CASE MANAGEMENT

If you, or older persons you know, are having difficulty functioning independently at home, Case Managers may be able to provide assistance.

Case Managers will:

- Make home visits to evaluate the situation and assess your needs. Their assessment is confidential and comprehensive.
- Develop a care plan identifying services, appropriate providers, and the duration and schedule of service delivery that will meet your needs. This written care plan will be reviewed with you before services begin.
- Investigate all available resources for you. (See Community Programs/Services)
- Monitor service delivery to be sure your needs are met.
- Reassess and modify the care plan when necessary.

IN-HOME AIDE SERVICES

Eligibility for in-home aide services is determined by the Case Manager during the assessment process. This process also includes a financial assessment to determine your share in the cost of these services.
