CHAIRMAN KOPEL: Okay. Number 66 is an ordinance making SEQRA determinations in respect of an amendment to an agreement with Cornell Cooperative.

Motion by Mr. Drucker, seconded by Mr.

Lafazan.

Anybody here on 66? Mr. Walsh.

MR. WALSH: Good afternoon, legislators. Kevin Walsh from the Office of Real Estate Services.

This agreement is actually an amendment to a license agreement the County has with Cornell Cooperative Extension for the East Meadow Farm on Merrick Avenue.

The amendment achieves two things. First of all, there is a portion of the property, a portion of small property adjacent to the existing site is going to be added to it. It had been the site of a small residential building we got with the open space acquisition. The building had to be raised after it had some fire damage during the pandemic. But now Cornell plans to build a dynamic learning center there so they can further engage the community in the local schools. And they have matching grant from Covanta. Covanta is donating $400,000 and the County will be providing matching grant funds.

Also, the amendment does extend the term for Cornell until 2040 so they can continue to fundraise and continue to provide the wonderful programs to the community.

CHAIRMAN KOPEL: Thank you, Kevin. Any questions for Mr. Walsh? (Whereupon, no verbal
