

BRUCE A. BLAKEMAN
NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE

The Friends of Garvies Point Museum and Preserve and Montaukett Tribe of Long Island, New York cordially invite you to attend

NATIVE AMERICAN INDIAN FESTIVAL

- Program Opening 10:00am
- Introduction to Steering Committee
- Grand Entry & Dancing 12:00pm – 2:00pm
- Dancing 3:00pm – 4:00pm
- Closing 4:30pm – 5:00pm

- Drummers • Dancers • Native Foods
- Face-Painting • T-Shirts • Native Arts & Crafts

Saturday, May 21, 2022
10:00am-5:00pm

$10/adult; $5/child 5-12 yrs. includes festival & museum admission.
Feel free to bring a chair, no tents. Rain or shine.

Montaukett Mission Statement: To pursue legal counsel to re-instate the Montaukett Tribe of Long Island, New York. Federal and state Recognition that was illegally taken away. Obtain funds to regain indigenous land including property in perpetuity. Restore cultural heritage through education, lectures, exhibits, and language. Contributions and donations needed for travel with inter-tribal projects. Chief/Trustee: Robert H. Stevenson (Red Feather) Chief/Trustee: Ernestine Thompson (Whistling Redbird)

GARVIES POINT MUSEUM & PRESERVE

50 Barry Drive • Glen Cove • 516-571-8010 • 516-571-8011 • GarviesPointMuseum.com

Museum Admission: $5/adults; $3/children 5-12 years
Regular Museum & Gift Shop Hours: Tuesday—Saturday 10:00am-4:00pm, Preserve Open 7 Days

