Professional Profile

Ken has over 30 years of construction experience. He has worked as a carpenter since high school and within 5 years was running complex projects as a foreman. Ken started coordinating other trades while acting as a carpenter foreman and was eventually elevated to a project superintendent. He has a strong fundamental knowledge and construction insight and has saved numerous hours of work on several projects, coordinating all the trades to minimize "hits" amongst the trades. His determination and relentless pursuit of excellence has paved the way to the repeated success of completing projects ahead of schedule.

Experience

E&A Restoration Inc., Project Superintendent

Since coming to work for E&A Restoration Inc. in 2004, Ken has handled an increased amount of responsibility on the projects assigned to him. Immediately after finishing this project, where E&A Restoration was the CM, he was hired to work with E&A. During his tenure at Godsell, Ken completed work on several schools which were all completed on time. He also ran all the complex carpentry work, millwork fabrication/installation and wood floor installation at the Cold Spring Harbor Library.

1. By signing and submitting this proposal, the prospective lower tier participant is providing the certification set out below.
2. The certification in this clause is a material representation of fact upon which reliance was placed when this transaction was entered into. If it is later determined that the prospective lower tier participant knowingly rendered an erroneous certification, in addition to other remedies available to the Federal Government, the department or agency with which this transaction originated may pursue available remedies, including suspension and/or debarment.
3. The prospective lower tier participant shall provide immediate written notice to the person to which this proposal is submitted if at any time the prospective lower tier participant learns that its certification was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances.
