

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM AR 3
APPLICATION FOR CORRECTION OF PROPERTY TAX ASSESSMENT
FOR CLAIMS OTHER THAN, OR IN ADDITION TO VALUATION, INCLUDING MISCLASSIFICATION OR DENIAL OF EXEMPTION

ARC – the Assessment Review Commission – is an independent administrative tribunal dedicated to providing fair and accurate determinations of taxpayers’ requests for review and reduction of assessments.

Homeowners may represent themselves. If you want ARC to review your property’s assessment, complete and file an application for correction either on-line via AROW at www.nassaucountyny.gov/arc/arow or by completing a paper form. Filing online via AROW will allow homeowners to track the status of their application and accept or reject offers online.

File your appeal online in AROW (Assessment Review on the Web) Our online system is very user friendly and allows you to research sales, complete and file your appeal, and track its progress. www.nassaucountyny.gov/arc/arow

Avoid duplicate filings. If you decide to represent yourself, do not sign an authorization for an attorney or other paid representative. If you decide to hire a representative, do not sign authorizations for other representatives or file your own appeal. In a condominium, check with your development’s board before filing your own application.

Checking the Department of Assessment’s records. Before deciding to challenge your assessment, check the information maintained by the Department of Assessment on your property. The Department of Assessment maintains records of the external measurements of your house and lot, photographs, and other information about your property, as well as an estimated value, which is updated annually. You can access this information at www.nassaucountyny.gov/assessment. If the Department of Assessment’s records are in error, or if you have any questions, write or call the Department of Assessment, 240 Old Country Rd. 4th floor, Mineola, NY 11501, 516-571-1500.

Attachments. If you are required or advised to submit copies of documents, in AROW, you may attach word documents, spreadsheets, digital photographs, and scanned images, or you may submit paper copies by mail with a cover sheet that refers to your appeal. Include the tax year and parcel identification number. If your claim relates to an exemption, attach a copy of the application for exemption that you filed with the Department of Assessment and related correspondence. If you claim misclassification, attach a copy of your building's certificate of occupancy and any permit application for work under way or recently completed.

Part A (Required): General Information. General Information. Please complete this part in full to make sure ARC can accurately identify your property.

Section, Block, Lot: These numbers and letters, which identify your property on the county tax maps, appear on your Notice of Tentative Assessed Value from the Department of Assessment and tax bill. In some places they may be shown as one long number; you may list it that way. If you own a Class 1 condominium unit, also include the unit information. If your tax bill lists several lots that are part of a lot grouping, list only the first lot.

Adjacent lots used as part of your own property and included in your answers herein: If your home consists of two or more separately assessed lots, where there are separate tax bills for each lot, list the lot number for the main house on the first line and the other lot numbers on the additional line. Elsewhere on the form, where you provide information about your property or its assessment, you must include the information about all of the lots listed.

Property address: Write the property's house number and street name, town and zip code.

Taxpayer-applicant's name: Write the full name of the individual or entity who owns the property or who is otherwise responsible for payment of the tax and is legally authorized to file with ARC. This is the person who files the application or, if a representative files, who authorizes the filing. Do not put the name of an attorney, agent, officer or employee here.

Other owners' names: List the names of any other owners of record not listed on the previous line.

Form: You must check the appropriate box describing the type of applicant.

Part B (Required): Contact Information and Designation of Representative. Complete this part carefully so that ARC can contact you.

Representative: Check the appropriate choice. Choose "Self" if you are the applicant listed in Part A and want ARC to contact you. If you are filing on behalf of another, check "Representative." You must obtain a current written authorization to sign on behalf of the applicant. Information regarding this authorization (Form AR10) can be found on the ARC website under "Forms"

Part C: Is used for one of the following: C1 is Exemptions, C2 is Property Misclassified, C3 is Other Claims. Check and complete the choices describing your claims. The choices correspond to the grounds for review in the Real Property Tax Law, which are summarized below. If necessary, provide further explanation of your claim in the space provided, or in an attachment, and attach copies of relevant documents.

C1-Exemptions: In order to receive an exemption, you must meet all of the requirements of the law granting the exemption and have filed an application with the Department of Assessment on or before January 2, 2023, prior to the publication of the tentative assessment roll. For more information, contact the Department of Assessment or visit the County's web site: www.nassaucountyny.gov/assessment If you were denied by the Department of Assessment, you may appeal their decision. Check the appropriate type(s) of exemption denied by the Department of Assessment.

C2-Classification. If your property has an incorrect class designation, it is misclassified. There are four classes of property for tax purposes. Class 1: One, two and three family homes, certain Condominium units and vacant land zoned for residential use or adjacent to a home. Class 2: All other primarily residential property, including condominium, rental and cooperative apartments. Class 3: Utility company equipment and special franchises. Class 4: All other property, including commercial, industrial and institutional buildings and nonresidential vacant land

Part D (Required): Statement of Claim and Certification. You must sign the application if you file on paper. If you do not sign, your application is defective. The certification in bold type is required by law and must not be altered.
