Improvements
for the Physically Disabled

BRUCE A. BLAKEMAN
Nassau County Executive

The Home Improvement Property Tax Reduction Program for the Physically Disabled

Section 459 of NYS Real Property Tax Law allows for a property tax reduction for home improvements that serve to facilitate the use and accessibility of a home occupied by a disabled resident.

The tax exemption granted is equal to the amount of any increase in value of property as a result of improvements made for the purpose of facilitating and accommodating the use and accessibility of the property by:

- A resident owner of the property who is physically disabled, or

- A member of the resident owner's household who is physically disabled, if the member of the household resides on the property.
- The exemption applies only to taxes levied by or on behalf of the county, town or school district granting the exemption.
- The exemption does not apply to special district levies.

EXEMPTION DURATION

The Physically Disabled Tax Reduction for Home Improvements Exemption will remain on the property until the disabled individual no longer resides in the home.

QUALIFICATIONS

The improvements to the property must be one which facilitates the disabled person's use of and accessibility to the property. The property must be a one, two, or three-family residence.

Examples of qualifying home improvements under the Home Improvement Property Tax Reduction Program for the Physically Disabled:

The disability must be certified in writing by a physician licensed to practice in New York State or attested to in Section 2 on the New York State Application for Partial Exemption for Real Property of People Who Are Physically Disabled (Form 459-1-95).
