

NASSAU COUNTY OPEN SPACE AND PARKS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

REMOVAL OF DEED RESTRICTION ON REAL PROPERTY PREVIOUSLY OWNED BY NASSAU COUNTY

NCPC-OSPAC FILE NO: 7-2025

WHEREAS, pursuant to Title 47, Section 1 of the Miscellaneous Laws of Nassau County, the Nassau County Open Space and Parks Advisory Committee (“OSPAC”) was established to provide review, evaluation, and where appropriate, recommendations concerning Nassau County’s (the “County”) open space, parks, and other areas of recreational, cultural, archeological, habitat or historic significance; and

WHEREAS, OSPAC reviews the proposed removal of deed restrictions placed on real property previously owned by the County which has since been sold and makes recommendations to the Nassau County Planning Commission (“NCPC”) with respect thereto regarding the impact that such removal may have on open space, parks, and areas of cultural, archeological, habitat, or historic significance pursuant to Nassau County Administrative Code Section 11-8.0(b); and

WHEREAS, the NASSAU COUNTY ATTORNEY’S OFFICE forwarded to the NCPC a proposal for the removal of a deed restriction placed on real property previously owned by the County, more particularly described as:
