A Message From
Maureen O'Connell
NASSAU COUNTY CLERK

Dear Neighbor,

The Nassau County Clerk is responsible for recording, filing, and maintaining millions of vital documents and public records each year, including business and property ownership records and civil cases filed in Nassau County Court and the State Supreme Court.

My office also maintains and processes notary public licenses, provides veterans with a service that securely files their (DD-214) discharge papers, and serves as an official passport application acceptance center.

What residents often ask me about, however, is how to obtain copies of their vital records, such as birth, death, and marriage licenses. These documents are not kept at the County Clerk's office, they are maintained by the municipality where the event took place. So I have compiled this booklet to assist you in locating the appropriate village, town, or city responsible for maintaining your records. The general rule: Nassau County's three towns and two cities issue marriage licenses, while the towns, cities, and incorporated villages maintain birth and death records.

As County Clerk, my goal is to ensure that this office meets its responsibility as a public service department and provides residents with the services they need in a timely, efficient, and cost-effective manner. It is my hope that you will find this booklet helpful and informative as you track down the documents you need.

Very truly yours,

GUIDE TO OBTAINING VITAL DOCUMENTS

Birth and *Death Certificates

Birth and death certificates are maintained by the Clerk of the municipality where the event took place, not the County Clerk. For example, to obtain a certificate for a birth occurring in Glen Cove, contact the Clerk of the City of Glen Cove. For a list of Nassau County towns, cities, and incorporated villages, see the Community Directory on Page 3.

Marriage Licenses

In Nassau County, the three towns and two cities maintain marriage licenses, so copies are available at the town hall where the license was originally obtained. For example, if a marriage occurred in Glen Cove but the license was issued in the Town of Hempstead, the license would be available from the Clerk of the Town of Hempstead.

Only marriage records filed between 1907 and April 29, 1935 are on file at the Nassau County Clerk's Office.

Divorce Records

Divorce Records are maintained in the Office of the Nassau County Clerk. Only the parties or their attorneys of record (who provide a valid government-issued photo ID) may obtain a copy of a divorce certificate.

Wills and Estates

Probate records, including wills, estates, and administration/small estates, are filed with the Surrogate's Court: (516-493-3800).

Adoption & Guardianship

For information on Adoption and Guardianship records, contact the Surrogate's Court at 516-493-3800. More information may be available at the Adoption Information Registry at the New York State Department of Health Vital Records Section:

http://www.health.ny.gov/vital_records/adoption.htm

Birth, Death, Marriage, and Divorce Certificates may be ordered from New York State Department of Health Vital Records section through VitalChek. (See Page 25 for more information.)*

ORDERING BIRTH, DEATH, MARRIAGE & DIVORCE RECORDS ONLINE

The Vital Records Section of the New York State Department of Health files certificates for births and deaths that occur in New York State outside of New York City and for marriage licenses issued in New York State outside of New York City. Also on file are divorce records for all of New York State since 1963. The Vital Records Section provides qualified applicants with certified copies of the certificates associated with these events.

The New York State Department of Health does not accept credit cards or online orders for vital records. However, for your convenience, you can process online requests through VitalChek Network, Inc., an independent company that the government has partnered with in order to provide this service. VitalChek can be reached either through its website, www.vitalchek.com, or by phone at 1-877-854-4481. An additional fee is charged by VitalChek for using their services—and VitalChek accepts all major credit cards.
