

Nassau County
Long Island, New York

Nassau County Legislator
Carrié Solages

Presents:

Free Workshops on how to File a Grievance with the Assessment Review Commission

Legislator Solages presents free workshops for residents looking to file a grievance of their assessment with the Assessment Review Commission. Residents in attendance will receive an explanation of the grievance process and step by step instructions on how to file a grievance. All homeowners are able to file a grievance of their tentative assessed home value during the annual filing period.

Valley Stream

Tuesday, February 25th at Gateway Christian Center from 7:00-9:00pm

Thursday, February 27th at Gateway Christian Center from 7:00-9:00pm

Located at 502 N. Central Avenue, Valley Stream

The Period to file a tax grievance was recently given a Grace Period until April 2nd, 2020

(All Applications must be postmarked by April 2nd, 2020)

If you have any questions, please call my office at 516-571-6203