success.

We not only break ground to maintain our country's infrastructure, but we break ground in new technology. The quality and workmanship of our Paving division is at the forefront of the industry. Our equipment is constantly updated with the newest and latest technology including intelligent compaction for density and 3D GPS systems for our pavers.

- Highways
- Airport Runways
- Municipal Roadways
- Parking Lots

Drilling

Integrated Engineered Solutions

We have been installing foundation support systems for over 40 years. Starting with innovative vibration hammer techniques in 1970, we have always strived for obtaining, understanding, and perfecting the latest technology. Our forward-thinking mindset combined with a staff of talented professional engineers and managers enables us to solve complex foundation problems that our competitors cannot.

- Steel Sheet Piling
- Drilled CFA Piles
- Mini/Micropiles
- Deep Soil Mixing
- Slurry Walls
- Timber Piles
- Underpinning
- Tie-backs
- Driven H Piles
- Drilled Caissons
- Marine Bulkheads
- Noise Wall Foundations
- Low Vibration Applications

Utilities

Safety, Schedule & Skill Set

We are a full-service utility contractor in the natural gas transmission and distribution industry as well as the telecommunications industry. Our experienced team focuses on delivering cost-effective solutions, bringing projects in safely, on time, and on budget.

Our repeat client base is built on an experienced management team with specific skill sets working throughout the natural gas and telecommunications industries. Our team can handle the challenges and obstacles by focusing on industry-specific tasks. The knowledge gained from each project helps us reduce costs in the future with better planning and awareness of what challenges may arise.

Affiliations and Certifications: Members of the Northeast Gas Association (NGA), our employees are OSHA certified, confined space trained, and Gas Operator Qualified through the NGA and Con Edison.

- Electrical Infrastructure
- Telecommunications
- Natural Gas Main/Services/Leaks

Development & Consulting

Concept to Concrete

Brownfield sites, waterfront revitalization, and energy efficient housing—we have done it all. As part of our commitment to improving life in the Tri-State region, we have put environmentally compromised land to productive reuse instead of developing on untouched land.

As a developer, we are able to take advantage of all of our business units to solve complex construction problems. Our various business units merge to provide a seasoned line-up of experts, who get the job done safely, on time and on budget.

We also offer the following consulting services:

- Evaluation of Critical Infrastructure
- Permit Management
- Pre-construction 3D Scanning
- Environmental Strategies
- Owner Representation and Project Management

This is what makes us different.
This is what makes us Posillico.

History & Culture

The Posillico Family

For four generations, Posillico has combined an ironclad commitment to quality and performance with an unequaled family work ethic, making the company a leader in public and private work projects.

Incorporated in 1946 under the presidency of Joseph D. Posillico, Sr. as a small trucking contractor, with five employees, the company has grown to become one of the top construction firms in New York. We serve the entire Tri-State area and employ hundreds of people.

The culture of the company has been of great importance from the beginning. The natural "family" atmosphere that Posillico began with has extended to incorporate all those who choose to work here. Many of our employees have been with us for 30 or 40 years and some families are on their 3rd generation.

1940s

Posillico has grown over the years through its sound operations and well-known reputation. This has made us a stronger and a more reliable company that is able to sustain fluctuations in market conditions. By focusing our unique corporate entities under Posillico, we can better serve our clients by providing a complete range of services for all their needs.

Posillico is ready to seize the opportunities that will build well-defined infrastructures, preserve the environment, and improve the quality of life where we live.

Joseph K. Posillico, Chief Executive Officer and President

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

This Employee Handbook is designed to acquaint you with Posillico Inc. and its integrated companies, divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, entities, joint ventures, partnerships, including but not limited to P. Park, UHPC Solutions and Southern Border Constructors (collectively referred to as "Posillico", "Employer" or "Company") and to provide you with information about our environment, Employee benefits, and some of the policies affecting your employment. It describes many of your responsibilities as an Employee and outlines programs developed by Posillico to benefit our Employees. One of our objectives is to provide a work environment that is conducive to both personal and professional growth. You should read, understand, and comply with all lawful provisions of the Employee Handbook.

This Employee Handbook is only considered a source of reference. Neither this Employee Handbook nor any communication by a management representative is intended to create an employment contract, bargain, or agreement, or a contractual obligation of any kind between any Posillico member and its Employees. The need may arise from time to time to change, add to, or rescind the policies, or benefits described in this Employee Handbook as well as other Posillico guidelines, policies, or working conditions. Therefore, Posillico and its plan administrators, if applicable, shall have the maximum discretion permitted by law to revise, supplement, or rescind any policies, benefits or any portion of this Employee Handbook as the organization deems appropriate, in their sole and absolute discretion, without notice, although an effort may be made to advise Employees of changes as they occur. Nothing in this Employee Handbook should be construed as a promise of specific treatment in any specific situation upon which an Employee should rely.

Neither the Employee nor Posillico is bound to continue the employment relationship for any specific period of time. Employees are employed with Posillico at-will, which means they may end their employment relationship with Posillico at any time for any reason. Likewise, Posillico may end its employment relationship with an Employee at any time, for any reason. Only the Chief Executive Officer or the Board of Directors of Posillico can approve any exceptions to the standard at-will employment relationship or provide any Employee, individually or on a collective basis, with an employment contract or special arrangement concerning the terms or conditions of employment, and such exceptions or contracts/arrangements must be set forth in a written document.

For Employees represented by a labor organization whose terms and conditions of employment are covered under a collective bargaining agreement, if there are any conflicts between the terms of this Employee Handbook and the applicable collective bargaining agreement, the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

This notice applies to all Employees regardless of date of hire.

100 EMPLOYMENT

110 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EEO)

Posillico is committed to providing equal employment opportunity for all persons regardless of race, color, religion, creed, national origin, citizenship status, ancestry, sex, gender identity and expression, age, disability, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, veteran status, genetic information or any other protected characteristic under applicable federal, state, or local law.

Equal opportunity extends to all aspects of the employment relationship, including hiring, transfers, promotions, training, terminations, working conditions, compensation, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment.

Some examples of conduct that might be considered harassment include ethnic slurs, racist jokes, pornographic e-mail, unwelcome touching, display of offensive pictures, or any other verbal or physical conduct based on a protected characteristic under applicable federal, state, or local law that has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment. Posillico considers harassment in all forms to be a serious offense.

We will endeavor to make a reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of qualified Employees with disabilities, without regard to any protected classifications, unless the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of our business. Any Employee who needs assistance to perform his or her job duties because of a physical or mental condition should contact Human Resources.

Employees who have been subject to prohibited discrimination or harassment should immediately report the incident in accordance with the Company's Sexual and Other Harassment policy.

To ensure our workplace is free of artificial barriers, violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. We will not allow any form of retaliation against Employees who raise issues of equal employment opportunity.

115 DIVERSITY EQUITY AND INCLUSION

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion is directly aligned with Posillico's core values. We are dedicated to the promotion of DE&I and prioritize the importance of inclusivity within our workplace and community. As an organization, we expect all employees to exhibit empathy and treat one another with the highest levels of respect. We will not accept or tolerate anything less. We are all responsible for fostering an inclusive atmosphere in which employees of diverse backgrounds are comfortable in the workplace.

Posillico's DE&I Mission Statement: Posillico values respect, diversity, inclusion, and equality. We are committed to cultivating an inclusive environment in which we embrace diversity across the organization and community.

120 ANTI-HARASSMENT INCLUDING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Policy Statement

Posillico Civil, Inc. and all current and former parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related companies, partnerships, and/or joint ventures, and, with respect to each of them, their predecessors and successors (collectively, the "Company") is committed to maintaining a workplace free of unlawful harassment. The Company strictly prohibits and does not tolerate unlawful harassment against employees, interns, whether paid or unpaid, independent contractors, volunteers, customer, client, vendor, or other third party or any other covered persons because of race, color, religion, creed, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender, gender identity or expression (including status as a transgender individual), age, sexual orientation (including actual or perceived heterosexuality, homosexuality, bisexuality, and asexuality), physical or mental disability (including gender dysphoria and similar gender-related conditions), citizenship, genetic information or predisposing genetic characteristics, marital status, familial status, domestic violence victim status, military status, including past, current, or prospective service in the uniformed services, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal, New York, or local law. This policy is one component of the Company's commitment to a discrimination-free work environment.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT DEFINED

Sexual harassment is considered a form of employee misconduct. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against individuals engaging in sexual harassment and against supervisory and managerial personnel who knowingly allow such behavior to continue.

Sexual harassment means any harassment based on someone's sex, gender, sexual orientation, sexual identity, transgender status (including pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions), or gender expression. Sexual harassment can occur between any individuals, regardless of their sex or gender. Sexual harassment includes unwelcome conduct which is either of a sexual nature or which is directed at an individual because of that individuals' sex or gender when:

- Submission to that conduct or those advances or requests is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; or
- Submission to or rejection of the conduct or advances or requests by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the individual; or
- The conduct or advances or requests have the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment, even if the individual is not the intended target.

Sexual harassment can be verbal (e.g., jokes, insults, gestures or teasing), visual (e.g., offensive posters, symbols, cartoons, drawings, computer displays, text messages, social media posts or e-mails) or physical conduct (e.g., unwanted touching, physically threatening another) that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion towards an individual based on sex or gender, gender identity, gender expression and/or sexual orientation.

Examples of conduct that violate this policy include:

- unwelcome sexual advances, flirtations, advances, leering, whistling, touching, pinching, assault, blocking normal movement
- requests for sexual favors or demands for sexual favors in exchange for favorable treatment
- obscene or vulgar gestures, posters, or comments
- sexual jokes, noises, or comments about a person's body, sexual prowess, sexuality, sexual experience, or sexual deficiencies
- propositions, or suggestive or insulting comments of a sexual nature
- derogatory cartoons, posters, and drawings
- sexually-explicit e-mails, text messages, posts or voicemails
- conversation about one's own or someone else's sex life
- conduct or comments consistently targeted at only one gender, even if the content is not sexual
- teasing or other conduct directed toward a person because of the person's gender
- sex stereotyping

The above list is illustrative only, and not exhaustive. No form of sexual harassment will be tolerated.

Sexual harassment and all other forms of harassment are prohibited both at the workplace and outside the workplace, for example at Company-sponsored events.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT COMPLAINT AND REPORTING PROCEDURE

Any employee, intern, independent contractor, or non-employee who has been subjected to behavior that may constitute sexual harassment, or witnesses behavior that may constitute sexual harassment, is encouraged to promptly speak to, write, email, or otherwise contact your direct supervisor or, if the conduct involves your direct supervisor, the next level above your direct supervisor and/or Lisa Dippel, VP, Human Resources, or any member of management with whom the employee feels comfortable, ideally within ten (10) days of the offending conduct. Every supervisor who learns of any employee's concern about conduct in violation of this policy, whether in a formal complaint or informally, must immediately report the issues raised to Lisa Dippel, VP, Human Resources. If you have not received a satisfactory response within five (5) days after reporting any incident of what you perceive to be harassment, please contact Joseph K. Posillico, President & CEO, immediately.

Reports of sexual harassment may be made verbally or in writing. To submit a written complaint of sexual harassment, employees are encouraged to use a Company complaint form which is attached hereto and can be found on the Company Intranet.

The Company is committed to enforcing this policy against all forms of harassment, including sexual harassment. However, the effectiveness of our efforts depends largely on employees telling us about inappropriate workplace conduct. If employees feel that they or someone else may have been subjected to conduct that violates this policy, they should report it immediately. If employees do not report sexually harassing or other harassing conduct, the Company may not become aware of a possible violation of this policy and may not be able to take appropriate corrective action.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE

The Company takes all complaints of harassment seriously. The Company will promptly and thoroughly investigate the facts and circumstances of all complaints of sexual and other harassment, whether the complaint was made verbally or in writing. Any employee may be required to cooperate as needed in an investigation of suspected sexual or other harassment. All persons involved, including complainants, witnesses, and alleged harassers, will be accorded due process to protect their rights to a fair and impartial investigation. The investigation will be kept confidential to the greatest extent possible, consistent with conducting a thorough and fair investigation.

While the investigation process may vary from case to case, the Company generally investigates as follows:

- The Company will interview the complainant and the accused, conduct further interviews as necessary, and review documents or other information the investigator believes are relevant.

- Upon completion of the investigation, the Company will determine whether this policy has been violated based upon its reasonable, good-faith evaluation of the information gathered during the investigation. The Company will inform the complainant and the accused of the results of the investigation.

Any employee found to have engaged in conduct in violation of this policy will be considered to have engaged in employee misconduct. Individuals who violate this policy (which includes supervisory or management personnel who fail to report or knowingly allow sexually harassing behavior to continue) will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination from employment. Individuals who engage in conduct that rises to the level of a violation of law can be held personally liable for such conduct.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT ALTERNATIVE REPORTING AND REMEDIES

The Company encourages employees to report incidents of sexual harassment internally. However, employees who believe they have been subjected to sexual harassment in the workplace also may seek relief by:

New York State Division of Human Rights (DHR) – The DHR enforces the New York State Human Rights Law (HRL), codified as N.Y. Executive Law, art. 15, § 290 et seq., which protects employees, paid or unpaid interns and non-employees regardless of immigration status from unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation. The DHR has the power to award relief, which varies but may include requiring an employer to take action to stop the harassment, or redress the damage caused, including paying monetary damages, attorney's fees and civil fines. DHR's main office contact information is:

Local jurisdictions may have additional protections against sexual harassment and discrimination. Employees can contact the county, city or town in which they live to find out if such a law exists.

Nassau County: Employees who work in Nassau County can file complaints of sexual harassment with the Nassau County Commission on Human Rights (240 Old Country Road, 6th Floor, Suite 606, Mineola, NY 11501; 516-571-3662; www.nassaucountyny.gov/414/Human-Rights-Commission).

Suffolk County: Employees who work in Suffolk County can file complaints of sexual harassment with the Suffolk County Human Rights Commission H. Lee Dennison Building, 100 Veterans Memorial Hwy, third Floor, Hauppauge, NY 11788; 631-853-5480; www.suffolkcountyny.gov/Departments/HumanRightsCommission.aspx).]

New York City: Employees who work in New York City (including any of the five boroughs) can file complaints of sexual harassment with the New York City Commission on Human Rights. It has a physical location in each of the five boroughs. The Manhattan location is located at 22 Reade Street, First Floor, New York, NY 10007; 212-306-7450; https://www1.nyc.gov/site/cchr/index.page).

If the harassment involves unwanted physical touching, coerced physical confinement or coerced sex acts, the conduct may constitute a crime. Contact the local police department or, in an emergency, dial 911.

OTHER TYPES OF HARASSMENT

The Company's anti-harassment policy applies equally to harassment based on an employee's race, color, religion, creed, national origin, ancestry, age, physical or mental disability, citizenship, genetic information or predisposing genetic characteristics, marital status, familial status, domestic violence victim status, actual or perceived sexual orientation, military status, including past, present, or prospective service in the uniformed services, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal, state, or local law.

Such harassment often takes a similar form to sexual harassment and includes harassment that is:

- Verbal (for example, epithets, derogatory statements, slurs, derogatory comments, or jokes).
- Physical (for example, assault or other inappropriate physical contact).
- Visual (for example, displaying derogatory posters, cartoons, or drawings, or making derogatory gestures).
- Online (for example, derogatory statements or suggestive postings in any social media platform including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, etc.).

This list is illustrative only, and not exhaustive. No form of harassment will be tolerated. Harassment is prohibited both at the workplace and at employer-sponsored events.

HARASSMENT COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If you are subjected to any conduct that you believe violates this policy or witness any such conduct, you must promptly speak to, write, email, or otherwise contact your direct supervisor or, if the conduct involves your direct supervisor, the next level above your direct supervisor and/or Lisa Dippel, VP, Human Resources, or any member of management with whom the employee feels comfortable, ideally within ten (10) days of the offending conduct. Every supervisor who learns of any employee's concern about conduct in violation of this policy, whether in a formal complaint or informally, must immediately report the issues raised to Lisa Dippel, VP, Human Resources. If you have not received a satisfactory response within five (5) days after reporting any incident of what you perceive to be harassment, please immediately contact Joseph K. Posillico, President & CEO, immediately.

Your complaint should be as detailed as possible, including the names of all individuals involved and any witnesses. The Company will directly and thoroughly investigate the facts and circumstances of all claims of perceived harassment and will take prompt corrective action, if appropriate.
Additionally, any manager or supervisor who observes harassing conduct must report the conduct to Lisa Dippel, VP, Human Resources so that an investigation can be made and corrective action taken, if appropriate.

Reports of harassment may be made verbally or in writing. To submit a written complaint of harassment, employees are encouraged to use a Company complaint form which is attached hereto and can be found on the Company Intranet.

RETALIATION PROHIBITED

Retaliation against employees, interns, independent contractors, or any other covered individual who in good faith file complaints, or truthfully participate in or assist with an investigation or proceeding involving sexual or other harassment, is unlawful. The Company prohibits retaliation against individuals who complain of sexual harassment or other harassment who testify or assist in any proceeding under the law. Any such retaliation is unlawful. No one will be subject to, and the Company prohibits, any form of discipline, reprisal, intimidation, or retaliation for good faith reporting of incidents of sexual harassment of any kind, pursuing any sexual harassment claim or other harassment claim, or assisting or cooperating in related investigations or other proceedings.

Retaliation is defined as adverse conduct taken because an individual reported an actual or perceived violation of this policy, opposed practices prohibited by this policy, participated in the reporting and investigation process set forth in this policy or testified or assisted in an investigation or proceeding involving an actual or perceived violation of this policy. Adverse conduct includes, but is not limited to any action that would keep an employee from reporting sexual harassment or other harassment or retaliation; shunning and avoiding an individual who reports sexual harassment or other harassment or retaliation; express or implied threats or intimidation intended to prevent an individual from reporting sexual harassment or other harassment or retaliation; and denying employment benefits because an applicant or employee reported or encouraged another employee to report sexual harassment or other harassment or retaliation or participated in the reporting and investigation process.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF SUPERVISORS AND MANAGERS

All supervisors and managers who receive a complaint or information about suspected sexual harassment or other harassment, observe what may be sexually harassing behavior or other harassing behavior, or for any reason suspect that sexual harassment or other harassment is occurring, are required to report such suspected sexual harassment or other harassment to Lisa Dippel, VP, Human Resources.

In addition to being subject to discipline if they engaged in sexually harassing conduct or other harassing conduct themselves, supervisors and managers will be subject to discipline for failing to report suspected sexual harassment or other harassment, or otherwise knowingly allowing sexual harassment or other harassment to continue.

Supervisors and managers will also be subject to discipline for engaging in any retaliation.

VIOLATIONS OF THIS POLICY

Any employee, regardless of position or title, whom Lisa Dippel, VP, Human Resources determines has subjected an individual to harassment or retaliation in violation of this policy, or has knowingly allowed such behavior to continue, will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

ADMINISTRATION OF THIS POLICY

The Human Resources Department is responsible for the administration of this policy. If you have any questions regarding this policy or questions about harassment that are not addressed in this policy, please contact Lisa Dippel, VP, Human Resources.

EMPLOYEES COVERED UNDER A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT

The employment terms set out in this policy work in conjunction with, and do not replace, amend, or supplement any terms or conditions of employment stated in any collective bargaining agreement that a union has with the Company. Wherever employment terms in this policy differ from the terms expressed in the applicable collective bargaining agreement with the Company, employees should refer to the specific terms of the collective bargaining agreement, which will control.

130 EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS

Posillico endeavors to deal with our Employees openly, directly and consistently. We expect the very best from ourselves and from everyone connected with our organization.

We have an open door policy whereby Employees can let us know about issues they are experiencing in the workplace, and ways we can improve, to make us the best we can be. Employees can voice their concerns openly and directly to their immediate supervisor.

By doing such, it enables all of us at Posillico to work together to help make the environment more productive, and communications more clear. We demonstrate our commitment to our Employees by responding effectively to Employee concerns to the best of our abilities.

If for any reason you believe it is inappropriate to raise a particular issue with your immediate supervisor, or you are uncomfortable in doing so, you may speak directly with Human Resources.

We expect everyone to display the following values in each of their daily interactions with clients/customers, other business partners, and the general public.

Caring & Commitment: We respect our customers and colleagues through kindness, empathy and dedication.

Open-Mindedness & Willingness to Learn: We are considerate of diverse ideas and value opportunities to learn, grow and share with others.

Maturity & Self-Discipline: We practice emotional self-regulation and strong work ethics.

Ethics: We uphold our professional integrity, regulatory and moral responsibilities as we do business.

Collaboration: We uphold productive working relationships with our customers and colleagues to achieve our goals.

Accountability: We dependably and reliably honor our commitments.

140 DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE POLICY

It is the policy of Posillico to require all Employees reporting to work and remaining on duty to be able to perform their jobs in a safe and satisfactory manner.

In order to ensure that all Employees are suitably fit for work and to provide a safe work place and healthy workforce, Posillico has established certain rules and regulations.

Alcohol

Employees are strictly prohibited from reporting to work while being under the influence of alcohol or consuming alcohol during working hours. In addition, Employees are strictly prohibited from consuming alcoholic beverages at mealtime or during rest periods.

Illegal Drugs

Using or being under the influence of illegal drugs on or off the job is strictly prohibited. In addition, the use, manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, purchase, storage, transfer, sale of, or offer to sell or dispense illegal drugs on or off the job is prohibited. This includes meal and rest periods.

Legal Drugs

Any person other than the one for whom the drug was properly prescribed shall not bring said legal drugs onto Employer owned or controlled premises. Legal drugs are to be used only in a manner, combination and quantity as prescribed or directed. For certain job positions, an Employee's use of legal drugs can pose a significant risk to the safety of the Employee and others.

Therefore, Employees shall not operate any equipment or vehicles while taking legal drugs, unless the prescribing physician advises that such drugs will not impair the Employee's working abilities. The Employer reserves the right to require written confirmation that such drugs will not impair working abilities for Employees engaged in safety sensitive duties, and to take such other measures as may be appropriate to assure workplace safety and productivity.

Discipline/Discharge for Violations

Any violation of the foregoing provisions will subject the Employee to discipline up to and including discharge for a first offense.

Employee Assistance

Posillico recognizes that alcoholism and drug dependency may be illnesses and encourage our Employees and their family members to seek assistance in regard to these dependencies. Substance dependence may be treated and controlled through continued abstinence.

Posillico encourages afflicted Employees to obtain help before physical degeneration, family disintegration and job-related problems set in.

If an Employee requests help for a substance abuse problem before his or her job performance has been adversely affected in violation of this policy, Posillico will endeavor to make reasonable accommodations to assist Employees recovering from substance and alcohol dependencies, and those who have a medical history that reflects treatment for substance abuse conditions. This may include referring the Employee to our healthcare provider who can provide guidance on obtaining rehabilitation assistance. The Employee must voluntarily request this assistance and must voluntarily agree to an evaluation, and, if indicated, to comply with the terms of a rehabilitation program.

Posillico's healthcare provider can provide names of competent medical and rehabilitation services in the surrounding communities. Any information which Posillico receives from the Employee or others in connection with treatment, such as requests for leaves of absence, etc., will be treated confidentially.

It is therefore the responsibility of each Employee to seek assistance from a rehabilitation program before alcohol and drug problems lead to disciplinary action, which can include discharge for a first offense.

*See Exhibit A for full Corporate Drug and Alcohol Policy.

150 ETHICS POLICY AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Employees have an obligation to conduct business within guidelines that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. The Posillico Code of Business Conduct and Ethics Policy ("Code"), which can be found at the end of this handbook, describes the framework within which Posillico operates. The purpose of the Code is to provide general direction so that Employees can seek further clarification on issues related to the subject of acceptable standards of operation. All Employees are required to review and abide by the Code.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to protect the interests of the Posillico Civil, Inc. and its integrated companies and affiliates (hereinafter "Posillico" or the "Company"). In the regular course of business, agents and employees of the Posillico may have the opportunity to advance their own personal interests with or against the interests of Posillico. Acting in such a manner is unacceptable and any party who acts outside of Posillico's best interest may be subject to disciplinary action.

Definitions

Employee – any person who is employed by Posillico in a part or full-time capacity and in accordance with the labor laws of the state of New York.

Agent – an owner, director, stakeholder, contractor or other third-party that is in the position to act on behalf of Posillico.

Financial Interest – The interest that any individual may have in the monetary transactions of Posillico. In particular, any interest that could have a direct bearing on the financial gain/loss of said individual.

Procedure

Duty to disclose - Every employee/agent of Posillico with signatory authority on behalf of the Company which exceeds $12,500 is obligated to disclose any known or potential conflicts of interest as soon as they arise. Failure to do so could result in termination of employment.

Investigating potential conflicts - When a possible conflict of interest arises, the board of directors will collect of the pertinent information and may question any concerned parties. If the board determines that a conflict exists, steps will be taken to address to conflict. If no conflict exists, the inquiry may be documented but no further action will be taken.

Addressing conflicts of interest - When an actual conflict of interest is found, any transactions that may have been affected will be reviewed retroactively. Affected parties both within and outside of the business, including shareholders, directors, employees, and contractors will be notified. An investigation will also be conducted by the board of directors to determine the extent of the conflict and the intentions of the parties involved.

If the conflict in question involves a member or members of the board of directors, such a member will be excused from the deliberations.

Disciplinary action - As all conflicts of interest will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, a review may result in disciplinary action. The board of directors has full discretion to deem what disciplinary action is both fitting and necessary, including suspension and/or termination of employment.

160 NEPOTISM

We at Posillico recognize that in several cases the best choice for job placement very well could be a family member or friend of an Employee. This is a big part of our history. Because that is the case, it is important to have policies in place that make sure all our Employees, suppliers, and subcontractors are treated fairly.

It is our policy to avoid the hiring, transfer, or promotion of relatives into situations where the appearance of favoritism or conflict of interest might exist. Therefore, applicants will not be hired into a division or crew where a relative has supervisory responsibility or where a relative is in the supervisory chain of command under which the applicant would work. Also, existing Employees will not be transferred or promoted into a division or crew where a relative has the direct supervisory responsibility or is in the supervisory chain of command.

It is also our policy that all Posillico Employees will be evaluated and placed on jobs based on their performance, not on personal relationships or friendships.

These same policies will apply to the use of suppliers and subcontractors. All subcontractors and vendors will be hired based on quality, service, and price. No subcontractor or vendor will receive preferential treatment because they are a relative or friend of an Employee or owned by an Employee. No Employee will be allowed to subcontract or purchase work or materials from a relative or themselves unless this is the most cost effective option and previously approved by supervisor and a partner.

Again, we know that, in spite of this policy, there will still be occasions in our company when family members will work together or even supervise one another because it is the best way to do the job. For that reason, if any Employee feels that he or she has been unfairly treated because of preferential treatment given to a family member or a friend, they can contact the Human Resources Department to report the incident. All such reports will be kept completely confidential.

170 OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Employees may hold outside jobs provided such employment does not conflict with their employment with Posillico, is not with a competitor, and their performance remains satisfactory in their job with Posillico, including satisfying attendance and availability needs at all scheduled times. Employees should consider the impact that outside employment may have on their ability to perform their jobs for Posillico.

If Posillico determines that an Employee's outside work interferes or conflicts with performance or the ability to meet the requirements of the organization, as they may be modified from time to time, the Employee may be asked to terminate the outside employment if he or she wishes to remain with the organization.

200 EMPLOYMENT STATUS AND RECORDS

210 EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

This policy describes the various employment classifications at Posillico, so that Employees understand their employment status and benefit eligibility.

Each Employee is designated as either NON-EXEMPT or EXEMPT. NON-EXEMPT Employees are entitled to overtime pay in accordance with applicable federal and state wage and hour laws. EXEMPT Employees are salaried Employees and do not receive additional pay for hours worked in excess of their scheduled hours, as defined below.

The following summarizes the detail of the above classifications:

FULL-TIME EMPLOYEES are those who are not in a Temporary or Intern category are paid on a salary or hourly basis and who are scheduled to work no less than thirty-seven and a half (37.5) hours per week. Generally, they are eligible for Posillico's benefit package, subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefit program.

PART-TIME EMPLOYEES are those who are not assigned to the Intern or Temporary category and who are scheduled to work less than thirty-seven and a half (37.5) but more than twenty-nine and a half (29.5) hours per week. Generally, they are eligible for Posillico's benefit package on a pro-rated basis, subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefit program.

PART-TIME EMPLOYEES are those who are not assigned to the Intern or Temporary category and are scheduled to work less than twenty-nine and a half (29.5) hours per week. They are eligible to receive all benefits required by applicable law (such as workers' compensation or statutory short-term disability benefits, sick time (depending on work location), and Social Security benefits), but are not eligible for Posillico's other benefit programs. The exception, however, is any Employee working at least one thousand (1,000) hours in a calendar year will be eligible for any profit sharing or 401(k) plan offered by Posillico, as required by law.

TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES are those who, regardless of the number of hours per week they are scheduled to work, are informed at the time of hire that their employment will be limited to a set period of time or until a specified project is completed. Employees are only eligible for benefits required by applicable laws. This classification includes Interns who are either (i) earning credit in a regular college program related to their assignment with Posillico and/or the successful completion of their assignment with Posillico is a condition to earning such college credit or (ii) other students who are not earning school credit in connection with their work with Posillico, but who are working in a temporary position with Posillico. Employees are only eligible for benefits required by applicable laws.

Employees are informed of their initial employment classification and status as exempt or non-exempt upon commencing employment. If an Employee changes position during his/her employment as a result of a promotion, transfer or otherwise, management will inform him/her of any change in his/her job classification.

220 PERSONNEL DATA CHANGES

For benefits administration, in case of an emergency and so that it can properly process all employment related information, Posillico must have accurate and up-to-date personnel information about its Employees.

Therefore, you are required to inform Posillico when your address or telephone number changes, when events occur which could affect Posillico's ability to contact you in emergencies, the insurance coverage which should be provided to your dependents, your tax status, or similar matters.

Additionally, it is important to keep your level of formal education and professional credentials updated. Please inform the Human Resources Department and your supervisor when such changes occur.

230 PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Immediate supervisors and Employees are strongly encouraged to discuss job performance and goals on an informal, day-to-day basis. Additional formal performance reviews are conducted to provide both immediate supervisors and Employees the opportunity to discuss job tasks, identify and correct weaknesses, encourage and recognize strengths, and discuss positive, purposeful approaches for meeting goals.

Performance evaluations generally are scheduled annually. Posillico may award merit-based pay adjustments in an effort to recognize an Employee's performance. The decision to award such an adjustment is dependent upon numerous factors, including Posillico's finances, its business forecasts, and the information documented by this formal performance review process. Receiving a performance evaluation is not a guarantee of a wage increase.

240 ACCESS TO PERSONNEL FILES

Disclosure to Government Agencies

On occasion, Posillico must provide information and data from its personnel records and files to federal, State, and local government agencies in accordance with record keeping and reporting requirements imposed by such agencies.

In instances where a government agency requests information beyond that which it normally requires, the Company ordinarily advises affected Employees of the agency's information request. However, if an agency's information request occurs in the course of an agency investigation or if an agency asks the company to keep such a request confidential, the company has discretion to comply with the agency's request.

Posillico ordinarily honors subpoenas demanding information regarding any Employee, but usually advises an Employee of the subpoena and nature of the information requested, unless otherwise prohibited by law.

Disclosure or Release to Nongovernmental Entities

In response to an information request from an Employee, former Employee, outside organization, individual, or other nongovernmental entities, Posillico normally verifies only the employment status and dates of employment for former or present Employees.

Posillico does not provide any other information, unless requested under law.

300 WORKING AT POSILLICO

310 WORK SCHEDULES

The work schedule for all Employees may vary by location. Immediate supervisors will advise Employees of the times their schedules will normally begin and end. Staffing needs and operational demands may necessitate variations in starting and ending times, as well as variations in the total hours that may be scheduled each day and week.

Immediate supervisors will schedule meal and/or rest periods in accordance with applicable State law and in an effort to accommodate operating requirements. Employees will be relieved of all active responsibilities and restrictions during meal periods and will not be compensated for that time.

320 TIMEKEEPING

Accurately recording time worked is the responsibility of every non-exempt Employee. Posillico needs an accurate record of time worked to calculate Employee pay and benefits. Time worked is all the time actually spent on the job performing assigned duties.

Employees are required to record their time in and begin work no more than 5 minutes before their scheduled starting time. Employees must record their time in and out for meal periods and record their time out promptly at the end of their shift. Non-exempt Employees may never work off the clock.

Tampering, altering, or falsifying time records, or recording time on another Employee's time record or having a co-worker do so on your time record may result in disciplinary action up to and including discharge. Employees must inform management if they fail or otherwise forget to record their time in or out before or after any working time. Failure to properly record time may result in discipline, up to and including discharge.

330 OVERTIME

On occasion, certain Employees will be required to work overtime. When possible, advance notification of these mandatory assignments will be provided. Overtime assignments will be distributed as equitably as practical to all Employees qualified to perform the required work. The opportunity to work overtime is at the discretion of management and is based on departmental needs. Overtime is permitted only with the prior approval of your immediate supervisor. Employees who work unauthorized overtime will be subject to discipline, up to and including discharge.

Overtime compensation is paid to all non-exempt Employees at one and one-half times the Employee's regular (generally the straight-time hourly) rate for all hours worked over forty (40) hours in a workweek, unless otherwise specified under applicable law.

Overtime pay is based on hours worked. Time off on sick leave, vacation leave, or any leave of absence will not be considered hours worked for purposes of performing overtime calculations.

340 PAYROLL PRACTICES

Paydays are weekly, payable every Wednesday. When a holiday falls on a Monday, Employees will be paid on Thursday of that week. Posillico does not provide compensation advances or extend credit to Employees.

350 COMPENSATION AND DEDUCTIONS

The law requires that Posillico make certain deductions from every Employee's compensation which are itemized on Employees' payroll stubs. Among these are applicable federal, State and local income taxes, Social Security taxes on each Employee's earnings up to a specified limit, and Medicare taxes. Posillico offers programs and benefits beyond those required by law. Eligible Employees may voluntarily authorize deductions from their paychecks to cover the costs of participation in these programs. Posillico is required by law to recognize certain court orders, liens, and wage assignments and attempts will be made to notify the Employee prior to any deduction.

If applicable, payroll stubs will also differentiate between regular and overtime pay received.

Posillico provides direct deposit to all non-union Employees who desire to have their net compensation directly deposited into a checking and/or savings account and who authorize Posillico in writing to do so. Upon the start of your employment, you will be given a "direct deposit form." If you did not receive one, or otherwise wish to now elect direct deposit, contact the Human Resources Department for information. Deposits are generally made on Wednesdays. Please be aware that there may be circumstances that delay the electronic deposit of your paycheck until Thursday or Friday, so please check your bank account prior to writing checks or making withdrawals or transfers. Posillico will not be responsible for any bank charges due to this situation unless otherwise required by applicable law.

Posillico takes precautions to ensure that all Employees are paid correctly and that no improper payroll deductions are made against wages. In the event a payroll error does occur, the affected Employees should immediately notify his/her manager so corrections can be made (if warranted).

If you believe that your manager has not adequately addressed your complaint (or you believe it would be improper to discuss the situation with your manager), you may report this payroll error to Human Resources who will undertake an investigation.

The Company will make every attempt to adjust the error (e.g., reimburse the Employee for an improper deduction) no later than the Employee's next regular pay period or as soon as possible thereafter, depending on the circumstances.

Safe Harbor Policy for Salaried Exempt Employees Only

If you are classified as an exempt salaried Employee, you will receive a salary which is intended to compensate you for all hours you may work for the Company. This salary will be established at the time of hire or when you become classified as an exempt Employee. While it may be subject to review and modification from time to time, such as during salary review times, the salary will be a predetermined amount that will not be subject to deductions for variations in the quantity or quality of the work you perform.

Under federal and state law, your salary is subject to certain deductions. For example, absent contrary state law requirements, your salary can be reduced for the following reasons:

- Full day absences for personal reasons.
- Full day absences for sickness or disability.
- Full day disciplinary suspensions for infractions of our written policies and procedures.
- Family and Medical Leave absences (either full or partial day absences).
- To offset amounts received as payment for jury and witness fees or military pay.
- The first or last week of employment in the event you work less than a full week.
- Any full work week in which you do not perform any work.

Your salary may also be reduced for certain types of deductions such as your portion of health, dental or life insurance premiums; state, federal or local taxes, social security; or, voluntary contributions to a 401(k).

In any work week in which you performed any work, your salary will not be reduced for any of the following reasons:

- Partial day absences for personal reasons, sickness or disability.
- Your absence on a day because your employer has decided to close a facility on a scheduled work day.
- Absences for jury duty, attendance as a witness, or military leave in any week in which you have performed any work. (See such policies for more information)
- Any other deductions prohibited by state or federal law.

Please note: it is not an improper deduction to reduce an Employee's accrued vacation, personal or other forms of paid time off banks for full or partial day absences for personal reasons, sickness or disability.

Employees who believe they have been subject to an improper deduction should report the matter to their supervisor immediately. If the supervisor is unavailable or is an inappropriate person to contact, or if a prompt and fully acceptable reply has not been received within five (5) business days, Human Resources should be contacted.

Every report of improper deductions will be fully investigated and corrective action, up to and including discharge, will be taken, as appropriate, for any Employee(s) who violates this policy. In addition, the Company will not allow any form of retaliation against individuals who report alleged violations of this policy or who cooperate in the Company's investigation of such reports. Retaliation is unacceptable, and any form of retaliation in violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.

360 BUSINESS TRAVEL EXPENSE

Posillico will reimburse Employees for reasonable business travel expenses incurred while on company business away from their normal work location. When travel is completed, Employees must submit an expense report, approved by your immediate supervisor, accompanied by supporting documents (e.g. receipts, ticket stubs, and actual business miles driven) within thirty (30) days from the date the expenses were incurred.

Reimbursements will not be made without your supervisor's approval and proper documentation. Posillico may, in its sole discretion, determine what is reasonable and reimbursable.

If an Employee has any doubts about whether an expense is reasonable or reimbursable, he or she should obtain authorization in advance of incurring such expense.

370 AUTOMOBILE POLICY

All Employees are eligible for reimbursement of fuel expense at the rate equal to the current IRS rate per mile when using a personal vehicle when traveling for business purposes. This does not include reimbursements in connection with normal commuting to and from work. Additionally, you may receive reimbursement for miscellaneous expenses relating to traveling (i.e. tolls, taxi, train) when traveling for business purposes.

Certain Employees are eligible to receive reimbursement for the expense of an automobile. Human Resources, upon employment will notify you if you are eligible, and at that time you will receive detailed information regarding the benefit.

400 EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PROGRAMS

410 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS OVERVIEW

Eligible Employees of Posillico are provided a wide range of benefits. A number of the programs cover all Employees in the manner prescribed by law.

Unless otherwise noted, only Full-Time Employees and Part Time (Regularly scheduled to work between 29.5 and 37.5 hours per week) Employees are eligible for benefits described in this section.

Information regarding benefits is provided to all new Employees as part of their orientation; all Employees will be advised of any changes in benefits when implemented.

Benefits eligibility is governed by the terms and conditions of the applicable plan documents or Company policy. If a discrepancy exists between this document and the Plan document, the Plan document prevails. You should refer to the plan document, if you have questions.

Posillico reserves the maximum discretion permitted by law to interpret, modify, rescind or amend its benefit plans and policies.

Human Resources can answer questions that you may have about the programs for which you are eligible.

The description of Posillico's Employee benefits programs contained in this handbook are subject to change without notice and is not guarantees of any particular benefits or programs.

The following benefit programs that are currently available to eligible Employees:

Health Insurance including Medical, Dental and Vision Insurance
Life Insurance
Workers' Compensation
Short and Long Term Disability Benefits
401(k) Plan
Profit Sharing Plan
Tuition Reimbursement

Some benefit programs require contributions from the Employee, but most are fully paid by Posillico.

420 HEALTH INSURANCE (MEDICAL, DENTAL, VISION)

Medical Insurance

Posillico provides medical insurance coverage at a minimal cost to our Employees. The Employee remains responsible for any deductibles, co-payments, etc., for medical and other services, which are not covered by the insurance plan.

Medical insurance coverage begins on the first day of the month following the Employee's date of hire.

An otherwise eligible Employee's medical coverage may terminate effective on the Employee's date of termination or reduction in hours, (i.e. a "qualifying event"), unless continued by the Employee under applicable federal or state benefit continuation law.

Dental Insurance

Posillico provides dental insurance coverage at no cost to our Employees. The Employee remains responsible for any deductibles, co-payments, etc., for dental and other services, which are not covered by the insurance plan.

Dental insurance coverage begins on the first day of the month following the Employee's date of hire.

Vision Insurance

Posillico offers vision insurance coverage at a minimum cost to our Employees. The Employee is responsible for premiums and any out of pocket expenses for vision services, which are not covered by the insurance plan.

If elected, vision insurance coverage begins on the first day of the month following the Employee's date of hire.

430 LIFE INSURANCE

Term life insurance is provided for all eligible Employees. The insurance benefit is currently equal to two (2) times the Employee's annual compensation to a maximum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000). Officers of the corporation will be capped at Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000). Posillico also offers a voluntary life insurance benefit option for all eligible employees.

If you have questions, contact the Human Resources Department.

440 WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE

Posillico provides workers' compensation insurance coverage to all Employees at no cost to Employees. Accidental injuries that occur during working hours or conditions caused by work activities are covered under our Workers' Compensation policy. This insurance provides for the payment of medical expenses and weekly compensation payments during the period of an Employee's work-related injury or illness.

Any Employee who sustains a work-related injury or illness must inform his or her immediate supervisor and/or the Health and Safety Director immediately. No matter how minor an on-the-job injury may appear, it is important that it be reported immediately. Claim forms must be filed promptly to ensure claims are processed and Company records are prepared properly. Failure to follow Company procedures may affect Employee's eligibility to receive Workers' Compensation benefits.

Employees shall not be retaliated against for taking workers' compensation leave or making a workers' compensation claim.

450 SHORT-TERM DISABILITY BENEFIT POLICY & SALARY CONTINUATION

In accordance with applicable law, Posillico provides Short-Term Disability benefits to all eligible Employees who are unable to work because of a non-job-related illness or injury. No Employee contribution is required to receive these benefits. Employees should submit claims for short-term disability benefits to the Human Resources Department.

The purpose of the Salary Continuation policy is to supplement disability insurance benefits. Under this policy, while receiving short-term disability benefits, full-time eligible Employees shall receive two weeks of their base salary for every completed year of service, to a maximum of twenty-six weeks based on medical necessity.

Please see the Human Resources Department for more information on this program.

460 LONG-TERM DISABILITY BENEFIT POLICY

Posillico offers long-term disability benefits to eligible Employees who remain disabled and unable to work after six consecutive months.

No Employee contribution is required to receive these benefits. Employees should submit claims for long-term disability benefits to the Human Resources Department.

470 401(k) SAVINGS PLAN

Posillico has established a 401(k) savings plan to provide Employees the potential for future financial security for retirement.

To be eligible to join the 401(k) savings plan, you must complete six (6) months of service and be twenty-one (21) years of age or older.

The 401(k) savings plan allows you to elect how much salary you want to contribute and direct the investment of your plan account, so you can tailor your own retirement package to meet your individual needs. Posillico also contributes an additional matching amount to each Employee's 401(k) contribution (currently up to four percent (4%).

The Posillico 401k Plan offers both Standard (pre-tax) and Roth (post tax) options.

480 POSILLICO PROFIT SHARING PLAN

All Full-Time 'Posillico' Employees are eligible to participate in Posillico's Profit Sharing Plan. However, you must complete one (1) year of service, as defined by the plan to become active in the Plan, and benefit is based on a vesting schedule. (Excludes affiliate companies.)

490 TUITION REIMBURSEMENT

Posillico encourages continued education and professional development through formal training. Full-Time Employees with at least one (1) year of continuous employment (prior to registration for any classes/courses) may be eligible to receive tuition reimbursement for courses taken at accredited institutions or required courses taken to maintain certification or licensing for an Employee's job. Courses must be job-related or satisfy the completion of a job-related degree, as determined by Posillico.

Reimbursable costs include registration, tuition, books and other course materials. Tuition costs will be fully reimbursed (subject to the permissible reductions below based on grades received), up to the I.R.S. a maximum (currently $5,250 per calendar year) provided such costs are eligible for reimbursement as set forth herein.

Any courses taken, whether or not reimbursement is sought, must be scheduled so as not to interfere with the job schedule and responsibilities of the Employee.

Employees seeking tuition reimbursement following completion of a course must receive the following grades to be eligible for full or partial reimbursement:

| Grade (or Equivalent) Received | Percentage of Reimbursement Under |
|---|---|
| Grade of "A" (i.e., 90-100%) | 100% |
| Grade of "B" (i.e., 80-89%) | 75% |
| Grade of "C (i.e., 70-79%) | 50% |
| Grades below "C (i.e., below 70) | 0% |
| "Pass" (in a pass/fail course) | 100% |
| "Fail" (in a pass/fail course) | 0% |

Employees must follow the reimbursement process as per the Tuition Reimbursement Request Forms which can be obtained from the Human Resources Department.

Please note that Employees will be required to complete the Tuition Repayment Authorization Form defining the Service Commitment Period of 1 year for completion of a course or 5 years for a degree program. Additional information is outlined on the Tuition Reimbursement Forms.

500 PAID TIME OFF AND LEAVES OF ABSENCE

510 HOLIDAYS

Posillico grants paid holiday time off to all Full-Time Employees (and Part-Time Employees only as provided below). The number of holidays may vary from year to year. Posillico will provide a schedule of holidays at the beginning of each calendar year.

Paid holidays currently include:

New Year's Day
Presidents Day
Memorial Day
Independence Day
Labor Day
Thanksgiving Day
Day after Thanksgiving Day
Christmas Day

Part-Time Employees only will receive paid holiday time if they actually were scheduled to work the day that the holiday is scheduled to be celebrated by Posillico.

If a recognized holiday falls during an eligible Employee's paid vacation, the day will be paid and treated as a holiday and will not count as a vacation day.

Paid holidays off are not counted as hours worked for purposes of calculating overtime.

520 PAID TIME OFF (PTO)

Full-time and part-time Employees will receive PTO pursuant to this policy at the start of employment. New Employees are eligible to use PTO beginning the first of the month following date of hire.

On January 1st of each calendar year, full-time Employees will be granted at least fifteen (15) PTO days for immediate use. Additional PTO days will be provided based upon years of service, as set forth below.

| Employment with Company | Days Earned Per Year |
|---|---|
| 1st full calendar year through 5th year | 15 days |
| 6th year through 20th year | 20 days |
| 21st year + | 25 days |

On January 1st of each calendar year, part-time Employees will be granted at least six (6) PTO days for immediate use, as set forth below.

| Part-time Schedule | Days Earned Per Year |
|---|---|
| 2 days per week | 6 |
| 3 days per week | 9 |
| 4 days per week | 12 |

New full-time and part-time Employees will receive a prorated portion of PTO during their first year of employment, depending on date of hire.

For purposes of this policy, the calendar year is the consecutive 12-month period beginning January 1st and ending December 31st.

Employees may use available PTO for the following reasons:

(a) The Employee's mental or physical illness, injury or health condition or need for medical diagnosis, care or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition or need for preventative medical care; or
(b) The care of the Employee's child, spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, half-sibling, step-sibling, sibling related through adoption, grandchild or grandparent, or the child or parent of the Employee's spouse or domestic partner who needs medical diagnosis, care or treatment of a mental or physical illness, illness, injury or health condition or who needs preventative medical care; or
(c) Closure of the Employee's place of business by order of a public official due to a public health emergency or such Employee's need to care for a child whose school or childcare provider has been closed by order of a public official due to a public health emergency;
(d) Planned personal days;
(e) Planned vacation days; or
(f) As otherwise provided by applicable federal, state or local law.

An Employee's use of PTO for reasons (a) or (b) above will not be conditioned upon searching for or finding a replacement worker.

The Company will require supporting documentation if the Employee uses available PTO for more than 3 consecutive days for reasons (a), (b) or (c) above. For PTO used for reasons (a) or (b) above, documentation signed by a licensed health care provider indicating the need for the amount of PTO time taken will be considered reasonable documentation and such documentation need not specify the nature of the Employee's or the Employee's family member's injury, illness or condition.

Requests for planned personal or vacation days, other than those discussed above, must be made at least two weeks in advance to the Employee's supervisor. Requests for vacation and planned personal time will be decided based on business needs and seniority.

PTO is paid at the Employee's base pay rate at the time of use. PTO pay does not include overtime or any special forms of compensation such as incentives, commissions or bonuses. Moreover, PTO time used is not considered hours worked for purposes of calculating overtime.

PTO may be taken in minimum increments of one half day. The Company reserves the right to mandate the use of PTO in certain instances, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

All full-time and part-time Employees receive PTO on January 1st of each year and are free to immediately use it. The first 56 hours of PTO shall be deemed for statutory purposes to be statutory sick leave and no employee shall be entitled to use more than 56 hours of statutory sick leave in any given year. Therefore, Employees may not carry over PTO and unused PTO will be lost at the end of the year. PTO will not be paid upon separation of employment.

Employees have the right to request and use PTO for the reasons set forth in (a), (b), and (c) above and if employed in New York City, may file a complaint for alleged violations of this policy with the New York City Department of Consumer Affairs. The Company prohibits retaliation or the threat of retaliation against an Employee for exercising or attempting to exercise any right provided in this policy, or interference with any investigation, proceeding or hearing related to or arising out of Employee's rights pursuant to this policy and applicable law.

Employees with questions regarding this policy can contact the Human Resources Department.

530 FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT (FMLA)

Employees Eligible for FMLA Leave

FMLA leave is available to "eligible Employees". To be an "eligible Employee", an Employee must: (1) have worked for the Company for at least 12 months (which need not be consecutive); (2) have been employed by the Company for at least 1250 hours of service during the 12-month period immediately preceding the commencement of the leave and (3) be employed at a worksite where 50 or more Employees are located within 75 miles of the worksite.

Basic FMLA Leave Entitlement

The FMLA provides eligible Employees up to 12 workweeks of unpaid leave for certain family and medical reasons during a 12-month period. The 12-month period is determined on rolling basis dating back from the time the Employee requests leave. Leave may be taken for any one, or for a combination, of the following reasons:

- To care for the Employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the Employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent (but not in-law) who has a serious health condition;
- For the Employee's own serious health condition (including any period of incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or childbirth) that makes the Employee unable to perform one or more of the essential functions of the Employee's job; and/or
- Because of any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that an Employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent is a military member on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status (or has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active duty) in (a) the Reserve component of the Armed Forces for deployment to a foreign country in support of a contingency operation, or (b) the Regular Armed Forces for deployment to a foreign country.

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the Employee from performing the functions of the Employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities. Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, caring for the parents of the military member on covered active duty and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

Additional Military Family Leave Entitlements (Injured Servicemember Leave)

In addition to the basic FMLA leave entitlement discussed above, an eligible Employee who is the spouse, son, daughter, parent or next of kin of a covered servicemember is entitled to take up to 26 weeks of leave during a single 12-month period to care for the servicemember with a serious injury or illness. Leave to care for a servicemember shall only be available during a single 12-month period and, when combined with other FMLA-qualifying leave, may not exceed 26 weeks during the single 12-month period. The single 12-month period begins on the first day an eligible Employee takes leave to care for the injured servicemember.

A "covered servicemember" means (A) members of the Armed Forces (including the member of the Reserves and National Guard) who are undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy is otherwise on outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness or (B) veterans who were members of the Armed Forces (including Reserves and National Guard) and who were discharged or released from military service under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the 5 year period preceding the date on which the eligible Employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy for an injury or illness.

Note: The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" applicable to current members of the Armed Forces and covered veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition" applicable to FMLA leave to care for a covered family member.

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, eligible Employees are entitled to receive group health plan coverage on the same terms and conditions as if they had continued to work. Whenever Employees are receiving pay from the Company during FMLA leave, the Company will deduct the Employee portion of the group health plan premium from the Employee's paycheck in the same manner as if the Employee was actively working. If FMLA leave is unpaid, Employees must pay their portion of the group health premium by sending a check in the required amount to the Company prior to the due date.

The Company's obligation to maintain health care coverage ceases if an Employee's premium payment is more than 30 days late. If an Employee's payment is more than 15 days late, the Company will send a letter notifying the Employee that coverage will be dropped on a specified date unless the co-payment is received before that date. If Employees do not return to work at the end of the leave period (unless Employees cannot return to work because of a serious health condition or other circumstances beyond their control), they will be required to reimburse the Company for the cost of the premiums the Company paid for maintaining coverage during their unpaid FMLA leave. For purposes of this paragraph, an Employee will be considered to have returned to work if he or she returns to work for at least 30 calendar days, or if he or she retires at the end of the FMLA leave period or within 30 days thereafter.

At the end of FMLA leave, subject to some exceptions, Employees generally have a right to return to the same or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an eligible Employee's FMLA leave.

Use of Leave

FMLA leave usually will be taken for a period of consecutive days, weeks or months. However, Employees do not need to use this leave entitlement in one block, and also are entitled to take FMLA leave intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary or otherwise permitted under law. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the Company's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Employee FMLA Leave Obligations

Employees must inform Human Resources of the need for FMLA-qualifying leave and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave, if known. Employees may do this by either requesting FMLA leave specifically, or explaining the reasons for leave so as to allow the Company to determine that the leave is FMLA-qualifying.

Employees must provide 30 days' advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days' notice is not possible, or the approximate timing of the need for leave is not foreseeable, Employees must provide the Company notice of the need for leave as soon as practicable under the facts and circumstances of the particular case. Employees who fail to give 30 days' notice for foreseeable leave without a reasonable excuse for the delay, or otherwise fail to satisfy FMLA notice obligations, may have FMLA leave delayed or denied.

Calling in "sick," without providing the reasons for the needed leave, will not be considered sufficient notice for FMLA leave under this policy. Employees must respond to the Company's questions to determine if absences are potentially FMLA-qualifying. If Employees fail to explain the reasons for FMLA leave, the leave may be denied. When Employees seek leave due to FMLA-qualifying reasons for which the Company has previously provided FMLA-protected leave, they must specifically reference the qualifying reason for the leave or the need for FMLA leave.

Submit Medical Certifications Supporting Need for FMLA Leave (Unrelated to Requests for Military Family Leave)

Depending on the nature of FMLA leave sought, Employees may be required to submit medical certifications supporting their need for FMLA-qualifying leave. Employees may also be required to provide a certification, periodic recertification and/or a return to work/fitness for duty certification.

It is the Employee's responsibility to provide the Company with timely, complete and sufficient medical certifications. Whenever the Company requests Employees to provide FMLA medical certifications, Employees must provide the requested certifications within fifteen (15) calendar days after the Company's request, unless it is not practicable to do so despite an Employee's diligent, good faith efforts. The Company shall inform Employees if submitted medical certifications are incomplete or insufficient and provide Employees at least seven (7) calendar days to cure deficiencies. The Company will deny FMLA leave to Employees who fail to timely cure deficiencies or otherwise fail to timely submit requested medical certifications.

With the Employee's permission, the Company (through individuals other than an Employee's direct supervisor) may contact the Employee's health care provider to authenticate or clarify completed and sufficient medical certifications. If Employees choose not to provide the Company with authorization allowing it to clarify or authenticate certifications with health care providers, the Company may deny FMLA leave if certifications are unclear.

Whenever the Company deems it appropriate to do so, it may waive its right to receive timely, complete and/or sufficient FMLA medical certifications.

Submit Certifications Supporting Need for Military Family Leave

Upon request, the first time Employees seek leave due to qualifying exigencies arising out of the covered active duty or call to covered active duty status of a covered military members, the Company may require Employees to provide: 1) a copy of the covered military member's covered active duty orders or other documentation issued by the military indicating the covered military member is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status and the dates of the covered military member's covered active duty service; and 2) a certification from the Employee setting forth information concerning the nature of the qualifying exigency for which leave is requested. Employees shall provide a copy of new covered active duty orders or other documentation issued by the military for leaves arising out of qualifying exigencies arising out of a different covered active duty or call to covered active duty status of the same or a different covered military member.

When leave is taken to care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness, the Company may require Employees to obtain certifications completed by an authorized health care provider of the covered servicemember. In addition, and in accordance with the FMLA regulations, the Company may request that the certification submitted by Employees set forth additional information provided by the Employee and/or the covered servicemember confirming entitlement to such leave.

Substitute Paid Leave for Unpaid FMLA Leave

Employees must use any accrued PTO while taking unpaid FMLA leave. The substitution of paid time for unpaid FMLA leave time does not extend the length of FMLA leaves and the paid time will run concurrently with an Employee's FMLA entitlement.

Upon request, the Company will allow Employees to use accrued paid time to supplement any paid disability benefits. Receipt of disability benefits or Workers' Compensation benefits does not extend the maximum amount of leave time to which an Employee is eligible under the FMLA.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform Employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under the FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the Employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform Employees if leave is designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the Employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the Employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for the Company to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under the FMLA; or discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by the FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to the FMLA.

Concerns regarding a possible violation with respect to either of these obligations should be reported to the Company's Human Resources Department.

Enforcement

Employees may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement, which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

*If applicable, leave under the FMLA will run concurrently with leave taken pursuant to the New York Paid Family Leave Benefits Law ("PFL").

540 NON-FMLA MEDICAL LEAVE

Employees with a medical condition may request an unpaid non-FMLA medical leave of absence.

A medical leave can be requested under this policy by contacting Human Resources. The request must include a doctor's certificate stating (1) the date on which the health condition necessitating the leave commenced; (2) the probable duration of the condition; and, (3) medical facts (within the knowledge of the health care provider regarding the condition) which can help us consider the request.

The leaves of absence initially shall be for a period of up to one (1) month. Posillico will consider extensions of leave on a case-by-case basis in accordance with applicable law.

Employees must use any unused PTO (if applicable) while taking unpaid Non-FMLA medical leave. The substitution of paid time for unpaid Non-FMLA medical leave time does not extend the length of this leave, and the paid time will run concurrently with an Employee's Non-FMLA medical leave period. Employees may be entitled to monetary benefit payments, under the State's disability insurance law including short-term disability (and potentially salary continuation benefits), and long-term disability, or workers' compensation while on a non-FMLA medical leave. Receipt of disability benefits or Workers' Compensation benefits does not extend the length of any personal leave granted. Please contact the Posillico Human Resources Department for more information.

Health benefits continue during the period of pre-approved Non-FMLA medical leave as if the Employee were actively working and other benefits will continue to accrue at the same rate as an active Employee. Requirements for the payment of the Employee portion of premiums, if any, will be included in the written notice given to the Employee when the Non-FMLA leave is requested.

When they anticipate returning to work, Employees should notify management of their expected return date. Employees should notify management at least one (1) week before the expiration of leave.

Posillico will make every effort to return you to your previous position upon return from non-FMLA medical leave. However, Posillico reserves the right to fill any position vacant as a result of a Non-FMLA medical leave and therefore reinstatement is not guaranteed unless required by law. In that event, that an Employee's position which became vacant as a result of a Non-FMLA medical leave is was filled, you may request to be considered for any available or vacant position for which you are qualified.

Failure to advise management of availability to return to work, failure to return to work after notifying the Company of expected return to work, or remaining absent from work beyond the time approved by the Company is considered a voluntary resignation of employment unless otherwise prohibited by applicable law.

550 BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

The Company understands the deep impact that death can have on an individual or a family. When a death occurs in an Employee's immediate family, all regular full-time Employees may take up to three (3) days off with pay to attend the funeral or make funeral arrangements. The pay for time off will be prorated for a part-time Employee if the funeral occurs on a scheduled work day. The Company may, in unusual circumstances, require verification of the need for the leave. Employees wishing to take bereavement time, should notify his or her immediate supervisor immediately.

Employees will be entitled to:

Immediate Family Defined for Bereavement Leave:

Immediate family members are defined as an Employee's spouse, domestic partner, parents, stepparents, sisters, brothers, children, stepchildren, grandparents, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandchild, niece and nephew.

Bereavement pay is calculated based on the base pay rate at the time of absence. Any Employee who requires additional time off beyond the allowance amount may with Human Resources approval, use any available paid leave for additional time off as necessary.

560 JURY DUTY LEAVE

Posillico encourages Employees to fulfill their civic responsibilities by serving jury duty when required. All Employees are allowed time off to perform such civic service as required by applicable law. Employees must provide a copy of the jury duty summons to their supervisor as soon as possible, indicating the expected length of jury duty service, so that the supervisor may make arrangements to accommodate the Employee's absence. In the event it is deemed essential that an Employee remain on the job, Posillico may elect to attempt to secure a postponement of the jury service to a mutually satisfactory date.

During jury duty, Employees must report to work for the major portion of the day if excused by the court. Full-Time Employees will receive their regular pay for a maximum of two-weeks. Thereafter, jury duty leave will be unpaid except that exempt Employees are paid their full salary for any week in which they perform authorized work for the Company. All other classifications of Employees will be paid only as required under applicable law. Any pay provided for jury duty leave is not counted as hours worked for purposes of calculating overtime.

570 MILITARY LEAVE

Employees who are called into active military service or who enlist in the uniformed services are eligible to receive an unpaid military leave of absence in accordance with applicable federal and state laws. To be eligible for military leave, Employees must provide management with advance notice of their service obligations, unless they are prevented from providing such notice due to military necessity or it is otherwise impossible or unreasonable to provide such notice.

Employees who are required to attend yearly Reserves or National Guard duty can apply for an unpaid temporary military leave of absence not to exceed the number of days allowed by law (including travel). Such Employees should give management as much advance notice of their need for military leave as possible so that we can maintain proper coverage.

Employees whose absence does not exceed applicable statutory limitations will retain reemployment rights and accrue seniority and benefits in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.

Please speak to management for additional information about eligibility for Military Leave.

580 LACTATION LEAVE

The Company will provide a reasonable amount of break time to accommodate an Employee desiring to express breast milk for the Employee's infant child, to the extent required by and in accordance with applicable law. If possible, the break time must run concurrently with rest and meal periods already provided to the Employee. Break time that cannot run concurrently with rest and meal periods already provided to the Employee is unpaid, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The company will make reasonable efforts to provide an Employee with use of a room or location other than a toilet stall to express milk in private. This location may be the Employee's private office, if applicable.

The Company may not be able to provide additional break time if doing so would seriously disrupt the Company's operations. For more information, please contact the Human Resources Department.

600 WORK CONDITIONS AND RULES

605 EMPLOYEE CONDUCT AND WORK RULES

Posillico expects all our Employees to act with good judgment. We expect our Employees to abide by our code of conduct.

It is not possible to list all the forms of conduct that are considered unacceptable in the workplace. The following are examples of infractions of rules of conduct that may result in disciplinary action, including suspension or termination of employment, but such list is not exhaustive:

- Engaging in or attempting to engage in the use, unauthorized or inappropriate removal or possession of Posillico property or another Employee's or other person's property;
- Falsification of timekeeping or other records;
- Violation of the drug-free workplace policy;
- Fighting or threatening violence in the workplace or while on duty;
- Any libel, slanderous or defamation, or physical abuse of other Employees or anyone else on Posillico property;
- Horseplay in the workplace or while on duty;
- Negligence or improper conduct leading to damage of property owned by Posillico or another Employee;
- Refusing to follow a supervisor's lawful directions;
- Violation of safety or health rules;
- Smoking or using smokeless tobacco products in the workplace;
- Violation of our policies prohibiting discrimination or sexual or other harassment;
- Possession or use of dangerous or unauthorized materials, such as explosives or firearms, in the workplace or while on duty;
- Excessive lateness or absenteeism or any absence without notice;
- Improper use of work time;
- Breach of trust;
- Misuse of Posillico funds;
- Unauthorized absence from the work area during the workday;
- Use of telephones, mail system, or other Posillico owned equipment or property in violation of applicable Company policies;
- Engaging in any conduct, which is a conflict of interest with the Employee's position with Posillico;
- Unauthorized disclosure of Posillico's confidential information, as defined in the Confidentiality Policy or any other applicable Company policy or agreement regarding confidential information;
- Violation of personnel or office policies or procedures;
- Unsatisfactory performance or conduct;
- Being connected with an earpiece to an I-pod, or cell phone during working hours, not including break times or meal periods.

When discipline is necessary, Posillico generally encourages corrective counseling through the use of verbal and written reprimands prior to dismissal. However, if, in the sole discretion of Posillico, the nature or seriousness of an infraction warrants, dismissal may result without prior verbal and/or written warnings. Please note that none of the above-listed circumstances are intended to infringe upon, interfere with, or restrain an Employee's rights under law.

610 NO SMOKING

In keeping with Posillico's intent to provide a safe and healthy work environment, smoking and the use of smokeless tobacco products are prohibited at all times throughout the workplace. Compliance with this policy applies to both Employees and visitors at all of our properties, including all field offices and trailers, with no exceptions. Employees who violate this policy may be subject to disciplinary action. Any disputes involving smoking and any Employees with questions should discuss their issues/concerns with the Human Resources Department. Employees will not be subject to retaliation for reporting violations of this policy in good faith.

615 ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

To maintain a safe and productive work environment, Posillico expects Employees to be reliable and to be punctual in reporting for scheduled work. Employees are expected to be at work by the established starting time at the beginning of the workday and at the conclusion of lunch breaks. Absenteeism and tardiness place a burden on other Employees and on the organization, and we expect each member of our team to avoid these problems whenever possible.

In the rare instance when an Employee cannot avoid being late to work or is unable to work as scheduled, he or she should notify their supervisor as soon as possible in advance of the anticipated tardiness or absence. Asking another Employee, friend or relative to give this notice, outside of extenuating circumstance such as hospitalization, is improper and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. Employees must contact their supervisor every day that they are absent unless specifically instructed otherwise such as during an approved leave of absence. If an Employee calls in sick for three or more consecutive days or has a pattern of absence, the Employee may be required to provide their supervisor with a doctor's note on the day the Employee returns to work, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

Poor attendance and excessive tardiness are disruptive, and may lead to disciplinary action, including termination of employment. If any Employee is absent for three (3) consecutive days or any three (3) days during a ninety (90) day period of scheduled workdays without notifying his or her immediate supervisor, Posillico will assume the Employee has abandoned his or her position and the Employee will be automatically removed from the payroll.

In evaluating Employee attendance and otherwise administering this policy, the Company does not consider absences/tardiness protected by applicable federal, state, or local law.

620 USE OF MAIL SYSTEMS

The use of Posillico paid postage should be used for business purposes only. This includes U.S. Mail, U.P.S., Fed-Ex, etc.

625 POSILLICO IT AND COMMUNICATIONS POLICY (INCLUDING SOCIAL MEDIA/BLOGGING

Scope and Overview

As the online landscape continues to mature, the opportunities for Posillico employees to communicate with each other and the world are evolving. While technology and social media create new opportunities for growth and personal expression, they also create new responsibilities.

As a Posillico employee, you are viewed by our customers, partners, clients, and other outside parties as a representative of Posillico. Whether or not you specifically reference or discuss your work, your use of technology and social media platforms is a reflection on the Company.

This policy is applicable to all Posillico employees regardless of the system used. In general, these directives apply to all Posillico users of:

- Hardware: Computing, network and telecommunications equipment, and data centers including, but not limited to, computers and Company-provided mobile devices.

- Software: Computing applications supported by the IT Department.

- Information: Electronic data and information.

The Company may choose to provide employees with computing resource. Such resources include personal computers and software, networked computing, electronic mail services and Internet access, among others. Such resources and information stored, sent or received on such systems, including e-mail and all electronic communications, are the property of Posillico.

Individual User IT Policy

This Individual User IT Policy details the minimum expectations and requirements accepted by Posillico for the use of its computing resources and information by individual users. Posillico system users expressly waive any right of privacy in information they create, store, send or receive on Posillico's electronic communication systems. Posillico may choose to monitor individual computer systems, data, internet usage, and/or electronic mail accounts at any given time without prior user notification, in the ordinary course of business when the Company deems it appropriate to do so. The reasons for which the Company may obtain such access include, but are not limited to, maintaining the systems; preventing or investigating allegations of system abuse or misuse; assuring compliance with software copyright laws; complying with legal and regulatory requests for information; and ensuring that Company operations continue appropriately during an employee's absence.

Use of Posillico system resources in violation of the solicitations and distribution policy is prohibited. Abuse or improper use of the Posillico computer systems, data and/or electronic mail accounts in connection with either business or personal use, may be grounds for disciplinary action, including termination of employment and/or legal action.

Users are responsible for their individual computing equipment (e.g., mobile devices, notebooks, and laptops). Posillico expects its users to locate all desktop and portable computers, workstations, and phones in safe places, protected from fire, environmental conditions, and theft.

When traveling, it is also expected that users do not leave computing equipment unattended and pack it appropriately using heavily padded bags or cases. Portable computers should be never checked as baggage or be left in vehicles for an extended period of time.

ALL CONTENTS OF POSILLICO SYSTEM REASOURCES AND DEVICES ARE PROPERTY OF THE COMPANY. EMPLOYEES SHALL HAVE NO EXPECTATION OF PRIVACY WHATSOEVER IN ANY DATA, INFORMATION OR COMMUNICATIONS, INCLUDING SOCIAL MEDIA POSTS, THAT IS TRANSMITTED TO, RECEIVED OR PRINTED FROM, ACCESSED THROUGH, STORED ON, OR RECORDED ON POSILLICO SYSTEMS OR DEVICES, EVEN IF FOR PERSONAL USE.

Data Storage

Data processed on users' computing equipment must be protected accordingly to the sensitivity of the information. Users should be aware that there are inherent exposures to information-networked drives which can access all files stored in networked devices. Users must consider the security exposures of the various storage media and their associated controls before storing information in an electronic format.

In general, employees should store data in file servers, either in the individual's file server folder or in Posillico shared folders, as these are protected within centralized data locations and are backed up regularly.

When traveling, attempts should be made to store "Private" and "Confidential" information in encrypted removable media (e.g., USB keys or external hard drives) rather than storing the data in the individual' hard drive. The use of self-encrypting removable media is strongly suggested.

Intellectual Property and Confidential Information

Employees shall not use the internet or social media to disclose or otherwise misuse any intellectual property or confidential information of the Company, its affiliates, personnel, or clients, including but not limited to, logos, trademarks, copyrightable materials, trade secrets, business plans, nosiness agreements required by law or contract to be kept confidential, and personal information such as an individual's address, social security number, account number, health information or health insurance identification number.

Business Use of Internet Access and Social Media

The Company regularly uses the internet and social media for business and marketing purposes. All internet and social media content and accounts that promote the Company or the Company's brand name or logo for Company business purposes requires prior approval of the Business Development Department management.

Any authorized use of the internet and social media must be conducted in a manner that is professional, protects the reputation and brand of the Company and is in compliance with Company's policies, the terms of use for the internet or social media site, and any applicable laws and regulations. Prohibited conduct includes, for example, use of the internet or social media in any way that constitutes libel, false advertising, copyright or trademark infringement, harassment, professional misconduct, or a violation of privacy rights or other rights protected under the law.

Additionally, based on the inherent risk of using Internet, Posillico computer resource users must follow these additional guidelines:

- Email and cloud-based accounts are not to be used for the storage of data or the transfer of any internal Posillico data within or outside the Posillico network.

- Users must not download non-business-related software from the Internet as they may contain viruses, Trojan, and other malicious software which may damage Posillico' information and systems.

- When connecting to the Posillico Network from an unsecured Internet connection (e.g., connecting to Posillico through the user's personal Internet home connection), users are required to use a Virtual Private Network (VPN) client. Users should never connect or attempt to connect to any unauthorized network (e.g., connecting to a neighbor wireless network) while using a company computer or device.

- Users are prohibited from connecting to external networks (including Internet) using dial-up modems connected to workstations while simultaneously connected to a local area network (LAN) or another Posillico internal communication network without prior authorization from the IT Department.

Personal Use of Internet Access and Social Media

The Company respects the right of its staff to use the internet and social media as a medium of self-expression and does not discriminate against employees who use these media for personal interests and affiliations or other lawful purposes. When using the internet or social media for personal purposes, users should follow the guidelines and policies set forth herein to establish a clear line between their personal and Company-related activities and to protect the business and legal interests of the Company. In addition, employees shall refrain from engaging in personal use of the internet and social media during working hours except for limited, incidental use that does not interfere with performance of Company duties or Company operations and is compliant with Company policies and any applicable laws and regulations.

Employees shall not use the internet and social media for personal purposes in any way that might reasonably create the impression that the content is authorized or controlled by the Company, for example by placing a Posillico logo or trademark prominently on a personal Facebook page in a manner that makes the page appear to be endorsed by the Company. Employees should also refrain from using the company name or established derivatives/abbreviations in their personal handles or display names. If users identify themselves as being associated with the Company on the internet or a social media site and if the nature or context of activity on such site could reasonably be misconstrued as representing the views of the Company, then users should post a disclaimer such as, "My posts reflect my personal opinions and are not approved or authorized by Posillico and its affiliated companies."

Employees should remember that they are personally responsible for their own conduct when using the internet and social media for personal purposes and are discouraged from posting any content that is obscene, discriminatory, threatening or otherwise unlawful. Employees are encouraged to report to the Human Resources department any online behavior by or regarding employees that violates Company policies.

Repair / Upgrade of Hardware and Software

Users are required to contact the IT Department for all hardware and software support, including equipment installations, repairs, upgrades, moves, among others. The use of any external software from a person or organization other than a known and trusted Company supplier, without prior consent from the IT Department, is prohibited.

Approved anti-virus software will be installed, configured, and regularly updated on all individual user computers by the IT Department. Users must notify the IT Department of unprotected workstations, outdated virus-software, and any virus findings in their individual computing equipment. The Company reserves the right to remove any unlicensed or unauthorized software found on user's computing equipment.

IT Purchase and Service Policy

All hardware, software, telecommunication, cell phones, copiers, and other office equipment purchases and installation requests should be submitted to your supervisor for authorization prior to purchase. Once authorization is approved and a purchase order is issued, the IT Department will work with the requesting department/personnel to implement the software in a manner that is consistent with corporate and IT support policies. Any unauthorized hardware or software located on Posillico's systems will be removed upon its discovery. This policy is necessary to ensure that the appropriate level of support is available, that the new hardware/software can integrate with existing systems, and to minimize any disruption in business due to conflicts and incompatibility.

Disclaimer of Responsibility for Damage to Data and Systems

Posillico uses access controls and other security measures to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of the information handled by computers and communications systems.

In keeping with these objectives, the IT Department maintains the authority to:

- Restrict or revoke any user's privileges.

- Inspect, copy, remove, or otherwise alter any data, program, or other system resource that may undermine these objectives.

- Take any other steps deemed necessary to manage and protect its information systems.

This authority may be exercised with or without notice to the involved users. Posillico disclaims any responsibility for loss or damage to data or software that results from its efforts to meet these security objectives.

Social Media Guidelines

For the purposes of this policy, social media means any tool or service that facilitates conversations over the internet. This includes platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, WeChat, YouTube, Flickr, blogs, wikis, etc. These platforms are included as examples and are not intended to be an exhaustive list of platforms or forums relevant to this policy.

The Company respects the right of its employee to maintain a blog or website or to participate in social networking on or through websites or services such as Twitter, Facebook, or similar sites/services (collectively "social media"). However, to protect the Company's interests and ensure Employees focus on their job duties, Employees must adhere to the following rules:

- Employees may not use social media during work hours except for limited, incidental use that does not interfere with performance of the employee's duties and responsibilities and is otherwise compliant with the Company policies.

  EMPLOYEES ARE REMINDED THAT ALL RULES, REGULATIONS AND POLICIES REGARDING CONFIDENTIAL AND PROPRIETARY BUSINESS INFORMATION APPLY IN FULL TO EMPLOYEES' SOCIAL MEDIA USE.

- Employees who choose to express thoughts or opinions (e.g., political opinion, opinion regarding the Company's action, religious beliefs, etc.) must identify that the views expressed on the blog, website or other platform are yours alone and do not represent the views of the Company.

- Any requests for statements or responses from news media should be forwarded to the employee's direct supervisor and the Human Resources Department.

- Be respectful of potential readers and colleagues. Please do not use obscene, discriminatory, threatening, maliciously false or otherwise unlawful comments or statements.

- Employees may not use the Company's logos or trademarks for commercial purposes or to endorse any product or service.

All other Company policies apply equally to social media. Employees should review this Handbook for further guidance.

The Company encourages all employees to keep in mind the speed and manner in which information posted through social media can be relayed (and often misunderstood) by readers. Employees are expected to use their best judgment. Employees with any questions should review the guidelines above and/or consult with their manager. When in doubt, do not post! Failure to follow these guidelines may result in discipline, up to and including termination. In enforcing this policy, the Company reserves the right to monitor social media activities of employees, whether or not such activities are conducted with Company resources, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with applicable law.

Electronic Mail & Communications Policy

The IT Department provides Posillico users with a common electronic communication system (e.g., Outlook) to meet communication requirements of the corporation.

Electronic communications regarding Posillico matters should be written in accordance with standard business guidelines and conducted in compliance with all Posillico procedures and policies.

Password Policy

Electronic passwords are an important part of Posillico computer system security. It is the user's responsibility to maintain the secrecy of his/her password. Misuse of passwords, the sharing of passwords, and/or the unauthorized use of another employee's password can result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment and/or legal action.

630 CORPORATE CREDIT CARD – COMDATA

Corporate credit cards are issued to select Employees for business only use via ComData. Employees who are issued a ComData corporate credit card must follow procedures as indicated in the ComData Training Manual, available on Company Intranet.

Coding and Deadlines: Employees must scan and code receipts bi-monthly as follows:

Transactions dated the 1st through the 15th must be entered by the 20th of the month.

Transactions dated the 16th through the end of the month must be entered by the 5th of the following month.

Failure to follow the appropriate scanning and coding procedure may result in loss of ComData card privileges.

635 FUEL CARD USAGE AND FUEL REIMBURSEMENT POLICY

Overview

Fuel cards are issued for special circumstances. They are either assigned to a specific vehicle or an individual and are to be used for business purposes only.

Policy

For fuel cards assigned to company vehicles, Posillico prefers that every attempt is made in purchasing fuel at a Gulf station, although the card can be used at any station.

If your card is lost or stolen, immediately notify Shop Management as soon as the loss is discovered so that the card can be canceled and reissued.

Fuel Card Types:

Posillico Vehicle Fuel Card – These cards are to be used specifically with the assigned Posillico vehicle that is printed on the card. The card should be left in the glove box of the assigned Posillico vehicle at all times and should not be used to fill any other Posillico vehicle or a vehicle for personal use. If you change Posillico vehicles you should leave the card with your old vehicle and you will use the fuel card that is supplied with your new vehicle.

Employee Vehicle Fuel Card / ComData Card – These cards are to be used only by the Employee whose name is printed on the card and is only for business use of your personal vehicle.

When using a ComData card for fuel, ALL EMPLOYEES are required to enter:

1. Their specific PIN that was assigned to them; and
2. Current mileage of the vehicle.

YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO USE THE CARD WITHOUT ENTERING YOUR PIN. It is also very important that you do not share your PIN with anyone so we can minimize the possibility of card misuse.

Filling up of small tools or gas cans:

Small tools and gas cans are to be filled using the Project Manager's company credit card or via petty cash on that particular project.

Disciplinary Action:

Failure to enter mileage, entering incorrect mileage, theft, abuse, or failure to provide receipts or other appropriate documentation will result in disciplinary action up to and including the removal of privileges and cancellation of your card, as follows:

- First violation: First written warning.
- Second violation: Second written warning & card privileges will be revoked for one month. Four weeks from the date of the second written warning. There will be no reimbursement for gas usage during this time.
- Third violation: Permanent removal of fuel card privileges due to continued abuse.

640 TELEPHONE/CELL PHONE/VOICE MAIL USE

The Company's telephone system and business cell phones are to be used for business purposes, but the Company realizes that some personal calls are necessary.

Employees can make or receive brief personal telephone calls that are urgent or extremely difficult to schedule outside work hours. Whenever possible, Employees should make their personal telephone calls during meal or break periods.

Employees who abuse this privilege or make fraudulent, unlawful, or abusive calls are subject to discipline and possible criminal prosecution. Employees should report any such telephone calls received at work to their supervisor or the Human Resources Department.

Cell phones should be turned off or set to silent or vibrate mode during meetings in order not to disrupt normal workflow.

The use of personal cell phones while at work (for phone calls, texting, and any other personal use of the device) will only be permitted on an emergency basis. Personal cell phones should be set to silent or vibrate mode during working hours in order not to disrupt normal workflow.

Voice mail, like other components of the company telephone system, is provided and intended for business use only, and all messages are company records. Employees should respond promptly to their voice mail messages and delete old messages. Although Employees need a password to access the voice mail system, they should not expect that voice mail messages are private.

645 USE OF CELL PHONES WHILE DRIVING

Purpose

The use of a cell phone while driving may present a hazard to the driver, other Employees and the general public. This policy is meant to ensure the safe operation of company vehicles and the operation of private vehicles while an Employee is on work time and conducting business.

All Cell Phone Usage and other Electronics

Employees must adhere to all federal, State or local rules and regulations regarding the use of cell phones while driving.

Accordingly, Employees must not use cell phones if law, regulation or other ordinance prohibits such conduct. If you are not sure whether the use of a cell phone while driving is prohibited in a particular area, please check with the Human Resource Department.

Employees should not use hand held cell phones, I-pods, or a PDA while driving. Should an Employee need to make a business call or send e-mail while driving, he should locate a lawfully designated area to park and make the call or respond to email.

Employees may use hands-free cell phones to make business calls only in emergency situations. Such calls should be kept short and should the circumstances warrant (e.g., heavy traffic, bad weather), the Employee should locate a lawfully designated area to park to continue the call.

Discipline

Violation of this policy will subject an Employee to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination.

650 CELL PHONE REIMBURSEMENT PROGRAM

In today's technologically advanced environment, we are witnessing more Employees incorporate the use of personal cell phones in their daily personal and business routine. In an effort to increase efficiency and reduce the burdens on our Employees, we are offering all "eligible" Employees the ability to use their personal cell phones for business purposes during their normal working hours and receive reimbursement from the Company to offset the cost incurred.

Upon termination of employment, all Posillico accounts will be wiped from the Employee's personal phone. Please contact the Human Resources Department for more information.

655 JOB POSTINGS

Posillico believes in promoting Employees from within and has established a job-posting program to give all Employees an opportunity to apply for positions for which they have an interest and are qualified. Most open positions will be posted on the job section of Posillico's web site.

To be eligible to apply for posted positions, you generally must meet the minimum hiring specifications, be capable of performing all functions of the job, be an Employee in good standing and generally have been in your current position for a minimum of one (1) year.

You are not required to notify your supervisor when submitting an application for a posted position. However, if you become a candidate for the position your supervisor will be notified.

660 SOLICITATION AND DISTRIBUTION

Solicitation of any kind by an Employee of another Employee is prohibited while either person is on working time. Similarly, the distribution of advertising material, handbills, printed or written literature of any kind is prohibited during working time and at all times in working areas of Posillico.

Working time includes the time during which any of the Employees involved are actually scheduled to work, but does not include scheduled rest periods, meal breaks and other specified times when Employees are not expected to be working.

Solicitation of any kind by non-Employees is prohibited at all times. The distribution of literature by non-Employees on Posillico premises is also prohibited at all times.

665 CASUAL DRESS AND GROOMING POLICY

Purpose

Posillico offers Employees the opportunity to dress in casual, appropriate business attire. This casual dress code is intended to allow Employees to work comfortably and save money on clothing costs. However, Employees are responsible for ensuring that their dress and grooming present a positive image to clients and the public.

Guidelines

Employees should use good judgment and follow the guidelines below in determining appropriate dress and grooming:

Acceptable attire. For purposes of this policy, casual business attire is clothing that allows Employees to feel comfortable at work, yet is appropriate for an office environment. This policy does not require Employees to purchase casual business attire. Employees who prefer to dress in formal or traditional business attire are free to do so.

Casual business attire includes, but is not limited to: slacks, khakis, jeans without tears or holes, sports shirts, turtlenecks, sweaters, loafers, tennis shoes, and sandals. Skirts, dresses and walking shorts should be no higher than three inches above the knee. Clothing must be neat and clean.

Unacceptable attire. Unacceptable clothing includes, but is not limited to: T-shirts; sweat pants, sweat shirts, or workout attire; cutoffs; beach attire; halter or tank tops; tube tops; dresses, skirts, or shorts that are excessively short or tight-fitting; sheer clothing or clothing that otherwise is revealing, distracting, or provocative; and flip-flops.

Grooming. Hairstyles, makeup, and the grooming of beards and mustaches are left to the discretion of Employees. However, Employees' personal grooming should contribute to a clean and neat appearance.

Personal Hygiene. All Employees are expected to maintain clean and appropriate oral and bodily hygiene. The excessive use of perfume or cologne is unacceptable.

Exceptions

Employees should consider each day's activities when determining what to wear to work. Employees who are hosting or attending meetings with clients, vendors, or Employees from another company office should refrain from wearing casual attire, unless meeting attendees agree in advance to follow the casual business attire policy.

Additional or alternative dress and grooming requirements based on the business needs of your department or for safety reasons may be communicated by your supervisors/managers.

Posillico makes reasonable accommodations for dress or grooming directly related to an Employee's sincerely-held religious beliefs or disabilities in accordance with applicable law.

Enforcement

Posillico reserves the right to determine, at its sole discretion, dress code violations and to enforce its stated policy.

Employees who have questions about what constitutes acceptable attire should ask their supervisor. A supervisor or manager will counsel anyone dressing inappropriately.

Dress code violations that are exceptionally unprofessional or unsafe can result in the Employee being sent home without pay (to the extent permitted by law). Repeated violations of the dress and grooming policy can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

670 STATIONERY

Posillico stationery carries with it the prestige of the organization. The reputation and influence of Posillico can be affected by the manner in which stationery is used. Under no circumstance should Employees use Posillico letterhead for personal reasons. Stationery is to be used for Posillico business only.

675 SECURITY INSPECTIONS

Posillico wishes to maintain a work environment that is free of illegal drugs, firearms, explosives, or other improper materials.

To this end, Posillico prohibits the control, possession, transfer, sale, or use of such materials on or in the vicinity of its premises. Posillico requires the cooperation of all Employees in administering this policy.

Vehicles, facilities, desks, lockers, and other storage devices may be provided for the convenience of Employees but remains the sole property of Posillico. Accordingly, any agent or representative of Posillico can inspect them, as well as any articles found within them, at any time, either with or without prior notice. No Employee has the right to interfere with or object to such searches of Posillico property based on expectations of privacy or otherwise.

680 SAFETY

Posillico endeavors to provide a safe and secure working environment for its Employees and others on its premises.

Employees should immediately inform their immediate supervisor if they notice any potentially dangerous conditions. All Employees are expected to comply with the following rules:

- Report unsafe equipment, hazardous conditions and unsafe acts to a supervisor immediately. Do not try to fix broken equipment.
- Be aware of your local emergency numbers for Police, Fire Department, hospitals and paramedics.
- Know the location of fire exits, first aid kits, and fire extinguishers.
- Wear protective gear if your position warrants it.
- When performing duties and operating equipment, you must take care to protect your own safety, as well as that of your coworkers and the public.
- Clean up all spills of non-hazardous liquids (e.g. coffee, water, etc.). Report all spills involving a hazardous chemical to your supervisor and ask for assistance.
- Footwear appropriate for your job must be worn at all times while performing your duties.
- Do not lift awkward or heavy materials by yourself. Ask for assistance if needed.
- Keep your work areas clean at all times. Keep floors dry and free from spills.
- Report all incidents and injuries to your supervisor immediately.
- Passageways should remain open, and aisles should not be blocked.
- Materials should not be stored in front of exit doors, and desk and file cabinet drawers should be kept closed when not in use.

For all additional requirements, please review your "Field Health and Safety Manual".

In addition, all office personnel who are required to visit a job-site and who have not attended a ten (10) hour OHSA training course must first meet with our Health and Safety Director for safety information and instruction before going out into the field.

685 WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

Purpose

Posillico does not tolerate acts of workplace violence committed by or against Employees. Posillico prohibits Employees from making threats or engaging in violent acts.

NOTE: This is a zero-tolerance policy, meaning that Posillico disciplines or terminates every Employee found to have violated this policy.

Employee Guidelines and Procedures

While we endeavor to provide our Employees with a safe and secure workplace, Posillico recognizes that crime and violence sometimes can spill over into the workplace. We are providing you with these guidelines so you can be better prepared to handle violent and threatening situations.

This document summarizes actions you should and should not take to deal with threatening or violent situations. Taking a few moments to familiarize yourself with these guidelines is an important part of being prepared for workplace emergencies.

Prohibited Conduct

Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Injuring another person physically; engaging in behavior that creates a reasonable fear of injury in another person.
- Engaging in behavior that subjects another individual to extreme emotional distress.
- Possessing, brandishing, or using a weapon while on Posillico premises or engaged in Posillico's business, unless such restriction is prohibited by applicable law.
- Damaging property intentionally.
- Threatening to injure an individual or damage property.
- Committing injurious acts motivated by, or related to, domestic violence or sexual harassment.

General Security Practices

- Never hesitate to call the police or security if confronted with a potentially violent situation. It is better to have called the police unnecessarily than not to have the police available when a threatening situation turns violent.
- Never attempt to physically restrain or physically remove a threatening or violent individual by yourself. Doing so puts you in danger and leaves you and Posillico vulnerable to possible lawsuits.
- Alert your supervisor or the Safety Director to the presence of strangers in your work area or the presence of any suspicious packages.
- Always report violent, threatening, or harassing other behavior in violation of this policy to your supervisor and the Safety Director.
- In the event of armed robbery, comply with the robber's demands, including demands for Posillico's money or property.

Coping with Threatening or Violent Individuals

Effective handling of threatening or violent individuals requires you to use good judgment, common sense and to rely on your own assessment of the particular situation. Nevertheless, you might be able to resolve or cope with many types of threatening or violent situations by following the guidelines below.

When confronted with an angry or hostile individual:

- Stay calm.
- Listen attentively.
- Maintain eye contact.
- Be courteous and patient, but try to keep the situation under control by expressing a willingness to sit and calmly discuss the matter with the individual.

When confronted with a person shouting, swearing, threatening violence, or engaging in bizarre or dangerous behavior:

- Stay calm.
- Be courteous and patient, but maintain your distance from the individual.
- Signal a co-worker or supervisor that you need help. Do not call for help yourself if the individual is directly confronting you.
- Have the co-worker or supervisor call the local police. "Paging Mary Evans" is a pre-arranged code to signal that there is a problem.

When confronted by someone with a gun, knife, or other weapon:

- Stay calm.
- Never try to grab the weapon.
- Quietly signal a co-worker or supervisor that you need help. Do not call for help yourself if the individual is directly confronting you.
- Have the co-worker or supervisor call the security guard or local police. Paging Mary Evans signals that there is a problem.
- Be courteous and patient. Keep talking, but follow the instructions from the person who has the weapon. Stall for time, but do not risk harm to yourself or others.
- Watch for a safe chance to escape to a safe area. Take direction from the police or safety personnel once they arrive on the scene.

Enforcement

Human Resource and Safety personnel will immediately investigate any report of violence, harassment, or threats committed on Posillico premises.

All Employees who commit violent acts or who otherwise violate this policy are subject to corrective action or discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Posillico will seek the prosecution of all those who engage in violence on its premises or against its Employees while they are engaged in employer business.

700 CONFIDENTIALITY

We take pride in our organization and, as a member of the Posillico team. We are committed to excellence and know that others, especially competitors, will seek after our ideas, materials, products and data. You owe it to yourself, your colleagues, Posillico and everyone connected with our organization to safeguard these assets.

In the course of your employment with Posillico, you will be entrusted with highly confidential information and materials, including "trade secrets". This information is the property of Posillico and as such, you owe a duty of confidence and trust to our company regarding such information. The general rule is do not disclose confidential business information about Posillico to anyone outside the organization. If you have any doubts about whether any information or data concerning Posillico, is confidential, you must refrain from disclosure and check with your immediate supervisor.

Violation of this policy may result in discipline, up to and including dismissal, even for a first offense. For more information, please refer to the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics Policy, which are contained in a separate document.

710 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Confidential information includes information that is internally generated by Posillico, concerning the business of Posillico. It may also include information obtained from sources outside of Posillico, including information about other companies. You should consider all information, from whatever source, to be confidential until it has been made available to the general public for at least forty-eight (48) hours. Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information could cause competitive harm to Posillico and result in liability for Posillico and those persons disclosing the information.

- The intellectual property and trade secrets of Posillico.

- The creative efforts, ideas and expressions belonging to Posillico, any and all information relating to the Posillico's business operations including information relating to bids, proposals, pricing, bid schedules, targeted or contemplated projects, customer lists, accounting and financial information and reports, letters of intent, term sheets, contracts of sale, business plans, media plans and pricing.

- All notes, memoranda, files, software programs, databases, records, documents, writings and other items that you create, prepare, use or come into contact with during your employment, either directly or indirectly, that relate to actual or anticipated business of Posillico.

During the period of your employment at Posillico, you cannot, directly or indirectly, use or disclose the confidential information other than in the course of performing your duties as an Employee and with Posillico's consent. In the event that your employment terminates for any reason, you must promptly return to Posillico all confidential information in your possession.

Nothing in this provision shall be deemed to limit an Employee's rights under the National Labor Relations Act.

720 UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE

Personnel may not discuss confidential information with anyone outside the Company.

730 SAFEGUARDING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Care must be taken to safeguard confidential information. Accordingly, the following measures should be adhered to:

- Posillico's Employees should conduct their business and social activities so as not to risk intentional or inadvertent disclosure of confidential information. For example, when not in use, confidential documents should be securely stored. Also, review of confidential documents or discussion of confidential subjects in public places (e.g., airplanes, trains, taxis, etc.) should be so conducted so as to prevent overhearing or other access by unauthorized persons.

- Within Posillico's offices, confidential matters should not be discussed within hearing range of visitors or others not working on such matters.

- Confidential matters should not be discussed with other Employees not working on such matters or with friends or relatives including those living in the same household as a Posillico Employee.

740 QUESTIONS ABOUT PARTICULAR SITUATIONS

Whenever any Posillico personnel are confronted with a situation where they have any questions as to what the result should be under these policies and procedures, they should consult immediately with Human Resources.

800 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

810 TERMINATIONS

Since employment with Posillico is at-will, both the Employee and Posillico have the right to terminate employment at will, with or without cause, at any time.

Employees are responsible for all Posillico property, materials, or written information issued to them or in their possession or control. Employees must return all property immediately at any time at the request of Posillico and in any event on or before the last day of work.

Resignation is a voluntary act initiated by the Employee to terminate employment with Posillico. Although advance notice is not required, Posillico requests at least two (2) weeks and the resignation in writing from all Employees.

Under no circumstances will an Employee be paid out for accrued, unused PTO upon termination.

820 NON-SOLICITATION OF EMPLOYEES

Employee hereby agrees that during the Employee's employment with Posillico and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter, Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, for Employee's own account or jointly with another, or for or on behalf of any entity, as principal, agent or otherwise, solicit or induce or in any manner attempt to solicit or induce any person employed by Posillico or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates to leave such employment (including as a consultant), whether or not such employment is pursuant to a written contract with Posillico or otherwise.

Code of Business Ethics

All of us at Posillico have an obligation to conduct business within guidelines that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. Posillico's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics Policy ("Code"), which is contained herein describes the framework within which Posillico operates. The purpose of the Code is to provide general direction so that Employees can seek further clarification on issues related to the subject of acceptable standards of operation. All Employees are required to review and adhere to the Code.

Mission Statement

Posillico is the company which knows how to solve complex construction problems, completing all projects safely, on time, on target, and on budget. Posillico is dedicated to setting the standard for excellence in the construction industry relative to: infrastructure, quality of life, and making a difference through solid relationships at all levels.

Vision

To be the employer and organization of choice in each of the markets we serve, by completing all projects safely, on time, on target and on budget.

I. Client Relationships

Fiduciary Obligations - Employees should at all times act in accordance with our interests and to those of our clients. Employees shall not engage in any personal financial or business activity that could be reasonably construed as contrary to Posillico and the client's best interests.

Employees shall not represent personal or business interests divergent or conflicting with those of Posillico's clients, unless the client is first notified in writing of the activity or potential conflict of interest and consents in writing to allow the Employee to proceed.

Confidentiality

Posillico's business relationships with its clients are confidential and maintaining this confidentiality is essential to Posillico's business relationships. Information regarding Posillico's clients must not be discussed with family or friends, nor discussed with other Employees in public places where others can listen in to private conversations. This duty of confidentiality applies to all information, which may be proprietary, or sensitive regarding clients' businesses or information.

Employees shall not disclose to any third party any confidential or proprietary information, which would be injurious or damaging to a client concerning the client's business or personal affairs without the client's prior written consent, unless such disclosure is required or compelled by law or regulation.

In certain cases, Employees may gain knowledge of unethical or illegal activity conducted by a client. Employees should immediately report such activity to their immediate supervisors. Employees may also at a later time be required by law or regulation to disclose their knowledge of such activity to government officials.

See the Confidentiality Policy in the Employee Handbook for additional information.

Client Gratuities

Property and/or Monetary Gifts - Employees will not be permitted to accept gifts in excess of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), without the consent from a member of management. However, they may be allowed to retain gifts of a symbolic nature, such as flowers or food.

Requested or Offered Services - Employees are only allowed to receive services from clients and subcontractors at industry rates if a member of management approves any work being performed by a client of Posillico.

Socializing with Clients and Subcontractors

Posillico recognizes the importance of Employee participation in social activities provided by the client. Employees will be allowed to accept, with prior approval of their immediate supervisor, the invitation of a client to a reasonable event (e.g. Grand Opening party, Holiday party, business dinner, golf outing). Reasonable events do not include vacations, recreational events that last more than a day, adult theme activities or the like. In addition, the inviting party must be present at the event. If Employees are unsure about what type of events they may attend, they should consult a member of management.

Documentation of All Client Related Activities

All activity with a client must be documented and presented to the Employee's immediate supervisor who will be responsible for record maintenance. At no time are Employees allowed to accept or offer anything to a client without the approval of an immediate supervisor.

Personal Gains

Personal gains are not limited to direct cash payments. Any transaction in which Employees or their families can gain personally through a transaction between Posillico and a client or vendor is prohibited. These transactions are not only unethical but may also be illegal.

Reciprocity

Posillico often purchases goods or services from vendors who may also buy services from Posillico although this is normal practice, Employees must not ask vendors to buy Posillico services in order to become or continue to be a vendor with Posillico.

Payments to Clients

Employees shall not pay, or offer to pay, any benefit to any client or prospective client's agent or representatives in order to induce the purchase of Posillico's services.

II. Proper/Improper Work Conduct

Use of Contraband or Other Inebriating Substances

Possession, sale, or use of alcohol, narcotics, or any other intoxicating drug or controlled substance without a valid prescription, on the premises of Posillico, or being under the influence of alcohol, narcotics or any other intoxicating drug or controlled substance without a valid prescription during working hours, is prohibited.

See the Drug Free Workplace Policy in the Employee Handbook for additional information.

Violations of Law

All Employees are expected to adhere to all federal, State, local and administrative laws, rules and regulations in and out of the office. Employees involved in the theft or misuse of Posillico funds or property will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Physical Violence

All Employees are expected to act in an appropriate manner in their relationships with other Employees, competitors and the public. At no time should Employees threaten or implement physical violence against any other person. Any threats or physical violence directed towards a Posillico Employee in the course of the performance of the Employee's job should be reported immediately to the Employee's supervisor.

See the Workplace Violence Policy in the Employee Handbook for additional information.

Appearance

Posillico considers its Employees to be its most important representatives. All Employees should remember that their personal appearance is a reflection of the company.

See the Casual Dress and Grooming Policy in the Employee Handbook for additional information.

Conflicts of Interest

Employees shall not represent personal or business interests divergent or conflicting with those of Posillico. If Employees are unsure about whether a situation constitutes a conflict of interest, they should discuss the matter with their immediate supervisor.

See also the Ethics and Conflicts of Interest Policy in the Employee Handbook.

Books and Records

Employees shall not intentionally, either through deliberate omission or by entry of false information, cause Posillico's books or records to be inaccurate. Legal and regulatory practices require Posillico to retain its books and records for a certain period of time.

Safety Conditions

To provide a clean and safe environment for its Employees, Posillico encourages all Employees to report any conditions they believe to be unsafe, unhealthy or hazardous to their immediate supervisor.

See the Safety Policy in the Employee Handbook for additional information.

Preventing Harassment and Discrimination

Posillico is committed to maintaining a work environment free of harassment and discrimination. In keeping with this commitment, Posillico will not tolerate harassment of, or discrimination against, its Employees by anyone, including any supervisor, co-worker, vendor or customer. Employees should consult their Employee Handbook for a more detailed description of Posillico's harassment policy.

See the Sexual and Other Harassment Policy in the Employee Handbook for additional information.

Payments to Government Employees

Employees shall not give or offer to give, or provide or offer to provide, money, gifts, services, entertainment or anything of value, directly or indirectly, to any government Employee in order to induce any change in the performance of his or her responsibilities.

Enforcement

Employees are obligated to report any suspected violation of this Code to their immediate supervisor.

If any Employee has knowledge of unethical or illegal activity conducted within Posillico or by outside agencies, the Employee should immediately report such activity to a member of the Board of Directors. Employees may also at a later time be required by law or regulation to disclose their knowledge of such activity to government officials.

Employees are expected to cooperate fully in any investigation of a suspected violation of this Code. Employees making good faith reports of suspected violations will not be subject to any reprisals.

Posillico reserves the right to discipline Employees in violation of this Code through any legal method necessary to ensure adherence to proper conduct and to this Code, up to and including discharge.

To ensure a better working environment for all Employees, Posillico encourages all Employees to seek the guidance of Human Resources or their supervisors, if they have any questions concerning this Code.

NEW YORK SUPPLEMENT

I. BLOOD DONATION LEAVE

In accordance with New York Labor Law, Posillico will provide employees who work in New York at least twenty (20) hours per week up to three (3) hours of unpaid leave in any calendar year to donate blood.

Employees must provide their supervisor/manager with reasonable notice of their intention to participate in a blood drive. If the blood drive is at an offsite location, employees must provide at least three (3) days advance notice. If the blood drive is onsite, employees must provide at least two (2) days advance notice.

Posillico fully supports the use of this leave to make a blood donation. We will not tolerate any form of retaliation against an employee for requesting or using leave to donate blood.

II. BONE MARROW DONATION LEAVE

In accordance with state law, Posillico will grant employees up to twenty-four (24) hours of combined leave to donate bone marrow and to recuperate. Employees may use any accrued paid time off for this purpose or take the time as unpaid. Such leave shall not affect the employee's rights with respect to any other employee benefit. Posillico reserves the right to request medical verification of the purpose and length of each leave requested by the employee to donate bone marrow.

III. NEW YORK CITY SUPPLEMENTAL GENDER DISCRIMINATION POLICY

In accordance with New York City law, Posillico prohibits discrimination in employment on the basis of gender. For purposes of this policy, gender is an individual's actual or perceived sex, including gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior, or expression, regardless of whether the individual's gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior, or expression is different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to that individual at birth. Posillico is dedicated to ensuring the fulfillment of this policy as it applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including recruitment, hiring, placement, promotion, transfer, training, compensation, benefits, accommodation requests, access to programs and facilities, employee activities, and general treatment during employment.

In furtherance of this policy:

- Posillico gives employees the option of indicating their preferred gender pronoun. Posillico's systems allow employees to self-identify their names and genders and do not limit such identifications to male and female only.
- Posillico's dress code and grooming standards are gender neutral, and therefore do not differentiate or impose restrictions or requirements based on gender or sex.

- Posillico evaluates all requests for accommodations (including requests for medical leaves) in a fair and non-discriminatory manner.
- Employees who engage with the public as part of their job duties are required to do so in a respectful, non-discriminatory manner by respecting gender diversity and ensuring that members of the public are not subject to discrimination (including discrimination with respect to single-sex programs and facilities).

Employees with issues or concerns regarding gender discrimination or who feel they have been subjected to such discrimination can contact Human Resources. Posillico prohibits and does not tolerate retaliation against employees who report issues or concerns of gender discrimination pursuant to this policy in good faith.

IV. NEW YORK CITY PREGNANCY ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

Pursuant to the New York City Human Rights Law, Posillico prohibits unlawful discrimination on the basis of pregnancy or perceived pregnancy and will endeavor to reasonably accommodate the needs of an employee for her pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition in order allow her to perform the essential requisites of the job, provided that such employee's pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition is known or should have been known by Posillico, and the proposed accommodation does not impose an undue hardship on Posillico.

Any employee who needs to request an accommodation due to pregnancy, childbirth, or a related medical condition should contact Human Resources.

After receiving a request for an accommodation due to pregnancy, childbirth, or a related medical condition or learning indirectly that an employee requires such an accommodation, Posillico will engage in a cooperative dialogue with the employee. Even if an employee has not formally requested an accommodation, Posillico may initiate a cooperative dialogue under certain circumstances, such as when Posillico has knowledge that an employee's performance at work has been negatively affected and a reasonable basis to believe that the issue is related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition, in compliance with applicable law.

The cooperative dialogue may take place in person, by telephone, or by electronic means. As part of the cooperative dialogue, Posillico will communicate openly and in good faith with the employee in a timely manner in order to determine whether and how Posillico may be able to provide a reasonable accommodation. To the extent necessary and appropriate based on the request, Posillico will attempt to explore the existence and feasibility of alternative accommodations as well as alternative positions for the employee. Posillico is not required to provide the specific accommodation sought by an employee, provided the alternatives are reasonable and either meet the specific needs of the employee or specifically address the employee's limitation.

As part of the cooperative dialogue, Posillico reserves the right to request medical documentation from an employee under the following circumstances:

1) when an employee requests time away from work, including for medical appointments, other than time off requested during the six (6) to eight (8) week period following childbirth (for recovery from childbirth) or
2) when an employee requests to work from home, either on an intermittent basis or a longer-term basis.

If Posillico believes that the provided documentation is insufficient, and before denying the request based on insufficient documentation, Posillico reserves the right to request additional documentation from the employee or, upon the employee's consent, speak with the health care provider who provided the documentation. As applicable, an employee whose time off is covered by the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) may also be required to provide medical documentation, depending on the circumstances of the leave request, pursuant to federal law.

At the conclusion of the cooperative dialogue, Posillico will provide written notice to the employee in a timely manner indicating that Posillico:

1) will be able to offer and provide a reasonable accommodation,
2) will not able to provide a reasonable accommodation to the employee because there is no accommodation available that will not cause an undue hardship on Posillico's operations, or
3) will not able to provide a reasonable accommodation to the employee because no accommodation exists that will allow the employee to perform the essential requisites of the job.

Posillico will endeavor to keep communications regarding requests for reasonable accommodations and all circumstances surrounding an employee's pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition confidential.

Employees with questions regarding this policy should contact Human Resources.

V. NEW YORK STATE PAID FAMILY LEAVE ("PFL")

Employees may be entitled to a paid leave of absence under the New York Paid Family Leave ("PFL") law when they need time off to care for a family member, bond with a child or for certain qualifying exigencies. Benefits under this policy are funded through payroll deductions. This policy provides basic information concerning PFL entitlements and obligations. For questions concerning PFL, employees should contact Human Resources.

EMPLOYEES ELIGIBLE FOR PFL LEAVE

PFL is available to "eligible employees." To be eligible, an employee must have: (a) (1) a regular schedule of 20 or more hours per week; and (2) been employed for at least 26 consecutive weeks prior to the date PFL leave begins; OR (b) (1) a regular schedule of less than 20 hours per week; and (2) worked at least 175 days prior to the date PFL leave begins.

An employee has the option to file a waiver of PFL and therefore not be subject to deductions when his or her regular employment schedule is: (i) 20 or more hours per week but the employee will not work 26 consecutive weeks; or (ii) less than 20 hours per week and the employee will not work 175 days in a 52 consecutive week period.

EMPLOYEE ENTITLEMENTS FOR PFL

As described below, PFL provides eligible employees with a right to paid leave, health insurance benefits and job restoration for certain family reasons.

A. Basic Leave Entitlement

1. Reasons Leave May be Taken

Leave may be taken for any one, or for a combination, of the following reasons:

a. To participate in providing care, including physical or psychological care, for the employee's family member (child, spouse, domestic partner, parent, grandchild, grandparent or parent of a spouse or domestic partner) with a serious health condition;

b. To bond with the employee's child during the first twelve months after the child's birth, adoption or foster care placement; and/or

c. Because of any qualifying exigency, as interpreted by the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), arising out of the fact that the employee's spouse, domestic partner, child, or parent is on active duty (or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty) in the armed forces of the United States.

A "serious health condition" is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves: (a) inpatient care in a hospital, hospice or residential health care facility; or (b) continuing treatment or continuing supervision by a health care provider. Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment or continuing supervision requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than three (3) consecutive full days during which a family member is unable to work, attend school, perform regular daily activities or is otherwise incapacitated due to illness, injury, impairment or physical or mental conditions, and any subsequent treatment or period of incapacity relating to the same condition, that also involves: (a) treatment two or more times by a health care provider; or (b) treatment on at least one occasion by a health care provider, which results in a regimen of continuing treatment under the supervision of the health care provider. The continuing treatment or continuing supervision requirement also may be met by any period during which a family member is unable to work, attend school, perform regular daily activities, or is otherwise incapacitated due to a chronic serious health condition or an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition for which treatment may not be effective. A chronic serious health condition is one which: (a) requires periodic visits for treatment by a health care provider; (b) continues over an extended period of time (including recurring episodes of a single underlying condition); and (c) may cause episodic rather than a continuing period of incapacity. Examples of such episodic incapacity include but are not limited to asthma, diabetes, and epilepsy. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, caring for the parents of the military member on covered active duty and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

2. Duration of Leave

PFL provides eligible employees up to eight (8) weeks (increases to ten (10) weeks on or after January 1, 2019 and up to twelve (12) weeks on or after January 1, 2021) paid leave within any 52 consecutive week period.

The 52 consecutive week period is determined retroactively with respect to each day for which PFL benefits are currently being claimed.

B. Pay During Leave

PFL paid benefits are financed solely through employee contributions via payroll deductions. The weekly monetary benefit will be 50% of the employee's average weekly wage or 50% of the state average weekly wage, whichever is less (increases to 55% on or after January 1, 2019, 60% on or after January 1, 2020 and 67% or after January 1, 2021).

An employee who is eligible for both statutory short-term disability benefits and PFL during the same period of 52 consecutive calendar weeks may not receive more than 26 total weeks of disability and PFL benefits during that period of time. Statutory short-term disability benefits and PFL benefits may not be used concurrently.

C. Intermittent Leave and Reduced Leave Schedules

PFL leave may be taken for a period of consecutive days or weeks. An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently in increments of at least one full day or on a reduced leave schedule, except that an employee may only take intermittent or reduced leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition where it is shown to be medically necessary. Employees must provide notice as soon as is practicable before each day or intermittent leave.

D. Protection of Group Health Insurance Benefits

During PFL leave, employees are entitled to continue group health plan coverage under the same conditions as if they had continued to work. Unless the Company notifies employees of other arrangements, whenever employees are receiving pay from the Company during PFL, the Company will deduct the employee portion of the group health plan premium from the employee's paycheck in the same manner as if the employee was actively working.

If an employee's premium payment is more than 30 days late, the Company may retroactively cease coverage to the date the unpaid premium was due.

E. Restoration of Employment and Benefits

Any employee who exercises his or her right to PFL will, upon the expiration of that leave, be entitled to be restored to the position held by the employee when the leave commenced, or to a comparable position with comparable benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment. The taking of leave covered by PFL will not result in the loss of any employment benefit accrued prior to the date on which the leave commenced.

EMPLOYEE PFL LEAVE OBLIGATIONS

A. Provide Notice of the Need for Leave

Employees must timely notify the Company of their need for PFL leave, as described below.

1. Content of Employee Notice

To trigger PFL leave protections, employees must provide sufficient information to make the Company aware of the qualifying event and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Employees may do this by either requesting PFL specifically, or explaining the reasons for leave so as to allow the Company to determine that the leave is PFL-qualifying. Employees must specifically identify the type of family leave requested.

2. Timing of Employee Notice

Employees must provide thirty (30) days' advance notice of the need to take PFL when the need is foreseeable. When thirty (30) days' notice is not practicable for reasons such as lack of knowledge of approximately when leave will be required to begin, a change in circumstances, or a medical emergency, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with the Company's normal call-in procedures. Employees who fail to give 30 days' notice for foreseeable leave without a reasonable excuse for the delay, or otherwise fail to satisfy PFL notice obligations, may have PFL delayed or denied for a period of up to thirty (30) days from the date notice is provided.

B. Request Paid Family Leave

Employees are required to submit a Request for Paid Family Leave to the Posillico Human Resources Department at least 30 days in advance of their need for leave if it is practicable to do so.

C. Submit Documentation Supporting Need for PFL

In addition to submitting a Request for Paid Family Leave, employees are required to submit a Certification and/or Proof of Eligibility (as described below) that supports the specific type of PFL they are requesting. No PFL benefits shall be paid until the completed Request for Paid Family Leave, together with any necessary certification or proof of eligibility has been submitted. It is the employee's responsibility to provide the Posillico Human Resources Department with a complete and sufficient certification.

1. Certifications Supporting Leave to Care for Family Members

An employee requesting PFL because of a covered family member's serious health condition, must supply a medical certification supporting the need for such leave from the health care provider of the covered family member.

2. Certifications Supporting Leave to Care for Qualifying Exigencies

An employee requesting PFL because of a qualifying exigency must provide a copy of the military member's active duty orders or other documentation issued by the military which indicates that the military member is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status, and the dates of the military member's covered active duty service.

3. Proof of Eligibility for Leave Taken to Bond with a Child

i. Leave Requested by Birth Mother

A birth mother requesting PFL to bond with a child must provide either (1) a birth certificate; or (2) if a birth certificate is unavailable, documentation of pregnancy or birth from a health care provider that includes the mother's name and the child's due or birth date.

ii. Leave Requested by Parent Other Than Birth Mother

A parent (other than a birth mother) requesting PFL to bond with a child must provide (1) a birth certificate; (2) If no birth certificate is available, a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity or court order of filiation; (3) If neither a birth certificate nor voluntary acknowledgment is available, a copy of documentation of pregnancy or birth from a health care provider and a second document verifying the parent's relationship with the birth mother or child (i.e. marriage certificate, civil union documents, or domestic partner documents). If none of the above documents are available, a parent may submit other documentary evidence of parental relationship for evaluation on a case-by-case basis.

iii. Leave Sought by Adoptive Parent

An adoptive parent requesting PFL to bond with a child must provide (1) a court document indicating that an adoption is in process or is being finalized; or (2) when leave is taken prior to completion of the adoption, a document evidencing that the adoption process is underway, including but not limited to, a signed statement from an attorney, adoption agency, or adoption-related social service provider that the employee is in the process of adopting a child. If the second parent is not named in the above document(s), the employee must provide both a copy of the document evidencing the adoption, and a second document verifying the relationship to the parent named in the document (i.e. marriage certificate, civil union documents, or domestic partnership documents).

iv. Leave Sought by Foster Parent

A foster parent requesting PFL to bond with a child must provide a letter of placement issued by the county or city department of social services or local volunteer agency. If the employee is not named in the placement document, an employee must submit both a copy of the document evidencing the placement, and a second document verifying the relationship to the parent named in the document (i.e. marriage certificate, civil union documents, or domestic partnership documents).

D. Report Periodically Concerning Intent to Return to Work

Employees must contact the Company on a bi-weekly basis regarding their status and intention to return to work at the end of the PFL leave period. If an employee's anticipated return to work date changes and it becomes necessary for the employee to take more or less leave than originally anticipated, the employee must provide the Company with reasonable notice (i.e., within 2 business days) of the employee's changed circumstances and new return-to-work date. If employees give the Company unequivocal notice of their intent not to return to work, the Company's obligations to maintain health benefits (subject to COBRA requirements) and to restore their positions cease.

E. Substitute Paid Time/Leave for Unpaid Portions of PFL

The Company and an employee may agree to allow the employee to supplement PFL benefits with unused accruals or other paid time off up to their full salary. The supplementing of PFL benefits with unused accruals or other paid time off up does not extend the length of PFL, and the paid time will run concurrently with an employee's PFL entitlement, to the maximum extent permissible under the law.

COORDINATION OF PFL WITH FMLA AND OTHER LEAVE POLICIES

The Company will run PFL concurrently with FMLA or Company Leave Policies whenever permissible under the law. When the total hours taken for FMLA in less than full-day increments reaches the number of hours in an employee's usual workday, the Company may deduct one (1) day of PFL from an employee's annual available PFL.

The PFL does not affect any federal, state or local law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any federal, state or local law, or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family leave rights. For additional information concerning leave entitlements and obligations that might arise when PFL is either not available or exhausted, please consult the Company's other leave policies in this Handbook or contact Human Resources.

QUESTIONS AND/OR COMPLAINTS ABOUT PFL

If you have questions regarding this PFL policy, please contact Human Resources. The Company is committed to complying with the PFL and, whenever necessary, shall interpret and apply this policy in a manner consistent with the PFL.

Employees who disagree with a denial of their claim for PFL, may submit their dispute to arbitration. A request for arbitration must be submitted to the dispute resolution forum within 26 weeks of the written notice of denial. Copies of all documents previously submitted to the Posillico Human Resources Department as proof of eligibility and the rejection of claim form must be submitted with the request for arbitration as well as a $25 filing fee. Any request for arbitration which is not accompanied by the necessary documents or filing fee shall be returned with an acknowledgment stating there will be no further action on the claim.

VI. NEW YORK STATE SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Posillico prohibits sexual harassment and retaliation of or against its applicants, interns, contractors, volunteers or employees by another employee, supervisor, customer, client, vendor or other third party in all aspects of the employment relationship including: recruitment, hiring, placement, promotion, transfer, training, compensation, benefits, activities, access to programs and treatment. This policy is one component of Posillico's commitment to a discrimination-free work environment.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT DEFINED

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination that violates Posillico policy and is unlawful under federal, New York State and local law (as applicable). Sexual harassment includes unwelcome conduct which is either of a sexual nature or which is directed at an individual because of that individuals' sex or gender (including pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions), gender identity or gender expression (including transgender status), and/or sexual orientation when:

- Submission to that conduct or those advances or requests is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; or
- Submission to or rejection of the conduct or advances or requests by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the individual; or
- The conduct or advances or requests have the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment, even if the individual is not the intended target.

Sexual harassment can be verbal (e.g., jokes, insults, gestures or teasing), visual (e.g., offensive posters, symbols, cartoons, drawings, computer displays, text messages, social media posts or e-mails) or physical conduct (e.g., unwanted touching, physically threatening another) that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion towards an individual based on sex or gender, gender identity, gender expression and/or sexual orientation.

Examples of conduct that violate this policy include:

- unwelcome sexual advances, flirtations, advances, leering, whistling, touching, pinching, assault, blocking normal movement
- requests for sexual favors or demands for sexual favors in exchange for favorable treatment
- obscene or vulgar gestures, posters, or comments
- sexual jokes, noises, or comments about a person's body, sexual prowess, sexuality, sexual experience, or sexual deficiencies
- propositions, or suggestive or insulting comments of a sexual nature
- derogatory cartoons, posters, and drawings
- sexually-explicit e-mails, text messages, posts or voicemails
- conversation about one's own or someone else's sex life
- conduct or comments consistently targeted at only one gender, even if the content is not sexual
- teasing or other conduct directed toward a person because of the person's gender
- sex stereotyping

RETALIATION DEFINED

Retaliation is adverse conduct taken because an individual reported an actual or perceived violation of this policy, opposed practices prohibited by this policy, participated in the reporting and investigation process set forth in this policy or testified or assisted in an investigation or proceeding involving an actual or perceived violation of this policy. Adverse conduct includes, but is not limited to any action that would keep an employee from reporting sexual harassment or retaliation; shunning and avoiding an individual who reports sexual harassment or retaliation; express or implied threats or intimidation intended to prevent an individual from reporting sexual harassment or retaliation; and denying employment benefits because an applicant or employee reported or encouraged another employee to report sexual harassment or retaliation or participated in the reporting and investigation process.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

Posillico cannot prevent sexual harassment unless we know about it. If an employee believes someone has violated this policy, the employee should promptly bring the matter to the immediate attention of Lisa Dippel; VP, Human Resources or any member of management with whom the employee feels comfortable. Reports of sexual harassment may be made verbally or in writing. Written complaints can be submitted internally using a complaint form. The complaint form can be found on the Posillico Company Intranet. If the employee makes a complaint under this policy and has not received a satisfactory response within five (5) business days, the employee should contact Joseph K. Posillico, President & CEO, immediately.

Every supervisor who learns of any employee's concern about conduct in violation of this policy, whether in a formal complaint or informally, must immediately report the issues raised to Lisa Dippel; VP, Human Resources.

INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE

Upon receiving a complaint, Posillico will timely conduct a fair and thorough investigation into any claim of a violation of this policy to ensure due process for all parties. Posillico will endeavor to keep the reporting employee's concerns confidential. However, complete confidentiality may not be possible in all circumstances. Employees are required to cooperate in investigations conducted pursuant to this policy.

During the investigation, Posillico generally will interview the complainant and the accused, conduct further interviews as necessary and review documents or other information the investigator believes are relevant.

Upon completion of the investigation, Posillico will determine whether this policy has been violated based upon its reasonable, good-faith evaluation of the information gathered during the investigation. Posillico will inform the complainant and the accused of the results of the investigation.

Any employee found to have engaged in conduct in violation of this policy will be considered to have engaged in employee misconduct. Individuals who violate this policy (which includes supervisory or management personnel who fail to report or knowingly allow sexually harassing behavior to continue) will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination from employment. Individuals who engage in conduct that rises to the level of a violation of law can be held personally liable for such conduct.

LEGAL PROTECTIONS AND EXTERNAL REMEDIES.

Aside from the internal complaint process, employees may choose to pursue external legal remedies with the following governmental entities:

New York State Division of Human Rights (DHR)

The DHR enforces the New York State Human Rights Law (HRL), codified as N.Y. Executive Law, art. 15, § 290 et seq., which protects employees, paid or unpaid interns and non-employees regardless of immigration status from unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation. The DHR has the power to award relief, which varies but may include requiring an employer to take action to stop the harassment, or redress the damage caused, including paying monetary damages, attorney's fees and civil fines.

DHR's main office contact information is:
NYS Division of Human Rights
One Fordham Plaza, Fourth Floor
Bronx, New York 10458
(718) 741-8400
www.dhr.ny.gov

Individuals also may contact the DHR at (888) 392-3644 or visit dhr.ny.gov/complaint for more information.

United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC)

The EEOC enforces federal anti-discrimination laws, including Title VII of the 1964 federal Civil Rights Act (codified as 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq.). If an employee believes he/she has been subjected to harassment, he/she can file a "Charge of Discrimination." The EEOC has district, area, and field offices where complaints can be filed. The EEOC does not hold hearings or award relief, but may take other action including pursuing cases in federal court on behalf of complaining parties. Federal courts may award remedies if discrimination is found to have occurred.

Local Protections

Many localities enforce laws protect individuals from sexual harassment and discrimination. An individual should contact the county, city or town in which they live to find out if such a law exists.

Below is contact information for several agencies…

1. Nassau County: Employees who work in Nassau County can file complaints of sexual harassment with the Nassau County Commission on Human Rights (240 Old Country Road, 6th Floor, Suite 606, Mineola, NY 11501; 516-571-3662; www.nassaucountyny.gov/414/Human-Rights-Commission).

2. Suffolk County: Employees who work in Suffolk County can file complaints of sexual harassment with the Suffolk County Human Rights Commission H. Lee Dennison Building, 100 Veterans Memorial Hwy, third Floor, Hauppauge, NY 11788; 631-853-5480; www.suffolkcountyny.gov/Departments/HumanRightsCommission.aspx).]

3. New York City: Employees who work in New York City (including any of the five boroughs) can file complaints of sexual harassment with the New York City Commission on Human Rights. It has a physical location in each of the five boroughs. The Manhattan location is located at 22 Reade Street, First Floor, New York, NY 10007; 212-306-7450; https://www1.nyc.gov/site/cchr/index.page).

Contact the Local Police Department

If the harassment involves unwanted physical touching, coerced physical confinement or coerced sex acts, the conduct may constitute a crime. Contact the local police department or, in an emergency, dial 911.

I. FAMILY LEAVE INSURANCE BENEFITS

Employees taking time off work to care for a child, spouse, partner in a civil union, registered domestic partner, or parent with a serious health condition, or to bond with a newly born or adopted child, may be eligible to receive family leave benefits through the state, which is administered by the Division of Temporary Disability Insurance, the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

These benefits are financed solely through employee contributions to the state. The state is responsible for determining if an associate is eligible for such benefits. There generally is a waiting period during which time no family leave benefits are available. The Division of Temporary Disability Insurance can provide additional information about any applicable waiting period.

Employees who need to take time off work to care for a child, spouse, partner in a civil union, registered domestic partner, or parent with a serious health condition or to bond with a newly born or adopted child should speak to Human Resources, who will provide information about the state's family leave benefits program and how to apply for benefits. Employees also may contact the Division of Temporary Disability Insurance for further information. Employees should maintain regular contact with their Manager during this time away from work so we may monitor employees' return-to-work status. In addition, employees should contact The Human Resources Department when ready to return to work so we may determine what positions, if any, are open.

When an employee applies for family leave benefits, Human Resources will determine if the employee has any accrued but unused paid time off available. If the employee has accrued but unused paid time off available, the employee will be required to use up to two (2) weeks of such time before becoming eligible for family leave benefits.

Employees taking time off work to care for a child, spouse, partner in a civil union, registered domestic partner, or parent with a serious health condition or to bond with a newly born or adopted child and who receive paid family leave benefits are not guaranteed job reinstatement unless they qualify for such reinstatement under federal and/or state family and medical leave laws. Any time off for family leave purposes will run concurrently with other leaves of absence, such as Family and Medical Leave Act and the New Jersey Family Leave Act, if applicable. Please see the "Family and Medical Leave" policy for eligibility requirements.

II. NEW JERSEY FAMILY LEAVE (ADDENDUM TO FMLA POLICY)

Like the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") Policy described elsewhere in this Handbook, the New Jersey Family Leave Act ("NJFLA") may require employers to provide family and medical leaves of absence for eligible employees. Either or both of these laws may apply to a leave. Where both laws apply, any leave taken will be counted under both laws at the same time. This policy will be interpreted to comply with the law(s) that apply to a particular leave. This policy provides employees information concerning any NJFLA entitlements and obligations that differ from the FMLA entitlements and obligations that are set forth elsewhere in this handbook.

If employees have any questions concerning NJFLA leave, they should contact Human Resources.

Eligibility. NJFLA leave is available to "NJFLA eligible employees." To be an NJFLA eligible employee, an employee must:

1) Have been employed by Posillico in New Jersey for at least twelve (12) months;
2) Have worked at least 1,000 "base hours" during the 12-month period preceding the leave; and
3) Be employed by an employer with fifty (50) or more employees.

"Base Hours" are the hours of work for which the employee receives compensation including overtime hours and hours for which the employee receives workers' compensation benefits.

Basic Family and Medical Leave Entitlement. The FMLA provides eligible employees up to twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid leave for certain family and medical reasons. The NJFLA provides eligible employees up to twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid leave for certain family reason during a 24-month period. NJFLA leave may be taken to care for the employee's spouse or partner in a civil union/domestic partner, son, daughter, parent or parent-in-law who has a serious health condition.

Under the NJFLA, leave because the birth of a child or placement of a child with the employee for adoption may commence at any time within one year of the date of birth or placement. Under the FMLA, leave because of the birth of a child or placement of a child with the employee for adoption (or foster care) must be concluded within the 12-month period beginning on the date of birth or placement.

As noted above, because the NJFLA is only a "family leave" law, employees should note that leave granted due to an employee's own serious health condition is not covered by the NJFLA. This can result in important distinctions in the calculation of available leave. For example, because the period of leave caused by an employee's disability due to pregnancy or childbirth is more properly classified as leave due to an employee's own serious health condition, Posillico normally would count such time toward the employee's FMLA allotment only. Once the period of disability due to pregnancy or childbirth has ended (i.e., employee is cleared to return to work), an employee would be eligible to use her leave under the NJFLA to care for her newborn child and run that time concurrently with any remaining FMLA leave. In instances where an employee remains disabled due to childbirth and an employee has no FMLA leave remaining, Posillico will allow employees to begin using NJFLA leave.

Intermittent Leave and Reduced Leave Schedules. FMLA and/or NJFLA leave usually will be taken for a period of consecutive days, weeks or months. Under the NJFLA, intermittent leave must be taken in increments of at least one week and reduced schedule leave must be at least one work day.

Protection of Group Health Insurance and Other Benefits. If an employee is taking NJFLA leave only, the continuation requirements for group health plans under the FMLA are not applicable to group health plans covered under ERISA. Therefore, an employee who is on NJFLA only leave likely will trigger COBRA requirements due to a reduction in hours worked.

Restoration of Employment and Benefits. As with FMLA leave, at the end of NJFLA leave, subject to some exceptions, employees generally have the right to return to the same or equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits and other terms. However, unlike key employees under the FMLA who may be denied reinstatement, key employees under NJFLA may be denied NJFLA leave if: (1) the employee is a salaried employee among the highest paid 5% of employees or one of the seven (7) highest paid employees; and (2) denial of the leave is necessary to prevent substantial and grievous economic injury to the Company's operations. Posillico will notify employees if they qualify as key employees under the NJFLA and that leave is being denied. If the denial of the NJFLA leave occurs while the employee's leave already has begun, the employee must return to work within two (2) weeks.

TEXAS SUPPLEMENT

I. COURT ATTENDANCE AND WITNESS DUTY LEAVE

Employees are permitted to take leave to appear as a witness in legislative, administrative, and/or court proceedings, or to attend juvenile court proceedings when required as a parent or legal guardian. You must give reasonable advance notice of the need for such leave to your supervisor and provide a copy of the subpoena to appear in court, if applicable. Court attendance leave is unpaid, in accordance with applicable law. An employee may, but is not required to, use available paid time off for this purpose.

II. EMERGENCY EVACUATION LEAVE

Posillico permits employees to leave work to participate in a general public evacuation ordered under an emergency evacuation order. "Emergency evacuation order" means an official statement issued by the governing body of Texas or a political subdivision of Texas to recommend the evacuation of all or part of the population of an area stricken or threatened with a disaster. "Disaster" means the occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property that results from a natural or man-made cause, including fire, flood, earthquake, wind, storm, wave action, oil spill or other water contamination, volcanic activity, epidemic, air contamination, blight, drought, infestation, explosion, riot, hostile military or paramilitary action, or other public calamity requiring emergency action, or an energy emergency. This includes mandatory and voluntary evacuations. Employees who leave to participate in such evacuations will not be paid for their time away from work but will be restored to their same or an equivalent position with commensurate pay upon their return, and will not be disciplined for failing to report to work.

III. VOTING TIME

Posillico supports and encourages employees to participate in the election voting process. On Election Day, an employee may be absent for the purpose of attending the polls to vote, provided that the employee's working hours are such that the polls are not open for two consecutive hours outside of the employee's working hours. An employee will not be subject to any loss of wages or other benefits of employment should the employee have to vote during working hours.

IV. WEAPONS

In order to maintain a safe and productive work environment, Posillico strictly prohibits employees from having firearms or other weapons in their possession while on Company premises, including but not limited to, offices, job trailers and project sites. Prohibited weapons include, but are not limited to, firearms (whether carried with a permit or not) and ammunition, clubs, throwing and hunting knives and similar objects, explosive or incendiary devices, as well as noxious, caustic or toxic chemicals. This policy does not prohibit an employee who holds a license to carry a concealed handgun or who otherwise lawfully possesses a firearm or ammunition from transporting or storing a firearm or ammunition that the employee is legally authorized to possess in a locked, privately owned motor vehicle (other than a vehicle owned or leased by Posillico) in a parking lot, parking garage, or other parking area Posillico provides for employees. With this exception, employees may not possess a firearm or ammunition anywhere on Posillico premises and may not store firearms or other weapons in vehicles owned or leased by Posillico.

Posillico reserves the right, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to search any person entering its premises, any property brought onto Posillico premises (such as packages, containers, briefcases and purses), as well as employee workspaces, desks and lockers, in the event Posillico, in its sole discretion, suspects a violation of this policy. Employees should have no expectation of privacy in workspaces or any items brought onto Posillico's premises. Employees consent to such searches as a condition of their employment or continued employment with Posillico.

Posillico Civil, Inc.

DRUG & ALCOHOL POLICY

Posillico Civil, Inc. (hereinafter the "Employer" or “Company”), is a drug-free workplace and we are committed to protecting the safety, health and well-being of all employees and other individuals in our workplace. We expect all of our employees to report to work and be able to perform his or her duties productively and safely. Our commitment to maintaining a safe and secure workplace requires a clear policy and supportive programs relating to the detection, treatment and prevention of substance abuse by employees. To that end, the purpose of this policy is to ensure the safety of all employees, promote productively as well as to enforce compliance with any Federal, State or Local law.

You, as a representative of our company, play a key role in keeping the high standards Posillico Civil, Inc. is known for in our industry. Thank you for accepting this responsibility.

Sincerely,

Joseph K. Posillico

President

Updated: January 2021

1. Applicability

The Employer's drug-free workplace policy is intended to be applied whenever anyone is representing or conducting business for the organization, including meal and rest periods, and to all employees, contractors and temporary workers. This policy applies during all working hours; whenever performing any services on Employer's behalf; while on call; paid standby; on Employer owned or controlled property; vehicles and/or equipment and at company-sponsored events and on any project where testing is required by the project owner.

2. Drug Use/Distribution/Possession/Impairment

All employees are prohibited from manufacturing, cultivating, distributing, dispensing, possessing or using illegal drugs at all times. Included within this prohibition are lawful controlled substances that have been illegally or improperly obtained. Employees are prohibited from having any such illegal or unauthorized controlled substances in their system while at work. This policy does not prohibit the possession and proper use of lawfully prescribed drugs taken in accordance with the prescription.

3. Alcohol Use/Distribution/Possession/Impairment

All employees are prohibited from distributing, dispensing, possessing or using any beverage or medicine containing alcohol while at work or on duty and from coming onto Company premises, reporting to work, or working with alcohol in their system. Furthermore, lawful off-duty alcohol use, while generally not prohibited by this policy, must not interfere with an employee's job performance.

4. Prescription Drugs

Only persons for whom a particular drug was properly prescribed, by an appropriately licensed medical practitioner, may be in possession of such drugs in Company owned or controlled premises. Prescription drugs are to be used only in a manner, combination and quantity as prescribed or directed. Employees are prohibited from reporting to work or working while taking legally prescribed drugs, unless the prescribing medical practitioner advises that such drugs will not impact the employee's ability to perform his or her job or otherwise pose safety concerns and authorizes the employee to report to work, and in the Company's sole opinion such drugs do not actually impact the employee's ability to perform his or her job or otherwise pose safety concerns.

Employees shall not operate any equipment or vehicles while taking prescription drugs, unless the prescribing physician advises that such drugs will not impair the employee's working abilities, and in the Company's sole opinion such drugs do not actually impact the employee's working abilities. The Employer reserves the right to require written confirmation that such drugs will not impair working abilities for employees engaged in safety sensitive duties, and to take such other measures as may be appropriate to assure workplace safety and productivity.

The foregoing does not apply, however, to the use of medical marijuana by a "Certified Patient" during off-jobsite times. However, for all employees, including anyone who has demonstrated that he/she is a "Certified Patient" with a disability requiring an accommodation, you are reminded that (i) that use and/or possession of medical marijuana is prohibited on the worksite/jobsite; (ii) that all Company employees are subject to drug testing, and (iii) that any employee found on the jobsite to be under the influence of medical marijuana or other illegal or unauthorized drug will be subject to disciplinary actions, including but not limited to termination. Employees who are "Certified Patients" must immediately notify their supervisor and Frank Franzini, VP Risk Manager, prior to reporting to work. Notwithstanding the foregoing, employees who are "Certified Patients" are not permitted to perform a safety sensitive position, including driving and operating vehicles, machinery and equipment.

An employee who is under a physician's care and taking a prescribed drug must carry that drug in its original container which identifies the drug, pharmacy, and licensed medical provider who prescribed the drug to the employee. The employee must notify his or her immediate supervisor regarding the effects of the medication.

5. Notification of Convictions

Any employee who is convicted of a criminal drug violation in the workplace must notify the organization in writing within five (5) calendar days of the conviction. The organization will take appropriate action following notification, including but not limited to termination. Federal contracting agencies will be notified when appropriate.

6. Discipline/Discharge for Violations

Any violation of the foregoing provisions will subject the employee to discipline up to and including termination. All disciplinary action will be in accordance with employee's union agreement, if applicable.

7. Drug and Alcohol Testing

Application for Employment: All job applicants extended a conditional offer of employment must take and pass a drug test before beginning work. A refusal to submit to a drug test or a positive confirmed drug test will result in a withdrawal of the offer of employment.

Reasonable Suspicion: Employees may be required to submit to drug/alcohol screening whenever the Company has a reasonable suspicion that they are under the influence of drugs or alcohol while working. Reasonable suspicion may arise from, among other factors, supervisory observation, coworker reports or complaints, performance decline, attendance or behavioral changes, results of drug searches or other detection methods, the employee's appearance or an odor of drugs or alcohol. Observations leading to reasonable suspicion determinations will be reasonably contemporaneous with the request for a test. Employees asked to take a reasonable suspicion drug and/or alcohol test will be transported to the collection site for testing and then transported home pending receipt of the test results. Employees will be placed on administrative leave without pay pending the results of the test. If the test results are negative, the employee will be compensated for any wages lost due to the leave, unless a suspension without pay is justified under another policy.

Post-accident: Employees whose acts appear to have caused or contributed to an accident in which drugs could have been a contributing factor may be required to submit to post-accident testing as part of the investigation. Accidents include those that have caused an injury severe enough to warrant immediate offsite medical attention, or have caused significant property damage. Only workers whose actions may have caused or contributed to the accident will be tested. As with reasonable suspicion testing, employees asked to take a post-accident test will be transported to the collection site for testing and then transported home pending receipt of the test results. Employees will be placed on administrative leave without pay pending the results of the test. If the test results are negative, the employee will be compensated for any wages lost due to the leave, unless the suspension without pay is justified under another policy.

Random: Employees in safety-sensitive positions may be tested on an unannounced random basis. Employees will be selected for testing by a computerized random number program matched to employee numbers. Once selected for testing, an employee may not be excused from the testing process. Individuals subject to random testing will be notified at the time of hire or when the policy becomes applicable to them. Testing is conducted by a third party Medical Review Officer.

8. Employees Entrusted with Driving Privileges

All employees who are entrusted to drive an Employer vehicle are required to submit to random drug testing. This shall apply to all Union and Non-Union employees. This policy is extend to operators of heavy equipment, unless superseded by a union agreement. If the union collective bargaining agreement restricts the employee from being tested, then the employee will be ineligible to operate heavy equipment and/or drive a Company vehicle.

9. Employees Working Under Specific Regulations

Employees working under the PHSMA, FMCSA, or Railroad Regulations will also be bound by those agency guidelines and any other applicable rules and guidelines.

10. Collection and Testing Methods

All drug tests will be performed by a laboratory certified by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to perform federal workplace testing. Breath and/or saliva tests may be used to detect the presence of alcohol. Alcohol tests typically will be conducted and, if positive, confirmed immediately at the collection site. An alcohol test will be considered positive if it shows the presence of .02 percent or more alcohol in an individual's system. Tests will seek only information about the presence of drugs and alcohol in an individual's specimen, and will not test for any medical condition.

11. Employer's Contact Person

The employer contact person for questions or concerns regarding this policy is Frank Franzini, VP Risk Manager. Contact information for Mr. Franzini is as follows:

Posillico Civil Inc.
ATTN: Frank Franzini, VP Risk Manager
1750 New Highway, Farmingdale, NY 11735
Tel: (631) 390-5708
E-Mail: ffranzini@posillicoinc.com

12. Confidentiality

All records relating to positive test results, drug and alcohol treatment, and employee medical information shall be kept confidential and disseminated to and within the Company only on a need-to-know basis. Such records will be kept in secure files separate from personnel files. Test results will not be released outside the Company without the written consent of the tested individual, or as otherwise may be required by law or legal process.

13. Employer Rights

The Employer recognizes its right in providing a safe working environment for all of its employees and shall take any action needed to correct a drug and/or alcohol abuse problem that may be occurring in the workplace.

14. Employee Assistance

The Employer recognizes that alcoholism and drug dependency may be considered an illness and encourages our employees and their family members to seek assistance in regard to these dependencies. If an employee requests help for a substance abuse problem, the Employer may, at its option, and with the approval of the employee, contact the employee's union representative, if applicable or medical provider, who can then provide guidance to the employee on obtaining rehabilitation assistance. The employee must voluntarily request this assistance and must voluntarily agree to an evaluation, and, if indicated, to comply with the terms of a rehabilitation program. Any information which the Employer receives from the employee or others in connection with treatment will be kept strictly confidential. The employee's decision to seek assistance through a rehabilitation program will not be used as a basis for disciplinary action and will not be used against the employee in any disciplinary proceeding.

The New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services plans, develops and regulates the state's system of chemical dependence agencies. This includes the direct operation of 12 Addiction Treatment Centers, which provide inpatient rehabilitation services to 10,000 persons per year. In addition, the Office licenses, funds, and supervises some 1,300 local, community-based programs, chemical dependence treatment programs, which serve about 110,000 persons on any given day in a wide range of comprehensive services.

15. Ensuring the Safety of all Employees

Communicating the Drug and Alcohol policy to all employees is critical. To ensure all employees are aware of their role in supporting our drug and alcohol-free workplace program, the Company shall:

- Distribute a written copy of the policy and any updates to all employees; and
- Review the policy at safety meetings.

FLEET & DRIVERS SAFETY POLICY

The Fleet & Driver Safety Program is designed to focus on driver safety, responsibility and professionalism.

The goal of the Fleet & Driver Safety Program is to ensure the safety of those individuals who drive company vehicles and productively serve our customers. It is the driver's responsibility to operate all vehicles in a safe manner and to drive defensively to prevent injuries and property damage. As such, Posillico endorses all applicable state motor vehicle regulations relating to driver safety.

You, as a representative of our company, play a key role in keeping the high standards Posillico Civil, Inc. is known for in our industry. Thank you for accepting this responsibility.

Posillico | We know how.™

Fleet & Driver Safety Program for Drivers and Operators

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this program is to outline Posillico's policy and procedures concerning its Fleet & Driver Safety Program for drivers of our licensed commercial company vehicles and equipment operated in the course of our daily business.

2. LOSS PREVENTION KEY CONTACTS

Frank Franzini, VP Risk Management & Compliance (631.390.5708 / ffranzini@posillicoinc.com): Mr. Franzini's primary responsibility is to approve driving privileges, conduct fleet safety orientation, and oversee program compliance.

Donald Meyer, Director of Health and Safety (631.390.5728 / dmeyer@posillicoinc.com): Mr. Meyer's primary responsibilities are to coordinate, promote and monitor all safety aspects for all the Posillico entities.

Alan Davis, Shop Manager (631.390.5789 / adavis@posillicoinc.com): Mr. Davis' primary responsibility is to oversee vehicle and equipment operations and maintain Posillico's Fleet.

3. DRIVER ELIGIBILITY

- Valid Driver's License and Compliance with D.O.T Regulations: Drivers must always have a valid driver's license for the type of vehicle and/or equipment to be operated and keep the license(s) with them while driving. All commercial drivers licensed drivers must comply with all applicable local, state and federal rules, regulations and ordinances for the type of vehicle and/or equipment being operated and have successful completion of medical, drug and alcohol evaluations further detailed herein.

- Operation By Authorized Personnel: Company vehicles and/or equipment are to be operated by authorized employees ONLY, except in emergencies, or in case of repair testing by a mechanic. Other employees and family members are not authorized to drive the Company vehicle and/or equipment.

- Company Business: Company vehicles and/or equipment are to be driven for Company business ONLY. Personal use of company vehicles and/or equipment is prohibited. An exception for is made for company vehicles used by authorized drivers during the following instances: (i) to travel to and from home to work; and (ii) vehicle used at lunch or break time to get lunch. Drivers are not permitted to go through a drive-through with any vehicle; the vehicle must be parked in a designated spot for parking. No unauthorized persons are permitted to ride in company vehicles and/or equipment.

- Driver's License Revocation and Suspension: Any employee who has had a driver's license revoked or suspended shall immediately notify the Loss Prevention Key Contacts and discontinue operation of the company vehicle and/or equipment. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action including dismissal.

- Accident Reporting: All accidents involving Company vehicles and/or equipment, regardless of severity, must be reported to the police and to the Loss Prevention Key Contacts. Failing to stop after an accident and/or failure to report an accident may result in disciplinary action, including dismissal.

- Intoxicants, Drugs and Alcohol: The use of a Company vehicle and/or equipment while under the influence of intoxicants and other drugs is forbidden and is sufficient cause for discipline, including dismissal. Reference is made to Posillico' s Drug and Alcohol policy.

- Distracted Driving Prohibited: Drivers are responsible for the safe operation of a Company vehicle and/or equipment. Any activity unrelated to the actual operation of a motor vehicle in a manner that interferes with its safe operation, including but not limited to eating or drinking while driving, is prohibited.

- Seatbelts: All drivers and passengers operating or riding in Company vehicles and/or equipment MUST wear seatbelts. No one is permitted to ride in the back of a pick-up truck under any circumstances, nor ride on the outside of a vehicle and/or equipment.

- Mechanical Needs and Vehicle Repair: Report any mechanical difficulties and/or repair needs to the Loss Prevention Key Contacts.

- Vehicle Security: Drivers are responsible for the security of the Company vehicles and/or equipment being used by them. The vehicle and/or equipment engine must be shut off, ignition keys removed, and doors locked whenever the vehicle and/or equipment is left unattended. If the vehicle is left with a parking attendant, only the ignition key is to be left.

- Supervisor Approval: All driving and operating privileges for DMV-registered vehicles and/or equipment must be approved by the driver's supervisor. The supervisor shall submit a request form to Mr. Franzini requesting vehicle usage permission. Generally, candidates with less than seven (7) years total driving experience or less than five (5) years operating commercial vehicles are not eligible. The policies and procedures outlined herein shall also apply to all Operating Engineers who may be assigned to operate rubber tire equipment capable of traveling on open public thoroughfare.

- Driving Records and MVR/DMV Release Form: Your personal driving record is a reflection of your overall driving habits, and directly affects our insurance costs. Your personal driving is your responsibility and our concern. Motor Vehicle Records ("MVR") will be ordered periodically to assess driving records. An unfavorable record may result in the loss of company vehicle and/or equipment driving privileges or employment. To that end, all employees and Operating Engineers granted driving and/or operation permissions are required to complete a MVR and DMV driving history release form.

  A standard method of evaluation for all prospective and current driver's MVRs will be used. The following criterion will be used in the evaluations and may disqualify a driver or candidate from driving privileges for a minimum of one (1) year, unless otherwise specified herein:

  1. One (1) or more type 'A' Violations in the past year.
  2. Three (3) or more type 'B' Violations in the past year.
  3. Any combination of accidents (regardless of fault) and type 'B' Violations which equal four (4) or more in the last year.

  Type 'A' Violations
  - Driving while intoxicated
  - Driving while under the influence of drugs
  - Negligent homicide arising out of the use of a motor vehicle (gross negligence)
  - Operating during a period of suspension or revocation
  - Using a motor vehicle for the commission of a felony
  - Aggravated assault with a motor vehicle
  - Operating a motor vehicle without the owner's authority (grand theft)
  - Permitting an unlicensed person to drive
  - Reckless driving
  - Speed contest (racing)
  - Hit and run (bodily injury or property damage)

  Type 'B' Violations
  - All moving violations not listed as type 'A' Violations
  - Speeding
    - Posillico reserves the right to track a driver's speed. Drivers will receive an Internal Speed Notice weekly. If a driver has two (2) weekly speed reports in a six (6) month period containing a total of eight (8) minutes or more of speeding or three (3) separate events above 75 mph (or 10 mph over the local speed limits), the driver shall lose driving privileges for one (1) week.

  - If within the six (6) month period following the one (1) week suspension the driver receives another such Internal Speed Report, the driver shall lose driving privileges for six (6) weeks.
  - Any additional such Internal Speed Reports received in the one (1) year period following a six (6) week suspension will result in a loss of driving privileges for one (1) year.

Additionally, any of the following may also serve to disqualify a driver or candidate from driving privileges:

- Failure to report an accident and/or traffic ticket
- Operating a vehicle under a suspended or revoked license
- On-site Safety violations while operating vehicle and/or equipment
- Failure of post-accident drug test

Posillico reserves the right to deny driving and operation privileges for reasons other than those listed herein, including non-compliance with Posillico's Drug and Alcohol policy.

- Drug Test Release Form: All drivers and candidates are required to complete and submit a drug test release form. Failure to submit the Drug Test Release Form and/or failure to comply with Posillico's Drug and Alcohol policy may result in discipline, including disqualification from driving privileges and dismissal.

4. EMPLOYEE DRIVING TRAINING

- Prior to operating a company vehicle and/or equipment, all drivers must complete:
  - a defensive driving course completed in the past six (6) months;
  - a thorough induction to Posillico's road safety policies and procedures including, but not limited to, the policies referenced herein, fuel card use, incident reporting, and vehicle and/or equipment maintenance checklist; and
  - return executed acknowledgments and releases.

5. POST-INCIDENT RE-TRAINING

- Following an incident, the driver involved may be suspended from driving any Posillico insured vehicle and/or equipment until he/she: (i) retakes a defensive driving course; (ii) receives approval by the Loss Prevention Key Contacts; and (iii) approval by the driver's supervisor.

6. ANNUAL REVIEW

- On an annual basis, each driver must receive a Fleet Safety Orientation conducted by the Loss Prevention Key Contacts. Drivers with attenuator privileges must complete an additional refresher-training course.

7. EMPLOYEE RECORDKEEPING

- The following records shall be maintained for each authorized driver:
    - Request for Driving Privileges Application
    - Annual MVR/DMV records
    - Annual defensive driving certificate
    - Copy of all relevant licenses
    - Copy of physical examinations completed by a certified physician for drivers of vehicles requiring physical medical examination
    - Any other documentation deemed relevant by the Key Loss Prevention Contacts and the driver's supervisor

8. VEHICLE USAGE POLICY

- Attenuator Authorization: Attenuators are only to be driven on the job site only. Attenuator is to be in down position only when required for use. Attenuator to be raised up for all turns and for travel to and from work area.

- GPS Monitoring: To ensure the safety of our drivers and traveling public, all company vehicles and/or equipment capable of traveling on open public thoroughfare may be equipped with GPS tracking devices capable of identifying the vehicle's location, speed, and other information related to the vehicle. Violations may be issued to drivers exceeding applicable speed limits. Additionally, the Company reserves the right to install video monitoring devices in all Company owned vehicles and equipment.

- Parking: Always park vehicle in a safe location. Back into parking space when possible and do not park in area of equipment movement.

Exhibit C
ANTITRUST COMPLIANCE POLICY

A. INTRODUCTION

The overall purpose of the U.S. antitrust laws is to guarantee that society will always enjoy all the benefits that free competition can provide. It is Posillico's position that while competition may be fierce, and competitors may fall by the wayside, competition itself must never be weakened by such anticompetitive conduct such as as price-fixing, other agreements unreasonably restraining trade, monopolies achieved by improper means, or any of the other anticompetitive acts that U.S. laws prohibit.

B. POLICY

Each employee of Posillico, no matter the position held, is responsible to ensure Posillico's compliance with applicable antitrust laws. These laws are designed to promote competition and protect consumers from unfair business arrangements and practices. Violations of antitrust laws can result in severe penalties and significant damage to Posillico's reputation, including large fines and the loss of important contract, patent and license rights for Posillico, as well as fines and jail sentences for individual employees. In addition to government suits, private parties can also sue, and damage awards can be massive, as can the legal fees incurred to defend the suits.

Some antitrust acts are clearly and undeniably wrong under any circumstances, such as bid-rigging; and/or market/customer allocation agreements. Agreeing with a competitor that you will both raise your prices or price-fixing is another obvious example of anticompetitive conduct. If a competitor were to ask you to enter into such a clearly illegal agreement, the offer should be refused emphatically. The legality of many other types of business conduct, however, are less certain, but if the conduct affects competition, it might have antitrust implications. The antitrust laws are complex and their application to a business or a transaction depends on a variety of factors. Posillico's employees are not expected to act alone, as issues arise, you should review this Antitrust Policy along with Posillico's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics Policy and consult with Posillico's General Counsel on next steps. In addition, Posillico shall endeavor to periodically conduct antitrust educational programs as well as antitrust compliance reviews to ensure that its officers and employees conduct Posillico's business in a lawful manner. Such training and compliance reviews are particularly important where an employees' duties bring them into contact with competitors or involve pricing, pricing policies, terms of sale or other marketing responsibilities.

C. REPORTING AND DISCIPLINE

The purpose of this section of the Antitrust Policy is to implement procedures for reporting potential violations and advise of disciplinary consequences for individuals that fail to comply with Posillico's Antitrust Policy and/or with the antitrust laws generally.

Posillico encourages prompt reporting of any incidents involving potential violations of its Antitrust Policy and/or the antitrust laws generally so that corrective action may be taken. Any potential violations should be reported immediately to Posillico's General Counsel. It cannot be emphasized strongly enough that ALL COMPLAINTS OR INCIDENTS OF POTENTIAL VIOLATIONS OF THIS ANTITRUST POLICY AND/OR THE ANTITRUST LAWS GENERALLY MUST BE PROMPTLY REPORTED. Posillico cannot resolve a potential violation unless it knows about it. Moreover, in certain circumstances Posillico may avoid punishment under the antitrust laws if it promptly notifies the government of a suspected violation. Prompt notification could be the difference between no liability and paying significant fines and other criminal sanctions. Therefore, it is the responsibility of every Posillico employee or agent of Posillico who has information that gives rise to a belief of potential violations to bring the information to the attention of Posillico's General Counsel as promptly as possible.

Posillico shall endeavor to thoroughly and promptly investigate every reported potential violation. Depending on the facts and circumstances, the investigation may include the following steps: an interview of the person who reported the alleged violation to obtain complete details regarding the alleged violation; interviews of anyone who is alleged to have committed the acts of alleged violation to respond to the claims; and interview any employees who may have witnessed, or who may have knowledge of, the alleged violation. The investigation will be handled in as confidential a manner as possible consistent with a full, fair and proper investigation and subject to any applicable legal requirements.

If, as a result of the investigation, Posillico concludes that a violation of this Antitrust Policy or the antitrust laws has occurred Posillico will take prompt remedial action, including appropriate corrective action against the person or people involved in the violation. Posillico takes all reports of potential antitrust issues seriously and will not penalize or retaliate against anyone in any way for providing information to Posillico management or General Counsel. Posillico will not tolerate retaliation against anyone for reporting a potential violation of this Antitrust Policy and/or the antitrust laws generally, or any other unlawful conduct, or for cooperating in an investigation. Any incidents of retaliation should be reported immediately to Posillico's General Counsel.

This Policy sets out minimum standards upon which Posillico's antitrust compliance culture is built. Posillico will strive to ensure that its management group is able to proactively support and advance Posillico's Antitrust Policy.

Employee Handbook and Code of Business Ethics
Acknowledgement Form

I have received a copy of the Posillico Employee Handbook dated January 1, 2022, including any applicable state supplements, addendums and the Code of Business Ethics.

I have read its contents, have been given the opportunity to ask any questions regarding its contents, and fully understand it.

I agree to the terms and conditions of employment contained in this Employee Handbook and agree to follow all the rules, regulations and standards set forth in this Employee Handbook and the job description for my position. I realize that any failure to comply with these rules and policies could result in the termination of my employment.

I further realize that I am responsible for being aware of changes to this Employee Handbook as time and circumstances require.

I understand and agree that nothing contained in the Employee Handbook shall be deemed to create an employment contract between Posillico and myself for either employment or for the provision of any benefit. The personnel policies in the Employee Handbook are no more than broad, internal guidelines which Posillico may, from time to time, change, limit, modify or revoke, as necessary. No promises regarding employment or inducements to take employment have been made or offered to me other than in the Posillico offer of employment and I understand and agree that no promises are binding upon Posillico unless made in writing by the Chief Executive Officer or his designee.

I understand and agree that I have the right to terminate my employment at any time for any reason and that Posillico retains a similar right.

I understand that this Employee Handbook changes and redefines conditions and past practices of employment in certain important areas.

Inter-Departmental Memo

TO: Office of the County Executive Att: Arthur T. Walsh, Chief Deputy County Executive

FROM: Department of Public Works

DATE: April 21, 2026

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATION OF AWARD

|---|---|
| Contract Number: | S35121-06G |
| Title: | South Shore WRF Aeration Blower Facility |
| Engineer's Estimate: | $115,000,000.00 |
| Bids Received On: | March 3, 2026 |

The bids received for the above referenced contract have been examined and Posillico Civil, Inc. is the lowest bidder in the amount as follows:

|---|---|
| General Construction (Lump Sum Base Bid) | $ 97,639,000.00 |
| Contingency for Unforeseen Field Conditions (Fixed Allowance) | $ 2,000,000.00 |
| Total: | $ 99,639,000.00 |

The lowest bid is approximately 13.4% below the Engineer's Estimate and 9.9% below the average bid of $110,617,925.00. Four (4) bids were received, indicating a competitive bidding environment. See attached award recommendation letter and the bid tabulation.

Funding for the construction services is available under Capital Project No. 35121 and 35123.

If you approve or disapprove of the above request, please signify below, and return the memo to this office for appropriate action.

Re: Nassau County Department of Public Works
South Shore WRF
Aeration Blower Facility – Contract No. S35121-06G

Bid Anaysis and Award Recommendation
H2M Project No. NCDP 2305

Dear Mr. Vella:

Four (4) bids were received on March 3, 2026, for the above-referenced project. H2M Architects + Engineers ("H2M") reviewed the bid proposals and supporting documentation submitted by Nassau County, including proposal pages and contractor qualification statements, and conducted a limited review of the apparent low bidder, Posillico Civil, Inc. ("Posillico").

Presented below is a summary of the bid evaluation, reference review, and award recommendation.

Bid Summary

The bids are listed in the table below from lowest to highest base bid amount and reflect the total of Bid Items Nos. 1 and 2. The table also includes the average of all bids received and the Engineer's Estimate (EE) prepared prior to bid advertisement.

| No. | Firm | Base Bid Amount |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Posillico Civil, Inc. | $99,639,000.00 |
| 2 | RJ Industries | $109,927,700.00 |
| 3 | E & A Restoration, Inc. | $111,000,000.00 |
| 4 | Adam's European Contracting, Inc. | $121,905,000.00 |
| — | Average Bid | $110,617,925.00 |
| — | Engineer's Estimate | $115,000,000.00 |

Posillico has been identified as the apparent low bidder. Their base bid is approximately 13.4 percent below the Engineer's Estimate and 9.9 percent below the average of all bids received.

The Engineer's Estimate was continuously evaluated throughout the design process and updated following 100 percent design completion and prior to bid advertisement. The estimate accounts for accelerated inflation, supply-chain disruptions, and increased labor and material costs affecting the construction industry. Despite volatile market conditions, the Engineer's Estimate is within approximately 3.8 percent of the average bid, indicating that it reasonably reflects current market conditions.

Subcontracting

Posillico submitted a Wicks-Exempt Subcontractor List and Schedule of Values identifying the following major subcontractors:

- JDP Mechanical, LLC – HVAC services in the amount of $6,511,000.00
- JVR Electric – Electrical services in the amount of $14,750,000.00

Posillico will self-perform all plumbing and gas-fitting work. No additional major subcontractors were identified.

References and Qualifications

H2M reviewed Posillico's submitted qualification statement with respect to the type, size, and complexity of the South Shore WRF Aeration Blower Facility project. The review identified no adverse history related to failure to complete awarded work, contract default, non-responsive bidding, or debarment.

Posillico has been in business for approximately 80 years under its current name, performing work as both prime contractor and subcontractor. References contacted characterized the firm as qualified, diversified, professional, cooperative, and financially stable, with a strong record of self-performing work and delivering quality construction.

H2M and Nassau County have also worked with Posillico on previous projects of similar size and scope, confirming the accuracy of the reference feedback.

During the pre-award meeting, Posillico discussed its previous experience working with JDP Mechanical and JVR Electric and indicated that both firms have performed as subcontractors on multiple Posillico projects. Posillico described established working relationships with both firms and expressed confidence in the proposed project team.

Separate project references for JDP Mechanical and JVR Electric were reviewed. References for both subcontractors described them as qualified, professional, cooperative, and capable of performing high-quality work. H2M and Nassau County have prior experience with JVR Electric on County projects, and H2M previously observed work performed by both JDP Mechanical and JVR Electric during commissioning of a Suffolk County wastewater treatment facility. Based on these experiences and reference checks, the work quality and performance of both subcontractors are considered satisfactory for this project.

Pre-Award Review

Pre-award questions were issued by the County on March 13, 2026, and a pre-award meeting with Posillico was held on March 20, 2026. The meeting addressed Posillico's responses to the pre-award questions and confirmed the firm's qualifications and understanding of the project requirements. Copies of the pre-award meeting minutes and Posillico's follow-up correspondence are included for reference.

Based on this review, it is our opinion that Posillico has a clear understanding of the contract requirements and has fully incorporated the required scope of work into its bid price and schedule.

Award Recommendation

Based on the foregoing, H2M recommends that Nassau County proceed with the award of the contract to Posillico Civil, Inc. as the lowest responsive and responsible bidder. This recommendation is contingent upon County confirmation of the contractor's compliance with all front-end contract requirements, including bonding, insurance, legal documentation, and financial acceptability.

Please contact us if you have any questions or require additional information regarding this recommendation or other aspects of the South Shore WRF Aeration Blower Facility project.

Very truly yours,

H2M architects + engineers.

MICHAEL J. POSILLICO

Principal, Secretary, Chairman of the Board,
and Executive Vice President of Business Development, 1985-Present

Mr. Posillico has varied experience in civil, environmental, and development projects. He has worked with government agencies and owners in conjunction with many projects' construction, development, and remediation, including the NYSDOT, NYSDEC, NYCDEP, NJDEP USEPA, and other regional municipal agencies. In the past several years, he has combined this expertise to promote the clean-up and redevelopment of some of the most contaminated projects in our region.

2010 to Present: Mr. Posillico has developed many construction materials facilities, including many that recycle construction waste into reusable construction products. Over the past five years, Mr. Posillico has worked to develop and commission the world's largest soil wash plant that cleans contaminated soils at their Farmingdale, New York facility. He also reorganized business development strategies for companywide goals and individual business units. In 2012 he took on the role of chairman for the New York League of Conservation Voters Long Island Chapter. He restructured their platform to implement a new agenda throughout Long Island. Mr. Posillico is also spearheading a master redevelopment effort of a former quarry in Northern New Jersey.

2005 to 2010: Mr. Posillico formed two new companies, Posillico Development LLC, an organization formed to integrate operations, pool resources, and strategically invest in property development, and Posillico Consulting, LLC, a multi-disciplined Brownsfield redevelopment property management and development consulting service. He expanded Posillico Environmental's marine and mechanical capabilities, which now encompass dredging, synthetic bulkhead installation, sanitary treatment plant construction, and refurbishment. Mr. Posillico also led a re-branding effort for the Posillico companies to improve their recognition under one brand dedicated to setting the standard for excellence in the construction industry for completing complex projects safely, on time, and within budget.

1997 to 2004: Mr. Posillico worked on further expansion of thermally treated contaminated soil and dredge spoil recycling into a product known as "Poscrete." He has worked on significant environmental projects, including the completed dredging of Lake Capri in West Islip, NY, which involved challenging environmental dredging and processing of sediments and solids with a temporary processing plant. In addition, Mr. Posillico worked on developing a remedial SVE system at Northville's Holtsville terminal and affected area with ERM Northeast. Mr. Posillico focused on the re-development of environmentally challenged properties in addition to overseeing significant projects in Posillico Environmental, Inc. Major projects included the partnership in Glen Isle Development, a 50-acre national Brownsfield waterfront redevelopment site, redevelopment of the former Cibro Fuel Oil Terminal in Island Park, NY, and the clean-up of the former GTE and Sylvania site in Hicksville, NY.

1991 to 1996: The majority of Mr. Posillico's efforts were directed at developing a permit with the NYSDEC to thermally treat and recycle petroleum-contaminated soils at Posillico Brothers Asphalt in Farmingdale, N.Y. (Posillico Materials, LLC). During this period, Michael founded and developed the Blue Water Environmental, Inc. petroleum-contaminated soil business, which is now known as Posillico Environmental, Inc. Mr. Posillico expanded Blue Water Environmental, Inc. into other specialized remedial projects, including an expansive tunnel clean-up project for the Brooklyn Navy Yard Development Corp., shallow soil mixing of hazardous wastes for the NYSDEC at Dzus Fasteners in West Islip, NY, and the handling and disposal of dredge sediments from the installation of a cooling tunnel outfall at the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

1985 to 1991: Mr. Posillico was the project supervisor for NYSDOT. A nighttime reconstruction of the Long Island Expressway exits 52-57 and exits 32-39. ($10 million), the reconstruction of Route 106/107 and the North Service Road in Syosset, NY. ($4 million, rebuilding the force main and sewer system, Halesite, NY. ($2 million) Mr. Posillico was the project manager for the reconstruction of the Northern State and Meadowbrook Parkways interchange and rebuilding of the intersection of Old Country Road and Glen Cove Road. The total value of both projects was over $70 million, which involved complex bridge reconstruction and highway detour routing.

Affiliation: Mr. Posillico and his partners formed The Posillico Foundation in 2004, donating their time and money to many regional charitable organizations. Mr. Posillico has served numerous charitable and foundation boards, including Farmingdale State College Foundation, where he served as Foundation President. Mr. Posillico is currently an honorary member of this foundation. He served as Chairman of the New York League of Conservation Voters Long Island Chapter and a Board Member of Gilda's Club New York. Mr. Posillico currently serves as a New York State League of Conservation Voters board member and an advisory board member for Clemson University Civil Engineering Department. He formally sat on the Board of Vision Long Island, a regional consortium of professional advocates that promotes "smart growth" in our region, focusing on improving housing, environmental, transportation, and economic development.

Vice President, Paving Division Manager, 2011-Present

Mr. Forte is responsible for developing business plans for the paving division and soliciting new customers. He is currently bidding $275 million worth of paving work and has completed $75 million worth of paving work per year.

Vice President, Director of Field Operations, 2002-2011

Mr. Forte's responsibilities included the coordinated scheduling of over 250 union employees daily. He oversaw multiple job sites and assisted job scheduling with the project manager. In addition, he tracked job costs on all projects, managed equipment for all job sites, coordinated subcontractors and enforced company safety policies.

Posillico Project Experience

Nassau County Phase 77, Resurfacing Various County Roads; Nassau County, NY; $13.4 Million; 06/2019-10/2019; Division Manager: Completed this project in under 90 days to achieve an incentive on the job to finish early. RULES RESOLUTION NO. -2026

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE TO AWARD AND EXECUTE A CONTRACT BETWEEN THE COUNTY OF NASSAU ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE NASSAU COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS AND CENTENNIAL ELEVATOR INDUSTRIES, INC.

WHEREAS, in accordance with all Federal, State and Local Law, the County of Nassau on behalf of the NASSAU COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS ["Department"] has received competitive bids for contract B90611-25G, for NASSAU COUNTY SUPREME COURT ELEVATOR REHABILITATION & MODERNIZATION – NASSAU COUNTY, NY ["Contract"], as more particularly described in the contract documents, a copy of which are on file with the Clerk of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, the firm of CENTENNIAL ELEVATOR INDUSTRIES, INC.

["Vendor"] has submitted the lowest responsible bid for the work described in the contract in accordance with all Federal, State and Local Law as determined by the Department, and

WHEREAS, the funding for this contract is from capital funds approved by the Nassau County Legislature and included in the current four year capital plan, and

WHEREAS, the Commissioner of the Department is representing that the total contract is estimated to be $ 2,507,485.00, now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Rules Committee of the Nassau County Legislature, based on the representations of the Department and the recommendation of the Commissioner of the Department, authorizes the County Executive to award and execute the said contract with the vendor.

FORM OF BID BOND

IMPORTANT The bidder shall instruct the Surety Company to USE THIS FORM PROVIDED as the use of ANY OTHER FORM may cause rejection of the bid.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS,

that we, the undersigned Centennial Elevator Industries, Inc.

as Principal; and Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland as surety, who is Licensed to do business in the State of New York, are hereby firmly bound unto the County of Nassau in the penal sum of Ten Percent of Attached Bid dollars ($ 10% ) for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

Signed, this 13th day of March, 2026

The conditions of the above obligation is such that whereas the Principal has submitted to the County of Nassau a certain Bid attached hereto and hereby made a part hereof, to enter into a contract in writing for the work under Contract No. B90611-25G for the

Nassau County Supreme Court Elevator Rehabilitation and Modernization

NOW, THEREFORE, the conditions of this obligation are such that if the Principal shall not withdraw said proposal except by mutual consent of the County of Nassau within a period of forty-five (45) days after the opening of bids and in the event of acceptance of the Principal's proposal, if the Principal shall,

a. when notified by the County, execute all necessary counterparts of the contract as set forth in the contract documents in accordance with the proposal as accepted; and

b. furnish bonds and other security as specified in the contract documents for the faithful performance and proper fulfillment of such contract, which bonds or other security shall be satisfactory in all respects to the County; and

c. in all respects, comply with the provisions set forth in the invitation to bid; or if the County of Nassau shall reject the aforesaid proposal for a reason other than the Principal's failure to satisfy the County that he has the necessary skill, experience and liquid assets required for the contract as stated in the documents aforesaid, then this obligation shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

NO TEXT ON THIS PAGE

Provided, however, that this bond is subject to the following additional conditions and limitations.

a. In the event that the Principal fails to submit a financial statement when required by the County or in the event that an examination of the Principal indicates to the County that the Principal does not meet the financial requirements required by the County, the undersigned will, upon demand, pay to the County of Nassau, as liquidated damages for the Principal's failure to meet such requirements, a sum equal to the amount that would have been required by a certified check if the same were delivered in accordance with the provisions of the contract documents and specifications herein stated.

b. In case the Principal shall default in the performance of any provision the undersigned will upon demand pay to the County of Nassau the full amount of the damages sustained by the County of Nassau by reason of such default, except however, it is expressly understood and agreed that the liability of the surety for any and all claims hereunder shall in no event exceed the amount of this obligation as herein stated.

The Surety, for value received, hereby stipulates and agrees that the obligation of said Surety and its bond shall be in no way impaired or affected by any extension of time within which the County of Nassau may accept such Bid; and said Surety does hereby waive notice of any such extension.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION

THE BIDDER AFFIRMS AND DECLARES:

1. That the above Bidder is of lawful age and the only one interested in this bid; and that no other person, firm or corporation, except those herein named, has any interest in this bid or in the Contract proposed to be entered into.

2. That this bid is made without any understanding, agreement or in connection with any other person, firm or corporation, making a bid for the same Work, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud.

3. That said Bidder is not in arrears to the County of Nassau upon debt or contract, and is not a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the County of Nassau.

4. That no officer nor employee of the County of Nassau, or person whose salary is payable in whole or in part from the County Treasury is, shall be, or become interested directly, or indirectly as a contracting party, partner, stockholder, surety or otherwise, in this bid, or in the performance of the contract, or in the supplies, materials, equipment and work or labor to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof.

5. That he has carefully examined the site of the work and that, from his own investigations, has satisfied himself as to the nature and location of the work, the character, quality and quantity of existing materials, all difficulties likely to be encountered, the kind and extent of equipment, other facilities needed for the performance of the work, the general and local conditions, and all other items which may, in any way, affect the work or its performance.

6. The Bidder also declares that he has carefully examined and fully understands all the component parts of this Contract; that he will execute the Contract and will completely perform it in strict accordance with its terms for the following prices.

7. That the Bidder, for allowance items, will make payment to the parties designated by the County when directed by the County in the amount certified by the Engineer for the purposes indicated. It is also understood and agreed that the Final Contract Payment for allowance items will be based upon such actual payments, and not on the approximate amount cited herein.

8. Where the work performed under this Contract involves a trade or occupation licensed in the County of Nassau by the Towns of Hempstead, Oyster Bay, or North Hempstead or by the Cities of Glen Cove or Long Beach, the contractor shall be required to have such a license.

INFORMATION FOR BIDDERS

I. Rejection of Bids.

A. The Commissioner may recommend a reject of bid if:

1. The Bidder fails to furnish any of the information required by the bid documents; or if
2. The bidder misstates or conceals any material fact in the bid, or in the sworn written statement; or if
3. The bid does not strictly conform to law or the requirements of this contract; or if
4. The bid is conditional; or if
5. A determination that the bidder is not responsible is made in accordance with law; or if
6. The bid, in the opinion of the Commissioner, contains unbalanced bid prices, unless the bidder can show that the prices are not unbalanced for the probably required quantity of such items.

B. Rejection of all bids and waiver of informalities.

The Commissioner, however, reserves the right to recommend to reject all bids whenever he deems it in the best interest of the County, and also the right to waive any informalities in a bid.

II. Unit Price Contracts, Comparison of Bids.

Bids on Unit Price Contracts will be compared on the basis of a total bid price, arrived at by taking the sum of the Approximate Quantities of such item multiplied by the corresponding Unit Price, and including any Lump Sum Bid on individual items, in accordance with the items set forth in the bid proposal.

Bidders are warned that the Approximate Quantities of the various items of work and material is estimated only, and is given solely to be used as a uniform basis for the comparison of bids. The quantities actually required to complete the contract work may be more or less than estimated.

III. Lump Sum Contracts, Comparison of Bids.

Bids on lump Sum Contracts will be compared on the basis of the Lump Sum Price bid adjusted for alternate prices bid, if, any.

IV. Apprenticeship Training Program

For all contracts in excess of $500,000 attach here verification letter regarding your firm's having an approved State of New York Apprenticeship Training Program.

IRAN DIVESTMENT ACT – CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to New York State Finance Law §165–a, Iran Divestment Act of 2012, the Office of General Services is required to post on its web site http://www.ogs.ny.gov/about/regs/docs/ListofEntities.pdf a list of persons who have been determined to engage in investment activities in Iran ("the List"), as defined in that Act. Under Public Authorities Law § 2879-c, Iranian Energy Sector Divestment, the Authority, may not enter into or award a Contract unless it obtains a certification from a Bidder, who shall check the box and make the certification in Subparagraph a, below, that they are not on the List. If that certification cannot be made, the Authority may consider entering into a Contract, on a case by case basis if the Bidder checks the box and makes the certification in Subparagraph b, below, that their Iran investment is ceasing.

For purposes of this provision, a person engages in investment activities in Iran if: (A) the person provides goods or services of twenty million dollars or more in the energy sector of Iran, including a person that provides oil or liquefied natural gas tankers, or products used to construct or maintain pipelines used to transport oil or liquefied natural gas, for the energy sector of Iran; or (B) the person is a financial institution that extends twenty million dollars or more in credit to another person, for forty-five days or more, if that person will use the credit to provide goods or services in the energy sector in Iran.

The Certification is as follows:

X a. Certification that the Bidder is not on the List: Each person, where person means natural person, corporation, company, limited liability company, business association, partnership society, trust, or any other nongovernmental entity, organization, or group, and each person signing on behalf of any other party, certifies, and in the case of a joint bid or proposal or partnership each party thereto certifies as to its own organization, under penalty of perjury, that to the best of its knowledge and belief that each person is not on the list created pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision 3 of section 165-a of the State Finance Law, or, ___ b. Certification that the Bidder's investment in Iran is ceasing: The person cannot make the certification in Subparagraph a, above, but asks the Authority to consider them for award of the Contract by certifying, under penalty of perjury, that the person's investment activities in Iran were made before April 12, 2012; the person's investment activities in Iran have not been expanded or renewed after April 12, 2012; and the person has adopted, publicized and is implementing a formal plan to cease its investment activities in Iran and to refrain from engaging in any new investments in Iran.

CONTRACTOR CERTIFICATION STATEMENT REGARDING

STORM WATER POLLUTION AT THE WORK SITE

I certify under penalty of the law that I understand and agree to comply with the terms and conditions of the pollution prevention plan for the construction site identified in such plans as a condition of authorization to discharge storm water. I also understand the operator (Nassau County) must comply with the terms and conditions of the New York State Pollution Discharge Elimination System ("SPDES") general permit for storm water discharges from construction activities and that it is unlawful for any person to cause or contribute to a violation of water quality standards. Finally, I understand my contractual obligations in the matter as outlined in the contract documents.

Certification Regarding
Debarment, Suspension, Ineligibility and Voluntary Exclusion
Lower Tier Covered Transactions
(Sub-Recipient)

This certification is required by the regulations implementing Executive Order 12549, Debarment and Suspension, 28 CFR Part 67, Section 67.510, Participants' responsibilities. The regulations were published as Part VII of the May 26, 1988 Federal Register (pages 19160-19211).

(BEFORE COMPLETING CERTIFICATION, READ INSTRUCTIONS ON REVERSE)

(1) The prospective lower tier participant certifies, by submission of this proposal, that neither it nor its principals are presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from participation in this transaction by any Federal department of agency.

(2) Where the prospective lower tier participant is unable to certify to any of the statements in this certification, such prospective participant shall attach an explanation to this proposal.

Instructions for Certification

1. By signing and submitting this proposal, the prospective lower tier participant is providing the certification set out below.

2. The certification in this clause is a material representation of fact upon which reliance was placed when this transaction was entered into. If it is later determined that the prospective lower tier participant knowingly rendered an erroneous certification, in addition to other remedies available to the Federal Government, the department or agency with which this transaction originated may pursue available remedies, including suspension and/or debarment.

3. The prospective lower tier participant shall provide immediate written notice to the person to which this proposal is submitted if at any time the prospective lower tier participant learns that its certification was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances.

4. The terms "covered transaction," "debarred," "suspended," "ineligible," "lower tier covered transaction," "participant," "person," "primary covered transaction," "principal," "proposes," and "voluntarily excluded," as used in this clause, have the meanings set out in the Definitions and Coverage sections of rules implementing Executive Order 12549.

5. The prospective lower tier participant agrees by submitting this proposal that, should the proposed covered transaction be entered into, it shall not knowingly enter into any lower tier covered transaction with a person who is debarred, suspended, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from participation in this covered transaction, unless authorized by the department or agency with which this transaction originated.

6. The prospective lower tier participant further agrees by submitting this proposal that it will include the clause titled, "Certification Regarding Debarment, Suspension, Ineligibility and Voluntary Exclusion – Lower Tier Covered Transaction," without modification in all lower tier covered transactions and in all solicitations for lower tier covered transactions.

7. A participant in a covered transaction may rely upon a certification of a prospective participant in a lower tier covered transaction that it is not debarred, suspended, ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from the covered transaction, unless it knows that the certification is erroneous. A participant may decide the method and frequency by which it determines the eligibility of its principals. Each participant may check the Nonprocurement List.

8. Nothing contained in the foregoing shall be construed to require establishment of a system of reports in order to render in good faith the certification required by this clause. The knowledge and information of a participant is not required to exceed that which is normally possessed by a prudent person in the ordinary course of business dealings.

9. Except for transactions authorized under paragraph 5 of these instructions, if a participant in a covered transaction knowingly enters into a lower tier covered transaction with a person who is suspended, debarred, ineligible, or voluntary excluded from participation in this transaction, in addition to other remedies available to the Federal Government, the department or agency with which this transaction originated may pursue available remedies, including suspension and/or debarment.

Chapter 1: DEFINITIONS

As used in this Code, the following terms have the following meanings:

Adverse Job-Related Action includes any material alteration to existing terms, conditions, and privileges of employment, such as dismissal, demotion, suspension, compulsory leave, disciplinary action, creation of a hostile work environment, negative performance evaluation, any action resulting in loss of staff, office space or equipment or other benefit, reduction in compensation, failure to appoint, failure to promote, or any transfer or assignment or failure to transfer or assign against the wishes of the affected employee.

Contact means any oral or written communication with any Nassau County Employee, other than the Designated Point(s) of Contact, where it could be reasonably inferred that such contact was intended to influence, or could reasonably be expected to influence, the subject of a County procurement.

Designated Point(s) of Contact means the individual(s) designated by the County to be a Vendor's only contact with Nassau County following the public advertisement of a solicitation or the issuance of a request for a bid, proposal, or quote for small purchase, until the award of a resulting contract and, where applicable, approval by the County Legislature. This timeframe, further defined in the State Procurement Lobbying Law, is also known as the Restricted Period.

Nassau County Employee means any officer, official or employee of Nassau County.

Family Member means (i) a Nassau County Employee's Spouse, Domestic Partner, Child, Sibling or Parent; (ii) a person who is a direct descendant (or the spouse of a direct descendant) of a Sibling of the Nassau County Employee or a Sibling of the Nassau County Employee's Spouse or Domestic Partner; or (iii) a person living in the same household as a Nassau County Employee.

Gift means the transfer, without equivalent consideration, of anything of benefit, tangible or intangible, having more than nominal value, including, but not limited to, cash, loans, forbearance, services, travel, gratuities of any kind, favors, money, meals, refreshments, entertainment, hospitality, admittance to private clubs, use of time-shares, personal use of the Vendor's facilities, promises, tickets to entertainment or sporting events, weekend trips, golf outings, loans of equipment, or other thing or benefit. A Gift need not be intended to influence or reward any individual or entity.

Nassau County Code of Ethics means Nassau County Charter Section 2218, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as may be amended or modified.

Participating Employee means any Vendor employee who engages in any written or oral communication of a non-clerical or non-administrative nature with Nassau County or with a Nassau County Employee(s) as part of or in connection with the procurement.

Participating Nassau County Employee means any Nassau County Employee who the Vendor knows, has reason to know, or can reasonably anticipate is involved in a specific procurement, in either a direct or decision-making capacity, but not in a clerical capacity. This includes but is not limited to the Designated Point of Contact, the project manager, the project manager's staff to the extent that they are involved in the procurement, members of selection committees, technical experts and negotiating teams.

Primary Contracting Party means a Vendor who intends to directly enter into or has a contract with Nassau County.

Retaliatory Action is defined as any Adverse Job-Related Action taken by, or at the direction or request of, a Vendor or a Vendors' Employees as a result of any individual's (i) good-faith report with respect to a violation or potential violation of this Code or the law; or (ii) cooperation in any investigation of unlawful conduct or misconduct conducted by Nassau County or by federal, state, or local law enforcement officials.

State Procurement Lobbying Law means New York State Finance Law Sections 139-j and 139-k, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as may be amended or modified.

Vendor means any individual or entity seeking to or doing business with Nassau County within the scope of this Code, including, without limitation, contractors, consultants, suppliers, manufacturers seeking to act as the primary contracting party, officers and employees of the foregoing, as well as any subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers at all lower tiers.

Chapter 2: LIMITATIONS AND REPORTING OF CONTACTS WITH NASSAU COUNTY

Section 2.01 Designated Point(s) of Contact

Each procurement solicitation issued by Nassau County will identify the Designated Point(s) of Contact for that solicitation as required by the State Procurement Lobbying Law. Once the Designated Point(s) of Contact is/are established, the Vendor and any person or entity acting on the Vendor's behalf, including without limitation, those providing compensated or uncompensated lobbying, advocacy, consulting or other services should ensure that its contacts with Nassau County are in compliance with the requirements of the State Procurement Lobbying Law.

Chapter 3: GIFTS OR CONTINGENT FEES

Section 3.01 Zero Tolerance

No Vendor may offer or give any Gift, directly or indirectly, to a Nassau County Employee. Similarly, no Vendor may offer or give any Gift, directly or indirectly, to any Family Member of a Nassau County employee where such Gift is made because of the Vendor's relationship with the Nassau County Employee. Additionally, no Vendor may accept a gift from a Nassau County Employee.

This Zero-Tolerance Policy applies regardless of actual intentions. In other words, even if a Gift does not, or is not intended to, influence an action or decision by a Nassau County Employee, it is prohibited by this Code.

Section 3.02 Personal Relationships

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Vendor has a pre-existing family or personal relationship with the Employee, a Gift that is wholly unconnected with the Employee's duties on behalf of Nassau County is not necessarily prohibited.

In determining whether the giving of an item was motivated by personal rather than business concerns, the following factors are considered:

(a) the history of the relationship between the donor and the recipient, including but not limited to the mutuality of gift giving;

(b) whether the item was paid for by the donor.

The giving of an item shall not be considered to be motivated by a family or personal relationship if the donor seeks to charge or deduct the value of the item as a business expense or seeks reimbursement from a client.

However, regardless of the family or personal relationship between a Vendor and an employee, a Gift is strictly forbidden where it is being given under circumstances where it can reasonably be inferred that it was intended to influence the employee in the performance of his or her official duties.

Section 3.03 Contingent Fees

The Vendor will not employ or retain any individual or entity for the purpose of soliciting or securing a Nassau County contract upon any agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or fee that is contingent or dependent upon the outcome of the procurement.

Chapter 4: NEGOTIATIONS FOR FUTURE EMPLOYMENT

Section 4.01 Restrictions During the Procurement Process

Vendors shall not discuss future employment with Participating Nassau County Employees or their Family Members from the date the procurement is advertised or solicited through 30 days following the date that the procurement is awarded, even if a Participating Nassau County Employee contacts the Vendor regarding employment. Questions regarding whether a particular Nassau County employee is a Participating Nassau County Employee for a specific procurement should be directed to the Designated Point of Contact for the procurement.

Section 4.02 Restrictions Post Award

Vendors are prohibited from offering or discussing an employment opportunity with a Nassau County Employee or his or her Family Members before whom the Vendor has or expects to have a pending specific matter including, but not limited to, negotiations, performance evaluation, task order selection, approval of a voucher or invoice, or approval of or agreement to a contract amendment, change order, or deviation or waiver until:

(i) 30 days from the time the matter before the Employee is closed, or (ii)30 days from the time the Employee has no further involvement with the matter because of recusal or reassignment.

Chapter 5: CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Section 5.01 Financial Interest

Neither the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, as the case may be, may have a 10% or greater interest, nor shall the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, acquire a 10% or greater interest, either directly or indirectly, in any company or firm that would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the Nassau County contract.

The Vendor will not permit an employee having a 10% or greater interest, either directly or indirectly, in any company or firm that would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the Nassau County contract to be employed in the performance of the Nassau County contract.

Section 5.02 Personal Business Dealings

Neither the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, may have a non-County business dealing with a

Participating Nassau County Employee where it can be reasonably inferred that the purpose of the business dealing, at least in part, is to influence the Participating Nassau County Employee's action on a pending County matter.

Section 5.03 Disclosure and Cooperation

The Vendor shall disclose immediately to the County any real or potential conflict of interest of which it becomes aware. This obligation is ongoing and shall last through the completion of performance of the contract. The Vendor shall provide to Nassau County, at the County's request and upon such forms as may be furnished by Nassau County, a disclosure of organizational, financial, contractual or other affiliations with any organization or entity that has interests that may be substantially affected by the procurement solicitation or award. The Vendor shall fully cooperate in any inquiry or investigation undertaken by Nassau County to determine whether any such affiliations present a conflict of interest, or whether any other provision of this Code has been violated. The Vendor shall fully cooperate with audits, investigations, examinations and reviews by the Nassau County Inspector General conducted pursuant to section 187 of the Nassau County Charter.

Section 5.04 Confidential Information

At no time shall any Vendor who obtains confidential or proprietary Nassau County information in the course of doing or seeking to do business with the County disclose any such information to any person not authorized by Nassau County to receive such information or use such information for any personal gain except as necessary to fulfill its contractual obligations to Nassau County.

If the Vendor receives from any source confidential or proprietary Nassau County information prior to the award of a resulting contract and, where applicable, approval by the County Legislature, without the explicit approval of the Designated Point of Contact, the Vendor shall immediately so notify the Designated Point of Contact.

Nassau County confidential or proprietary information includes, but is not limited to, internal cost estimates and proposals submitted by other Vendors.

Section 5.05 Prohibition Regarding Bidding by Participants in Procurement Development

No Vendor who participates in the development of a scope of work, solicitation documents, assessment criteria, contractual instruments or technical specifications may participate as a bidder, sub-bidder, proposer or sub-proposer on that particular procurement or perform any work on that particular procurement or any other procurement that would constitute an organizational conflict of interest or would give that Vendor an unfair advantage over other bidders or proposers on that procurement. This prohibition may be waived in writing by the County Chief Procurement Officer upon a showing of good cause.

Section 6.01 Appearance Before Former Agency-Two Year Bar

Except as provided for in Section 2218(8) of the Nassau County Code of Ethics, the Vendor will not permit a former Nassau County Employee to appear or practice before any Nassau County agency, either prior to award or in the performance of a Nassau County contract, for a period of two years after termination of the Nassau County Employee's services with the County.

Section 6.02 Appearance Before Former Agency-Life Time Bar

Except as provided for in Section 2218(8) of the Nassau County Code of Ethics, the Vendor will not permit a former Nassau County Employee to appear, practice, communicate or otherwise render services before the agency that employed the officer or employee or any other agency of Nassau County, either prior to award or in the performance of an agency's contract in relation to any case, proceeding, application or transaction with respect to which such former officer or employee was directly concerned and in which he or she personally participated, or which was under his or her active consideration during the period of his or her employment. This provision is a lifetime bar on projects that the former Nassau County Employee previously worked on while employed by the County.

Chapter 7: NON-COLLUSION

Section 7.01 Independent Bid Assessment

The Vendor will calculate the price(s) contained in any bid or proposal independently, without collusion, consultation, communication, or agreement with any competing Vendor for the purpose of restricting competition.

Section 7.02 Non-Communication of Bid

Unless otherwise required by law, the price(s) which the Vendor quotes in its bid or proposal will not knowingly be disclosed by the Vendor, directly or indirectly, to any competing Vendor prior to the closing date for bids or proposals.

Section 7.03 Bid Submission

The Vendor will not make any attempt to induce any other individual or entity to submit or not to submit a bid or proposal.

Chapter 8: DISTRIBUTION AND CERTIFICATION

Section 8.01 Distribution of Vendor Code of Ethics and Vendor's Participating Employee Acknowledgements

As a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold of $10,000, the Vendor will be required to distribute copies of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics to all Participating Employees prior to any of those employee's participation in the procurement. The Code may be distributed either in hard copy or electronically as a separate PDF.

Additionally, as a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold, the Vendor will be required to obtain an acknowledgement from each of its Participating Employees ("Participating Employee Acknowledgements") that they have received, read, understand, and will comply with the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics.

The Vendor's responsibility for distributing copies of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics and obtaining such signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements is ongoing until completion of performance of the contract and shall be retained for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County.

Receipt and retention of Participating Employee Acknowledgments by the Vendor shall be subject to audit by Nassau County.

Section 8.02 Vendor Certifications

The vendor by signing the final contract thereby certifies and attests to the following:

(a) The Vendor has been provided with a copy of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics and will comply with all of the provisions of the Code;

(b) All of its Participating Employees during the course of procurement or contract have been provided with a copy of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics prior to any of those employees' participation in the procurement;

(c) All Participating Employees have completed the acknowledgement required by Section 8.01 of this Code;

(d) The Vendor will retain all of the signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County;

(e) The Vendor will continue to distribute the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics, obtain signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements as new Participating Employees are added or changed during the contract period, and retain all of the signed acknowledgements for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County.

Section 8.03 Subcontractor Certifications

As a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold, the Vendor will obtain certifications executed by authorized officials from all of its lower tier subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers (as well as from any other subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers from whom that Vendor is soliciting or has received proposals for work on a Nassau County contract) whose employees have communicated or may communicate with Nassau County Employees. This obligation is ongoing and shall last through the completion of performance of the contract. Receipt and retention of lower tier certifications by the Vendor shall be subject to audit by Nassau County.

Chapter 9: PENALTIES

Section 9.01 Responsibility Determination

For violation of any provision of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics, Nassau County may avail itself of every remedy in law or equity, or as agreed to by parties in any contract, including but not limited to declaring the Vendor non-responsible or in material breach of the contract.

Section 9.02 Civil/Criminal Penalties

Additionally, violation of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics or a provision thereof may subject the Vendor to criminal or civil penalties under State or Federal law.

Chapter 10: REPORTING OBLIGATION

Section 10.01 Reporting Gift Requests

Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 4 above, the Vendor is obligated to immediately report to Nassau County's Inspector General and the County Chief Procurement Officer, any and all requests made to the Vendor by any Nassau County Employee for a Gift.

Section 10.02 Reporting Material Changes

The Vendor is under a continuing obligation to report any change in circumstances that materially affects any prior report to Nassau County to Department of Chief Contracting Officer, including but not limited to disclosure of conflicts of interest and representations made in the Contractor Responsibility Form.

Section 10.03 Reporting Violations and Overpayments

The Vendor is obligated to timely report in writing to Nassau County's Inspector General, in connection with the award, performance or closeout of the Nassau County contract or subcontract, any credible evidence of significant overpayments on the contract or that a principal, employee, agent or subcontractor has committed a violation of law involving fraud, conflict of interest, bribery or gratuities.

Chapter 11: PROHIBITION ON RETALIATION

Section 11.01 Prohibition

To facilitate the reporting obligations under Chapter 10, this code strictly forbids all Vendors and Vendors' Employees from taking any Retaliatory Action against individuals who make such reports.

Provisions for Agreements

1. The Sponsor agrees that apprentices shall be hired without any direct or indirect limitation, specification or discrimination as to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, marital status, age, arrest record, or veteran status.
2. If the Sponsor grants advance credit or standing for previously acquired experience or training, the Sponsor agrees to apply the same evaluation method uniformly for all apprentices.
3. The Sponsor agrees to post, in a conspicuous place, a copy of the Regulation (600. 12) dealing with the Equal Employment Opportunity complaint procedure, and to bring its provisions to the attention of all apprentices.
4. The Sponsor agrees to follow and comply with the approved Work Process, the Equal Employment Opportunity in Apprenticeship Training Part 600 Regulations, and the Regulations Governing the Registration of Apprenticeship Programs and Agreements, Part 601.
5. The Sponsor agrees to provide competent supervision of worksite training and adequate facilities to train apprentices.
6. The Sponsor agrees to instruct apprentices in safe and healthful work practices and agrees to ensure that training is provided in facilities and other environments that are in compliance with the safety and health standards promulgated by the Secretary of Labor under Public Law 91-596, and the Public Employees Safety and Health Act of the New York State Labor Law Article 2; Section 27-A.
7. The Sponsor agrees to evaluate the progress of all apprentices at least every six months, including job performance.
8. The Sponsor agrees to pay all apprentices a progressively increasing scale of wages as indicated on the front side of this form.
9. The Sponsor agrees to pay no less than the minimum journeyworker rate to each apprentice who completes the apprentice program and becomes eligible to receive a state Certificate of Completion.
10. The Sponsor recognizes that prevailing wage rates for Public Work projects are set by designated government agencies and the wages listed in this program do not supersede or replace the wage rates set by those agencies.
11. The Sponsor agrees that the Department of Labor may recognize successful completions of apprenticeships by awarding State Certifications of Completion and agrees to accept presentation of the certificate as documentation of journeyworker status.
12. The Sponsor agrees to maintain records for each apprentice including but not limited to: job assignments, promotion, demotion, lay-offs, terminations, rates of pay, progress in training as outlined on the Work Processes, any other records pertinent to a determination of compliance with Article 23 of the Labor Law and in compliance with Apprenticeship Regulations, Part 600 and 601.
13. The Sponsor agrees to promptly record, maintain and submit to the Department of Labor all records concerning apprenticeship as may be required by the Department of Labor.
14. The Sponsor agrees that all program modifications, revisions or reports will be submitted to the Department of Labor within 30 calendar days of such program change or the report request.
15. The Sponsor agrees to promptly notify the Department of Labor of all apprentices who have successfully completed an apprenticeship program.
16. The Sponsor agrees not to subvert the program by hiring workers as helpers, shophands, or other titles and assigning to them work generally performed by apprentices.
17. The Sponsor recognizes that, if it is without an apprentice for a period of twelve months, that the program will be deemed deregistered unless it has been granted Inactive Status or is a program operated by a NYS agency.
18. The Sponsor agrees to comply with, and hold all signatories to, the standards in this Apprenticeship Training Program Registration Agreement.
19. The Sponsor agrees to ensure that each of their apprentices will maintain a record that documents task rotation and the skills acquired through the program in a format that is approved by the Department of Labor. The apprentice's Blue Book is considered an acceptable format.

Contract Number: B90611-25G
Title: Supreme Court Elevators Rehabilitation and Modernization
100 Supreme Ct Dr, Mineola, NY 11501
Engineer's Estimate: $3,100,000.00

Bids Received On: March 17, 2026

DPW has received two bids: Avid NYC Corp. and Centennial Elevator Industries, Inc., for the above referenced contract. They have been examined and "Centennial Elevator Industries, Inc." is the lowest responsible bidder in the amount as follows:

|---|---|
| General Construction (Lump Sum): | $2,145,700.00 |
| Allowance (Unforeseen Conditions): | $ 107,285.00 |
| Allowance (Repair/Maintenance for car 5): | $ 250,000.00 |
| Allowance (Alt 1): | $ 4,500.00 |
| Bid Total: | $2,507,485.00 |

The bids were analyzed by the project A/E (LiRo) and DPW staff.

The low bid received is 42% below the Engineer's Estimate (after deducting bid amounts for the Allowances) It is DPW's opinion that the Engineer's Estimate assumed a greater degree of difficulty for site access due to it being an active courthouse, additional costs associated with possible unforeseen conditions due to the age of which the elevators have been out of service. We believe based on a pre-award meeting and analysis of their submission, including their previous work of similar scope, they are capable of completing the project satisfactorily.

Centennial Elevator Industries, Inc. provided the Department with a Bid Bond in the amount of Ten Percent (10%) bid by Fidelity and Deposit Company as surety.

Funding is available under Capital Project Number 90407 (Various County Facilities – Elevators).

COUNTY OF NASSAU
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
Inter-Departmental Memo

TO: Michael Kwaschyn, Commissioner

FROM: Douglas Tuman, Deputy Commissioner

DATE: April 20, 2026

SUBJECT: Low Participation for B90611-25G General Contracting Services for NC Supreme Court Elevator Rehabilitation & Modernization

The above-referenced contract for the General Contracting Services for NC Supreme Court Elevator Rehabilitation & Modernization was issued on February 4, 2026, with final submission date March 17, 2026. The contract was advertised for bid in NYSCR. Thirty-two (32) vendors were notified and viewed the solicitation. Based on previous projects and the known expertise of the vendor community in the area, we expected to receive approximately 6 proposals. Two vendors responded, Centennial Elevator Industries, Inc., and AVID NYC Corp.. The Notice to Bidders itself was not restricted.

The following are questions relating to the openness of the bidding process as per the County's Low Vendor Participation Policy.

1) Review the specification to ensure that it is not unduly restrictive so as to limit competition. Is any component of the solicitation so restrictive that only one or a small number of vendors is capable of responding to the solicitation? If so, were those vendors notified of the solicitation?
Response: the bid was not restrictive.

2) Was the solicitation advertised and posted on the County website as required?
Response: yes.

3) Would we be likely to obtain greater vendor participation by advertising in other venues (e.g., New York State Contract Reporter, trade journals, other local media, etc.)?
Response: the bid was advertised in NYSCR, County Solicitation Board posting, and the New York Post Legal Notice.

4) Was the NIGP commodity code used to conduct the solicitation appropriate? Were appropriate vendors registered with the County for that commodity code or otherwise notified?
Response: The correct commodity codes were utilized in e-procure, accordingly, the vendors registered for that commodity code received an automatic notification. It was noticed that some vendors who have "elevator" in their company name did not have any codes entered. Those companies were contacted separately.

5) Is the market for the specified goods or services structurally limited (i.e. are there geographic, capital, vendor capacity, service schedule, or other requirements) such that the greater vendor participation is not possible?
Response: The work itself is more specialized and also included that it was a PLA and therefore limited to vendors that are in the elevator industry making it difficult for those looking to do general work.

SUBJECT: Low Participation for B90611-25G General Contracting Services for NC Supreme Court Elevator Rehabilitation & Modernization

6) Survey vendors that received notice of the solicitation but did not respond to determine why the vendor chose not to do so. Typical responses include but are not limited to:
   a. The vendor did not see the advertisement.
   Response: All the vendors notified through e-procure (32), at least viewed the solicitation, (20) of whom downloaded the documents. Additional (27) vendors were reached out to via email and phone.
   b. The vendor does not offer the specified goods/services-as a follow-up, ask if the specification is too specific to a competitor's product (is the specification "brand-specific" or written to one manufacturer's or service provider's offering?)
   Response: The work was bid as a PLA job and those not associated did not want to bid on the project.
   c. The vendor is too busy with other work at this time
   Response: Most vendors contacted stated they were available but due to the PLA did not want to bid.

Provisions for Agreements

1. The Sponsor agrees that apprentices shall be hired without any direct or indirect limitation, specification or discrimination as to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, marital status, age, arrest record, or veteran status.
2. If the Sponsor grants advance credit or standing for previously acquired experience or training, the Sponsor agrees to apply the same evaluation method uniformly for all apprentices.
3. The Sponsor agrees to post, in a conspicuous place, a copy of the Regulation (600. 12) dealing with the Equal Employment Opportunity complaint procedure, and to bring its provisions to the attention of all apprentices.
4. The Sponsor agrees to follow and comply with the approved Work Process, the Equal Employment Opportunity in Apprenticeship Training Part 600 Regulations, and the Regulations Governing the Registration of Apprenticeship Programs and Agreements, Part 601.
5. The Sponsor agrees to provide competent supervision of worksite training and adequate facilities to train apprentices.
6. The Sponsor agrees to instruct apprentices in safe and healthful work practices and agrees to ensure that training is provided in facilities and other environments that are in compliance with the safety and health standards promulgated by the Secretary of Labor under Public Law 91-596, and the Public Employees Safety and Health Act of the New York State Labor Law Article 2; Section 27-A.
7. The Sponsor agrees to evaluate the progress of all apprentices at least every six months, including job performance.
8. The Sponsor agrees to pay all apprentices a progressively increasing scale of wages as indicated on the front side of this form.
9. The Sponsor agrees to pay no less than the minimum journeyworker rate to each apprentice who completes the apprentice program and becomes eligible to receive a state Certificate of Completion.
10. The Sponsor recognizes that prevailing wage rates for Public Work projects are set by designated government agencies and the wages listed in this program do not supersede or replace the wage rates set by those agencies.
11. The Sponsor agrees that the Department of Labor may recognize successful completions of apprenticeships by awarding State Certifications of Completion and agrees to accept presentation of the certificate as documentation of journeyworker status.
12. The Sponsor agrees to maintain records for each apprentice including but not limited to: job assignments, promotion, demotion, lay-offs, terminations, rates of pay, progress in training as outlined on the Work Processes, any other records pertinent to a determination of compliance with Article 23 of the Labor Law and in compliance with Apprenticeship Regulations, Part 600 and 601.
13. The Sponsor agrees to promptly record, maintain and submit to the Department of Labor all records concerning apprenticeship as may be required by the Department of Labor.
14. The Sponsor agrees that all program modifications, revisions or reports will be submitted to the Department of Labor within 30 calendar days of such program change or the report request.
15. The Sponsor agrees to promptly notify the Department of Labor of all apprentices who have successfully completed an apprenticeship program.
16. The Sponsor agrees not to subvert the program by hiring workers as helpers, shophands, or other titles and assigning to them work generally performed by apprentices.
17. The Sponsor recognizes that, if it is without an apprentice for a period of twelve months, that the program will be deemed deregistered unless it has been granted Inactive Status or is a program operated by a NYS agency.
18. The Sponsor agrees to comply with, and hold all signatories to, the standards in this Apprenticeship Training Program Registration Agreement.
19. The Sponsor agrees to ensure that each of their apprentices will maintain a record that documents task rotation and the skills acquired through the program in a format that is approved by the Department of Labor. The apprentice's Blue Book is considered an acceptable format.

RULES RESOLUTION NO. -2026

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE TO AWARD AND EXECUTE A CONTRACT BETWEEN THE COUNTY OF NASSAU ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE NASSAU COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS AND E & A RESTORATION, INC.

WHEREAS, in accordance with all Federal, State and Local Law, the County of Nassau on behalf of the NASSAU COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS ["Department"] has received competitive bids for contract B90400-05G, for BUILDING CONSTRUCTION REQUIREMENTS CONTRACT – GENERAL CONSTRUCTION, NASSAU COUNTY, NY ["Contract"], as more particularly described in the contract documents, a copy of which are on file with the Clerk of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, the Department is representing to the Rules Committee that the term of this requirements contract is two (2) years, with the Department's option to extend the term of the Contract for an additional two (2) year period for a total Contract term of four (4) years.

WHEREAS, the estimated expenditures under this Contract, including during the period of any extension options that may be exercised by the Commissioner of the Department, is $ 10,000,000.00.

WHEREAS, the firm of E & A RESTORATION, INC.

["Vendor"] has submitted the lowest responsible comparison bid for the work described in the contract in accordance with all Federal, State and Local Law as determined by the Department, and

WHEREAS, the funding for this contract is from capital funds approved by the Nassau County Legislature and included in the current four year capital plan, and

WHEREAS, the Commissioner of the Department is recommending to the Rules Committee that the contract be awarded to the vendor; now; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Rules Committee of the Nassau County Legislature, based on the representations of the Department and the recommendation of the Commissioner of the Department, authorizes the County Executive to award and execute the said contract with the vendor.

FORM OF BID BOND

IMPORTANT The bidder shall instruct the Surety Company to USE THIS FORM PROVIDED as the use of ANY OTHER FORM may cause rejection of the bid.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS,

that we, the undersigned E & A Restoration Inc. 130 Crossways Park Drive, Suite 101, Woodbury, NY 11797

as Principal; and Philadelphia Indemnity Insurance Company One Bala Plaza, Suite 100, Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004 as surety, who is Licensed to do business in the State of New York, are hereby firmly bound unto the County of Nassau in the penal sum of

Two Hundred Thousand & ---------- 00/100 dollars ($ 200,000.00 ---------- ) for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

Signed, this 4th day of March, 20 26

The conditions of the above obligation is such that whereas the Principal has submitted to the County of Nassau a certain Bid attached hereto and hereby made a part hereof, to enter into a contract in writing for the work under Contract No. B90400-05G for the Building Construction Requirements Contract - General Construction - Various Locations in Nassau County, New York

NOW, THEREFORE, the conditions of this obligation are such that if the Principal shall not withdraw said proposal except by mutual consent of the County of Nassau within a period of forty-five (45) days after the opening of bids and in the event of acceptance of the Principal's proposal, if the Principal shall,

a. when notified by the County, execute all necessary counterparts of the contract as set forth in the contract documents in accordance with the proposal as accepted; and

b. furnish bonds and other security as specified in the contract documents for the faithful performance and proper fulfillment of such contract, which bonds or other security shall be satisfactory in all respects to the County; and

c. in all respects, comply with the provisions set forth in the invitation to bid; or if the County of Nassau shall reject the aforesaid proposal for a reason other than the Principal's failure to satisfy the County that he has the necessary skill, experience and liquid assets required for the contract as stated in the documents aforesaid, then this obligation shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

NO TEXT ON THIS PAGE

Provided, however, that this bond is subject to the following additional conditions and limitations.

a. In the event that the Principal fails to submit a financial statement when required by the County or in the event that an examination of the Principal indicates to the County that the Principal does not meet the financial requirements required by the County, the undersigned will, upon demand, pay to the County of Nassau, as liquidated damages for the Principal's failure to meet such requirements, a sum equal to the amount that would have been required by a certified check if the same were delivered in accordance with the provisions of the contract documents and specifications herein stated.

b. In case the Principal shall default in the performance of any provision the undersigned will upon demand pay to the County of Nassau the full amount of the damages sustained by the County of Nassau by reason of such default, except however, it is expressly understood and agreed that the liability of the surety for any and all claims hereunder shall in no event exceed the amount of this obligation as herein stated.

The Surety, for value received, hereby stipulates and agrees that the obligation of said Surety and its bond shall be in no way impaired or affected by any extension of time within which the County of Nassau may accept such Bid; and said Surety does hereby waive notice of any such extension.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION

THE BIDDER AFFIRMS AND DECLARES:

1. That the above Bidder is of lawful age and the only one interested in this bid; and that no other person, firm or corporation, except those herein named, has any interest in this bid or in the Contract proposed to be entered into.

2. That this bid is made without any understanding, agreement or in connection with any other person, firm or corporation, making a bid for the same Work, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud.

3. That said Bidder is not in arrears to the County of Nassau upon debt or contract, and is not a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the County of Nassau.

4. That no officer nor employee of the County of Nassau, or person whose salary is payable in whole or in part from the County Treasury is, shall be, or become interested directly, or indirectly as a contracting party, partner, stockholder, surety or otherwise, in this bid, or in the performance of the contract, or in the supplies, materials, equipment and work or labor to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof.

5. That he has carefully examined the site of the work and that, from his own investigations, has satisfied himself as to the nature and location of the work, the character, quality and quantity of existing materials, all difficulties likely to be encountered, the kind and extent of equipment, other facilities needed for the performance of the work, the general and local conditions, and all other items which may, in any way, affect the work or its performance.

6. The Bidder also declares that he has carefully examined and fully understands all the component parts of this Contract; that he will execute the Contract and will completely perform it in strict accordance with its terms for the following prices.

7. That the Bidder, for allowance items, will make payment to the parties designated by the County when directed by the County in the amount certified by the Engineer for the purposes indicated. It is also understood and agreed that the Final Contract Payment for allowance items will be based upon such actual payments, and not on the approximate amount cited herein.

8. Where the work performed under this Contract involves a trade or occupation licensed in the County of Nassau by the Towns of Hempstead, Oyster Bay, or North Hempstead or by the Cities of Glen Cove or Long Beach, the contractor shall be required to have such a license.

INFORMATION FOR BIDDERS

I. Rejection of Bids.

A. The Commissioner may recommend a reject of bid if:

1. The Bidder fails to furnish any of the information required by the bid documents; or if
2. The bidder misstates or conceals any material fact in the bid, or in the sworn written statement; or if
3. The bid does not strictly conform to law or the requirements of this contract; or if
4. The bid is conditional; or if
5. A determination that the bidder is not responsible is made in accordance with law; or if
6. The bid, in the opinion of the Commissioner, contains unbalanced bid prices, unless the bidder can show that the prices are not unbalanced for the probably required quantity of such items.

B. Rejection of all bids and waiver of informalities.

The Commissioner, however, reserves the right to recommend to reject all bids whenever he deems it in the best interest of the County, and also the right to waive any informalities in a bid.

II. Unit Price Contracts, Comparison of Bids.

Bids on Unit Price Contracts will be compared on the basis of a total bid price, arrived at by taking the sum of the Approximate Quantities of such item multiplied by the corresponding Unit Price, and including any Lump Sum Bid on individual items, in accordance with the items set forth in the bid proposal.

Bidders are warned that the Approximate Quantities of the various items of work and material is estimated only, and is given solely to be used as a uniform basis for the comparison of bids. The quantities actually required to complete the contract work may be more or less than estimated.

III. Lump Sum Contracts, Comparison of Bids.

Bids on lump Sum Contracts will be compared on the basis of the Lump Sum Price bid adjusted for alternate prices bid, if, any.

IV. Apprenticeship Training Program

For all contracts in excess of $500,000 attach here verification letter regarding your firm's having an approved State of New York Apprenticeship Training Program.

IRAN DIVESTMENT ACT – CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to New York State Finance Law §165–a, Iran Divestment Act of 2012, the Office of General Services is required to post on its web site http://www.ogs.ny.gov/about/regs/docs/ListofEntities.pdf a list of persons who have been determined to engage in investment activities in Iran ("the List"), as defined in that Act. Under Public Authorities Law § 2879-c, Iranian Energy Sector Divestment, the Authority, may not enter into or award a Contract unless it obtains a certification from a Bidder, who shall check the box and make the certification in Subparagraph a, below, that they are not on the List. If that certification cannot be made, the Authority may consider entering into a Contract, on a case by case basis if the Bidder checks the box and makes the certification in Subparagraph b, below, that their Iran investment is ceasing.

For purposes of this provision, a person engages in investment activities in Iran if: (A) the person provides goods or services of twenty million dollars or more in the energy sector of Iran, including a person that provides oil or liquefied natural gas tankers, or products used to construct or maintain pipelines used to transport oil or liquefied natural gas, for the energy sector of Iran; or (B) the person is a financial institution that extends twenty million dollars or more in credit to another person, for forty-five days or more, if that person will use the credit to provide goods or services in the energy sector in Iran.

The Certification is as follows:

✓ a. Certification that the Bidder is not on the List: Each person, where person means natural person, corporation, company, limited liability company, business association, partnership society, trust, or any other nongovernmental entity, organization, or group, and each person signing on behalf of any other party, certifies, and in the case of a joint bid or proposal or partnership each party thereto certifies as to its own organization, under penalty of perjury, that to the best of its knowledge and belief that each person is not on the list created pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision 3 of section 165-a of the State Finance Law, or, ___ b. Certification that the Bidder's investment in Iran is ceasing: The person cannot make the certification in Subparagraph a, above, but asks the Authority to consider them for award of the Contract by certifying, under penalty of perjury, that the person's investment activities in Iran were made before April 12, 2012; the person's investment activities in Iran have not been expanded or renewed after April 12, 2012; and the person has adopted, publicized and is implementing a formal plan to cease its investment activities in Iran and to refrain from engaging in any new investments in Iran.

Hello,

Enclosed is your Certificate of Contractor Registration. Please keep this document as proof of your registration.

This Certificate is valid for two (2) years, unless revoked or suspended.

If you bid or commence work on a public work project or covered private project without being properly registered, you may be subject to a civil penalty and denial of your registration application pursuant to NYS LL § 220-I(8).

If your registration or a subcontractor's registration lapses while performing contracted work on a covered project, the work for that project may be completed.

If you are determined unfit and your certificate is revoked or suspended, then a monitor approved by the Commissioner must be appointed to oversee the completion of the work at your expense.

If your certificate is to be suspended or revoked for any reason, you will receive a notice and an opportunity to contest at a hearing prior to the suspension or revocation taking effect.

Please note that any subcontractors or independent contractors you hire to work on a public work or covered private construction project must obtain their own Certificate of Contractor Registration to perform such work.

If you allow a subcontractor or independent contractor to perform work on a public work or covered private project without being properly registered, you and the other contractor may be subject to a civil penalty and revocation/suspension/denial of your registration pursuant to NYS LL § 220-I(8).

Any project where work is performed in violation of Contractor Registration requirements, or any provisions of NYS Labor Law Article 8, is subject to the issuance of a Stop Work Order, pursuant to NYS LL § 224-B.

CONTRACTOR CERTIFICATION STATEMENT REGARDING

STORM WATER POLLUTION AT THE WORK SITE

I certify under penalty of the law that I understand and agree to comply with the terms and conditions of the pollution prevention plan for the construction site identified in such plans as a condition of authorization to discharge storm water. I also understand the operator (Nassau County) must comply with the terms and conditions of the New York State Pollution Discharge Elimination System ("SPDES") general permit for storm water discharges from construction activities and that it is unlawful for any person to cause or contribute to a violation of water quality standards. Finally, I understand my contractual obligations in the matter as outlined in the contract documents.

This certification is required by the regulations implementing Executive Order 12549, Debarment and Suspension, 28 CFR Part 67, Section 67.510, Participants' responsibilities. The regulations were published as Part VII of the May 26, 1988 Federal Register (pages 19160-19211).

(BEFORE COMPLETING CERTIFICATION, READ INSTRUCTIONS ON REVERSE)

(1) The prospective lower tier participant certifies, by submission of this proposal, that neither it nor its principals are presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from participation in this transaction by any Federal department of agency.

(2) Where the prospective lower tier participant is unable to certify to any of the statements in this certification, such prospective participant shall attach an explanation to this proposal.

Instructions for Certification

1. By signing and submitting this proposal, the prospective lower tier participant is providing the certification set out below.

2. The certification in this clause is a material representation of fact upon which reliance was placed when this transaction was entered into. If it is later determined that the prospective lower tier participant knowingly rendered an erroneous certification, in addition to other remedies available to the Federal Government, the department or agency with which this transaction originated may pursue available remedies, including suspension and/or debarment.

3. The prospective lower tier participant shall provide immediate written notice to the person to which this proposal is submitted if at any time the prospective lower tier participant learns that its certification was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances.

4. The terms "covered transaction," "debarred," "suspended," "ineligible," "lower tier covered transaction," "participant," "person," "primary covered transaction," "principal," "proposes," and "voluntarily excluded," as used in this clause, have the meanings set out in the Definitions and Coverage sections of rules implementing Executive Order 12549.

5. The prospective lower tier participant agrees by submitting this proposal that, should the proposed covered transaction be entered into, it shall not knowingly enter into any lower tier covered transaction with a person who is debarred, suspended, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from participation in this covered transaction, unless authorized by the department or agency with which this transaction originated.

6. The prospective lower tier participant further agrees by submitting this proposal that it will include the clause titled, "Certification Regarding Debarment, Suspension, Ineligibility and Voluntary Exclusion – Lower Tier Covered Transaction," without modification in all lower tier covered transactions and in all solicitations for lower tier covered transactions.

7. A participant in a covered transaction may rely upon a certification of a prospective participant in a lower tier covered transaction that it is not debarred, suspended, ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from the covered transaction, unless it knows that the certification is erroneous. A participant may decide the method and frequency by which it determines the eligibility of its principals. Each participant may check the Nonprocurement List.

8. Nothing contained in the foregoing shall be construed to require establishment of a system of reports in order to render in good faith the certification required by this clause. The knowledge and information of a participant is not required to exceed that which is normally possessed by a prudent person in the ordinary course of business dealings.

9. Except for transactions authorized under paragraph 5 of these instructions, if a participant in a covered transaction knowingly enters into a lower tier covered transaction with a person who is suspended, debarred, ineligible, or voluntary excluded from participation in this transaction, in addition to other remedies available to the Federal Government, the department or agency with which this transaction originated may pursue available remedies, including suspension and/or debarment.

Vendor Code of Ethics

Chapter 1: DEFINITIONS

As used in this Code, the following terms have the following meanings:

Adverse Job-Related Action includes any material alteration to existing terms, conditions, and privileges of employment, such as dismissal, demotion, suspension, compulsory leave, disciplinary action, creation of a hostile work environment, negative performance evaluation, any action resulting in loss of staff, office space or equipment or other benefit, reduction in compensation, failure to appoint, failure to promote, or any transfer or assignment or failure to transfer or assign against the wishes of the affected employee.

Contact means any oral or written communication with any Nassau County Employee, other than the Designated Point(s) of Contact, where it could be reasonably inferred that such contact was intended to influence, or could reasonably be expected to influence, the subject of a County procurement.

Designated Point(s) of Contact means the individual(s) designated by the County to be a Vendor's only contact with Nassau County following the public advertisement of a solicitation or the issuance of a request for a bid, proposal, or quote for small purchase, until the award of a resulting contract and, where applicable, approval by the County Legislature. This timeframe, further defined in the State Procurement Lobbying Law, is also known as the Restricted Period.

Nassau County Employee means any officer, official or employee of Nassau County.

Family Member means (i) a Nassau County Employee's Spouse, Domestic Partner, Child, Sibling or Parent; (ii) a person who is a direct descendant (or the spouse of a direct descendant) of a Sibling of the Nassau County Employee or a Sibling of the Nassau County Employee's Spouse or Domestic Partner; or (iii) a person living in the same household as a Nassau County Employee.

Gift means the transfer, without equivalent consideration, of anything of benefit, tangible or intangible, having more than nominal value, including, but not limited to, cash, loans, forbearance, services, travel, gratuities of any kind, favors, money, meals, refreshments, entertainment, hospitality, admittance to private clubs, use of time-shares, personal use of the Vendor's facilities, promises, tickets to entertainment or sporting events, weekend trips, golf outings, loans of equipment, or other thing or benefit. A Gift need not be intended to influence or reward any individual or entity.

Nassau County Code of Ethics means Nassau County Charter Section 2218, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as may be amended or modified.

Participating Employee means any Vendor employee who engages in any written or oral communication of a non-clerical or non-administrative nature with Nassau County or with a Nassau County Employee(s) as part of or in connection with the procurement.

Participating Nassau County Employee means any Nassau County Employee who the Vendor knows, has reason to know, or can reasonably anticipate is involved in a specific procurement, in either a direct or decision-making capacity, but not in a clerical capacity. This includes but is not limited to the Designated Point of Contact, the project manager, the project manager's staff to the extent that they are involved in the procurement, members of selection committees, technical experts and negotiating teams.

Primary Contracting Party means a Vendor who intends to directly enter into or has a contract with Nassau County.

Retaliatory Action is defined as any Adverse Job-Related Action taken by, or at the direction or request of, a Vendor or a Vendors' Employees as a result of any individual's (i) good-faith report with respect to a violation or potential violation of this Code or the law; or (ii) cooperation in any investigation of unlawful conduct or misconduct conducted by Nassau County or by federal, state, or local law enforcement officials.

State Procurement Lobbying Law means New York State Finance Law Sections 139-j and 139-k, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as may be amended or modified.

Vendor means any individual or entity seeking to or doing business with Nassau County within the scope of this Code, including, without limitation, contractors, consultants, suppliers, manufacturers seeking to act as the primary contracting party, officers and employees of the foregoing, as well as any subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers at all lower tiers.

Chapter 2: LIMITATIONS AND REPORTING OF CONTACTS WITH NASSAU COUNTY

Section 2.01 Designated Point(s) of Contact

Each procurement solicitation issued by Nassau County will identify the Designated Point(s) of Contact for that solicitation as required by the State Procurement Lobbying Law. Once the Designated Point(s) of Contact is/are established, the Vendor and any person or entity acting on the Vendor's behalf, including without limitation, those providing compensated or uncompensated lobbying, advocacy, consulting or other services should ensure that its contacts with Nassau County are in compliance with the requirements of the State Procurement Lobbying Law.

Chapter 3: GIFTS OR CONTINGENT FEES

Section 3.01 Zero Tolerance

No Vendor may offer or give any Gift, directly or indirectly, to a Nassau County Employee. Similarly, no Vendor may offer or give any Gift, directly or indirectly, to any Family Member of a Nassau County employee where such Gift is made because of the Vendor's relationship with the Nassau County Employee. Additionally, no Vendor may accept a gift from a Nassau County Employee.

This Zero-Tolerance Policy applies regardless of actual intentions. In other words, even if a Gift does not, or is not intended to, influence an action or decision by a Nassau County Employee, it is prohibited by this Code.

Section 3.02 Personal Relationships

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Vendor has a pre-existing family or personal relationship with the Employee, a Gift that is wholly unconnected with the Employee's duties on behalf of Nassau County is not necessarily prohibited.

In determining whether the giving of an item was motivated by personal rather than business concerns, the following factors are considered:

(a) the history of the relationship between the donor and the recipient, including but not limited to the mutuality of gift giving;

(b) whether the item was paid for by the donor.

The giving of an item shall not be considered to be motivated by a family or personal relationship if the donor seeks to charge or deduct the value of the item as a business expense or seeks reimbursement from a client.

However, regardless of the family or personal relationship between a Vendor and an employee, a Gift is strictly forbidden where it is being given under circumstances where it can reasonably be inferred that it was intended to influence the employee in the performance of his or her official duties.

Section 3.03 Contingent Fees

The Vendor will not employ or retain any individual or entity for the purpose of soliciting or securing a Nassau County contract upon any agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or fee that is contingent or dependent upon the outcome of the procurement.

Chapter 4: NEGOTIATIONS FOR FUTURE EMPLOYMENT

Section 4.01 Restrictions During the Procurement Process

Vendors shall not discuss future employment with Participating Nassau County Employees or their Family Members from the date the procurement is advertised or solicited through 30 days following the date that the procurement is awarded, even if a Participating Nassau County Employee contacts the Vendor regarding employment. Questions regarding whether a particular Nassau County employee is a Participating Nassau County Employee for a specific procurement should be directed to the Designated Point of Contact for the procurement.

Section 4.02 Restrictions Post Award

Vendors are prohibited from offering or discussing an employment opportunity with a Nassau County Employee or his or her Family Members before whom the Vendor has or expects to have a pending specific matter including, but not limited to, negotiations, performance evaluation, task order selection, approval of a voucher or invoice, or approval of or agreement to a contract amendment, change order, or deviation or waiver until:

(i) 30 days from the time the matter before the Employee is closed, or (ii)30 days from the time the Employee has no further involvement with the matter because of recusal or reassignment.

Chapter 5: CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Section 5.01 Financial Interest

Neither the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, as the case may be, may have a 10% or greater interest, nor shall the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, acquire a 10% or greater interest, either directly or indirectly, in any company or firm that would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the Nassau County contract.

The Vendor will not permit an employee having a 10% or greater interest, either directly or indirectly, in any company or firm that would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the Nassau County contract to be employed in the performance of the Nassau County contract.

Section 5.02 Personal Business Dealings

Neither the Vendor, nor any director, officer, principal, owner, or partner thereof, may have a non-County business dealing with a

Participating Nassau County Employee where it can be reasonably inferred that the purpose of the business dealing, at least in part, is to influence the Participating Nassau County Employee's action on a pending County matter.

Section 5.03 Disclosure and Cooperation

The Vendor shall disclose immediately to the County any real or potential conflict of interest of which it becomes aware. This obligation is ongoing and shall last through the completion of performance of the contract. The Vendor shall provide to Nassau County, at the County's request and upon such forms as may be furnished by Nassau County, a disclosure of organizational, financial, contractual or other affiliations with any organization or entity that has interests that may be substantially affected by the procurement solicitation or award. The Vendor shall fully cooperate in any inquiry or investigation undertaken by Nassau County to determine whether any such affiliations present a conflict of interest, or whether any other provision of this Code has been violated. The Vendor shall fully cooperate with audits, investigations, examinations and reviews by the Nassau County Inspector General conducted pursuant to section 187 of the Nassau County Charter.

Section 5.04 Confidential Information

At no time shall any Vendor who obtains confidential or proprietary Nassau County information in the course of doing or seeking to do business with the County disclose any such information to any person not authorized by Nassau County to receive such information or use such information for any personal gain except as necessary to fulfill its contractual obligations to Nassau County.

If the Vendor receives from any source confidential or proprietary Nassau County information prior to the award of a resulting contract and, where applicable, approval by the County Legislature, without the explicit approval of the Designated Point of Contact, the Vendor shall immediately so notify the Designated Point of Contact.

Nassau County confidential or proprietary information includes, but is not limited to, internal cost estimates and proposals submitted by other Vendors.

Section 5.05 Prohibition Regarding Bidding by Participants in Procurement Development

No Vendor who participates in the development of a scope of work, solicitation documents, assessment criteria, contractual instruments or technical specifications may participate as a bidder, sub-bidder, proposer or sub-proposer on that particular procurement or perform any work on that particular procurement or any other procurement that would constitute an organizational conflict of interest or would give that Vendor an unfair advantage over other bidders or proposers on that procurement. This prohibition may be waived in writing by the County Chief Procurement Officer upon a showing of good cause.

Chapter 6: FORMER NASSAU COUNTY EMPLOYEES

Section 6.01 Appearance Before Former Agency-Two Year Bar

Except as provided for in Section 2218(8) of the Nassau County Code of Ethics, the Vendor will not permit a former Nassau County Employee to appear or practice before any Nassau County agency, either prior to award or in the performance of a Nassau County contract, for a period of two years after termination of the Nassau County Employee's services with the County.

Section 6.02 Appearance Before Former Agency-Life Time Bar

Except as provided for in Section 2218(8) of the Nassau County Code of Ethics, the Vendor will not permit a former Nassau County Employee to appear, practice, communicate or otherwise render services before the agency that employed the officer or employee or any other agency of Nassau County, either prior to award or in the performance of an agency's contract in relation to any case, proceeding, application or transaction with respect to which such former officer or employee was directly concerned and in which he or she personally participated, or which was under his or her active consideration during the period of his or her employment. This provision is a lifetime bar on projects that the former Nassau County Employee previously worked on while employed by the County.

Chapter 7: NON-COLLUSION

Section 7.01 Independent Bid Assessment

The Vendor will calculate the price(s) contained in any bid or proposal independently, without collusion, consultation, communication, or agreement with any competing Vendor for the purpose of restricting competition.

Section 7.02 Non-Communication of Bid

Unless otherwise required by law, the price(s) which the Vendor quotes in its bid or proposal will not knowingly be disclosed by the Vendor, directly or indirectly, to any competing Vendor prior to the closing date for bids or proposals.

Section 7.03 Bid Submission

The Vendor will not make any attempt to induce any other individual or entity to submit or not to submit a bid or proposal.

Chapter 8: DISTRIBUTION AND CERTIFICATION

Section 8.01 Distribution of Vendor Code of Ethics and Vendor's Participating Employee Acknowledgements

As a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold of $10,000, the Vendor will be required to distribute copies of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics to all Participating Employees prior to any of those employee's participation in the procurement. The Code may be distributed either in hard copy or electronically as a separate PDF.

Additionally, as a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold, the Vendor will be required to obtain an acknowledgement from each of its Participating Employees ("Participating Employee Acknowledgements") that they have received, read, understand, and will comply with the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics.

The Vendor's responsibility for distributing copies of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics and obtaining such signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements is ongoing until completion of performance of the contract and shall be retained for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County.

Receipt and retention of Participating Employee Acknowledgments by the Vendor shall be subject to audit by Nassau County.

Section 8.02 Vendor Certifications

The vendor by signing the final contract thereby certifies and attests to the following:

(a) The Vendor has been provided with a copy of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics and will comply with all of the provisions of the Code;

(b) All of its Participating Employees during the course of procurement or contract have been provided with a copy of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics prior to any of those employees' participation in the procurement;

(c) All Participating Employees have completed the acknowledgement required by Section 8.01 of this Code;

(d) The Vendor will retain all of the signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County;

(e) The Vendor will continue to distribute the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics, obtain signed Participating Employee Acknowledgements as new Participating Employees are added or changed during the contract period, and retain all of the signed acknowledgements for the same period as the Vendor is required to retain other contract documents in accordance with their contract with the County.

Section 8.03 Subcontractor Certifications

As a condition of being considered for the award of any contract above the County's small purchase threshold, the Vendor will obtain certifications executed by authorized officials from all of its lower tier subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers (as well as from any other subcontractors, subconsultants and suppliers from whom that Vendor is soliciting or has received proposals for work on a Nassau County contract) whose employees have communicated or may communicate with Nassau County Employees. This obligation is ongoing and shall last through the completion of performance of the contract. Receipt and retention of lower tier certifications by the Vendor shall be subject to audit by Nassau County.

Chapter 9: PENALTIES

Section 9.01 Responsibility Determination

For violation of any provision of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics, Nassau County may avail itself of every remedy in law or equity, or as agreed to by parties in any contract, including but not limited to declaring the Vendor non-responsible or in material breach of the contract.

Section 9.02 Civil/Criminal Penalties

Additionally, violation of the Nassau County Vendor Code of Ethics or a provision thereof may subject the Vendor to criminal or civil penalties under State or Federal law.

Chapter 10: REPORTING OBLIGATION

Section 10.01 Reporting Gift Requests

Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 4 above, the Vendor is obligated to immediately report to Nassau County's Inspector General and the County Chief Procurement Officer, any and all requests made to the Vendor by any Nassau County Employee for a Gift.

Section 10.02 Reporting Material Changes

The Vendor is under a continuing obligation to report any change in circumstances that materially affects any prior report to Nassau County to Department of Chief Contracting Officer, including but not limited to disclosure of conflicts of interest and representations made in the Contractor Responsibility Form.

Section 10.03 Reporting Violations and Overpayments

The Vendor is obligated to timely report in writing to Nassau County's Inspector General, in connection with the award, performance or closeout of the Nassau County contract or subcontract, any credible evidence of significant overpayments on the contract or that a principal, employee, agent or subcontractor has committed a violation of law involving fraud, conflict of interest, bribery or gratuities.

Chapter 11: PROHIBITION ON RETALIATION

Section 11.01 Prohibition

To facilitate the reporting obligations under Chapter 10, this code strictly forbids all Vendors and Vendors' Employees from taking any Retaliatory Action against individuals who make such reports.

Re: B90400-05G Building Construction Requirements Contract

Dear Ms. Guerrieri:

As you are aware, the Department received and opened bids for the above-referenced contract on March 10, 2026. While your firm submitted the lowest cost proposal, the Department has concluded that your bid as submitted to the County does not comply with Title 51 of the Nassau County Miscellaneous Laws, accordingly your bid is non-responsive, and the County will be considering the next lowest responsible bidder for award of the contract.

Title 51 defines contractors as one who "employs labor under a construction contract for which an apprenticeship program has been approved by the New York State Commissioner of Labor". Prior to submitting a bid for a construction contract with the County of Nassau the contractor is required to have apprenticeship agreements appropriate for the type and scope of work to be performed.

The Instruction to Bidders stated " At the time of bid submission, the Contractor shall submit, as part of its bid, documents in compliance with Title 51 of the Nassau County Miscellaneous Laws demonstrating participation in approved apprenticeship training programs that are appropriate for the type and scope of work to be performed pursuant to the Contract. Such apprenticeship training programs appropriate for the scope of this Contract shall include, but are not limited to, the following: Carpenters, Laborers, or any other trade appropriate for the type of work proposed. The apprenticeship training programs shall be registered with, and approved by, the New York State Commissioner of Labor in accordance with Article 23 of the New York State Labor Law. Note that if the Contractor does not comply with these requirements, the Commissioner may declare the Contractor's bid proposal non-responsive and award the Contract to the next lowest responsible Bidder."

Your bid as submitted only contains information regarding your participation in an apprenticeship training program for carpenters but not for laborers. You have subsequently informed the Department that you do not participate in an apprenticeship program for laborers.

The Instruction to Bidders clearly identifies the need to participate in apprenticeship programs for laborers and carpenters. Accordingly, your bid has been determined non-responsive for failure to comply with Title 51.

Very truly yours,

Joseph J Pecora P.E.

Re: B90400-05G Building Construction Requirements Contract

Dear Ms. Bharatlall:

As you are aware, the Department received and opened bids for the above-referenced contract on March 10, 2026. We have moved to your bid as the lowest bidder did not comply with certain requirements. While your firm submitted next lowest cost proposal, the Department has concluded that your bid as submitted to the County does not comply with Nassau County Local Law No. 9–2002, accordingly your bid is non-responsive, and the County will be considering the next lowest responsible bidder for award of the contract.

Local Law No. 9-2002 defines contractors as one who "employs labor under a construction contract for which an apprenticeship program has been approved by the New York State Commissioner of Labor". Prior to submitting s bid for a construction contract with the County of Nassau the contractor is required to have apprenticeship agreements appropriate for the type and scope of work to be performed.

The Instruction to Bidders stated "At the time of bid submission, the Contractor shall submit, as part of its bid, documents in compliance with Title 51 of the Nassau County Miscellaneous Laws demonstrating participation in approved apprenticeship training programs that are appropriate for the type and scope of work to be performed pursuant to the Contract. Such apprenticeship training programs appropriate for the scope of this Contract shall include, but are not limited to, the following: Carpenters, Laborers, or any other trade appropriate for the type of work proposed. The apprenticeship training programs shall be registered with, and approved by, the New York State Commissioner of Labor in accordance with Article 23 of the New York State Labor Law. Note that if the Contractor does not comply with these requirements, the Commissioner may declare the Contractor's bid proposal non-responsive and award the Contract to the next lowest responsible Bidder."

At the time your bid was submitted your firm did not participate in an Apprenticeship program for either carpenters or laborers.

The Instruction to Bidders clearly identifies the need to participate in Apprenticeship programs at the time of submission. Accordingly, your bid has been determined non-responsive for failure to comply with Local Law No. 9-2002.

Very truly yours,
