

BRUCE A. BLAKEMAN
NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE

NOW HIRING

County Attorney Law Assistants and Deputy County Attorneys

THE QUALIFICATIONS FOR THIS POSITION WOULD BE:

- Juris Doctor (JD) degree and admission to the New York State Bar, or admission pending
- Litigation experience is preferred, particularly in civil rights or government defense
- Handle and defend a caseload of federal and state civil lawsuits
- Eager to take cases to trial and comfortable handling all aspects of litigation, including courtroom appearances and trial advocacy
- Draft pleadings, engage in paper discovery, conduct and defend depositions
- Prepare and argue motions, including summary judgment and pre-answer motions
- Draft internal legal memoranda

HOW TO APPLY:

Email cover letter, resume & salary requirements to jobs@nassaucountyny.gov with LAT/DCA in the subject line.

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

SALARY

County Attorney Law Assistant, Temporary
(Attorney's pending admission to NYS Bar)
Starting Salary: $80,000

Deputy County Attorney
Salary $85,000 to $170,000
(commensurate with experience)

BENEFITS Paid Time Off:

- 13 Paid Holidays
- Vacation Leave: Earn up to 10 days per year
- Personal Leave: Earn up to 5 days per year
- Sick Leave: Earn up to 10 days per year
- Health Insurance
- Dental Insurance
- Vision Insurance

